Desk

Inner Conflict
Mark Sullivan recalls the President's professions of neutrality in local politics after lunch with Tammany leader. See Page 9.

The Washington Post

AUG 23 1938

The Weather
Today—Partly cloudy; cooler.
Tomorrow—Fair; slightly rising temperature.
Yesterday—High, 95; low, 74.
Details on Page 22.

NO. 22,708 Entered as Second-Class Matter, Postoffice, Washington, D. C. WASHINGTON: THURSDAY, AUGUST 18, 1938 X* Copyright, 1938, By The Washington Post. THREE CENTS

Schultz Cash Helped Hines Elect Dodge, Dewey Says

State Witness Tells of Visit by Tammany Boss to Racketeer.

Policy Gang Paid $500 Weekly 'Fix'

Tiger Chief's Counsel Hints 'Squealers' Are 'Protecting Selves.'

Special Dispatch to The Post.

New York, Aug. 17.—George Weinberg, principal lieutenant of the murdered Dutch Schultz in running the Harlem policy racket, identified James J. Hines, Tammany district leader, in Supreme Court this afternoon as a man on Schultz's pay roll at $500 a week.

He testified that Hines received $1,000 at a conference with Schultz and two other gangsters, now dead, at Schultz's apartment in March, 1932, in which the Tammany leader promised to protect the gang so far as he could from police interference.

Beyond that, Weinberg testified, Hines was authorized to draw on Schultz at any time for any amount up to $1,000.

Dewey Names Dodge.

District Attorney Thomas E. Dewey, opening his case this morning before Justice Ferdinand Pecora, declared he would prove Hines picked former District Attorney William C. Dodge in 1933 and elected him with the aid of a campaign fund provided by Schultz. Schultz gangsters also aided in the election, Dewey said he would prove, by providing some thousands of floating voters, who "voted all day long, time in and time out."

In selecting Dodge to run for district attorney, Dewey charged, Hines told gangster associates that Dodge would be ideal for the position, since he was "stupid, respectable, and his man."

Stryker Sees "Conspiracy."

Lloyd Paul Stryker, chief counsel for the defense, in his opening address to the jury, declared the whole case against his client was the result of a conspiracy by indicted gangsters to provide the district attorney with an innocent victim, "higher up," and thereby save themselves. The ringleader in this conspiracy, he asserted, was J. Richard (Dixie) Davis, former lawyer for the Schultz mob, who has turned State's evidence and is slated to be Dewey's star witness.

The district attorney, Stryker said, had offered the indicted gangsters "the kind of inducements" which would lead them to give him the testimony he wanted. Stryker assailed charges that former District Attorney Dodge, Magistrate Hulon Capshaw or the late Magistrate Francis J. Erwin had been influenced by Hines or anybody else for the protection of criminals.

Defends Magistrate.

"You will hear the rankest perjury that any jury in this country ever has been asked to listen to," Stryker cried. He denounced charges against Dodge as "base slander."

Charges against Magistrate Capshaw, contained in the bill of particulars added to the Hines indictment, Stryker said, are "wicked and cruel slander." He indicated doubt that the case would ever reach the jury, since the "filth" to be offered in evidence against his client might not attain to the level of legal evidence.

Stryker begged the jurors to study the people's witnesses when

See HINES, Page 7, Column 2.

POST FEATURE PARADE

Hedda Hopper

has been connected with the movies for years as a leading lady. In writing a column on Hollywood, Hedda Hopper proves she has an access into people's homes, conversations and private lives that no one else could possibly get. Today, she lets you in on a few facts about Dick Arlen, Franchot Tone, Greta Garbo and others—on page 16.

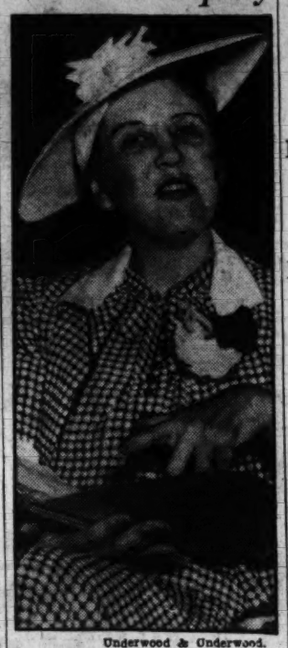
Surprise Witness In Alien Inquiry



Underwood & Underwood.

MRS. MARGARET A. KERR.

Alien Inquiry To Get File on Bridges' Case

Labor Dept. to Give Record on Charge It Aided Coast Leader.

By the Associated Press.

The House Committee on Unamerican Activities, investigating charges that Labor Department officials gave Harry Bridges, West Coast labor leader, "aid and advice," while deportation proceedings were pending against him, received the department's promise yesterday to produce all its files on the case.

Labor Department officials advised the documents would be turned over today.

The committee had waited yesterday afternoon for the files to be delivered, with what members called a "surprise witness" ready to take the stand once they were at hand.

Although committee members would not reveal the name of the surprise witness, they conferred during the day with a Mrs. Margaret A. Kerr, who was in the audience at the hearing. Mrs. Kerr, it was said, is an official of the "Better American Foundation" of Los Angeles.

Meanwhile, the committee heard testimony by Walter S. Steele, chairman of the American Coalition Committee on National Safety, alleging widespread communistic activities in this country, carried on through "front organizations" with "respectable names" but actually "dominated by the Communist Party."

Representative Mason (Democrat), Illinois, a member of the committee, gave the names of eight Government officials who, he said, were members, and, in some cases, officials of one of these "front organizations," the American League for Peace and Democracy.

He named John Carmody and Harry Lamberton, Administrator and Assistant Administrator, respec-

See ALIEN, Page 5, Column 4.

Arab Bomb Kills 2 Britons, Hurts 2

Jerusalem, Aug. 17 (AP).—Two British soldiers were killed and two wounded when Arabs, reverting to the tactics made famous by Lawrence of Arabia, exploded a land mine under a military car traveling between Nablus and Jenin.

Border War Held Tokyo Army Fraud

Incident Magnified to Regain Public Support, Writer Charges.

Loss of Olympic Games Made War-Wearied People Grumble.

International Relations.

Sudeten Germans flatly rejected Czech proposals for "district autonomy." Page 6.

British cabinet members sacrificed vacations to confer on European tension; Halifax was reported ready to quit as foreign minister.

Hull was gratified by world-wide attention to his warning war may be near. Page 26.

Five routes appeared possible for Japanese Hankow drive; Chinese held fronts stationary. Page 6.

Loyalist Spain was uneasy after a Cabinet crisis, but Premier Negrin seemed confident as he left the country on a visit. Page 6.

German troop maneuvers, cause of most of Europe's current worry, reportedly were scheduled to continue to mid-October. Page 4.

Incident a 'Fraud.'

By Relman Morin.
Correspondence of the Associated Press.

Tokyo—Soviet Russian is an eternally convenient "menace" whenever the Japanese militarists want something.

The menace is brought home to the Japanese public in crises on the Siberian border—most of which are artificial.

They seem to coincide, too frequently for accident, with internal conditions in Japan. When the Changkufeng incident (settled by a truce on August 11) splashed across Japanese newspapers the government had just canceled the Olympic games and was in the midst of a retrenchment program that showed, only too well, the financial condition of the nation.

Public Forgot Grievance.

(Japan decided July 14 the 1940 Olympic games would not be held in Tokyo, as scheduled. On July 15 the Tokyo press printed accounts of the new border incident.)

Japanese hearts bled over the loss of the Olympics. But they quickly forgot the loss when every newspaper trained its heavy guns on the Siberian border.

The degree of seriousness with which Japanese officers really consider the border question was reflected, recently, in a statement by one of them:

"The only important explosions up there come from the corks in champagne bottles."

Three "Incidents" a Week.

The border between far eastern Russia and continental Japan generates an average of three "incidents" a week, and has been doing so for the past five or six years. Apparently, neither nation seems to take most of them seriously.

Each claims to have implored the other to co-operate in marking, once and for all, the boundaries that separate Siberia from Korea and Manchukuo.

Each nation maintains armed, mobile forces in the area to prevent the other from seizing strategic points. These troops clash frequently.

It may be that a spark from Russian-Japanese border friction will start a second Russian-Japanese war. If so, it will be only an excuse.

The real reasons for such a war already exist in strategy and economics. Japan would like to remove the menace from the air that exists as long as Vladivostock, 700 miles from Tokyo, is a Russian base.

Halifax, Chamberlain Confer, Fearing Showdown on Czechs

By Joseph Driscoll.
Special Cable to The Post.

London, Aug. 17.—Prime Minister Chamberlain and his foreign secretary, Viscount Halifax, conferred for two hours today at 10 Downing Street over the latest war scare brought on by the Germany army maneuvers and the situation in Czechoslovakia.

Afterwards, the prime minister consulted the chancellor of the exchequer, Sir John Simon, who interrupted a holiday in the country and unexpectedly returned to London on what was vaguely described as "treasury business."

No one would be surprised if other cabinet members were summoned back to London in the near future for an emergency cabinet meeting, to consider what further steps, if any, Britain can take to preserve peace.

The long-feared deadlock in Czechoslovakia appeared about to materialize, as reports reached Whitehall that Konrad Henlein's Sudeten German Party had decided to reject the Prague government's minorities proposals on the ground that the proposals do not furnish a base for further negotiations.

This implied threat was backed up by reports from Berlin that Germany would keep a million men under arms until October and that a fresh muster of reservists will join the colors September 15, which seems to have succeeded August 15 as the "date" when some fear Reichsfuehrer Hitler will move against Czechoslovakia.

The Chamberlain government has adopted a policy of absolute silence about whatever representations it may be making in Berlin and

See LONDON, Page 5, Column 2.

City's Own Trucks Enrolled for Safety

Post Staff Photo.

Walter Miller (left), of the Junior Board of Commerce; E. J. Bunker, District safety inspector, and Commissioner Allen are shown as municipal truck drivers were enrolled in The Post-Junior Board of Commerce safety program.

D. C. Joins Campaign; Driver Indicted; 60th Traffic Victim Dies; Hit-Run Car Critically Injures Woman, 76.

By Howard F. Wentworth.

All trucks operated by the District Government were enrolled yesterday under The Washington Post-Junior Board of Commerce permanent safety banner as a new traffic fatality brought the year's toll to 60 and a colored truck driver was indicted for manslaughter in the death of a 12-year-old boy.

And as the city pressed its current accident prevention plans, the Commissioners' new advisory committee prepared to adopt an "emergency" life-saving program at a meeting scheduled for 3:30 p. m. today. A 16-point agenda for city-wide traffic education and safety promotion will be recommended by a special subcommittee.

Acting in the absence of Commissioner Hazen, Commissioner George Allen joined The Post-Junior Board movement and pledged continuing efforts on the part of municipal truck drivers to reduce accidents. The District operates 606 light and heavy trucks.

Meanwhile, a hit-run driver in the 1000 block Eleventh street southeast struck down Martha Anderson, 76, of 113 Potomac avenue southeast, who was in a critical condition last night in Casualty Hospital. She had a broken arm and leg.

Police traced the accident auto to a Fort George Meade, Md., soldier, but learned that the car's

See TRAFFIC, Page 7, Column 1.

Roosevelt Off To Ontario for Two Speeches

May Boost Joint Development of St. Lawrence; Will Get Degree.

By the Associated Press.

Aboard Roosevelt Train, En Route to Kingston, Ontario, Aug. 17.—President Roosevelt journeyed toward Canada tonight to receive a university degree, dedicate a bridge and make two speeches, in one of which he may boost joint United States-Canadian development of the St. Lawrence River.

Some persons on the Presidential special speculated that Mr. Roosevelt might, while dedicating an international bridge across the St. Lawrence River tomorrow afternoon, comment on friendly relations between nations and reaffirm the United States' policy of the "good neighbor."

Some believed, too, that he might use the opportunity to praise the project he has long favored of co-operative development of the St. Lawrence by this country and Canada—a development utilizing the vast resources of the river for generating power and expanding navigation.

The bridge speech will be the second of the day. Before noon the President will make an address at Kingston, Ontario, where he is to receive a degree from Queen's University.

He will return to this country late tomorrow and entrain for his home at Hyde Park, N. Y.

Wallace Seeks Aid of Canada On Wheat Sale

Co-operation on Export to Be Sought; 'Dumping' Abroad Hinted.

Co-operation with Canada in a subsidized wheat export program that would remove 100,000,000 bushels of this country's towering surplus and assure both countries a fair share of the world market, was sought yesterday by Secretary of Agriculture Wallace.

Asked if he wouldn't be accused of "dumping" abroad, Wallace grinned broadly:

"Well, we wouldn't engage in it any more actively than Canada," he said, then added: "At the present time."

Wallace said negotiations would be opened with Canada, after a definite understanding is reached with the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, the Treasury and the State Department on a program that would not seriously interfere with reciprocal trade policies.

Canada already has announced a subsidy program, guaranteeing its farmers 80 cents a bushel on the 1938 crop.

Wallace suggested this Government "can work co-operatively with Canada on this matter to preserve the interests of both countries" and said "we hope to have something to announce within a week."

Faced with a near record 956,000,000 bushel wheat crop, a heavy

See WALLACE, Page 7, Column 4.

Soap Tossed in Fun Kills Boy in Camp Of D. C. Police Club

Special Dispatch to The Post.

Scotland, Md., Aug. 17.—Struck on the neck by a cake of soap thrown by another boy, 14-year-old Edward Sampson was killed today at the Metropolitan Police Boys' Club summer camp near there.

The boy, who lived at 495 I street southwest, was pronounced dead at the Leonardtown Hospital.

According to Assistant Camp Director F. L. Binswanger, the Sampson boy and four others were playing in one of the camp cabins. One of the boys playfully hurled a cake of soap. The soap struck young Sampson in the neck.

Drs. F. F. Greenwell and A. C. Welch said the boy died from a spasm of the larynx, that death was accidental and no charges would be brought.

2 Youths Sought In Sanford Death Held in Richmond

Two youths sought as companions of George E. Sanford, 20-year-old milk truck helper, who was shot to death early Saturday morning, were arrested last night in Richmond, police here said.

Another youth whom police believe was connected with Sanford's mysterious death is now held on an open charge. He has steadfastly denied any complicity.

Sanford was brought into Children's Hospital about 3 a. m. Saturday and was pronounced dead from a gunshot wound in the chest. He was carried to the operating table by two companions, one of whom was shot through the hand. The two immediately left the hospital and escaped in an automobile driven by a fourth man.

New Dealer Berle Doubts Trust Ideas

Roosevelt Adviser Says Little Business Isn't Always Humane.

Submits Memorandum to Congress; Differs With Jackson.

Adolph A. Berle, jr., Assistant Secretary of State and long a member of the White House brain trust, has assailed individuals, labor unions, financial institutions, Federal agencies and economic theories, in a private memorandum to the Congressional committee investigating monopolies, it was learned yesterday.

Asked by Inquisitors.

Berle took issue with all sorts of rigid economic conceptions. The ideas of other so-called braintrusters, legislators and high Administration officials are questioned and rebuffed in Berle's 23-page memorandum.

The memorandum was prepared at the request of several members of the monopoly investigating group. It was designed to be confidential. Particular interest lies in the document because Berle has long been in the President's confidence in economic matters, although here he challenges some ideas which have been expressed by Mr. Roosevelt himself.

Conflicts With Jackson.

As if in direct conflict with some of the principles expressed by Solicitor General Robert H. Jackson, the Berle memorandum denies that small business is necessarily competitive or humane and ponders whether the competitive textile industry is better than the steel industry. Moreover, he wonders if some of the old village groceries were not monopolies which met their first competition from chain stores.

The 60-family economic control theory, advertised by Jackson and Secretary of the Interior Ickes is belittled by Berle, who thinks the concentration of economic power "has nothing whatever to do with the private fortunes of individuals."

Attack also was made on one angle of the undistributed corporate surplus tax, initiated by another brain truster, Herman Oliphant, general counsel of the Treasury, and indorsed by Mr. Roosevelt.

Berle said the tax would accomplish the opposite of its purpose by decreeing that "no small business could grow up to a point where it could give its larger competitors any real battle."

Berle criticized as short-sighted the emphasis of labor unions upon hourly wage minimums and said labor would be much better off with an annual income standard and permanency of jobs.

Cartels May Be Better.

He pointed out dangers in Government regulation and paid his respect to the "decay of the Interstate Commerce Commission" as an illustration of Government boards making regulations without assuming responsibility for the results. He warned that "a Harry Daugherty running the Securities and Exchange Commission as at present constituted, or a Whitney running the Federal Reserve Bank could create a series of interests which would take years to dislodge."

As for the chairman of the monopoly investigating committee, Senator Joseph C. O'Mahoney, Berle said his bill for Federal license of corporations is interesting "but unless the reasons for the control and the result to be achieved is accurately arrived at, it means very little." He added that "a fair criticism of the technique of the New

See MONOPOLY, Page 5, Column 1.

Lightning Fells 8 Here as Storm Halts Heat Wave

Armstrong Wins His Third Title

Henry Armstrong, busy Los Angeles colored fighter, last night won a unanimous but unpopular 15-round decision over Lightweight Champion Lou Ambers at Madison Square Garden to become the first fighter in the history of the ring to hold three world titles simultaneously.

ARMSTRONG.

Armstrong adds the lightweight crown to his collection, which already included the welterweight, won from Barney Ross, and the featherweight, won from Petey Sarron.

For details, turn to first sports page.

Tydings to Win Despite Purge, Radcliffe Says

Md. Senator May Ignore President's Attack in Speech Tonight.

By Robert C. Albright.

Senator Radcliffe, of Maryland, personal friend of the President and a New Dealer, last night predicted the nomination and re-election of Senator Tydings in the face of President Roosevelt's flat demand for his defeat.

Though manager of Tydings' campaign, Radcliffe declined to comment directly on the President's public "repudiation" of his colleague.

He said merely:

"I think Senator Tydings' chances are very favorable and I expect him to be nominated and re-elected."

It was possible Tydings might ignore the President's rebuke in in a campaign speech tonight at the Salisbury, Md., courthouse. He has remained silent since the President's attack, and his Baltimore headquarters announced only that he "had no statement to make."

Not so his New Deal opponent, Representative David J. Lewis, who followed President Roosevelt's thrust with a demand that Tydings "resign from the Democratic Party and run as a Republican."

"Let him call a spade a spade," said Lewis in Baltimore last night. "Let him be frank and aboveboard.

See TYDINGS, Page 4, Column 6.

Elliott Roosevelt Chain Joins M.B.S.

New York, Aug. 17 (AP).—The Mutual Broadcasting System announced tonight Elliott Roosevelt, son of the president, had organized 23 Texas radio stations into a network to be affiliated with the M. B. S. on September 15. The system said Roosevelt is president of the Texas State Network, Inc.

Ex-Boxer, Held for Slaying His Wife, Attends Her Funeral

By the United Press.

Williamsburg, Kans., Aug. 17.—Dr. William E. Lamance, 34-year-old osteopath and former prize-fighter, who once fought as Billy the Kid Lamance, looked down today with tearless eyes at the burial of his wife, then faced charges of having beaten her to death.

Lamance had to be taken back immediately by a sheriff's guard to Laclede, Mo., where he had been charged with first degree murder. Laclede is the old home of Gen. John J. Pershing.

Lamance had a brief but spectacular career in athletics, winning the Illinois Y. M. C. A. championship and later boxing in New York rings until he was knocked out by Joe (Iron Horse) Sturino at the Queensboro Arena in September, 1927.

He had made a wager with his father, the Rev. William Lamance, of Manitou, Colo., that he would retire if he lost the bout, and he did.

He took up osteopathy and went to Missouri to live.

His wife's disappearance was reported a week ago, and last Monday Sheriff Max Brown found the dead woman in the cellar.

At a coroner's jury yesterday, Mrs. Nell Savage, a neighbor, testified that Mrs. Lamance had complained to her that she feared the rages of her ordinarily mild-mannered husband when he was intoxicated, and added: "If I had the nerve, I would leave."

Mrs. Lamance, 29, the former Ella McCurdy of this town, apparently died from a clot on the brain, but officials at Laclede said a conclusive report on the cause of her death could not be obtained until the vital organs had been analyzed in Kansas City.

Baker, Redskins' Coach, Hit While Practicing at Ballston.

Windows Broken At Police Bureau

Boy Hospitalized, Girl Knocked Unconscious; 5 Others Struck.

Lightning, which blazed through torrential rain and hail yesterday, felled Assistant Coach Roy Baker of the Washington Redskins, sent seven children to Casualty Hospital with severe shocks and burns and shattered several trees, toppling them on automobiles.

High winds accompanying the .86-inch rainstorm blasted out windows in various sections of the city and denuded light poles of lamps. Cellars were flooded by rain and electric wires were torn down.

A second sudden downpour which came up at the height of the final "Sunset Symphony" at the Potomac Watergate last night sent 15,000 unprotected spectators scurrying for buses, taxis and automobiles. Traffic in the vicinity was almost hopelessly snarled for nearly an hour.

Spectators had sat defiantly in the face of threatening rain and a near-panic seized them when it swept down on the crowded concrete seats. No one was reported injured in the mad scramble for cover.

Strikes Near Marshall.

Before the storm broke the back of the heat wave, several persons were prostrated. Two of these were District employes who collapsed at their work before the building was closed and workers sent out to fry in the streets rather than roast indoors.

Baker was struck down while in the showers at the Redskins' practice field at Ballston, Va., after practice had been called off on account of the storm. He was not injured.

The field was struck three times, one bolt ripping into the concession stand in which George Preston Marshall, team owner, and many others had taken refuge. Several were shaken up but none was hurt.

The cloudburst, during which more than half of the .86 inch of rain fell in five minutes, drove the soaring mercury down 21 degrees in two hours. Raging winds took window panes from the fourth and fifth stories of police headquarters and scattered glass in the streets 150 feet away.

Girl Stunned While Phoning.

Two parked automobiles were damaged by fallen trees. A car owned by Bert Treynor, of 507 E street northeast, was crushed when a tree before his home was struck by lightning. Another toppling tree, struck by lightning, landed on an automobile at Ninth and A streets northeast. Other trees were reported down in the 1800 block Lamont street northwest.

The first victim of lightning was Norma Yates, 15, of Baltimore, who was knocked unconscious and thrown across the room in the home of a friend at 424 East Capitol street, when a bolt struck the house next door. Taken to Casualty Hospital, she was revived and later released.

Five Girls Stunned.

William F. Welland, 14, 323 Ninth street southeast, was admitted to Casualty Hospital last night suffering from lightning shock after being struck in front of 314 Ninth street. His condition is undetermined.

At about the same time, lightning struck a tree at 1312 Delaware aveue southwest with such force that five small colored girls seeking shelter from the rain were knocked unconscious. They were Estelle Gibson, 13, before whose home they had been playing; Anna May White, 13, 1200 Third street southwest; Louise Walker, 13, 1328 Delaware

See WEATHER, Page 7, Column 5.

Today's Index

	Pages.
Amusements	16
Classified Ads	23, 24
Comics	25
Crossword	22
Editorials	8
Federal Diary	9
Financial	20, 21
Walter Lippmann	9
Over the Coffee	15
Pegler	9
Pictures	10
Radio	22
Society	12, 13
Sports	17, 18, 19
Mark Sullivan	9
Woman's Page	11

'Purge' Is End Of Democracy, George Asserts

Senator Again Retorts to President's Backing of Opponent.

By the United Press.

Eastman, Ga., Aug. 17.—Senator George, fighting against President Roosevelt's effort to "purge" him from the Democratic Party, contended today the United States would cease to be a democracy "when the President selects" members of Congress.

The senior Senator from Georgia again spoke bluntly in reply to Mr. Roosevelt's recent plea in Barnesville that Georgia Democrats replace George with U. S. District Attorney Lawrence Camp.

"When the President of the United States selects your Senator and your Congressmen, this will not be a democracy," George stated. "It may be some sort of imperial government; it may be some type of concentrated form of government, but it will not be a democracy, because in a democracy the people elect their own officials."

George added that "the President of the United States has no right, under the Constitution of the United States . . . to say to the people of any State, save his own, who he wants to come to Washington to serve in the House or the Senate."

Mr. Roosevelt told the Barnesville crowd he and George did not speak the same language—that George was opposed to liberal legislation.

To this George answered:

"And if the President of the United States, for whom I have campaigned in two campaigns; and if the President of the United States, whom I have defended—defended privately and on the stump, if the President of the United States wishes to say he has the right to recommend, or to say even, who shall be chosen as Senator from Georgia, or any other States, of which he is not a citizen; I say, and I want to make it very plain, that I do not speak that language . . .

"I do not speak the language of Tommy Corcoran or Benny Cohen, those Wall street lawyers . . .

"I speak the language of Thomas Jefferson, the founder of the Democratic Party . . . who said the best governed people on earth were the least governed people . . . who said that whenever you begin to plant and reap on orders from Washington, the Nation would then want bread."

George pleaded that Georgia Democrats not vote against him because "Tommy Corcoran and Benny Cohen and Marvin McIntyre, or any other group of extreme left-wingers in this country, has commanded us to say yes on election day."

Corcoran and Cohen are attorneys of the New Deal inner council. McIntyre is secretary to the President.

Nomination in the Georgia Democratic primary, September 14, is tantamount to election. Other senatorial candidates are former Gov. Eugene Talmadge, rabid anti-New Dealer, and William G. McRae, Atlanta attorney.

Roosevelt Names 8 for Committee On Aeronautics

By the Associated Press.

President Roosevelt named eight members of the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics yesterday.

Four are reappointments. They are Chairman Joseph Sweetman Ames, president of Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore; Dr. Orville Wright, Dayton, Ohio; Col. Charles A. Lindbergh, and Edward Pearson Warner, West Hollywood, Calif.

Newly appointed were Vannevar Bush, dean of engineering of Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Cambridge, Mass., and president-elect of the Carnegie Institution of Washington; Jerome C. Hunsaker, head of the department of aeronautics at M. I. T.; Clinton B. Hester, administrator of the newly created Civil Aeronautics Authority, and Edward J. Noble, chairman of the authority.

Annual Sail Planned By Bar Association

Members of the Federal Bar Association will take their annual cruise next Wednesday on the City of Washington, which will leave the Wilson Line wharf at 8:30 p. m. President Robert E. Freer has appointed John T. Vance, law librarian of the Congressional Library, and Maj. Wallace Streater to arrange entertainment.

Tickets may be obtained from any officer of the association or from Herbert H. Rice.

U. S. Officials Postpone Alaska Air Inspection

Seattle, Aug. 17 (AP).—Louis Johnson, Assistant Secretary of War, and J. Monroe Johnson, Assistant Secretary of Commerce, postponed until tomorrow the start of an Alaskan aerial inspection trip because of unfavorable weather.

Grin and Bear It — By Lichty

"I'll have an extra dessert instead of my fortune!"

Not all of the women in Hollywood who make big money are in bright lights. Many are back stage writing scripts, directing and managing. To know more about women's place in the Hollywood sun—read Lucille Neville's article in section VI of Sunday's Post.

2 Stores to Quit Saying Silk, Satin For Other Cloths

By the Associated Press.

Two New York department stores, R. H. Macy & Co., Inc., and Arnold, Constable & Co., Inc., have entered into stipulations with the Federal Trade Commission to discontinue "certain misrepresentations in advertising women's wearing apparel."

The commission announced that the Macy firm had agreed not to use the word "silk" or "other silk-connoting terms" in advertisements to describe products not composed of silk.

Arnold, Constable agreed not to use in advertising matter or on labels the words "crepe," "chiffon," and "satin," alone or with other words, as descriptive of garments not composed of silk, or to describe products made of rayon.

Capital Dahlia Society Plans Regional Show

The National Capital Dahlia Society will hold its regional dahlia show September 24 and 25 at the John Burroughs School, Eighteenth and Monroe streets northeast. The annual show which attracts exhibitors from all sections of the Atlantic coast, has become one of the country's largest dahlia exhibits.

About 3,000 attended last year's show. No admission is charged. The show will coincide this year with the twelfth annual President's Cup Regatta.

Empire Oil Trustees Ask Tax Redetermining

By the Associated Press.

Trustees of the Empire Refining Co., which had headquarters at Bartlesville, Okla., before it was dissolved October 18, 1937, asked the Board of Tax Appeals today to redetermine an alleged deficiency of $116,874 in its income and excess profits taxes for 1934.

Federation Chief Asks Billion and Half for Farmers

Greenville, N. C., Aug. 17 (AP).—Edward A. O'Neal, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation, told North Carolina farmers today that the Federal Government should spend $1,500,000,000 annually to raise farm income.

"If the actual cost of the American protective system could be figured out, it would run to about $3,000,000,000 annually, and the farmers pay the big share of it," said O'Neil. "I believe the only fair thing for the Government to do is to reimburse the farmers for what an artificially maintained industrial price level costs them.

Denver AMA Unit Backs Health Plan

Denver, Aug. 17 (AP).—The Denver County Medical Society voted last night to establish an independent medical service plan to provide medical care to low-income families under group prepayment methods.

The society is a unit of the American Medical Association. The plan is similar to one vigorously resisted in Washington, D. C., by the American Medical Association.

Announcing the Denver society's decision, Dr. W. W. Haggart, president, said the subscriber would have a free choice of his own physician.

Horton Heads Section Of U. S. Maritime Body

Robert W. Horton, Washington correspondent of The New York World-Telegram, was appointed chief of the section of information of the United States Maritime Commission yesterday. He succeeds Harry R. Stringer.

Purge Speech Fails to Shake Tydings' Calm

Senator Lets Roosevelt's Attack Sink In on Farmers.

By Edward T. Folliard
A Staff Correspondent.

Baltimore, Aug. 17.—The headquarters of Senator Tydings, located in the Lord Baltimore Hotel, was remarkably serene today. Campaign workers said that, from all they could learn, President Roosevelt's attack on Tydings as a political Judas had not hurt him, and might very well have helped him.

Marylanders, they pointed out, are a clannish lot proud that theirs is called the "Free State," and likely to resent outside interference in their politics, even when that interference comes from a magnetic and popular figure like President Roosevelt.

They pointed out further that Representative Lewis, New Dealer of Cumberland, who seeks Tydings' seat, sensed that attitude when, in announcing his candidacy on June 11, he said, "I am quite capable of running my own campaign, which is going to be by, with and for Marylanders."

Lewis is "Glad."

Today, however, Lewis issued a jubilent statement saying he was "glad" that President Roosevelt had blasted Tydings and suggesting that Tydings "come out in his true colors as a Tory Republican."

Senator Tydings himself remained silent on the President's action in describing him as a "betrayer" of the New Deal. He was campaigning at Cecilton on the Eastern Shore, and, when asked about his reaction to the news from Washington, said:

"I have no comment to make at this time."

He is scheduled to make a speech in Salisbury tomorrow, but his associates here say he is not expected to mention the President's entrance into the fight.

Answer Likely Friday.

The chances are that Tydings will answer President Roosevelt in a statement or radio speech on Friday. He is pledged in his campaign "not to pull any punches."

His strategy at present would appear to be to give President Roosevelt's attack on him plenty of time to sink in, particularly among the farmers, many of whom depend on weekly papers for their news.

Senator Tydings plans to go to the Timonium Fair Grounds on Saturday, and to Chapel Point, in Charles County, on Sunday afternoon. He is scheduled to address a gathering of farmers at the Potomac River resort at 2 p. m.

Reports were current here today that New Dealers behind Representative Lewis are determined to oust United States Marshal August Klecka, of Baltimore, for his failure to get abroad the Lewis bandwagon. Klecka announced on August 11 that he would support Tydings, who recommended him for his job.

Gov. Miller Wins Renomination

Cheyenne, Wyo., Aug. 17 (AP).—Gov. Leslie A. Miller was assured of renomination today. Returns from 350 of the State's 683 precincts gave him 9,697 votes to 3,985 for Gus Engelking, rancher, in yesterday's Democratic primary.

Representative Paul R. Greever, Wyoming's only Congressman, was unopposed on the Democratic ticket.

Greever's Republican opponent probably will be Frank O. Horton, national committeeman and personal friend of Herbert Hoover. He led Alonzo M. Clark, of Cheyenne.

Kentucky 'Colonel' Supports Berry in TVA Investigation

Senator's Former Associate Denies He Said Marble Claims Would 'Ruin' President, but Adds He Did Not Hope to Collect on Them.

By the Associated Press.

Knoxville, Tenn., Aug. 17.—George Collins, of Frankfort, Ky., race horse owner and Kentucky "colonel," denied today he told an associate in 1936 that settlement of the Berry Marble claims would "ruin" Senator Berry (Democrat), of Tennessee, and "also the President just before election."

Collins told a Congressional investigation committee "we were never at a point where it looked like a settlement" for damages to mineral and marble holdings flooded by the TVA's Norris Dam.

Holdings Held Worthless.

Corroborating Senator Berry's testimony yesterday that there was no fraudulent intent in the damage claims, the witness declared he and his associates—Berry, W. H. Ford, of Norwood, Ohio, and C. A. Harris, of Fountain City, Tenn.—sought conciliation.

TVA directors David E. Lilienthal and Harcourt A. Morgan agreed in 1936 to conciliate the Berry claims. The TVA later withdrew from the agreement and filed suit to condemn the holdings. A Federal commission ruled they were "commercially worthless."

W. H. Ford previously had told the committee Collins said there would be "an early settlement with the TVA very soon;" that Dr. A. E. Morgan would soon be out "and that Berry could handle Lilienthal and Lilienthal could handle H. A. Morgan."

Ford also quoted Collins as saying "Berry could make a settlement, but that he (Collins) would not let him because it would ruin Maj. Berry and also the President just before election."

Collins flatly denied the statements, given by Ford in an affidavit to Dr. Arthur Morgan, ousted TVA chairman, last May.

Earlier, Fred Manley, Knoxville architect and engineer for the Berry interests, denied he wrote Ford in 1933 that Berry expected to get a settlement of the claims.

The portion of the letter referred to said: "I have a letter from him (Berry), however, stating that he hoped to get a definite settlement of the matter soon, and now that the Tennessee Valley and the public works bills have both passed there should be something started."

Manley said this referred to his own employment and not to marble claims or leases.

Committee Counsel Francis Biddle and Representative Charles Wolverton (Republican), of New Jersey, put Manley through a stiff cross-examination regarding unsigned letters he sent Ford.

Politics Charged.

Biddle said Manley wrote Ford "to get J. W. Cooper, of Knoxville (former head of the TVA land acquisition department), to admit he said his appointment was due to Representative J. Will Taylor (Republican), of Tennessee."

"Why did you say that?"

Manley said Dr. Arthur Morgan had said there was "no politics" in TVA "so this was convenient to remember—it possibly could be used."

"You also wrote," said Biddle, "that Cooper 'made some very foolish statements and if you and your friends could get together and remember them they might be beneficial.' What did you intend to do with this?"

"We could tell it to the TVA land acquisition department," Manley replied. "I didn't know just how to use it."

"It might make them, well, let us say a bit more sympathetic about the claims?" asked Biddle.

"Yes, maybe," Manley answered.

Andrews to Hold Parley Tomorrow On Textile Wages

By the United Press.

Wage-Hour Administrator Elmer F. Andrews last night shifted the New Deal's machinery to put a floor under wages and a ceiling over hours into high gear by summoning representatives of the textile industry, labor and the public to a conference here tomorrow morning.

Andrews scheduled his first industry conference for textiles, which employs 600,000 persons, as he plunged into the second day of work in the key Federal post.

Victorious Barkley Sails on Europe Trip

New York, Aug. 17 (AP).—Senator Barkley, majority leader and recently a victor over Gov. Chandler in the Kentucky Democratic primaries for renomination, sailed for Europe on the Normandie today, predicting "an ample majority of New Deal Democrats in both houses."

Alabama Denies Pardon Plea of 2 Scottsboro Boys

Montgomery, Ala., Aug. 17 (AP).—The Alabama board of pardons today denied pleas for freedom by two of the "Scottsboro boys."

The applications of Ozie Powell and Heywood Patterson were "unanimously" refused, while the board said those of Charlie Weems, Andy Wright and Clarence Norris were "prematurely before it."

The "Scottsboro case" grew out of an alleged criminal attack on two young white women by nine colored men aboard a moving freight train near Scottsboro, Ala., in 1931. Four of the defendants were freed a year ago.

SPECIAL NOTICES

BIGGER PAY STEP ... UP TO SECRETARIES AND ACCOUNTANTS

Earn Real Money and are in demand

Start NOW to make MORE MONEY. Learn more—be a REAL Secretary or ACCOUNTANT—Opportunities are here. Beginners and Review Courses Starting Now. Inquire. New classes now starting.

BOYD SCHOOL 1333 F St. Est. 20 Yrs.

Hickey-Freeman CUSTOMIZED CLOTHES

Fine Imported
LINEN SUITS

The coolest and crispest of all summer suits—Linen. Our fine imported ones that are tops now drastically reduced!

~~$25~~ now $15.75

Goldheim's
1409 H Street

Spray of Flowers
Express your sympathy with a spray of beautiful flowers, expertly assembled and designed by a competent florist.
PROMPT DELIVERY
$2.00 UP
C & C Flower Stores
808 14th St. N.W. MEt. 7433
928 F St. N.W. MEt. 7404
804 17th St. N.W. MEt. 7945
609 12th St. N.W. MEt. 9369

Stop Off at THE PARK CO. early this morning
(Between I and K Sts.)

We need the space for a Fall suit and topcoat sale, to be announced soon, so we are cleaning house.

Any WASH SUIT in the House
These were all made to sell for more.
13.75 New Orleans SEERSUCKERS
17.75 WHITE PALM BEACH
16.50 WHITES
13.75 IRISH LINENS

ALL ONE PRICE
Not every size in every fabric, but nearly all sizes.

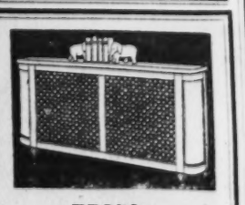
$6.00

SAM MELNICOVE will be here bright and early to wait on you. He gets down at 7:30 A. M.

THE PARK CO.
913 15th Street Between I and K

Post Advertising Brings Results!

AUGUST SALE
FIREPLACE EQUIPMENT
Choice of 200 Designs 20% to 50% Off
ME. 1134
D. L. BROMWELL, Inc.
723 12th St. N.W.
ESTABLISHED 1873



TRICO
Radiator Covers
complete the beauty of well-furnished and decorated rooms, prevent radiator smudge and provide proper humidity. Reasonable prices—convenient terms.
Estimates Without Obligation.
FREDERIC B. BLACKBURN
5627 Georgia Ave. N.W.
Phone GEorgia 5627

MORE HOT WEATHER Ahead!

WHEN PEOPLE RETURN FROM VACATIONS THEY SUFFER MOST FROM WASHINGTON HEAT

LET us air condition your store or shop now. There are still many weeks of hot weather ahead. September is a big shopping month and as a rule a hot month. Shoppers home from vacations will seek out the air conditioned store and restaurants.

It takes but one day to install the low-cost Chrysler Airtemp Air Conditioning System

LOW MONTHLY PAYMENTS

Chrysler's Airtempt Air Conditioning Equipment Sold and Installed by Griffith-Consumers Company.

CHRYSLER'S AIRTEMP
MODERN AIR CONDITIONING SYSTEMS

Summer Comfort Is Inexpensive With Pepco Low Rates

GRIFFITH-CONSUMERS COMPANY
1413 New York Avenue N.W. · MEtropolitan 4840

OLD DRUM'S THE BRAND THAT'S SWEEPING THE LAND!

This month's miniature Gold Drum is awarded to the originator of the "drive" style of drumming—the great Gene Krupa. Recognized as one of the foremost swing drummers, Mr. Krupa is particularly known for his sensational smashing rhythms on the jungle drums.

IT'S THE TASTE SENSATION ACROSS THE NATION!

In cocktails, highballs, or straight—Old Drum is truly "a tasty treat that can't be beat."

FOR MELLOW BOUQUET IT'S THE HIT OF THE DAY!

Thousands call Old Drum one of the smoothest whiskies they've ever tried. Taste this splendid blended whiskey today—and trust your taste!

OLD DRUM BRAND • Blended Whiskey
A CALVERT PRODUCT
90 Proof—75% Grain Neutral Spirits. Copr. 1938 Calvert Distillers Corp., Distilleries: Baltimore, Md., and Louisville, Ky., Executive Offices: Chrysler Bldg., N. Y. C.

Coat and Quilt Spur Hunt for Torso Slayer

'Mad Butcher' of Cleveland Has Become Careless, Police Believe.

By the United Press.

Cleveland, Aug. 17.—Police hope of identifying the "Mad Butcher of Kingsbury Run" was bolstered tonight by five meager clews, found with the dissected bodies of the killer's thirteenth and fourteenth victims.

The clews—a ragged blue coat, a patchwork quilt, a cracker box, a frozen-fish container and a sugar sack, apparently blood-stained—spurred investigators to their greatest hope of success in four years of hunting the cunning madman.

The decapitated bodies of the killer's latest victoms—decomposed so badly that chances of identification were remote—were found buried under rocks in a dump on the Lake Erie waterfront, a quarter-mile from downtown Cleveland.

Carelessness Indicated.

Discovery of the heads of the victims, the first believed by Coroner S. R. Gerber to be a white woman, about 35, and the second a man, possibly colored, led police to suggest the butcher has changed his tactics—perhaps become more careless.

In six other cases, the heads of victims never have been found.

Tonight's clews, though meager, were the strongest yet uncovered. Police hoped to identify the latest women victim by fingerprints, the man by his disfigured nose.

Coroner Gerber said the condition of the woman's body indicated that it might have been hidden—possibly in a refrigerator—for some months before it was buried.

"Portions of it were dry and hard, as if preserved, and looked as if they might have been kept in a refrigerator," he said. "Also, the boxes that contained her body positively could not have looked as new as they did after four months' exposure to the weather."

The man's body probably was in the dump for eight months, Gerber said.

A Font Is a Font to This Pigeon on a Hot Day

Post Staff Photo

This thirsty pigeon walked—not flew—up one flight of stairs in The Post Building and then flew to a wash basin for a drink. He is shown on his perch as he satisfied his thirst.

Dodge Son's Wife To Get $1,500,000 From His Estate

Detroit, Aug. 17 (AP).—Probate Court authorities estimated today the young widow of Daniel G. Dodge would receive at least $1,500,000 from the estate of her husband, who drowned in Ontario Monday after he was injured by a dynamite explosion.

Thomas Jacques, register of probate for Wayne County, said that under certain circumstances she might eventually inherit at least $5,000,000 more from the estate of John F. Dodge, her husband's father.

Under the will of John F. Dodge, motor magnate, Daniel Dodge received a life income from a trust fund, the accumulated income to be given him when he reached the age of 25. That accumulated income now is in excess of $9,000,000. In addition, he received $1,000,000 from his father's estate when he reached the age of 21 recently.

Littl Current, Ont., Aug. 17 (Canadian Press).—Driving wind and rain today forced a temporary halt in dragging of the channel where Daniel G. Dodge, motors heir, disappeared Monday.

Planes flew over the channel and six fishing boats dragged the 90-foot-deep waters with weighted seines until adverse weather set in.

Corrigan Is Invited To Solve N. C. Mystery

Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 17 (AP).—Gov. Clyde R. Hoey suggested today to Douglas (Wrong Way) Corrigan that he might be able to solve the mystery of Sir Walter Raleigh's "lost colony" on Roanoke Island, which, he said, "perhaps had compass trouble similar to yours."

He telegraphed the transatlantic flier an invitation to Roanoke Island and nearby Kitty Hawk, where the Wrights first learned to fly.

Edward Bishop Is Indicted for Wife's Murder

Postoffice Collection Carrier to Face Trial for Delaying 2 Letters.

The "hammer slaying" of his wife, Jennie Stephens Bishop, 27, was charged to Edward B. Bishop, 35, by the District grand jury yesterday in an indictment of first-degree murder.

According to grand jury information Bishop attacked his wife in Pension Office Park July 23. The woman died in Gallinger Hospital after the assault of a fractured skull.

Edward A. Fowler, 56-year-old postoffice collection carrier, was indicted for delaying two letters addressed to local department stores.

Others indicted were Gilson M. West and Kenneth E. Jones, nonsupport; Philip K. Daniels and Marvin J. Conley, joyriding; Edward Beckley and Thomas W. Caudle, grand larceny; James P. Russell, Percy Honesty, Earl W. Bailey, Miderian Williams, Archie C. Gregory, Crosby Littlejohn, Walter A. Spriggs and Ernest Davis, housebreaking; Stanley Hudeck, Katherine Hudeck, Russell M. Bailey and Bessie G. Buchanan, grand larceny.

Louise M. Southers, Thomas Weaver, Curtis Davis, Walter Swann, Hilary L. Swann and Philip K. Daniels, robbery; Richard K. Oliver, William E. Snowberger, William S. Cave and Joseph K. Gosselin, assault with intent to commit robbery; John Wise Crowe, sodomy; Samuel L. Johnson, John E. Jackson and Paul Roosevelt Lacks, assault with a dangerous weapon; Leland V. Cox, William Lusby and Ray Sisk, rape and assault with intent to commit rape.

Eugene Herring, William R. Kesterson and Jesse H. Tanner, assault with intent to commit rape; Walter E. Brady, larceny after trust; Ainsworth J. Jackson, Anna Mae Cox, John M. Dorsey and Clarice E. Sanford, gaming charges; Helen Matilda Dawson and Walter Jackson, manslaughter; William McDowell and John E. Carter, second degree murder.

Husband Tosses Wife's Meals Away, Loses Her

Louisville, Ky., Aug. 17 (AP).—After six months of married life, Mrs. Catherine Stewart told the judge her husband tossed out the meals she cooked, struck her numerous times with a broom, walked on her laundry, emptied gasoline out of the family auto so she couldn't use it, once made her sit on the doorstep until 4 a. m. and got mad when she couldn't buy groceries for a week on $1.

She won the divorce.

Wives Cry 'The Dog Catchers Are Coming'

Gloucester, N. J., Aug. 17 (AP).—Housewives took up today where bicycle riding boys left off in a campaign to save the town's pups from the dog catchers.

Several weeks ago the boys rode ahead of the dog catchers, shooing all animals into hiding. They were warned by police not to interfere. Today the housewives hurried to telephones and spread the alarm: "The dog catchers are coming."

Smithsonian Is Held Blocking Wright Plane's Return to U. S.

Museum Officials Accused of 'Dalliance' in Efforts to Settle Quarrel With Orville, by Air Official After Parley Here.

The attitude of the Smithsonian Institution in its dispute with Orville Wright is blocking return of the original Wright airplane from a British museum, Hampton W. Howard, executive secretary of the Association of Men With Wings, announced yesterday.

Howard issued that statement after he emerged from a conference with Dr. Alexander Wetmore, acting secretary of the Smithsonian during the absence of Dr. Charles G. Abbot.

He accused museum officials of "dalliance in the face of frequent efforts to achieve a settlement of the difference" between it and Wright. "Meanwhile," he said, "no progress in the issue is made and the Wright plane remains in the London Kensington Museum, where it is highly likely to stay unless it is returned during the lifetime of Orville Wright."

The Wright plane was sent to England after a controversy between the Smithsonian and Wright over the museum's contention that the plane built by Prof. Samuel P. Langley was the first capable of carrying a man. On a model of the Wright plane now in the Smithsonian it is announced that the original was the "first power-driven, man-carrying airplane to make a free and sustained flight."

The Association of Men with Wings, an organization of prominent fliers, is attempting to bring about return of the plane to the United States. According to Howard, Wright will "readily order the return if the Smithsonian will correct its scientific bulletins to make it clear in the libraries of the world that the Wright brothers' research and pioneering effort resulted in the first powered airplane capable of carrying a man." He said he had been told that the correction of such official papers must wait until the return of Dr. Abbot.

As a part of its program, the fliers' association has persuaded mayors of a score of American cities to designate tomorrow as "Orville Wright Day." The pioneer flier will be 67 years old tomorrow.

President of the association is Col. Charles Wayne Kerwood. Other officers include Lieut. Commander Frank Hawks, speed pilot, and C. S. (Casey) Jones, former Army flier.

D. C. Heads' Right To Revoke Driver Permits Assailed

A suit that may test the right of the District Commissioners to revoke or suspend drivers' licenses for offenses committed outside Washington was filed in District Court yesterday by DeWitt F. Drew, 1021 Columbia road northwest.

Drew, through Attorney Albert Lyman, asked the court to issue an injunction restraining the Commissioners from tampering with his permit. A driver for the Government, he stated loss of his operator's card would cost him his job. He stated in the suit he paid $3 for it, owns it, and the Commissioners may not take it away from him.

He forfeited $25 on a charge of speeding 70 miles an hour on the Mt. Vernon boulevard and asserts that he was never found guilty because he did not stand trial.

Bloomer Bathing Suits Repealed by Chicago

Chicago, Aug. 17 (AP).—The city council caught up with the times today by repealing an ordinance (1895 vintage) which required women's bathing suits to have full bloomers extending below the knees.

Colored Holdup Man Escapes With $40 From Laundry

An armed colored man yesterday robbed a Palace Laundry branch at 801 D street northeast, and escaped with nearly $40.

Mrs. Thelma Bauman was alone in the shop when the man entered and threatened her with a revolver. Despite the fact a gang of street construction workers were laboring outside, the man fled the store unnoticed.

The woman said she decided it was best to make no outcry and was determined to make the best of the situation. After scooping up the cash, the robber looked around confused.

"Well, don't you have a bag to put it in?" Mrs. Bauman asked.

When the man said he did not, he accepted one from his victim, ordered her to lie on the floor and walked out.

Gangs to Begin D.C. War Again, Police Afraid

Detectives Arrest One and Seek Two to Avoid Bloodshed.

Gang warfare is imminent in Washington, The Post learned last night as police prepared for "impending bloodshed."

A police character was taken into custody yesterday and two other well-known local gamblers were sought as Inspector Bernard W. Thompson, chief of detectives, moved to quell the trouble.

Thompson said yesterday he feared Washington numbers barons might take the law in their own hands against a group of armed hijackers who have robbed them of almost $10,000 in the past two months.

"We intend to get to the bottom of these robberies, though the victims refuse to make any official reports of them. There will be bloodshed if these hijackings don't stop," he declared.

The man in custody was arrested by Detective Sergt. Harry Britton, pickup squad, after reports reached headquarters of a $1,300 stickup of a policy racket operator last week.

The suspect has been spending freely of late, police said, and it is known that he has no legitimate income. More than $60 worth of race horse betting tickets were found in his pockets, the detectives stated.

Racketeers Robbed.

Thompson said reports had come to his office over the grapevine for more than two months. Reports that reveal a series of stickups of race bet collectors and numbers pickup which have milked the racketeers of most of their profits.

Thompson said the victims did not report any of the robberies and that the information he has obtained leads him to believe the men robbed intend to "take care" of the bandits in their own way.

Both men sought are well known to police.

The suspects will be held until the cases are cleared up, the chief of detectives revealed.

"We've got to show these men that Washington will not tolerate such activities," Thompson said. "There's bound to be gunfights and murder if these robberies don't stop. We intend to stop them."

Mrs. Lansburgh Wills 4 Children Estate of $203,750

Mrs. Hannah M. Lansburgh, who died August 1, left an estate valued at $203,750, according to a petition for probate of her will filed in District Court yesterday by Mark Lansburgh and Samuel T. Schwartz, executors. The estate consisted solely of cash, securities and 2,375 2-3 shares of common stock in Lansburgh & Bro.

The will, filed by Attorney Leopold V. Freudeberg, directed that her collection of ivory carvings should go to her daughters, Beatrice L. Weinberg and Eugenia L. Schwartz. Two $1,000 bequests were made, one to the Jewish Social Service Agency and the other to the Jewish Foster Home, both located here.

The remainder of the estate is to go to her four children, Bessie L. Cohn, who also was given certain furniture; Mark Lansburgh, Beatrice Weinberg and Eugenia Schwartz, equally.

Felons May Face Death Penalty in Kidnaping of Pair

St. Paul, Aug. 17 (AP).—Possible death penalties tonight faced two youthful Missouri ex-convicts, confessed kidnapers of a St. Louis couple they seized to obtain a car for escape.

John Couch, 23, was in the Ramsey County jail here after admitting on arraignment today he helped seize Miss Peggy Gross, 23, St. Louis socialite, and Daniel Cox Fahey, jr., architect, and brought them to Minnesota.

His companion, Otis J. Meredith, 21, lay in a Grand Rapids, Minn., hospital, 200 miles away, gravely wounded by Federal men and deputy sheriffs when he attempted to flee.

District Attorney Victor Anderson said he plans to ask the death penalty under the Lindbergh kidnap law, as both victims were harmed.

Insane Woman, Poison Murderer Of 100, Dies at 81

Taunton, Mass., Aug. 17 (AP).—Jane Toppan, 81, often referred to as "one of the most famous poisoners of the world," died today in Taunton State Hospital, where she had been an inmate for more than 36 years.

Arrested when she was 45, Miss Toppan confessed killing "at least 100 persons." She was acquitted of murder because of inherited insanity but was committed June 24, 1902, to life in State hospital.

Herbert Parker, attorney general at the time, testified she had killed many of her friends and on two occasions wiped out entire families.

Country Doctor Urges Federal Aid

Grand Junction, Tenn., Aug. 17 (AP).—A country doctor held a reunion for some of the 1,500 babies he's delivered in a quarter of a century yesterday and urged Federal aid for practitioners.

Host at a basket picnic for several hundred, ranging from pink-cheeked babies to young men and women, 52-year-old Dr. Leon Pope mused, "It's a funny thing, but folks will pay for their babies" quicker than for other medical services.

Fireman Breaks Leg in Answering Mistaken Alarm

A new fire alarm box was placed in service yesterday and with it one fireman went out of service—with a broken leg.

Information concerning the new box was being telephoned to all stations by Fire Alarm Headquarters. The man on watch at No. 7 Truck Co., 414 Eighth street southeast, heard the number. Waiting for nothing more, he touched the gong to send the men in the station to their posts.

Pvt. H. C. Winters, 28, who was on a upper floor, dashed for the pole to slide down, missed and fell.

By way of coincidence, Pvt. John E. Winters, police radio dispatcher, was on duty and sent a scout car to investigate the accident report.

Jeweler, $25,000 Missing.

Pittsburgh, Aug. 17 (AP).—Detective Samuel Wheeler said today his office was seeking Walter E. Meyer, 38, jewelry store owner, missing since Saturday, with $25,000 in jewelry left on consignment.

OLD LEWIS HUNTER BRAND
HANDMADE KENTUCKY BOURBON FOR 77 YEARS $1.00 Pt.
90 Proof Kentucky Straight Bourbon Whiskey Wm. Jameson & Co. Inc., N. Y. C.

ROBERT MORRIS
MEANS QUALITY... AT REASONABLE PRICES!
90 PROOF
KENTUCKY STRAIGHT BOURBON WHISKEY
3 years of proper aging has translated the original fine quality of Robert Morris into a smoother, better-tasting bourbon. It's "GOOD BECAUSE IT'S RIPE." Be sure to ask for it at your favorite store or bar.
99c Pint . . . 50c Half Pint
$1.95 Full Quart
NOW 3 YEARS OLD!
Distributed by WASHINGTON WHOLESALE LIQUOR CORP.

OPEN ALL DAY SATURDAYS DURING AUGUST
The August Sale
OF LIFETIME FURNITURE

Sofa-Beds
WITH INNERSPRING MATTRESS OVER COMFORTABLE BOX SPRING
Sale-priced Now
Sofa Illustrated Above in Velvet . . $89
Arm Chair to Match Priced at $37.50
The public has long demanded such a practical, double-duty furnishing. A reputable manufacturer built it. We offer this splendid Sofa-Bed in a variety of designs and in many attractive, well-wearing upholsteries. A luxurious soft seat Sofa by day and a comfortable bed by night. No indications that it contains a bed. It is different from anything you have seen! No mechanical parts to get out of order. Simple as can be to transform this sofa into a bed. One style is sketched. See all at once.
Many Other Styles From Which to Choose
MAYER & CO.
Seventh Street Between D and E

I'M WAITING UNTIL THURSDAY OR FRIDAY SO I CAN USE ARCADE'S THRIFTY SUNSHINE SERVICE!

ARCADE'S "SUNSHINE" LAUNDRY SERVICE
THURSDAY AND FRIDAY ONLY *7¢ POUND
The lady above is wise! Well she knows how to end washday drudgery, soothe her nerves, keep her health. She simply lets us wash her things in softened water with the finest soaps, sort them, and return wearing apparel damp, folded and ready to iron; all towels, household linen and bed and table linen beautifully finished. The cost? Less than she'd spend doing it at home! Call us, today!
*Small Additional Service Charge.
Call Columbia 8010
ARCADE SUNSHINE Complete Cleansing

WE SAID IT 10 YEARS AGO:
"At the MADRILLON the word 'FRESH' has only one meaning — it's a clean-cut, uncompromising description of VEGETABLES, so recently from mother earth that they are still almost damp from the soil."
WE SAY IT AGAIN TODAY—
The Madrillon's reputation is too well established to risk serving anything but the freshest foods the year 'round.
The Air-Cooled
RESTAURANT MADRILLON
WASHINGTON BLDG.
15th & N. Y. Ave. Dist. 4561
Use entrance on New York Ave. Take steps at left to 2nd floor.
TONIGHT! dinner $1.00
This is our regular $1.50 dinner, served every Thursday for $1.00.

"Hair is an asset worth keeping" says this successful salesman

"A GOOD head of hair is usually associated with youthful vitality—and youthful vitality is in great demand in all types of sales work. Therefore I'm going to keep my hair and avoid looking old prematurely," says this successful salesman.
Thomas can help him, and can help you, too, to retain or regain a good head of hair. For twenty years Thomas has been helping salesmen, lawyers, doctors, actors—men in all walks of life, in fact—to get rid of dandruff, stop abnormal hair-fall, and to re-grow hair on thin and bald spots. More than a quarter-million persons have avoided baldness or have re-grown hair with the help of Thomas. Come in today for a free scalp examination—see what Thomas is doing for others and find out what can be done to help you have a vigorous, healthy head of growing hair.
THE THOMAS
World's Leading Hair Experts—45 Offices
Suite 1050-51 Washington Building (Corner N. Y. Ave. & 10th St. N.W.)
(Separate Depts. for Men and Women)
Write for Free Booklet.
"How to Retain or Regain Your Hair."
HOURS—9 A. M. to 7 P. M.
SATURDAY to 3:30 P. M.

High Nazi Asks For Better U. S. TradeRelations

Holds Bilateral Dealings Would Market 3,000,000 Bales of Cotton.

By the Associated Press.

Berlin, Aug. 17.—The secretary of state in the German Economics Ministry pleaded tonight for better economic relations between the United States and Germany.

In an impassioned address before the American Chamber of Commerce in Germany, Secretary Rudolf Brinkmann said he believed that if relations were better, America could sell at least 3,000,000 bales of cotton as well as metals, manufactured goods, wheat, lard and canned goods in Germany annually. (United States 1937 cotton production was 18,109,092 bales.)

He expressed hope the United States would "depart from rigid dogma" in trade relations with Germany as she did in the cases of Brazil and Italy, and give "greater consideration to the principle of bilateralism (exchange between two nations) in trade with Germany."

Denies Discrimination.

Brinkmann, who headed the German delegation which negotiated German-English agreement on Austrian debts, was understood in Berlin to be concerned mainly, at present, with a German-American trade agreement.

One misunderstanding, he asserted, was the American view that German trade policy constituted discrimination.

"Not mood," he explained, "but the bitterest need forced us to direct trade relations toward the principle of bilateralism."

"Like Mr. Hull, we believe the reduction and leveling of tariff rates is an important factor for the revival of world trade, and, like Mr. Hull, we consider a most-favored-nation clause an important means of attaining this aim."

Reich Trade Improves.

Berlin, Aug. 17 (AP).—Germany's foreign trade in July showed improvement over the first six months of 1938, when imports exceeded exports by $45,600,000.

In July Germany, including Austria, exported $188,000,000 worth of goods and imported $189,000,000.

U. S. Cold to Idea.

By the Associated Press.

Germany's expression of interest in effecting a bilateral trade arrangement with the United States met a cold reception last night in official quarters here.

The suggestion was contained in a speech by the German secretary of state in economics, Rudolf Brinkmann, to the American Chamber of Commerce in Berlin.

At the State Department, Brinkman's offer was said to be incompatible with the American idea that trade is not bilateral (solely between two countries), but multilateral (among many countries).

Secretary Hull, officials said, has repeatedly offered normal trade relations with Germany, on the same basis as with other nations, most-favored-nation treatment.

These officials also said they could not agree that Germany should take advantage of her position of a debtor to this country to force economic concessions from us on the grounds that she could thereby pay her debts to us.

Cooling Off Just Before Electrical Storm Hit D. C.

Anne Oakley (left), Mary Jean Hayes and Rose Mary Taylor are shown trying to drive away the heat wave with ice cream. They were among those at Western High School Stadium, where the western divisional playground field meet was held yesterday.

Post Staff Photo.

Texas Jail Guard Held for Murder Of Fleeing Convict

Crockett, Tex., Aug. 17 (AP).—County Attorney Leon Lusk said today a murder charge had been filed against Bob Parker, prison guard, in the slaying of John H. Frazier, one of six convicts who met death in a break from the Earlham prison farm.

Frazier and Raymond Wilkerson, a companion, were shot and killed early today in the Trinity River bottoms. Parker, in charge of bloodhounds, said the two were shot when the posse caught up with them as they were attempting to kill the dogs. He said both resisted arrest.

Of the other six who escaped from the farm yesterday, two were killed, two drowned in the Trinity River and one was recaptured. Roy King, who stabbed a guard in the break, remained at large.

Nazis Conscript Civilian Horde To Build Forts

85,000 to 300,000, Taken From Jobs, Work on 'Maginot' Line.

By the Associated Press.

Berlin, Aug. 17 (AP)—Thousands of German civilians are being drafted daily for work on fortifications along Germany's western frontier with Switzerland, France, Belgium and The Netherlands.

From factories and shops they have been conscripted to build a German counterpart of France's famous steel and concrete Maginot Line. Estimates of their number vary between 85,000 and 300,000.

When Germany's army reserves go into action next month, side by side with Reichswehr regulars for the first time since the World War, one of the joint tasks will be to test Germany's vast network of fortifications.

Hitler Makes Inspection.

The maneuvers, to be carried out sectionally all over the nation in September, will put between 500,000 and 1,000,000 men in action.

The reserves, the first of which reported for duty Monday, are being given two weeks of preliminary training in fundamentals before the joint maneuvers hit their stride.

During this preliminary period, Reichfuehrer Hitler is making an inspection tour of military posts and garrisons.

Decree Drafts Civilians.

Germany has been working feverishly for months on her own "Maginot Line." Whole battalions of labor service conscripts have been moved from northern Germany to help.

Field Marshal Goering, on June 23, issued a decree under which civilians could be required to abandon their regular jobs temporarily to engage in tasks deemed essential for the welfare of the nation.

Tydings to Win Despite Purge, Radcliffe, New Dealer, Asserts

Tydings

Continued from Page 1.

Let him come out in his true colors as a Tory Republican."

Chairman O'Connor of the House Rules Committee, joint victim with Tydings of the President's "purge" bludgeon, prepared to reply publicly to Mr. Roosevelt from New York tonight over a Nation-wide hookup of the Columbia Broadcasting System.

O'Connor "had his Irish up" and was expected to follow his Tuesday night "acceptance of the challenge" with a speech as bitter as the President's own statement.

Political quiet prevailed on the Washington front as the President entrained at 1:32 p. m. to join Canadian Prime Minister King in dedicating an international bridge at Hamilton, Ontario, this afternoon.

Mr. Roosevelt's forthright admission and defense of personal "interference" in party primaries apparently foreshadowed an extension of the "purge" to other States where openly hostile or "yes, but" Democratic candidates are seeking re-election.

At his press conference yesterday the usually quick-tongued Secretary of Agriculture Wallace declined comment on the Administration's now open elimination program. Asked what he thought of the attack on Tydings, and the President's opposition to Senator Ellison D. (Cotton Ed) Smith, in South Carolina, Wallace adroitly evaded.

"The only way I can affect the political situation is by seeing a good job is done for the farmer," he said. "Let's talk about the agricultural situation."

Senator Radcliffe, who is managing Tydings' campaign in return for a similar favor when Radcliffe ran for re-election, was caught midway between the President, his close friend, and Tydings, his candidate, by Mr. Roosevelt's onslaught.

He said he had not been in touch with Tydings since the President's attack and could make no direct comment pending a talk with his colleague. But he said he felt free to predict Tydings' nomination.

Radcliffe, who generally votes down the line on New Deal measures, has not always "gone along" with the President. He voted against the "death sentence" in the utility holding company act and opposed the court plan and continuance of the 1936 undivided profits tax.

Meanwhile, the 69-year-old Lewis, who lost no time Monday capitalizing the President's warm praise for his social security pioneering, followed through again last night on the President's proffer of support and denunciation of Tydings.

"I am glad," he said, "that President Roosevelt has brought so clearly and emphatically into the open the fact that Millard Tydings is running as a Democrat but voting as a Republican.

"It brings to mind what the Tydings camp would like Democrats to forget—namely, that many prominent Republicans urged the party not to run a Republican candidate against Senator Tydings.

"I propose to Mr. Tydings that he be fair and frank with the voters of Maryland, withdraw from the Democratic ticket and run as an outright Republican."

Into what new States the President's decision to intervene vigorously in primary campaigns may take him was still a matter of speculation last night. Expectations are that he may visit the Midwest in late September, speak for Gov. Murphy in Michigan, support Senator Duffy in Wisconsin, and stop briefly in Minnesota, Ohio and possibly Illinois.

He is expected to make at least one strong speech in support of Lewis in Maryland, and return again next month to South Carolina for a parting shot at Senator Smith, opposed there by two New Dealers, Gov. Olin D. Johnston and State Senator Edgar Brown.

In Washington, Fred Brenckman, Washington representative of the National Grange, veteran farm organization, cast his lot with George.

Brenckman in a letter called George a "true liberal" and "loyal friend of the farmer."

HEAR well again with the ACOUSTICON
Private Demonstration Free Today
CHAS. SCHWARTZ & SON
708 Seventh St.

3-COURSE "MAINE" LOBSTER LUNCHEON
Harvey's 75c Served Hot or Cold
1107 Connecticut Ave.
Completely Air-Cooled

NEW TYPE SPINET PIANO
Has been used only a few months. Piano fully guaranteed. Will accept payment of $1.00 per week plus budget charge, from reliable party; bench and delivery included.
F. A. North Piano Co.
1231 G St.

Money Can't Buy Better Teeth
Plates, $10, $15 and $20
Plates Repaired While You Wait
Work Done in My Own Laboratories
No Long Waiting. No High Prices.
CROWNS AND BRIDGE WORK
$5 $5
Extractions, $1—By Gas, $2
Dr. SMATHERS
DENTAL SPECIALIST
625 Eye St. N.W.
Over Riggs National Bank
(7th and Eye Sts. N.W.)
Hours, 9 a. m. to 8 p. m. Ph. MEt. 9330

For quick results at the lowest cost, use Post Classified Ads.

1837 1938

YESTERDAY'S FAVORITE IS STILL IN FAVOR...

Gibson's goes down Easily!

For more than a hundred years Gibson's has been a favorite, and now, starting its second century of success, the same old smoothness explains its continuous popularity . . . Gibson's goes down easily. Highball, cocktail, or straight, however you take it, it's easy to take . . . Sip for yourself. Next time say:

"GIVE ME Gibson's"

GIBSON'S STRAIGHT RYE WHISKEY—100 PROOF. COPYRIGHT 1938, GIBSON DISTILLING CO., ALADDIN, PA., EXECUTIVE OFFICES, NEW YORK CITY

WASHINGTON OFFICE — BARRON G. COLLIER, INC. — MUNSEY BLDG. — NAtional 2804
HOME OFFICE — 745 FIFTH AVENUE, NEW YORK — Eldorado 5-6700

Street Railways Advertising Co.

CAR ADVERTISING IN THE UNITED STATES, CANADA AND CUBA.

Chicago, Illinois

Dear Son:

Last night your Uncle Dick and I had dinner together in one of those typically famous Chicago hostelries where everyone has a smile of welcome. The fact that we had not seen each other for some time gave us a good start in keeping the conversational ball bouncing back and forth at a lively clip. There was actually an elapsed talking time of 2½ hours from fruit cup to coffee cup. Eventually I maneuvered around to my favorite subject of car advertising.

Thirty years of shrewd banking have sharpened Uncle Dick to accurate thinking along financial lines, so it wasn't long before the backs of our menus were covered with pencilled integers.

As an Advertising Agency neophyte you will always be interested in the results of such accurate figuring. It will give you a better slant on the economics of this business of your Dad's.

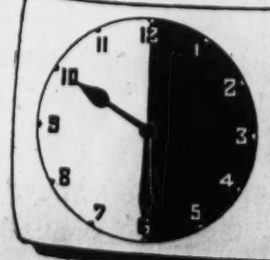
It works out like this. Discerning Advertisers and their Advertising Agencies who devote a portion of their appropriation to car advertising are actually taking advantage of a fleet of mobile showrooms, operating every single day all over the country, in which they present their sales messages to prospective buyers. These showrooms on wheels comprise the transportation units of the 5 billion dollar public carrier industry of the United States. There are more than 70,000 of them and their daily revenue amounts to more than $2,000,000. Every day some 35 million people pay their way into these super showrooms with nickels and dimes. This enormous audience is made up of active men and women who are logical prospects for all manner of goods and services. They have come to depend upon these surface cars, buses, and subway, elevated and suburban trains to deliver them swiftly and safely to shops and stores, to their offices and to their homes. Each one of these riders spends an average round trip time of 40 minutes in company with car advertisers' displays. And these displays contain all the magic sales appeal of our modern day advertising. No expense is spared in the maintenance and improvement of these mobile showrooms for the transportation industry spent 250 millions of dollars upon these items in 1937, and approximately the same amount will be expended this year.

Thirteen billion people a year represent a lot of potential sales for a good many different things, son, but Advertisers and their Advertising Agencies can reach these thirteen thousand million prospective buyers in all parts of our nation through car advertisements at an average cost of 6¢ per thousand. Thus, the cost of appealing to a single prospect is only 6/1000 of a cent. That is the most infinitesimally small fractional sales cost known to the big business of advertising.

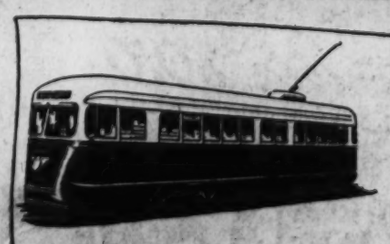
My artist-itch is responsible for the accompanying sketch. It will give you a faint idea of the continuous vastness of car advertising's audience. More than a billion riders a month. Just mention that figure to some of your circulation satiated co-workers; it has frequently put a terrific strain on many an advertising man's eyebrows. Doubters need only glance at the Transit Commissioners' reports to get a brand new idea of advertising economy.

Affectionately,

Your Dad



In the length of time it has taken me to write this letter, 130,000 riders have spent approximately $43,000 in fares on the transportation systems of the United States.



Be on the look-out for one of these new, super-deluxe trolleys in New York. I call them deluxe showrooms for Car Advertisers' product presentations.

Berle Rebuffs Brain Trust on Monopoly Quiz

Monopoly

Continued from Page 1.

Deal has been that it has indulged shotgun imposition of regulation without adequate definition of standard."

Berle said that attempts to legislate competition "do not work out" and that in certain fields controlled cartels may be better than competition.

The economic control in the close relationships between J. P. Morgan & Co and the Guaranty Trust Co., and between the Aluminum Corporation of America and power companies was specifically mentioned by Berle.

Berle proposed that a part of the investigation should be directed to the Government itself and its subsidizing of different industries. He suggested that Federal relief is one subsidy to industry. When General Motors lays off men who have not been earning enough to put aside savings, it is a Government subsidy to the company when its former workers are put on the relief rolls, according to Berle.

Instead of starting off with preconceived theories, Berle suggested that the investigation committee should search for an organization of business that actually works. He added:

"Second, the standard must be whether it supplies the existing and developing wants of the people as they appear.

"Third, that this involves the provision of an adequate supply of goods;

"Fourth, and a distribution system that takes these goods towards known wants to the maximum degree possible;

"Fifth, that the system must provide a maximum number of people with means of satisfying those wants through a contribution to the system;

"Sixth, that the system must provide the people engaged in the process with a manner of life, which at least tends to satisfy a fair proportion of their wants;

"Seventh, the system must evolve a method of organization that does not interfere unduly, actually or potentially, with the liberty of the individual:—i.e., that its controls must release more individuality than they suppress;

"Eighth, that there is no need to assume that these tests will be met by any single system or any single standard of size or set of practices at any given point.

"As a final point, I note that, whenever a situation appears, it is aways wise to attack it with the realization that there is a real reason for it. Habits, in a large country, do not emerge by chance. The reason may not be a good reason or may have ceased to be valid.

"The habit may be bad habit, but there is always a reason, with which we may intelligently disagree, but which cannot be disregarded as a social force. Mere interruption of habits and social machinery means nothing unless an equivalent or better machinery is simultaneously provided or suggested."

Urges Credit Banks.

Berle set forth a program whose objective is to provide more, better and cheaper goods; more, better-paying and steadier jobs and "continuous ready access to capital financing needed to create and maintain additional plants." It should provide also for the continued development of the arts, he said.

Berle proposed a system of capital credit banks backed by a capital reserve bank, presumably a division of the Federal Reserve Bank, able to create credit. "Until this is done it is merely a waste of time to grouse about 'Wall Street,'" he said. "The Wall Street banking system is doing what it is expected to do—no less and no more."

He also proposed equality of access to all technical improvements on standard terms. Patent monopolies would thus be broken.

Arguing that small business is not necessarily competitive, Berle said:

"There is a tendency to idealize the early nineteenth century and to assume that small business and the prices it charged were the result of competition. As far as I am able to see, there is little, if any, foundation for this.

"The village grocery store, the village blacksmith, the village grist mill, were all monopolies. Until the advent of the automobile, they charged conventional prices or administered prices which were not elastic. The people of the village could not go many miles to the next town. In a large measure this is still true in small towns.

"Such competition as there has been, curiously enough, came from large-scale enterprise; mail order houses, and later the chain stores. The theory that prices were adjusted by competition under the old small-scale production in small towns, as far as I can see, simply never was generally true, despite some nostalgic reminiscences which are indulged in today."

Capt. Nixon's Mother Buried at Gettysburg

Special Dispatch to The Post.

Gettysburg, Pa., Aug. 17.—Funeral services were conducted here today for Mrs. Kate Virginia Nixon, 82, widow of Dr. Henry Barber Nixon. Mrs. Nixon died in the Warner Hospital here yesterday morning from the effects of a fall suffered April 21.

She is the mother of Capt. Thomas Hay Nixon, U. S. Army ordnance officer, who was formerly located in Washington, D. C., and whose court divorce tangles following his marriage to Anne DeWalden Cooke, of Chevy Chase, Md., extended through several years.

Ptomaine Poison Fatal To Structural Worker

Clearspring, Md., Aug. 17.—August B. Loomis, 36, West Newton, Pa., one of two structural steel workers taken ill near here yesterday of ptomaine poisoning, died in a physician's office here. Jesse C. Avery, West Newton, who was with Loomis, recovered at the Washington County Hospital in Hagerstown, and left for his home.

Coroner Charles Henson decided an inquest was unnecessary and returned a verdict that ptomaine poisoning caused death.

New Fight for Accused Wife-Slayer

Associated Press WIREPHOTO.

This picture, made in New York in 1927, shows Dr. William Lamance (right), who was trying to be a boxer, and his father, the Rev. William Lamance (left), who was giving him a chance to show what he could do. Yesterday young Lamance was charged at Laclede, Mo., of slaying his wife after he had reported her missing.

Halifax Confers With Chamberlain

London

Continued from Page 1.

Prague. Newspapers supporting the government are playing down the possibilities of war.

Despite surface calmness, there is acute anxiety and depression in government circles.

Although Chamberlain has enjoined his cabinet to keep silent about the government's view of the situation, there has been a certain amount of leakage, blamed on junior government ministers by Lord Beaverbrook's Evening Standard.

"Idle talk in drawing rooms of wars inevitably is repeated and repeated and magnified until people 'in the know' are shaking their heads and saying that the government 'takes a grave view,'" the Standard says. "There should be a closer guard set these days on careless speech by holders of ministerial office."

In the absence of a clear lead from Downing street, the English press is sharply divided on the chances of war. The News Chronicle and the Manchester Guardian find something sinister in the German military exercises, but the Beaverbrook and the Rothermere papers see no evil in Hitler and are not solicitous about the fate of Czechoslovakia. For his optimism, Beaverbrook has been dubbed Lord Pangloss by the opposition press, which also tags Rothermere as Lord Terrorstruck, because of his contention Britain should sacrifice Czechoslovakia to Germany to keep the bombers away from London.

Copyright, 1938, New York Tribune, Inc.

London, Aug. 17 (AP).—Italy and Germany have struck three blows at British foreign policy which today started rumors of cleavage between Prime Minister Chamberlain and Viscount Halifax, foreign secretary.

Insurgent Gen. Franco was said to have balked at Britain's plan for getting foreign fighters out of Spain.

Premier Mussolini has resumed anti-British propaganda.

Reichsfuehrer Hitler kept Europe jittery with army maneuvers.

As a result mainly of the Spanish and Czechoslovak-German problems, informed quarters said, Lord Halifax now is convinced it is impossible to save peace without taking a firmer stand against dictators.

Lord Halifax recently has been seeing Anthony Eden, his predecessor, who resigned February 20 in protest against Chamberlain's policy of dealing with Italy and Germany. Informed sources expressed the opinion Lord Halifax has come to agree with Eden's stronger policy against dictators and was believed to have asked to be relieved of his portfolio.

RESORTS

Schwenksville, Pa.

SPRING MOUNTAIN HOUSE
150 m. fr. Wash. Ask Foster Travel Ser.

Virginia Beach, Va.

HOTEL CHALFONTE Virginia Beach, Va.
On ocean front. Modern. Every convenience. Cuisine unexcelled. Old Virginia cooking. Golf and sports. Booklet.

Ocean City, N. J.

The LINCOLN Ocean City N. J.
Amer. & Euro. plans. Elevator. Illus. folder on request. Mrs. Mary E. Foulke, Mgr.

BELLEVUE Ocean at Eighth St. Bathing Privileges.
Elevators. Central. J. J. McCONNELL, Mgr.

Cape May, N. J.

It's Cooler
Degrees Cooler . . . Between Ocean and Bay . . . Smart Crowds . . . Modern Hotels . . . Safe Beach . . . All Outdoor Sports . . . America's Oldest and Finest Seashore Resort Bids You Welcome . . . For Booklet Write Now to Director of Public Affairs
I. GRANT SCOTT
Room 108, City Hall
CAPE MAY NEW JERSEY

STEAMSHIPS.

OCEAN CRUISES
all expenses from Balto.:
BOSTON - - $52
SEVEN DAYS
Six glorious days of ocean travel; a day of sightseeing through historic Boston and its lovely countryside.
MIAMI - - - $69
ELEVEN DAYS
A leisurely 2,100-mile sea voyage, plus a full day's enjoyment of the magic of Miami.
For illustrated folder, write or phone M. & M. Travel Bureau, 1418 H St., N. W., Washington (Tel. National 4612)—or authorized tourist agents.
MERCHANTS & MINERS LINE

Alien Inquiry To Get File on Bridges' Case

Alien

Continued from Page 1.

tively, of the Rural Electrification Administration; Dallas W. Smythe, of the Central Statistical Board; Fred Silcox, head of the Forest Service; Robert Marshall, of the Public Land Service; Oscar Chapman, Assistant Secretary of the Interior; Mary Anderson, director of the Women's Bureau, and Alice Barrows, of the Office of Education.

Lamberton said Mason's charges were "ridiculous."

"It hardly is necessary to say there is nothing secret about the league," he added. "Many Washington people belong to it and among them are several Government officials. We believe in peace, and, if this be treason, make the most of it." He declared the league was dedicated to a "quarantine-the-aggressor policy" enunciated by President Roosevelt in an address at Chicago last fall.

Carmody said he did not know whether he was a member or not, but that he had been a sponsor of the Washington branch at its foundation.

"I have sponsored this activity a good deal as I sponsor square dancing," he said. "On the whole I am a rather peaceful person. As for democracy, I was born in it and I rather like it."

Silcox was said, at the Forestry Service, to be away on a field trip.

Smythe said "it is a matter of common knowledge that the league is not a Communist organization and added that he was "proud" to be not only a member but the unit vice president.

Marshall was en route to Alaska on a vacation.

Miss Anderson denied that she was a league member.

Miss Barrows is away on vacation.

Chapman, of the Interior Department, said he "believed" he was a member of the league.

"I never attended a meeting—and that is not said in the way of defense," he told reporters. "I've been very interested in the cause (democracy and peace) and I don't know of any Communists in the organization."

As "front organizations" for the Communist Party, Steele named, among others, the American Student Union, the Worker's Alliance, and the World Youth Congress, of which the American Youth Congress is a section.

Steele also devoted much attention to what he said were methods used by Communists in recruiting soldiers for the Abraham Lincoln Brigade, a unit of the Americans in the Spanish loyalist army.

In the case of one man, he said, "The Communist Party sent some young women down from New York, who enticed him, got him into some parties at night, persuaded him he should become a Red, took him to New York, wined and dined him," and got him enrolled in the Lincoln Brigade.

Homer L. Chaillaux, national Americanism director of the American Legion, testified that nine months ago 2,200 American youths had been induced to go to Spain and fight in the loyalist army.

Dies interrupted Chaillaux to refer to "whispering campaigns against our witnesses."

"Who is doing this whispering?" Representative Mosier (Democrat), Ohio, a committee member, asked. "Is it the investigators of the La Follette Civil Liberties Committee who were around here yesterday?"

"Well," Dies said, "they have their investigators and we have ours and we don't want to get into any controversy."

"They seem to want to get into a controversy with us," Mosier said.

Hollywood, Aug. 17 (AP).—The Hollywood anti-Nazi League said today it had sent a telegram to the Dies committee challenging it to substantiate charges made that motion picture figures had contributed financial aid to communistic organizations.

Youth Congress Replies.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Aug. 17 (AP).—The chairman of the Second World Youth Conference tonight denied the organization was a "front for communism" as the 1,000 delegates and observers from 56 countries set out to study ways of achieving lasting peace among nations. The charge of communism was made in Washington by H. L. Chaillaux before the Dies committee investigating un-American activities.

Reunion Postponed, Game Goes On—Rain or No Rain

Post Staff Photo.

The storm forced postponement of the reunion of Garfield Playground "alumni" yesterday until next Wednesday but the 25 or more who showed up despite the rain saw this ball game. The umpire—with umbrella—is Susie Sheridan, playground instructor. Catching is Roland Adkins and at bat is Charlie McVean.

Eyestrain?

Ever have headaches? Dizzy spells? Blurred vision? If so, let our Registered Optometrist examine your eyes, today. If you need glasses, he'll prescribe the proper ones, at very moderate cost.

OPTICAL DEPARTMENT
A. KAHN INC.
Arthur J. Sundlun, Pres.
935 F Street N.W.

Sailboat Rides
Every Night
2 Hours, 50c—7:15, 9:15, 11:30 P. M.
9th St. S. W. Wharf
Opposite Beck's
Charter Parties — ME. 6388

Liggett's
DRUG STORES
Prompt Delivery Service
PHONE NORTH 1772

WOODWARD & LOTHROP
THE MEN'S STORE—SECOND FLOOR

How to Dress Well at a Saving

Annual Pre-Season Offering Very Smart Men's and Young Men's Fall Suits and Overcoats

The regular prices quoted here will be restored when this event is ended

By taking advantage of the low prices at which these ultra-smart clothes are now being offered, you can afford a larger wardrobe than you had planned, at less than you had expected to pay. For this is an annual event with us, an established tradition, well recognized by smartly-dressed men as a timely saving on good clothes. They are from the best-known mills in the country and include worsteds, cheviots, our imported River Calder tweeds and the well-known Woodshire twists; tailoring by fine workmen. Single and double breasted models, and the new three-button coat with its loungy construction. You will like the color choice—blues, grays, tans, browns, and even the Fall feature color of Charcoal Brown. Come in now while you can effect these great savings.

Suits, $29.50
Regularly $35, $40

Overcoats, $32.50
Regularly $40

English Overcoats, $48.50
Regularly $65, $75

Custom Suits
in fitting good taste
$57.50
Regularly $65

Every good feature is accented, every unattractive one is minimized in these distinctive suits we tailor to your individual measurements. A large selection of Fall's newest patterns and smart weaves.

Students' Suits
Special $23.75
Regularly $30
With 2 Pairs Trousers

Suits for younger men who dress with style and good taste—in serviceable fabrics. All-wool worsteds, cheviots and tweeds . . . all taken from our regular range of "Woodshire Varsity" suits. Dress up in these new herringbone, stripes and patterned weaves in single and double breasted models.

PREP CLOTHING, SECOND FLOOR.

Japanese Move Five Ways on China's Capital

Seek to Take Strategic Points Before Opening Major Drive.

By Victor Keen.
Special Cable to The Post.

Hankow, Aug. 17.—Japanese troop movements of the last few days indicate their campaign against Hankow, China's provisional capital, may take any or, simultaneously, all of five different routes.

A half-division at Hofei, northward of Anking, on the southern Anhwei railroad, now is moving on Liuan, whence one route to Hankow would be via Liuan or Hwoshan across a mountain district to Macheng, strategic highway center with approaches to Hankow from the northeast. This route does not traverse the Yangtze River flood area.

A second route is via Huangmei, on the north bank of the Yangtze, just across from the Anhwei-Hupeh border. Japanese holding Huangmei yesterday attacked Chinese positions in that area without appreciable gain, according to a Chinese military communique.

A third route is along the south bank of the Yangtze River west of Kiukiang toward Juichang, where Chinese hold strong defense positions. The Japanese recently landed 6,000 troops at Kangchow, on the south bank of the Yangtze, northeast of Juichang. From Juichang this route would proceed westward via Yangsin, approaching Hankow from the southeast.

A fourth route, in a sector quiet for ten days, is southward of Kiukiang along the Kiukiang-Nanchang Railroad, then northeastward from Nanchang toward Hankow.

The fifth route is a naval advance up the Yangtze supporting the land routes.

Military observers believe it is unlikely the Japanese will admit an advance on any single one of the above-mentioned routes, and now are awaiting the capture of strategic points on each route before pouring in large reinforcements to carry out the final stages of the planned campaign.

Hankow, apprehensive in the last weeks of large-scale Japanese bombings, passed a fearful day today without a raid's materializing.

Copyright, 1938, New York Tribune, Inc.

French Protest Seizure.

Peiping, Aug. 17 (AP).—Both the French embassy and the commission of foreign diplomats which administers the Peiping diplomatic quarter tonight lodged strongly worded protests with Japanese authorities against the detention of two members of the French embassy's military guard.

The protests alleged the French soldiers had been seized by armed Japanese inside the diplomatic quarter. The Japanese returned stony refusals to all French requests.

Shanghai (Thursday), Aug. 18 (AP).—Japanese forces ordered to take Changsha, capital of Hunan Province, were bogged down today many miles from their objective.

The invaders' naval air force, however, bombed the city, about 200 miles southwest of Kiukiang and about the same distance south and slightly west of Hankow.

(Dispatches from Hankow said the Changsha raid was the worst the city had yet experienced. The Christian Missionary emergency refugee hospital was struck and a number of refugees were reported to have been killed.)

In the Hwangmei sector, 25 miles north of Kiukiang, a Chinese counter-offensive kept the invaders at bay.

Other Japanese units were reported having difficulty in Anhwei Province. At Hahochen and Juichang, close to Kiukiang, Chinese conducted a stubborn successful defense.

The Japanese thrust toward the Peiping-Hankow railroad north of the Yangtze was met by about 200,000 veterans from nearby provinces who took strategic positions in Hupeh hills.

Hopkins Is 48.

Harry L. Hopkins, Works Progress Administrator, was 48 years old yesterday.

Birling Clan Gathers for Log-Rolling Championship

Associated Press WIREPHOTOS.

Four feminine birlers—log rollers—put on their spike shoes for the championship birling contests at Escanaba, Mich. They are Cilvia Winters runner-up; Mary Jean Malott, the champion; Marietta Phipps and Arbutus Wilson. Two male birlers are shown in action. They are Lawrence Berger (left) and Harold Fischer, both Minnesota woodsmen.

Cabinet Fixed, Spain Premier Goes to Zurich

Foreign Visit Held Proof of Quiet, but Republicans Brew New Crisis.

By the United Press.

Perpignan, France, Aug. 17.—Premier Negrin of Loyalist Spain today left Barcelona for Switzerland after surviving a minor cabinet crisis which may serve as a prelude to a real showdown on his "win-the-war" regime, frontier reports indicated.

Negrin departed for Zurich to attend a physiological congress, leaving Foreign Minister Julio Alvarez del Vayo as acting premier.

Government officials at Barcelona said Negrin's departure, only 12 hours after replacing two members of his cabinet in a dispute over military control of war industries and seaports, provided "the best proof that he has assurance he is leaving the country in complete political normality."

Republicans Angered.

Reports seeping through the frontier indicated, however, considerable tension remains in the Loyalist provisional capital and that moderates have not yet given their support to Negrin's third revised cabinet, in which he holds the portfolio of war minister as well as premier.

Radicals and Republicans were said to be angry because Negrin heeded the advice of such extremist groups as the Communists, Socialists, Syndicalists and General Workers' Union and refused to resign and permit creation of a wider National Union republican government.

The two new cabinet members, both Catalonians, were looked upon by Negrin's opponents as failing to strengthen the government and it was predicted that another cabinet crisis soon will occur.

Luxury Liners to Get South American Titles

Chairman Land of the Maritime Commission announced yesterday that, at the suggestion of President Roosevelt, the commission is changing the names of the three luxury liners in the South American run. The Virginia will be renamed "Brazil," the Pennsylvania will be renamed "Argentina," and the California will be renamed "Uruguay."

Sudetens Reject Minority Plan, Invite More Talk With Prague

By Walter B. Keer,
Special Cable to The Post.

Prague, Aug. 17.—Konrad Henlein's Sudeten German Nazi Party rejected today the government's plan for a settlement of Czechslovakia's minority problem, but left the door open for future negotiations.

In the first give and take conference since the arrival here of Lord Runciman as unofficial British mediator, the Nazis said the government's plan was wholly inadequate. They repeated their demands for autonomy, but agreed that continued negotiations might lead to a solution.

The Nazi spokesman in the meeting, held in the office of Premier Hodza, was Ernst Kundt, chief negotiator of the party. He ridiculed the government's plan because an "unbridgeable gulf" separated it from the demands of his people, and ended by asking for a new suggestion based on the equality of all nationalities within the state.

Only once did he sound a warning, although all the men in the room might have thought many times of the German army in maneuvers on the other side of the frontier.

"We must call your attention," he said, "to the fact that the patience of our people, which has never received any sign of good will from you, is not as great as our patience. If you go on like this, the distrust in the Sudeten land will become even greater."

The Nazi statement was no surprise to government leaders. Last night the Henlein spokesman had a four-hour talk with Lord Runciman and before today's meeting Lord Runciman talked with Premier Hodza. Their reaction, however, could not be determined tonight.

The government has maintained from the start it can never give the Sudeten Germans territorial autonomy. It did suggest some sort of district autonomy might be granted and that within each district the various nationalities might administer their own affairs.

It was Hodza's idea that negotiations would be based on the government's plan and Sudeten demands, but the Nazis said today the plan was so far from their demands that something else should be offered.

Copyright, 1938, New York Tribune, Inc.

Kidneys Must Clean Out Acids

Your body cleans out excess Acids and poisonous wastes in your blood thru 9 million tiny delicate Kidney tubes or filters. And functional disorders of the Kidneys or Bladder may make you suffer from Getting Up Nights, Nervousness, Leg Pains, Circles Under Eyes, Dizziness, Backache, Swollen Joints, Excess Acidity, or Burning Passages. Help your kidneys purify your blood with Cystex. The very first dose starts helping your kidneys clean out excess acids and soon may easily make you feel years younger. Under the money-back guarantee Cystex must satisfy completely or cost nothing. Get Cystex (siss-tex) today. It costs only 3c a dose at druggists and the guarantee protects you. (Adv.)

Personal To Fat Girls

Now you can slim down your face and figure without strict dieting or back-breaking exercises. Just eat sensibly and take 4 Marmola Prescription Tablets a day, according to the directions, until you have lost enough fat — then stop.

Marmola Prescription Tablets have been sold to the public for more than thirty years. More than twenty million boxes have been distributed during that period.

Marmola is not intended as a cure-all for all ailments. This advertisement is intended only for fat persons who are normal and healthy otherwise and whose fatness is caused by hypo-thyroidism with accompanying subnormal metabolic rates. No other representation is made as to this treatment except under these conditions and according to the dosage as recommended.

We do not make any diagnosis as that is the function of your physician, who must be consulted for that purpose. The complete formula is included in every package. Start with Marmola today and win the slender lovely figure that is rightfully yours.

SPECIALS — Thursday—Friday—Saturday

VISIT OUR STORE SALE

MANY REAL VALUES ON SALE

One of America's Favorite Scotches

IMPORTED SCOTCH WHISKY

100% SCOTCH—ALL OVER 8 YRS. OLD

FAMOUS FOR OVER 200 YRS.—REG. PRICE $3.35

FULL FIFTH SALE PRICE ... $2.69 QUANTITIES LIMITED! GET YOURS EARLY!

3-YRS.-OLD KENTUCKY BOURBON..... $1.49 Quart

2½-YRS.-OLD CONQUEST STRAIGHT Rye $1.39 Quart

90-PROOF DISTILLED DRY GIN..... $1.00 Quart

NO PHONE ORDERS — NO DELIVERIES

CUT RATE LIQUOR STORE

10th and PENN. AVE. N.W.

"THE STORE ON THE CORNER"

Union Determined To Organize Auto Labor in Canada

Windsor, Ontario, Aug. 16 (Canadian Press).—Homer Martin, president of the United Automobile Workers of America, said in an address tonight that the union was determined to organize the automobile industry and all subsidiary industries in Canada.

"It is hoped that Premier Hepburn and some others in Canada will learn that labor is going to organize," Martin told a crowd in a Windsor park. "It is to be hoped that they learn that people are not going to continue to submit to industrial servitude imposed by those who heed no law but that of profit and greed."

Premier Hepburn in the spring of 1937 announced his opposition to C. I. O. activities in Canada.

Martial Law Threatened In French Dock Strike

Paris, Aug. 17 (AP).—The government threatened to put the port district, of Marseilles under military rule unless long-shoremen and employers settle differences which have resulted in loss of thousands of tons of perishable freight in the last two weeks, the dock workers have flatly refused to work more than 40 hours a week.

Standard to Fight For Mexican Oils From Its Property

New York, Aug. 17 (AP).—A fight over the right to import Mexican oil loomed today with confirmation of reports a small American company plans to bring its first load of Mexican oil to Houton, Tex., as soon as possible.

The company, Eastern States Petroleum Co., denied the oil was expropriated from Standard Oil of New Jersey or the smaller American firms

For Better RADIO SERVICE
Phone DIstrict 4700
STAR RADIO CO.
4 Stores to Serve You

ART MATERIALS
MUTH
710 13TH.
NAT. 6386

DON'T Scratch! You risk infection!
To quickly ease the stinging itch, soothe irritated skin, and aid healing, apply comforting
RESINOL

Go the COOL way!

What an oasis from the heat, the noise, the dirt of crowded highways is the cool, clean, quiet of Pennsylvania Railroad air-conditioned travel. Even an hour's ride in this refreshing coolness is like a day in the mountains . . . a trip overnight is worth a day's vacation . . . adds that much "plus" to your business or vacation trip. When the weatherman holds out no hope of relief . . . Pennsylvania Railroad does! And it's so much safer, faster . . . so economical!

. . . NO OTHER FORM OF TRAVEL GIVES SO MUCH FOR SO LITTLE

LARGEST FLEET OF AIR-CONDITIONED TRAINS IN THE WORLD

Coach as well as Pullman passengers share the joy of air-conditioned travel on the Pennsylvania Railroad. All of its principal trains are air-conditioned . . . for perfect travel comfort every day in the year!

For reservations, consult ALAN B. SMITH, General Passenger Agent, 626 14th St., N.W., District 1424.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

- Silent for All Time.
- No Moving Parts to Wear.
- Continued Low Operating Cost.
- More Years of Savings.
- Gas Company Service.
- Plus Modern Beauty and all the Worthwhile Convenience Features.

New 1938 Models for as little as $133.90 . . . small monthly payments on your gas bill.

WASHINGTON GAS LIGHT COMPANY
411 10TH STREET, N.W. 1339 WISCONSIN AVE.
DISTRICT 8500

District Enrolls All Its Trucks In Safety Drive

Traffic

Continued from Page 1.

owner was in Hawaii. Fort officials could offer no clew to the identity of the hunted driver.

The city's latest traffic victim died yesterday after more than four bedridden months in Gallinger Hospital. He was Milton W. Fuller, 19, of 1267 Penn street northwest, injured April 7 in a motorcycle accident.

Fuller received 30 blood transfusions as physicians fought vainly to save his life. Compound fractures paralyzed his arms and legs and he suffered concussion of the brain.

In a rare step by the District Grand Jury, Walter Jackson, colored, 27, was indicted for manslaughter in connection with the death of 12-year-old David M. Mockabee, of 616 L street southeast.

Education Planned.

The Mockabee boy, killed instantly July 22, was crushed between two trucks. Standing behind an ice truck near his home, David was struck by the Jackson vehicle and pinned between the two.

Jackson was held responsible for the death at an earlier coroner's hearing.

An intensive educational program, designed to reach every resident of Washington, will become part of the city's highway safety plan when the citizens' committee meets today.

Recommendations to sweep the city with safety propaganda through churches, theaters, newspapers, service and civic groups, radio, street-car advertising and home deliveries of bread and milk were drafted yesterday by a sub-committee which met at the Variety Club.

Co-operation Sought.

Headed by L. A. Carruthers, president of the Federation of Citizens Associations, the sub-committee decided that adult and child education was the first step to be taken if accidents are to be prevented.

Co-operation of the Capital Transit Co. will be sought to provide for street-car advertising. Placards for street car and store windows will be furnished by the Variety Club, said A. Julian Brylawski, president, and a member of the sub-committee.

Mrs. Mary Steele, assistant director of local WPA, agreed to distribute safety propaganda to more than 2,500 men, women and children who might not otherwise read or hear of the current drive.

Slogans Ready.

Safety slogans, adopted by the sub-committee, which will soon appear on placards and signs throughout the city, include:

"Watch out for children."

"The streets are not safe playgrounds."

"Human life is sacred—protect it."

Recommendations for additional policemen and demands that a member of the Police Department be sent to Northwestern University for a course in accident prevention training will also be presented to the full committee today.

Juvenile Club Proposed

It was proposed also to inaugurate a juvenile safety club.

In The Post-Junior Board of Commerce program to organize the trucking industry for safety, 5,000 windshield emblems will soon be distributed to those who have enrolled. It is the program's aim to enlist every trucking concern—large and small—in a continuing movement.

Under the supervision of E. J. Bunker, District safety inspector, municipal government trucks have reduced accident records more than 30 per cent in the past year.

Fuller, the city's sixtieth traffic victim, was struck at West Virginia avenue and Fenwick street northeast when he stopped his motorcycle to tell another motorist his tail light was not burning.

Driver Freed.

In the case of Mrs. Gaetana Marranzano, 82, struck and killed August 10, a coroner's jury yesterday returned a verdict of "accidental death." The verdict freed Afred C. Hayden, of 1216 Maryand avenue northeast.

Few accidents were reported yesterday, although three children—two of them in their 'teens—were injured.

William Bayliss, 16, of 914½ B street southeast, and Henry Smith, 18, of 1260 Tenth street northwest, were hurt seriously when a street car struck an automobile they were pushing at Second street and Indiana avenue northwest.

At Casualty Hospital, Bayliss was treated for a fractured leg and Smith for head injuries.

Eight-year-od Eddie Beck, of 207 Sixth street northeast, also suffered a broken leg when hit by an automobile near his home. He was taken to Casualty Hospital.

Last Summer Festival Will Be Held Tuesday

The last in the series of summer festivals will be held at the Sylvan Theater Tuesday at 8 p. m., when the Tempo Choral Society directed by Dr. W. Scott Mayo presents its annual concert. The organization includes more than 50 of the finest colored singers in Washington. More than 20 church choirs are represented in its membership.

Tickets will be on sale beginning Thursday at the American Automobile Association, the Washington and Willard Hotels and the Community Center Department office in Franklin Administration Building.

Will Suggests Hoover Guide Son's Education

Pittsburgh, Aug. 17 (AP).—The will of George F. Ruch, filed today, suggested that his widow follow the advice of J. Edgar Hoover, chief of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, in business matters and the education of his son.

Hoover was a classmate of Ruch at George Washington University and a close friend. He attended funeral services for Ruch in Pittsburgh last week.

OLD GERMAN
BEER $1.39
(Contents only) 24 bottles CASE
Brewed and Bottled in Pennsylvania
LESSNER'S LIQUORS
1448 New York Ave. in the Wash. Bldg.
Prompt Delivery—NA. 2770

Wife Stands by Jimmy Hines

Associated Press WIREPHOTO.

Mr. and Mrs. James J. (Jimmy) Hines are shown discussing trial of Hines on a policy racket charge after lunch yesterday. Hines' attorney said charges by Prosecutor Dewey that Hines had been paid off by the late Dutch Schultz were "diabolical falsehoods."

Hines Elected Dodge by Cash From Schultz, Dewey Claims

Hines

Continued from Page 1.

they mounted the stand; to study their motives and decide whether or not their only motive was not self-preservation.

The first two witnesses of the 55 Dewey has said he will produce appeared on the stand this afternoon. They were Wilfred Brunder, a West Indian colored man, a former policy banker, once convicted by Dewey of having run a lottery, and Weinberg, operations officer for the Schultz policy racket, whose brother, "Bo" Weinberg, another Schultz mobster, is said to have been slain and thrown into the East River with his feet encased in cement.

Weinberg, named in the indictment as a coconspirator with Hines, was brought to the stand earlier than Dewey had intended when Justice Pecora informed the prosecutor he believed he should adopt the procedure of showing the alleged conspiracy to violate the State lottery laws chronologically from the time Hines is said to have joined in it.

Brunner, tall and powerful, immaculate in white suit and absolutely composed, entertained the blue ribbon jury, Justice Pecora and almost everyone in the courtroom, it seemed, except defendant and defense counsel, by explaining the intricacies of operating a policy bank. He had been in the business from 1923 until 1930, when he sold out to Joseph (Spasm) Ison, who also is to be a witness.

He told of entering the business with about $4,000 capital, and developing it until at one time he had between 700 and 800 runners working for him, with 30 "controllers" or foremen, and an office staff of 27, equipped with eight adding machines. In the twenties, he recalled, a good collector could take in $100 a day in bets ranging from pennies up through nickels and dimes, with here and there a dollar, or in rare instances $10.

Betting on policy, or "numbers," he explained, meant selecting three numbers, found until 1930 in the daily statements of the New York Clearing House and daily balance of the Federal Reserve Bank. In 1930 operators switched to figures taken from the pari-mutuel machines at various race tracks.

Explaining the mysteries of the game to Justice Pecora, the witness said, "Now I might play 625, and you might play 618."

"I wouldn't play it,' said the justice, and the courtroom laughed. The witness said there was a marked difference between the way men and women played the game, women frequently making as many as 15 or 20 bets in sums as small as a penny on 15 or 20 numbers, whereas men played larger sums upon fewer numbers.

Brunder's testimony was interrupted by Justice Pecora, and he will be recalled to the stand later. Weinberg's testimony was the most sensational of the day. A burly gangster, tall, broad of shoulder, with high cheek bones and prominent features, Weinberg mounted the witness stand dressed in a conservative dark double-breasted suit, with white shirt and blue figured tie.

When court opened this morning the entire Hines family, Mrs. Hines, wife of the defendant, and Mr. and Mrs. James, jr., Philip and Eugene Hines, their three sons with their wives were on hand to wacth, listen and be photographed. Mrs. Dewey, wife of the prosecutor, also was in the courtroom.

Dewey opened his address to the jury by describing briefly the policy or numbers game, and noting that while the odds were a thousand to one against any player, the maximum pay-off was at the rate of 600 to 1. With this edge, he charged, the Schultz mob turned their game into a racket through the connivance of one "Abbadabba" or "Havasack," otherwise Otto Berman, former race-track handicapper and a genius at figures. "Abbadabba" was slain with Schultz.

According to Dewey, when the gangsters changed the base of the game from the New York clearing house and reserve bank figures to figures taken from rack-track totalizers, "Abbadabba" fixed the figures to avoid the necessity for paying on numbers on which there was a large volume of betting.

At the policy bank there would be a quick checkup by accountants of the numbers on which the gang stood to lose the largest amount of money if they turned up as winners. George Weinberg, according to Dewey, would telephone these numbers to "Abbadabba," who was at the track where the "tote" was located, and "Abbadabba" could be relied upon to see that those numbers never appeared.

Dewey said "Dutch" Schultz decided to make the numbers game a profitable racket in 1931, but was held up in his operations for a while because of his warfare with Vincent Coll, later killed.

With Schultz when he started to "arm" the policy game, or invade it, were Bo Weinberg, Marty Krompier, Abe Landau and "Lulu" Rosenkrantz, his bodyguard, all now dead. There were also, Dewey said, "Denny" Daley, "Larry" Carney and "Solly" Girsch. These men, he told the jurors, "were all gorillas." Davis, he said, was Schultz's adviser from the start.

After Coll was killed in 1932 the gang got under way in its invasion of policy.

Dewey said he would prove Hines and Schultz were at a conference in March, 1932, when Schultz arranged with Hines for political protection. The testimony later by George Weinberg, only man in the alleged conference still living, except for Hines, if he was there, was the first step in the proving of this charge.

Davis, Dewey said, was legal counsel for the gang at $50 a case, but rented out most of his cases to small-fry lawyers, taking his cut. There were very few big raids, but big raids were expensive, since customers were lost when policy slips with winning numbers were seized by the police. It was agreed by the mob that what they needed was a record for paying numbers and for being protected.

Hines, he said, contracted with Schultz to deliver the police protection. In November, 1932, there was a "perfect raid" on a big policy bank. "The fix was in," Dewey said. "All cases were dismissed.

The mob, he said, was jubilant. Later the bank of Alexander Pompez, a major operator in the racket, was raided and a perfect case obtained. Once again, Dewey said, "The fix was in" and cases were dismissed.

Wallace Seeks Aid of Canada On Wheat Sale

Wallace

Continued from Page 1.

carryover and dwindling export prospects, Wallace in effect served notice America will competitively demand a large slice of the world's probable 500,000,000-bushel import requirements.

"Delicate" Problem.

Earlier yesterday, Secretary of Commerce Roper told reporters he saw no reason why a reasonable subsidy of wheat exports should handicap Secretary of State Hull's reciprocal trade program, but he conceded it was a "delicate" problem.

Wallace echoed this sentiment.

"Of course if there was unlimited pushing of exports, like some of the subsidy plans proposed, it would be disastrous to Secretary Hull's policies," he said.

"But within limitations, it should not interfere. We are anxious, of course, not to interfere with his policies."

He declined to disclose details of the plans, which he said still are in the discussion stage.

Wallace referred once to the Pacific Northwest subsidy program in 1934, when the Government sold 28,000,000 bushels abroad at a cost of about $6,500,000. This wheat was sold in competition with the world price, the Government paying the farmer the difference between the price received abroad and the American figure.

Crop Nears Record.

Size of the 1938 world wheat crop is approaching an all time record, with the result that all large producing countries are struggling for a share of the restricted market. Any increase in exports from one country will result in a decrease in exports from other countries, experts said. With the market more favorable, the United States last year sold 98,000,000 bushels, or 19.8 per cent of the world total abroad. Wallace is seeking at least to maintain this proportion, or go slightly over it.

Wallace's bid for Canadian cooperation in the export move followed recent announcement by the Canadian wheat board of a guaranteed basic price of 80 cents a bushel. The October future price of wheat at Winnipeg on August 5 was 74 cents a bushel. Losses from sales of wheat purchased by the board would be borne by the Government. Profits from sales would be returned to the growers.

Loans Mandatory.

Meanwhile, Wallace announced that a decline in the price of cotton on the ten spot markets, below the 8.25-cent-a-pound price set in the farm act, makes cotton loans by the Government mandatory.

"It is up to us now to provide the loan," said Wallace. Conditions of the cotton loan may be announced next week. Presumably it will be the same as the wheat loan—about 52 per cent of parity."

AAA officials said the cotton loan, around the minimum set in the farm act, should average between 8.25 and 8.30 cents a pound.

7,000,000 Bales on Hand.

The Government already has about 7,000,000 bales of loan cotton on its hands. At one time the Government disposed of all but 1,600,000 bales of its cotton-loan stocks, but the 1937 cotton-loan program brought the figure to a new peak.

Asked if the low prices of farm commodities is likely to "hurt" Democratic prospects in the November elections, Wallace said domestic producers are "getting along much better than is assumed by some people."

"Some Kansans are saying they are 'back in the Hoover days' because of the low price of wheat. But the important thing is farm income. Farm income in Kansas is now about $82,000,000. In 1932 it was only $29,000,000.

"If the $29,000,000 income did serious damage to the Republican Party in 1932, I should think $82,000,000 in income would do very much less damage to the Democratic Party."

Wallace said this year's purchasing power of farmers as a whole will "not be as high as last year," but he said he was unable to estimate extent of the decline. Farmers last year received $8,233,000,000 cash income from farm marketings, plus $367,000,000 in Government payments, or a total from both sources of $8,600,000,000.

Tree Topples Over on Car After Lightning Hits It

Post Staff Photo

This tree at Ninth and A streets northeast buried an autohobile in its foliage after it was struck by lightning in the electrical storm. No one was injured.

Redskins' Coach, 7 Children Felled During Thunderstorm

Weather

Continued from Page 1.

avenue southwest with such force Flossie and Beulah Lee, both 6.

All five were admitted to Casualty Hospital and treated for shocks and burns. Said by doctors to be in an undetermined condition, all are expected to survive.

The storm forced the thermometer from the day's high of 95 degrees at 2:10 p. m. to the minimum temperature of 74 at 4:10 p. m. The minimum was 1.4 degrees lower than the temperature recorded at 6 a. m. yesterday. Humidity at the peak temperature was 48 per cent. At the height of the rainstorm the percentage rose sharply to 97 per cent.

Prospects of more rain last night and today led the Weather Bureau to predict lower temperatures. A drop in humidity also is expected.

Storm Causes Car Crashes.

The storm was indirectly responsible for two of yesterday's traffic accidents. Eleanor Greet, 19-year-old waitress, of 219 H street northwest, was struck by an automobile in the 100 block of D street northeast as she ran through the rain from the restaurant where she works toward her brother's car parked across the street. She was admitted to Casualty Hospital suffering from cuts to the head, possible concussion and shock.

Lightning striking a tree in Anacostia Park startled Melvin Carrico, 17, 240 Eleventh street northeast, so severely that he drove his automobile into a lamp post. A passenger in the car, Thomas West, 16, 1133 Park place northeast, was treated for a fractured nose at Providence Hospital.

Washington was more fortunate than the rest of the East, which last night still sweltered in the grip of continued high temperatures and humidity. New York City ended its twenty-fourth consecutive day of temperatures higher than 80. Although yesterday's maximum was only 81, as compared with 91 the day before, the humidity climbed to 93.

Two District Employes Collapse.

The rain came shortly after 13 Government departments and agencies had dimsissed employes working in non-air-conditioned buildings. First to yield to the heat was the Federal Alcohol Administration, which closed at noon. District Building workers went home at 2 p. m.

Other buildings which were emptied or partially closed before the scheduled hour included the Smithsonian Institution, the Commerce Department, the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, Federal Power Commission, Treasury Department, Farm Credit Administration, Navy Department, Veterans Administration, Securities Exchange Commission, Winder and Munitions buildings and Rural Electrification Administration.

Two District employes who collapsed before the building closed were Sue Mason, 800 block of H street northeast, and Florence Stark, 1500 block North Capitol street, both of the Tax Assessor's office. Both returned home without medical treatment.

Robert I'Anson, 19, of 1334 Quincy street northwest, was treated for heat exhaustion at Emergency Hospital after he collapsed on the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal towpath and was dragged two blocks to aid by his girl companion, Miss Elizabeth Sphwich.

Mrs. Walter King called members of the Glen Echo rescue squad, who took I'Anson to the hospital.

Others stricken included Irene Brown, colored, 47, 68 O street northwest, collapsed at Kirby and N streets northwest. She was treated at Homeopathic Hospital and later admitted to Gallinger. Mike Murray, 18, of Chicago, was taken to Casualty Hospital from a freight train in the Washington Terminal Co. yards. He was found there in an unconscious condition.

Harold Goldsmith, colored, 31, of 6 I street northeast, was arrested early yesterday as he lay in a water trough at Lincoln road and T street northeast. According to Capt. Sidney Marks of the Twelfth Precinct, Goldsmith said, "I got so damn hot I lay down in the trough." He was charged with drunkenness.

Records Broken at Pools.

Tuesday's heat drove 11,700 Washingtonians to the six National Capital Parks swimming pools, breaking the all-time attendance, Acting Superintendent Frank T. Gartside announced yesterday.

About 25,000 persons have been sleeping in the parks every night this week, Gartside said.

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES

This Old Treatment Often Brings Happy Relief

Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys.

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. Most people pass about 3 pints a day or about 3 pounds of waste.

Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning shows there may be something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

An excess of acids or poisons in your blood, when due to functional kidney disorders, may be the cause of nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills. Adv.

Drive Out to the Country This Week-End in

A Good Used Car

Why stay in the city and swelter. Take the family out for a ride in a good used car. Present low prices and liberal terms bring the comforts of a late model car within the reach of everyone. Put a down payment on a used car now, and get a bigger kick out of life.

Turn to the page opposite the comics for a complete listing of Washington's used car bargains. You are sure to find one that fits your needs . . . and pocketbook.

Classification 98

From Maine to California:

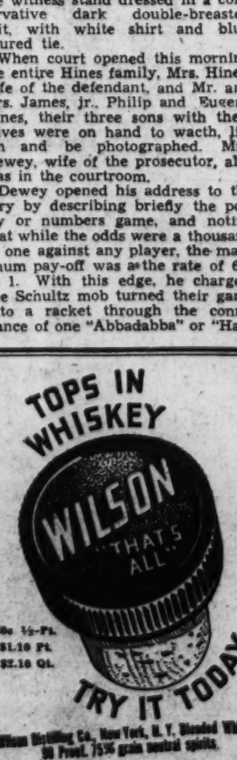
150,000 GROCERS SAY:

"WE BUY DWIN FOR OUR OWN USE"

DWIN is entirely different from old time kerosene sprays to which you have been accustomed in the past. That's why grocers and other food handlers who know insect killers have selected it for their own use. They know it will not injure or contaminate food—or ruin fabrics.

Do as the grocer does — use DWIN. It is unusually effective yet "as fragrant as flowers in May"—therefore, pleasant to use. DWIN kills flies, fleas, ants, moths, roaches, bed bugs, mosquitoes, etc., in your home and many plant insects in your garden. Obtain DWIN—in the green can—at grocer, drug, hardware or department store. Remember there is not a drop of kerosene in DWIN.

Copyright 1938 LEHN & FINK PRODUCTS CORP. Bloomfield, N.J.



60c 1/2-Pt.
$1.10 Pt.
$2.10 Qt.

Wilson Distilling Co., New York, N. Y. Blended Whiskey. 50 Proof. 75% grain neutral spirits.

District 40 and 8 Plans Promenade

The annual Grand Promenade of the local Forty and Eight of Grand Voiture No. 174, honor and fun group of the American Legion, will be held Saturday at the Suitland, Md. Airport. The program, beginning at 1 p. m., will include the farewell to John Emil McCabe, whose tenure in office as Grand Chef de Gare, has terminated.

Elections and annual reports of officers will occupy the agenda along with presentation of tokens of esteem to outgoing officers. C. Cassard Schroth, William Hays Hargrave and Cornelius Francis McCarthy, unanimously nominated at the last meeting will be elected to the respective offices of Grand Cher de Gare, Grand Chef de Train and Grand Conducteur.

Middies Off to Norfolk.

New York, Aug. 17 (AP).—The battleship Texas and the training ship Wyoming sailed today for Norfolk, Va., carrying 700 midshipmen from the Naval Academy and 1,300 enlisted men on the last leg of a European training cruise.

DELIVERY SERVICE—NATIONAL 3320

Clark's

705 14th St. N. W.

Now! BOTTLED IN BOND 100 PROOF

4 YEARS OLD

MONOGRAM RYE BOURBON

Our fine bonded rye expertly distilled by Bernheim Company, producers of I. W. Harper, a peer of quality rye whiskies.

$1.35 Pint

Our special "Blue Grass Bourbon" by J. A. Wathen, distillers of fine Kentucky bourbon for over a century.

$1.39 Pint

We feel that these two whiskies are the finest 4-year Bonded Whiskies obtainable and recommend them to the most particular buyers.

CLARK'S STRAIGHT MONOGRAM RYE
3½ Years Old
Tested and approved by thousands of Washingtonians as a fine whiskey.
$1.69 QUART
3 Bottles $5.00

SPECIAL!
PENN. MD.
Bar Quarts
Straight Rye
90 Proof
Bottled at the distillery, supply limited.
$1.00 QUART

DE KUYPER'S Famous Distilled
ANCHOR DRY GIN
Reg. $1.29 Value . . . Specially Reduced!
A famous gin made by the American subsidiary of the oldest gin distillery in the world. DISTILLED FROM 100% GRAIN SPIRITS.
$1.09 Fifth
Case of 12 Bots. $11.97

IMPORTED FRENCH SAUTERNES
Vintage 1929
Delicious when served chilled.
88c Fifth

CARTA D'ORO CUBAN RUM
"SUTTON"
Imported to sell for $2.50. Also Estrella White Rum, 5 years old.
$1.79 Fifth

HIRAM WALKER'S SLOE GIN
Distilled from imported sloe berries.
$1.35 Fifth

CLARKDALE
100 Proof
STRAIGHT BOURBON
Recommended for grand Mint Juleps and highballs.
$1.59 Quart

Reg. $3.35
CREAM OF BARLEY
Liqueur Scotch
12 YEARS OLD
Made of selected Malts . . . A Liqueur Scotch—SMOOTH AND MELLOW—one of Scotland's fine old Scotch whiskies.
$2.79 Fifth
6 BOTTLES $16.00

Post Advertising Brings Results!

The Washington Post

Registered in U. S. Patent Office.

An Independent Newspaper.
(Published every day in the year.)

Eugene Meyer, Publisher.
Floyd R. Harrison, Comptroller.

The Associated Press is entitled exclusively to use for republication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper and local news of spontaneous origin published herein. Rights of republication of all other matter herein are also reserved.

New York Office.....270 Madison Avenue
Chicago Office.....360 North Michigan Avenue

DELIVERED IN WASHINGTON

Daily, Sunday, 1 yr., $7.80		Daily, Sunday, 1 week	.15c
Daily only, 1 yr.	5.20	Daily only, 1 week	.10c
Sunday only, 1 yr.	2.60	Sunday only, per copy	5c

BY MAIL—MARYLAND, VIRGINIA, WEST VIRGINIA AND NORTH CAROLINA

Daily and Sunday		Sunday Only		Daily Only
One year	$9.00	One year	$4.00	One year	$6.00
Six months	5.00	Six months	2.00	Six months	3.50
One month	85c	One month	40c	One month	60c

OTHER STATES, MEXICO AND CANADA

Daily and Sunday		Sunday Only		Daily Only
One year	$11.00	One year	$4.50	One year	$7.50
Six months	6.00	Six months	2.50	Six months	4.00
One month	1.00	One month	45c	One month	70c

All Subscriptions by Mail Payable in Advance.

Entered at the Postoffice, Washington, D. C., as second-class mail matter.

TELEPHONE NATIONAL 4200.

Thursday, August 18, 1938.

The Logical Conclusion.

In its attempt to justify the President's "purge" campaign, the New York Evening Post patently ignores the central issue in this development.

In an editorial spread broadcast by Mr. Roosevelt as a statement of his own views, the New York newspaper accuses those who have incurred the President's wrath of having evaded or flouted the campaign pledges of the Democratic Party. Mr. Roosevelt, it is then argued, is thus entirely justified in intervening in the party primaries to urge the voters to reject such offending individuals and to nominate others deemed more favorable to the New Deal.

But the real issue involved in the "purge" campaign has little or nothing to do with the question of campaign promises and their fulfillment or nonfulfillment. On that score Mr. Roosevelt's own record certainly gives him no right to act as judge. For the most part, in fact, the "purge" is being directed against those whose principal crime is that they opposed the court-packing plan. This measure, however, had no authorization in the 1936 Democratic platform. On the contrary, many sincere Democrats believe the court plan did violence to the spirit of that document.

The real issue is whether the representative system of government as it has existed hitherto is to survive. For if the enormous pressure which the Executive is in a position to wield through a vastly expanded Federal bureaucracy is to be applied at his direction to local intraparty contests, representative government may disappear. Indeed, if the New York Evening Post's argument is carried to its logical conclusion, primary contests should be abolished altogether and the President, as custodian of the true faith and its only authorized interpreter, should be empowered to name all the party candidates.

Not Yet In The Headlines.

Virtue at its best becomes a commonplace. It may give a small boy a thrill of righteousness but no man takes credit to himself because he washes his neck and ears without being told.

Virtue has no press agent and gets no publicity. It is departure from the norm that makes news. It is with mixed feelings, therefore, that one reads that an Edwardsville, Ill., man, declaring that though his salary is small he is able to support his mother, has returned to the welfare superintendent of that city old-age assistance checks amounting to $235, which he persuaded her not to cash.

There is no disgrace in accepting old-age assistance, but the notion which persists here and there that a man should care for his own and that assistance should not be accepted if any other course is possible, is at least commendable.

The name of the honest and independent young man is not given in the small item buried on an inside page, which is, perhaps, just as well. Honesty and independence have, happily, not yet made the headlines.

Merit System Managers.

The effectiveness of the civil service reforms ordered by President Roosevelt last June will depend in large measure upon the type of personnel directors to be selected through examinations just announced by the Civil Service Commission. Under the new set-up these directors are to become "the keystone of the program of personnel administration."

Too often in the past the civil service system has operated without satisfactory results because of the lack of good business management. It is not enough to conduct examinations and award positions to one of the three highest eligibles. To obtain the greatest efficiency the final selections must be made with the help of personnel experts. Promotions must be made through a merit system applied by a director who is familiar with both the work of the department and the personnel. Complaints must be properly adjusted. And the relationship between the department and the Civil Service Commission must be kept on a business-like basis.

To supply these needs the President has ordered the establishment of a personnel division in every executive department and independent agency. Salaries for these positions, ranging as high as $6,500 per year, should attract some capable and experienced men, although the Government may find it difficult to hold the best personnel directors at that figure. In effect, these experts chosen only for their training and experience in personnel matters will become divisional managers of the merit system.

In the past personnel directors have frequently been chosen to sift out the faithful who are entitled to party patronage. The very fact that the new directors are to be professionally trained and selected on the basis of merit should inject new life into the civil service system. So far as that system extends, there is now hope of developing a real career service in the Government.

ICC Rate-Increase Order.

The reluctance of the ICC to permit increases in railway rates contrasts strikingly with its treatment of the motor carriers.

The latter have actually been ordered to raise their minimum carrying charges in New England and Central-Western territory on the ground that an emergency exists as a result of destructive competition from within and without the industry. The ICC makes it clear that in thus exercising its power of regulation it aims to protect the railways as well as the trucking industry from the pernicious effects of indiscriminate rate-cutting by the latter.

The situation now existing in the trucking industry, financially weakened by the combined forces of business depression and too low rates, is reminiscent of the days when unregulated railways engaged in self-destructive rate-cutting practices. The motor carriers have tried to solve their rate problems by means of regional conferences. But, as usual, in voluntary undertakings of this sort, non-co-operators have seriously hampered their efforts. Moreover, as the ICC explains, the carriers submitted their rate proposals to the conference groups before the recent advances in railway rates. Consequently "any competitive equilibrium which existed in the motor and rail rates and which the motor carriers may have intended to preserve by the rates proposed" has necessarily been destroyed.

The ICC is acutely aware of the extreme complexity of the rate problems presented by the motor carriers. In New England, alone, for example, it is said that about 100 motor carriers are in existence for every single rail carrier. They not only compete with one another but with private carriers, railways, steamships and forwarding companies as well. As a result, the ICC approached its pioneer task of regulation with evident trepidation, admitted its inexperience and stressed the tentative, temporary character of the current decisions.

While bestowing praise upon New England groups for their efforts to bring some stability into the rate structure of the trucking industry, the ICC concluded that their accomplishment had not been sufficient to avert disaster. Therefore, it added that "the only remaining recourse is to the power of the Government . . . What we are asked to do to meet the emergency is, substantially and essentially, to establish by force of law a firm foundation for the construction of a reasonably stable and well-designed rate structure by fixing a bottom, in the shape of minimum rates, which will set a limit to rate cutting."

In the case of commodity rates the ICC admits there is some force to the argument that increases should be ordered sufficient to bring charges into line with corresponding railway rates. The New England motor carriers will, therefore, be expected at later hearings to show cause why that should not be done. Here at last is welcome evidence that the ICC is ready to use its enlarged powers to bring about a better co-ordinated system of regulation designed to put an end to rate wars between the railways and the motor carriers.

A Warning To Taxpayers.

With a deficit of nearly $4,000,000,000 in prospect Senator Harrison warns that a lowering of income tax exemptions and higher rates in the middle income brackets may be voted by the next Congress. He hopes, however, that an improvement in business and curtailment of expenditures will make it possible to avoid the imposition of new tax burdens.

As a matter of fact, very limited amounts of new revenue would be obtained from increasing the levies on small and moderate incomes. Persons in the lower income groups receive a comparatively small proportion of the national income despite their numerical predominance. Moreover, even under the prosperous conditions of the late twenties, it is estimated that nearly 60 per cent of all American families received $2,000 or less per year. The bill introduced by Senator La Follette to lower tax exemptions to $2,000 would, of course, leave this large group, controlling approximately 24 per cent of the Nation's income, untouched except for unmarried persons for whom an $800 exemption is proposed.

Senator Harrison is undoubtedly well aware of the inadequacy of such proposals to satisfy the requirements of the budgetary situation. His warning serves an excellent purpose, however, in that it calls attention to the desperate need for retrenchment to put a stop to recurrent deficits. Otherwise, if the public credit is to be saved, it will become necessary to tap every feasible source of tax revenue, including the incomes of millions of persons who have only the bare necessities of life.

It is encouraging that the chairman of the Senate Finance Committee shows no hesitancy in admitting these unpalatable facts. And it is also reassuring to learn that he will vigorously oppose any attempt by the Administration to restore the punitive levies of the 1936 tax on undistributed profits.

The most exhaustive search for new sources of tax revenue will never produce funds to finance the current scale of expenditures. The only hope of eventual return to fiscal soundness lies in reduced spending. However, there is no better way of obtaining popular support for a program of retrenchment than by broadening the basis of income taxation and making a large number of people contribute to the support of the Government. For that reason Senator Harrison's announcement is especially opportune.

Group Health Developments.

It is altogether desirable that contributors to the Community Chest should express themselves frankly regarding the disposition of funds as well as the methods of their collection. But it is inadmissible for them to demand, as the United Federal Workers of America have done, that the Chest use its powerful influence to open the doors of local hospitals to doctors of the Group Health Association.

Beyond determining that a welfare institution is honestly and capably administered and also renders service deserving of community support, the Chest cannot concern itself with a member organization's internal affairs. To do so would be to limit the Chest's appeal to those few citizens who could subscribe to its ideas on the administration of each of the 63 agencies for which it solicits funds.

The resolution of the U. F. W. A., however, may have a value if it impresses local hospital boards with the fact that a considerable segment of public opinion disapproves their refusal to grant privileges to GHA doctors. Another argument to dissuade them from their present stand should be the somewhat pathetic announcement that the GHA will build a 15-bed hospital of its own. Washington cries for more hospital facilities, but if a new institution is to be built, it should be one of substantial proportions so that the effort will be worthwhile.

The GHA clearly would be poorly advised to build a hospital, at least at this stage of its development. The argument will be advanced that it has no choice in the matter since it must have a place in which to care for its members now excluded from existing hospitals. But the whole story of improving the economics of health in Washington has not yet been written. The courts have yet to speak finally on two questions of legality; more important, local doctors are known to be studying a new medical payment plan. There is a real possibility that eventually, and it may be in the near future, all hospitals will be opened to every reputable physician.

Moreover, if the GHA is to build a new hospital, it will be forced to raise the necessary funds from outside its membership. This is also a strong argument against the scheme. It will spoil the GHA's value as a social experiment. Outside contributions will make it impossible to learn whether the GHA holds the secret for improving the economics of health. Unless entirely self-supporting, health insurance has small interest for the country at large. In this connection, the news that the GHA proposes to boost its monthly assessments, impose a $25 charge in maternity cases and levy a new registration fee is discouraging.

It is said that these increased charges are required to repay the $40,000 advanced by the HOLC and to help swell the hospital construction fund. In the absence of a detailed statement of GHA finances, it is difficult to determine whether this is the whole explanation. The thought persists that perhaps the GHA is repeating the experience of most earlier health insurance experiments, notably in Europe. So long as new members were coming in, Europe found group health insurance quite feasible. But when no more registration fees were available, bankruptcy loomed ahead. Government assistance then became inevitable and with it, of course, compulsory health insurance.

If in this particular the outlook for the GHA would appear to be not entirely rosy, its further proposal to charge $1 for the first house call asked by a member during an illness shows that the trustees are aware of the pitfalls in its path. This plan will minimize the curious hypochondria which health insurance breeds and which also seriously upset the actuarial theories of earlier experiments. If the GHA would next devise a change to permit members a free choice of physicians, one substantial step would have been taken toward the wholly desirable rapprochement of doctors and laymen on the important question of how to make modern medicine's full facilities readily available to the low and medium income brackets.

It seems that inflation is spreading to the far corners of the world. According to a news dispatch, the price of wives in Nigeria is now $25 per each.

It seems that every time we have to get down to brass tacks, the darned things are standing point up.

"Amnesia is becoming more prevalent as the depression deepens," declares a specialist. Creditors aren't surprised.

We sometimes wonder why a person buys a railroad ticket, when he could buy a railroad for less money.

Was anything ever done about having the poppy designated as the official Father's Day flower?

Don't Be Scared, It Isn't Loaded.

Letters to the Editor

All communications must carry the writer's name and address, though pen names are permitted at the Editor's discretion. In fairness to other correspondents, brevity is requested. Letters are subject to condensation.

A Newcomer's Complaint.

To the Editor of The Post—Sir:
I have recently come to Washington to live and feel deeply appreciative of its beauty and attractiveness. But, being a newcomer, I can see the weaknesses as well, and I am taking the liberty of commenting on the traffic problem. I do not wonder so many children and adults are killed. The streets are most confusing to a stranger and would in themselves present a major problem to anyone trying to find his way about. You cannot just go around the block or park to inquire the way. This difficulty, of course, cannot be helped and in time one learns his way about. It is unnecessary, however, to come home after almost every trip downtown irritated and unhappy because of the thoughtlessness and discourtesy of other drivers.

I am accustomed to drive in a very large city where speed and time are matters of importance to a far greater degree than in Washington. There the horn is seldom heard, while here drivers seem to progress largely by the "horn method." If you try to park you are embarrassed by a volume of discordant honks. If you try to drive carefully down one of our busy streets you are made to feel conspicuous by a following of tooting cars. I took particular notice yesterday and had the same result in every case. First slowing down to allow a pedestrian to cross, second, trying to give children playing along the sidewalk a wide space between car and edge, third stopping for persons to alight from a street car, fourth slowing up and stopping in order not to "push" the light. In every case I was greeted by a blast from behind. In one case where a man stepped from the sidewalk in front of my car and I had to stop suddenly a young woman who was directly behind called shrilly as she passed, "Dumb bell," etc. etc.

Just a suggestion to the committee working so hard on safety here. People are not in such a hurry here that they can't be decent and considerate of others. A lot of our traffic trouble comes from just a lack of common courtesy on the part of drivers. I believe we might well start a campaign of quiet driving. Several cities are doing this and after all it's the civilized thing to do.

FREDERIC HENRY.
Washington, Aug. 16.

Torch Bearers Into Singers.

To the Editor of The Post—Sir:
This is a warm morning, but much warmer when one regards the article by your society editor, Hope Ridings Miller, entitled "Careers in Night-Club Spotlight Still Draw Social Butterflies." I do not accuse Miss Miller of condoning these careers; she merely states the facts. In this day, and particularly this summer, when we have been literally bombarded by propaganda in the interests of education and with emphasis on higher education for the masses, it is sad to look upon all these girls, daughters of men who have made a mark in the world, and who presumably have been exposed to the best in education, taking up careers as torch singers.

Now, I may be prejudiced and I'll admit my knowledge of night clubs is small, but torch singing is hardly "grand art" and certainly not becoming to the family from which the girl comes, nor herself, for that matter. Miss Miller goes on to state that some of them have successfully "synchronized marriage with a career." What a reflection on their husbands' manhood! Not only the daughters lack that due sense of the fitness of things, but the sons as well.

MAUDE BELL.
Paris, Va., Aug. 16.

Unionism And Monopoly.

To the Editor of The Post—Sir:
In your issue of August 15 Mr. Pegler contends that it is inconsistent for unions and those in favor of unions to join with the Department of Justice in condemning the Medical Association as a monopoly because of its actions to destroy the Group Health Association. I wish to call your attention to the fact that it is Mr. Pegler who is inconsistent or else is ignorant of the economic basis for unions.

As used in connection with the practical functionings of our economy today, competition exists only when there is an approximate equality in numbers between the buyers and the sellers of any service or product. The greater the difference in numbers between these two groups the more closely a monopolistic situation is approached.

Unions are merely a counter move to the monopolistic position which the employer occupies. They tend to bring into closer equality the number of sellers with the number of buyers of labor, and in this way increase rather than decrease the chances of competition. The Group Health Association is another organization which is attempting to equalize the number of sellers with the number of buyers—this time of medical care.

If we are to continue the competitive system, it is essential that we support all moves to increase rather than to decrease competition. The solution depends upon one of two things: Either the organized interests must unorganize or the unorganized interests must organize. The tendency today is for the vested interests to resist any and all moves of the unorganized sections of our economy to organize. No one can save capitalism if they succeed.

ROBERT A. HULL, Jr.
Washington, Aug. 15.

Pedestrians' Part.

To the Editor of The Post—Sir:
In reading your paper for the past three days, I notice that The Post and the Junior Board of Commerce are co-operating on a traffic safety campaign. You seem to be stressing the actions of drivers—both passenger car and truck.

Why don't you try to get some co-operation from the pedestrians? Or try to get the Police Department to enforce the traffic signals for pedestrians as well as drivers.

I am from California, and believe me the pedestrians there have to obey the signals. My wife and I have noticed a great disrespect for traffic signals by pedestrians all throughout the East. I believe that proper enforcement would help reduce traffic accidents.

ROBERT F. GRAY.
Washington, Aug. 11.

Approval.

To the Editor of The Post—Sir:
The excellent picture of Corrigan on the front photo page in Sunday's Washington Post should be appreciated by everyone throughout the country. As far as I have been able to discover yours was the only American Sunday paper to devote its entire front picture page to Corrigan.

My wife and I had The Post's Corrigan picture framed and hung on one of the walls of our home by 12 noon Sunday.

We would like to find out if any other admirers of America's "one of the best" availed themselves of The Washington Post's gift to its public in this manner.

PHILIP MUDD.
Washington, Aug. 15.

"Social Security."

To the Editor of The Post—Sir:
Were the situation which they have created not so desperately serious, it would be highly amusing to hear the New Deal spokesman tell of what they call "social security"—this while they are striking at the roots of every one of those principles which must be carefully nurtured, if actual "social security" is to exist at all.

HARRISON TILGHMAN.
Easton, Md., Aug. 16.

Health And Hunger.

To the Editor of The Post—Sir:
I wish to express my appreciation for your splendid editorial of August 15, dealing with the health situation in the District and Health Officer Ruhland's request for a substantial increase in his budget for 1940, to adequately cope with the problem. In it you face the disgraceful health situation in a frank and constructive manner.

There is, however, one aspect of this problem touched upon in your editorial, which requires greater emphasis. I am referring to the problem of prevention of disease, of eliminating the causes of the present condition. Does it require much imagination to predict what will happen to the health of 2,074 applicants who have been refused relief and the 1,600 others who have been dropped from relief during the month of July—not because they are not in need of it, but because of the inadequacy of funds for that purpose?

MARTIN CHANCEY,
City Secretary.
District 34, Communist Party.
Washington, Aug. 16.

Murder In Maine.

To the Editor of The Post—Sir:
It is refreshing to read your editorial on "A Sordid Case" that was also treated with restraint in the news columns of The Post. Although you do not say so, it is to be inferred that juvenile delinquency is a concomitant of the automobile, lurid motion pictures and sensational journalism?

That there are human beings so devoid of decency as to capitalize the shameful past of one of the "victims" of the Maine tragedy by having her appear in a New York night club is an affront to public morals—if twentieth century civilization hasn't forgotten them—and the commissioner of licenses should not tolerate such exploitation of depravity.

FIDES.
Arlington, Va., Aug. 15.

"Stars And Bars."

To the Editor of The Post—Sir:
After reading with interest "The Stars and Bars" article that appeared in the July 18 issue of your paper, it occurred to me that your readers might enjoy the following flag incident found in a letter written by Gen. Pickett, June 24, 1863, as the Gray army moved across Pennsylvania to the Gettysburg Battlefield, to the young woman who later became his wife, and who after his death was a social leader in the Capital—Mrs. Sallie Corbell Pickett:

"Yesterday my men were marching victoriously through the little town of Greencastle, the bands all playing our glorious, soul-inspiring Southern airs . . . and the soldiers joyously keeping time to the music, many following it with their voices, and making up for the want of welcome . . . in the enemy's country . . . by giving themselves a welcome. As Floweree's band, playing 'Dixie,' was passing a vine-covered home, a young girl rushed out on the porch and waved a United States flag. Then . . . she fastened it around her as an apron, and, taking hold of it on each side and waving it in defiance, called out with all the strength of her girlish voice and all the courage of her brave young heart: 'Traitors, traitors, traitors! Come and take this flag, the man of you who dares!' Knowing that many of my men were from a section of the country which had been within the enemy's country and fearing lest some might forget their manhood, I took off my hat and bowed to her, saluted her flag, then turned, facing the men, who felt and saw my unspoken order . . . almost every man lifted his cap and cheered the little maiden who, though she kept on waving her flag, ceased calling us traitors, till finally, letting it drop in front of her, she cried out: 'Oh, I wish I had a rebel flag—I'd wave that, too!'"

ELIZABETH DAVIDSON.
Washington, Aug. 10.

The Post Impressionist

Ethel.

I MET an old friend the other day, an author. She told me she was just back from Victory Mountain, where she had been spending her vacation and looking for "local color."

I hadn't thought of Victory Mountain for years. All the same, I spent some time there myself in the dim past. I, too, like "local color," and was seeking it in its lair. Its a real mountain, all right, and I was right on the ridge-pole, so to speak, with scenery to the right and to the left, and all that kind of thing. The place was thick with tradition, beautiful female spies, guerrilla warfare, moonlight raids. Below us lay the peaceful river, 6 or 7 inches deep, where hundreds of soldiers had been drowned in full retreat. Our faith in tradition is touching, and we tried to rationalize the story by concluding that there was probably a flood that year.

The best part of all was the free, untrammeled nature of the people. I was brought up on various mottos, among them, "Mountaineers are always free!" I was a great admirer of the Swiss, all other mountain people. Also the Fourth of July was approaching. What could be more appropriate than to spend it in this atmosphere of early American freedom?

Besides its stories, the place proved remarkable for its snakes. I learned more about snake lore in my first day than I could forget in ten years. They bask on rocks in the moonlight; they smell like watermelons (or is it cucumbers?) They stay each one on its own side of the "pike" and never cross (intelligent creatures), and they are very fond of stone walls, window ledges and many other places where I would as soon not have had them.

Besides the snakes, there was a good supply of clear, wholesome mountain moonshine, which the free, untrammeled mountaineers swigged by the gallon, day and night. I never could make up my mind whether the snakes materialized as a result of the beverage, or whether the moonshine was a Providential compensation for the snakes.

* * *

I had always thought of mountaineers as driving their flocks up to mountain pastures, meantime singing sweetly. These lads drove their cows to pasture, all right, but to the accompaniment of yells and whacks and exclamations of which the gentlest was "You durn fool old caow!"

My host, name Clem Botts, had had a varied career. Among other things, he had "fit the Spaniards" in '98. Now he was content to return to his birthplace, to collect his pension and let his varied progeny take up his labors. His pet remark to a newly arrived outlander was, "Whatever you do, don't bother Ethel."

Ethel resided in the barn, and no one felt any urge to do her harm. She was a large and shiny snake, a blacksnake, Clem said. "She's right smart of a rat catcher." I was willing to take his word for it.

* * *

The Fourth of July dawned auspiciously. There was a minor shooting at the crossroads, in which two prominent families of the county were represented. I believe the question settled on the field of honor was whether Philadelphia was in Pennsylvania or Pennsylvania in Philadelphia. After the ripple of mild excitement had subsided, I retired to the porch and picked up a newspaper which lay on the floor. The paper felt rather heavy as I spread it on my lap, and then something seemed to slip. A couple of plump young rattlers fell on the floor at my feet.

After my host had administered the native remedy for such shocks, I strolled down the road a piece to enjoy the morning and to have a chat with old Molly, whose cabin was a pleasant addition to the landscape. But Molly was perturbed. For years part of her roof had been propped up, held by a bedpost. Today the bed had foolishly been moved, to clean under it, and the roof had caved in. Molly opined that the next person who started any foolishness like cleaning would get a dose of buckshot.

About 4 that afternoon Uncle Clem went up to the barn. Whether Ethel had imbibed the Spirit of '76 or whether, as Clem, argued, "them dratted summer boarders was to blame," she took a vicious bite out of him. He had strength to holler freely for help, and his son Bill responded. It was several miles to the nearest town, and the Ford did it in record time, Clem meanwhile protesting that he had never heard of a doctor for snakebite; anyway, a blacksnake wasn't poison. Give him a drink and he would be all right!

The doctor gave first aid, and then made a dash for the nearest hospital. He gave Clem an even chance to return to his mountain or to climb the golden stair, which couldn't have been very much steeper of the two. Clem was a tough old party, though. After a stiff battle with the Grim Reaper he came through, paler and thinner, but good for many and many a gallon.

I had supposed his cronies at the crossroads would welcome him back with expressions of joy, and I went down to the store on the day he was reported out of danger to spread the glad tidings. Ed Collins turned from the counter and his fifth Coca-Cola (he was in one of his intermittent fits of temperance). He heard my story with lackluster eyes and remarked:

"Durn old fool! Served him right! He's lived 40 years in these mountings, and he didn't have sense enough to know Ethel was a rattler!

E. DALWICK.

Fair Enough

By Westbrook Pegler

Saint Or Spelvins?

MY LITTLE hot-weather controversy with Benjamin Bufano, the sculptor who has added a monumental God-awful to the terrible total of American statuary, will now be tapped firmly on the head and laid to rest. The San Francisco Press Club is custodian of two checks for $100, each of which probably will be given to some fund for San Francisco children. Mr. Bufano suggested an outing fund, and that is a nice idea. My original intention was to start a purse to prevent the erection of his vast water-tank memorial to St. Francis of Assisi, but that seems hopeless, and it would be an evasion to insist on the letter of the original proposition.

I recklessly offered to forfeit the hundred if I could not hew a better statue out of native New York rock with a bung starter and a carpenter's chisel. Mr. Bufano not only accepted the challenge, but posted $100 himself under terms which are not very clear, even now. Then, as a sporting gesture, he sent me a sculptor's mallet and chisel. There has been considerable repartee about chiseling, most of it not so hot. Finding myself stuck with my proposition, I induced Justin Sturm, of Westport, Conn., a versatile artist, to lend a hand. Mr. Sturm may be remembered as a Yaler, and made All-American during the time of Tad Jones at New Haven. He became a novelist and magazine fictioner after the children's hour was over at Yale, published a couple of books and then went in for sculpture. He also plays the accordion.

• • • •

HE ADVISES that the figure be modeled in clay, and the study, now cast in plaster, has been shipped to the San Francisco Press Club, which seems to be the arbiter in the matter. Mr. Bufano suggested a jury of three curators, of whom I was to name two, but the only curator I know is Raymond Ditmars, the curator of reptiles at the Bronx Zoo, and he probably wouldn't want to bother.

It has been reported that Mr. Sturm ghosted my statue, which is a figure of Mrs. George Spelvin and child, but that is not so. He is a real good sculptor. He makes finger nails and feet on his statues, which is more than Bufano did for St. Francis. He just furnished the clay and the studio and then, fascinated by a work which he thinks is worse in some respects than Bufano's, made the cast.

However, it develops that even if he had made the original it would have been entirely ethical by the standards of the profession to palm it off as my own. It turns out that some of the most famous sculptors employ ghosts not only to do their heavy work, but even to help with the original designs. The accredited artists often are no more concerned in the creation than Jock Whitney is in the victory of a Whitney horse in a big race. We learn something every day.

• • • •

MR. BUFANO is said to be a very good sculptor, and if that is so the only answer is that he laid an egg in this case, as sometimes happens to the best of artists. But that would not explain how came the committee to lay an egg, too, in selecting this eye-sore to scar the beauty of a majestic natural site in San Francisco. Many letters have come from that city agreeing that the Bufano St. Francis is a menace to the local landscape and the peace of mind and soul of those who love the hills and respect the subject of the caricature. But apparently nothing can be done about it now beyond hoping that the next earthquake, if quake there must be, will do the sporting thing.

My figure of Mrs. Spelvin and child includes a cornucopia, but two grapes and a pineapple were lost in the casting, so it may seem rather meager. I could model some spares and send them on to be affixed with glue, but that would only drag the story out. I don't seriously think it is much prettier than Bufano's statue, but, judging by the original selection of the committee, I take it that they are given to vagaries and faintly fear that they may decide to erect Mrs. Spelvin and Child, 158 feet high, instead of St. Francis.

Mr. Bufano has been a good sport in this, and I salute him, but still insist that his St. Francis is a terrible injustice to a well-loved city and saint.

Copyright, 1938, United Features Syndicate, Inc.

Over-the-Counter Security Traders Form Own Code

New York, Aug. 7 (AP).—The National Security Trades Association, an organization of traders for over-the-counter security houses, announced today it had formulated a uniform practice code as a "definite step toward self-regulation" under provisions of amendments to the securities exchange act of 1934.

Since the membership of the association is composed of individual traders, and not of the security houses themselves, each member is being asked to have his partner or employer approve and sign an agreement to abide by the code.

The code covers delivery of securities, description of securities, dividend claims, and is designed "to facilitate handling of over-the-counter trading on a smooth and ethical basis."

Morgenthaus in Geneva.

Geneva, Aug. 17 (AP).—Henry Morgenthau, Secretary of the United States Treasury, and his family arrived today to visit Zurich, Strasbourg and Rheims before sailing for home August 24.

What Mr. Pegler Is Talking About

To permit readers to form their own opinions in the current controversy between Westbrook Pegler and Beniamino Buffano, the sculptor, we publish this picture of the stainless-steel statue of St. Francis of Assisi. Mr. Buffano is explaining his work to William Gaskin, of the San Francisco Art Commission, which promises to place it on Twin Peaks overlooking that city.

Second Year

Prolongation Of Far-Eastern War Spells Impending End Of Japan's Empire, But Effect On West Is Yet To Come.

By Nathaniel Peffer.

(Following are excerpts from an article entitled "Japan and China: Second Year," which appears in the September issue of Harper's Magazine. Shortly after the beginning of the war Mr. Peffer, a widely known authority on Far Eastern affairs, predicted "a long protracted war without formal decision or definite conclusion," and also that, in the event of complete Chinese victory, intervention by the western powers was almost inevitable. Of these predictions the first has been wholly fulfilled. Of the second Mr. Peffer says that intervention "is still more likely to come than not.")

IT IS INDEED a long war and the end is not in sight. To that extent the Japanese are losing. Their strategy, their hopes and their illusions have all been defeated. Their external relations, and still more their internal position made a quick victory essential . . . With the exception of a few who had lived in China and knew something about the Chinese, the Japanese were almost unanimous in their belief that China would collapse at once. It was more than belief. It was faith, a faith founded on vanity and ignorance . . . Japan had already paid an exorbitant price for an almost congenital incapacity to understand China. And to that weakness the Japanese historian of a hundred years hence may attribute the downfall of the short-lived Japanese empire . . .

Geographically and tactically the Japanese have had magnificent victories. They hold all of North China and nearly all of Central China. And their advance is the measure of their failure. If they had not taken so much territory, if they had not been compelled to take so much territory, they could have counted the war successful. Their object was to deal China a crushing blow with a minimal expenditure of men and materials, dictate a peace ending opposition to Japan's ambitions, and pinch off the North China provinces.

They thought the fighting would be over when they had overrun the area around Peiping and Tientsin or, at the most, when they had driven the Chinese central government out of Nanking. Instead, after every victory they have had to undertake another and harder campaign. They have won battles, driven off Chinese armies, and captured cities and provinces, but they have not been able to put Chinese armed forces out of action. They have won everything, in fact, except Chinese acknowledgment of defeat.

And until they win that their victories are worthless to them. To the contrary, they are a liability. They impose the necessity of more troops for garrison duty and guarding lines of communication, more men and munitions for further battles. Every mile the Japanese penetrate deeper into China their task becomes more difficult, their position more dangerous.

• • • •

TIME HAS DEFEATED JAPAN. If Japan had not underestimated the enemy but instead had thrust into China with the full force of its trained man-power and modern armament, China might have been crushed before it could gather its scattered powers. But if Japan had not underestimated the enemy it would not have been Japan, and there would have been no war. It would not have been a country dragged at the heels of a military clique, insular, semifeudal in its ignorance of the world, overweening in pride and intoxicated by fantasies of world conquest that the country is not strong enough to sustain. Japan being what it was, contempt of the enemy and miscalculation of his strength were innate. In result Japan finds itself in its present predicament—unable to win the war, unable to drop it, unable to continue it without the danger of fatal exhaustion.

• • • •

What then? Defeat for the Japanese will not necessarily mean victory for the Chinese. China will have frustrated an invader and saved itself from becoming a Japanese colony, but it cannot return to the status preceding the war. In the first place, all the physical reconstruction, the industrialization and modernization of the previous decade, has been destroyed. This is one of the major tragedies of the war.

The Chinese Communist army has been newly discovered by the American press and its influence and accomplishments are therefore exaggerated in popular discussion. Guerrilla warfare has been treated as synonymous with Communist activity. This is baseless and unfortunate in that it tends to spread the belief that resistance to Japan is disproportionately communistic. But it is true, nevertheless, that the war has given the Communists an opportunity to organize large districts, extensive popular support among the masses, and seasoned troops.

There are here the makings of complications no less serious than those of the war. It is not unlikely that China will be in upheaval for years. Much will depend on how much of a political mechanism is left at the end of the war, on whether there is more than one such mechanism and, if so, who controls them.

One other contingency must be taken into account. If Japan is repelled and the government left intact—a successful military government accustomed to arbitrary rule under war conditions—there arises the danger of the Man on Horseback. Even if Chiang Kai-shek, who wields preponderant power now, should die there will be other candidates for the saddle.

• • • •

WHAT CERTAINLY CANNOT be looked for is a period of stability or tranquillity in the Far East. What can be expected is a long war without a decision having finality. Unless the Fascist powers come to Japan's rescue and are not restrained by the others, Japan will not win. It may have the outer semblance of a victory, but a victory that will be actually Pyrrhic and will bleed Japan to death. In the end the outcome of the war, if not actually determined by the west, will follow the form that the whole international conflict takes and reflect the way in which that conflict is resolved. The Far East may, indeed, precipitate the ultimate determination of the Western conflict; but even if it does not, it will be governed thereby. What can be taken as certain now is that the future of the Far East will be decided as much in London, Paris, Berlin, Rome, Moscow and Washington as on the battlefields of the middle Yangtze, a fact that will not add to the simplicity of life in London, Paris Berlin, Rome, Moscow and Washington.

Copyright, 1938, by Harper & Bros. All Rights Reserved.

Today and Tomorrow

By Walter Lippmann

A Six Weeks' Test Of Men's Nerves.

Paris, Aug. 17.

FOR SIX WEEKS, that is to say until the end of September, the neighbors of Germany will be put to a very severe test. They have to remain calm and yet alert, they have to be vigilant and yet unprovocative, in the presence of what is in effect not an ordinary army maneuver, but a virtual mobilization of Germany's military power. By about September 15, according to the present time table, the Reich will have taken the military measures that would be taken just before the first phase of a war.

The peace establishment, including the former Federal Army of Austria, amounts to about 600,000 thousand men under arms. It is estimated that in the first stage of the maneuvers, by about September 5, this number will be increased to more than a million men, and that in the second stage, when the maneuvers will be conducted by the Eighteenth Army Corps, rather than by the separate 52 divisions, the number of men under arms may reach 1,300,000 and that it will remain at that figure until the end of September.

• • • •

THE PURELY MILITARY character of the maneuvers is not, however, the most impressive aspect of the matter. For the plans as announced do not envisage a massing of the troops on any of Germany's frontiers, though it is clear that the mobilization will include all the necessary arrangements for such a concentration.

What is attracting more attention are the civilian measures accompanying these maneuvers. Thus there are some 400,000 workers who have been conscripted and sent to labor at very long hours and under great pressure on the building of fortifications. This conscript labor, working under military command, is by no means composed of unemployed. On the contrary, it has been drafted from factories and building projects all over Germany and Austria.

Then, too, the harvest is in, and the agricultural population is being called upon to furnish large quantities of food and animals to the army. There has been a sudden decision to build granaries sufficient to store wheat up to 1,300,000 tons—that is for a two-months' supply—and in order to find the steel for these granaries permits for the construction of large homes have been suspended.

• • • •

THE DRAFTING of men and materials for war purposes is so great that, according to the Berlin correspondent of the London Times, a considerable part of German industry is unable to operate except at a very low rate of production. This fact has been reflected in a sizable slump on the Berlin Stock Exchange. There also has been a great expansion of imports of food, raw materials and manufactured articles during the first half of this year, and since it appears that some considerable part of these imports is being stored rather than reworked for export, the German trade balance is such that something will have to be done about it.

Everything indicates that the diversion of labor, materials, liquid capital and foreign exchange to military purposes is exceptional, even for Nazi Germany, and that this immensely costly economic effort cannot, therefore, be undertaken merely to exercise the troops and to provide an impressive spectacle.

• • • •

THE EXPERIENCE of the past would seem to show the primary object is to make an immense demonstration of force for the moment when the diplomatic situation in Czechoslovakia and in Spain is ripe for a decision. Within the next six weeks Lord Runciman must pass from exploration and negotiation to specific proposals. With the utmost skill he could not put that off much longer than six weeks. In the same period a decision probably will be reached as to whether the Spanish war is to continue until next spring, and unconfirmed but credible reports from Italy indicate that Mussolini is considering making another and greater intervention in order to end the war this season.

Thus the Germans will be in full military array during the time when the Czech and Spanish problems are at the crucial point of decision. It is not necessary to conclude from this that they now intend to go to war. On the contrary, all past experience indicates that Hitler will increase the pressure and the threat to the breaking point, watching for some weakness on the other side, some crack in their armor into which he can drive his sword without provoking a general war.

• • • •

THE QUESTION for him and the world is whether the Franco-British alliance can withstand the tremendous pressure to which it is being subjected, whether the two peoples can maintain their resolution through a prolonged psychological attack on their nerves and their will. They have to remain ready and firm without resorting to any of the measures by which the dictators daily whip up a war-like attitude among their peoples. Their leaders have to damp down feeling and, in order not to seem provocative, and in order to keep their moral record clear, they have to put their people halfway to sleep. Yet they have also to keep them sufficiently awake.

• • • •

AS A TEST of character, and of the true discipline which really free man can acquire, the present behavior of the French and British peoples is admirable. For there is nothing harder for a nation or for an individual than to remain very quiet and yet unterrified in the presence of increasing and approaching danger. The human impulse is to do something, anything, that breaks the tension and relieves the pent up emotion. Thus far this impulse is under perfect control. This is not because any sane man deludes himself as to the danger. It is because the people realize that a great voluntary self-discipline is their surest protection.

Copyright, 1938, New York Tribune, Inc.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

Death On A Race Track.

He lifts his head, as if to see afar
The sender of some strange and sudden call . . .
Above all earthly things his eyes now stare
And seem to say, "I hear" . . . and that is all.

One leg now dangles like an empty sleeve——
He takes another painful step or two,
But still he holds his great head tense and high
And looks for something in the far-off blue.

His jockey now stands silent at his side,
As grooms attend and sadly shake their heads;
They pat the colt, but know that all too soon
A shot will echo through the trees and sheds.

The thud of hooves across the field is heard,
And from the stands that wild and thoughtless roar . . .
"The race is over!" Yes, and truly so! . . .
"Be steady, boy, a few brief moments more."

It is so quiet and so empty here—
Far from those people in the grandstands there;
A labored breathing . . . voices soft and low . . .
From some far point a whinny stirs the air.

There is a rustle of some dry leaves now . . .
A sound of footsteps rushing through the grass . . .
The crippled creature turns a startled head,
Still puzzled by this thing that's come to pass.

There was but music just a while ago . . .
Loud laughter, cheers, the starter's stern commands . . .
The joy of summer sunshine and the race . . .
And merry, carefree voices in the stands.

A crunch of wheels . . . and now a car appears——
Death on a journey in the summer sun!
Cold hands now touch and stroke a gallant colt . . .
What's this concealed in one of them? . . . A gun?

This thoroughbred of grace and beauty stands
And watches other figures 'round the bend;
Man now is near . . . The colt at last feels safe . . .
Thank God, he holds that faith until the end!

Again he raises that keen head aloft,
As if he heard some mate in distant fields . . .
A shot rings out! . . . he crashes to the ground,
And now a great heart all too slowly yields!

Those voices! . . . Do they really rise again?
"Lay 5 to 2" . . . "Right on the beezer, Jake!" . . .
"They're bums, I tell ya" . . .
"That big punk will quit!"
"Say, look at all the chances that I take" . . .

Do You Remember

Away back when they called 'em German bands, not German bunds?

• • • •

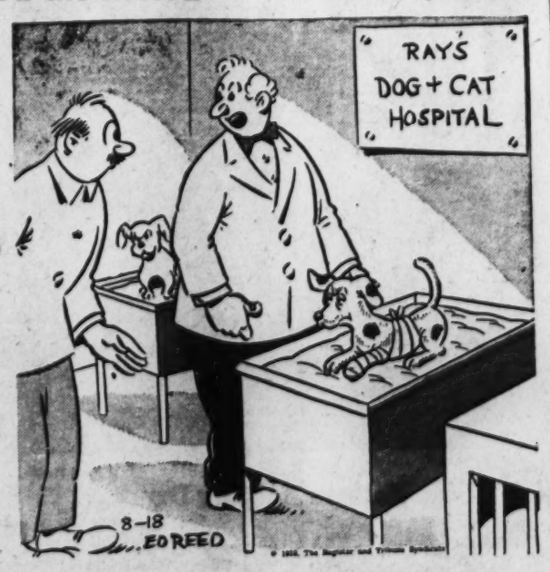
The House Committee hears there are 500,000 Nazis in the United States, and that they constitute a vast spy organization. Operating, of course, on their rubber heils.

The President and the National Emergency Council paint the Southland as a land of no money, low pay, deficient diets, awful homes, minimum opportunities, pellagra and hookworm. We remember when to make half those charges would bring Southerners down on you in a mass attack, fists flying.

Copyright, 1938, by Associated Newspapers.

Off the Record

By Ed Reed



"Quick! Get me a Bloodhound—he needs a transfusion!"

The Mormon Church is trying to keep its members from leaning on the Government relief rolls. In Sunday's Post, Nicholas Roosevelt tells you why the Mormons are tired of "leaners."

Socialized Dentistry

A new government bill for public dental care was passed recently by the two chambers of the Swedish Riksdag. It provides for dental treatment for all infants and school children, as well as for adults, at a nominal fee or free of charge in the case of families of small means.

As regards children, public dental treatment will be available to all between the ages of 3 and 15 years. The annual fee will be 5 kroner or about $1.25 for the first child and 3 and 2 kroner (75 cents and 50 cents), respectively, for the next two children of a family registered at one and the same time for a family, the rest will be treated free. Poor families may, as already mentioned, be exempt from payment. In the case of adults, treatment is to be given at cost price, also at reduced fee or exemption, when warranted.

The act provides for a division of the country into dental districts with whole-time dentists and attendants for each. The cost of organizing and maintaining the service will be divided between the State and the county councils or municipalities.

(Scandamerican Press.)

The Inner Conflict

By Mark Sullivan

Political Schizophrenia.

ALMOST exactly a year ago, on August 7, 1937, President Roosevelt was at Hyde Park. There he was visited by a New York City Tammany leader, who lunched with him. The name of the Tammany man was not on the list of visitors given out to the newspaper men. But some of them recognized the visitor. They took note of the omission from the list of visitors given them. They wrote about the visit, giving their stories a color to the effect that the Tammany visitor had talked with the President about the New York City primary for mayor.

Mr. Roosevelt was angry. He reproached the newspapermen privately. Publicly he had Secretary McIntyre denounce the stories. In part the denunciation said:

"The President repeated for the thousandth time that he has not taken part, is not taking part, and will not take part in any local primary election except in his own home town and home county."

That angry negation was repeated, many times, about primaries in various States. For repetition and emphasis, Mr. Roosevelt invented a formula. When newspapermen at press conferences asked him if he had a choice in this or that primary, he said he would have his press secretary, Mr. Stephen Early, "turn on the same old phonograph record," meaning the record which said he "has not, is not, and will not."

But as the present year's primaries approached, Mr. Roosevelt evidently was stirred by the wish to defeat those Democrats in Congress who had opposed his court proposal, and to have in Congress only men who would support his measures fully. Still, there remained with him also the wish to preserve the attitude of "has not, is not, and will not." The conflict of desires was solved, as conflicting desires often are, by indirection.

• • • •

CONDEMNATION of undesired candidates, approval of their opponents, was achieved by proxy. In Florida it was son-Secretary James who said that the Administration wanted 100-per-cent-for Roosevelt Senator Pepper renominated. In Iowa it was Mr. Harry Hopkins and others close to Mr. Roosevelt who publicly said they wished an opponent to beat anti-court proposal Senator Gillette.

The method of indirection was not effective in the case of Senator Gillette. That was disturbing, because Senator Gillette was the first of the anti-court proposal Senators to come up in a primary. There were eight more ahead. Condemnation by proxy would not be enough.

In this situation Mr. Roosevelt solved his inner conflict of opposing wishes by formally and publicly splitting his personality in two. In his "fireside chat" of June 24, he said:

"As President of the United States, I am not . . . taking part in Democratic primaries. As the head of the Democratic party, however . . . I feel that I have every right to speak . . ."

Thus equipped with a formula for composing his inner conflict, Mr. Roosevelt, on July 7, set out on his western trip. In Kentucky he forthrightly indorsed pro-Court proposal Senator Barkley. In Oklahoma he forthrightly indorsed pro-Court proposal Senator Thomas. In California he gave support to pro-Court proposal Senator McAdoo.

• • • •

IN TWO STATES in which anti-Court proposal Senators were up for renomination—in Colorado, Senator Adams, and in Navada, Senator McCarran—Mr. Roosevelt was silent. Common belief said that he wished to blacklist these two. But common belief said he found them certain to be renominated, and therefore "laid off." Common belief said also that this self-imposed silence, this surrender of impulse to prudence, this thwarting of himself by himself, made him irritable.

On August 9, Mr. Roosevelt returned to the United States. On August 11 he cast off restraint. He forthrightly opposed anti-court proposal Senator George. On August 16 in Washington, he took a hand in the New York City primary, denouncing Representative O'Connor. That was, almost to the day, a year after he had angrily "blown-up" over newspaper statements that he was taking a hand in the New York City primary of that year—a year after he had emphatically asserted that he "has not, is not and will not."

The serious aspect of Mr. Roosevelt's sequence of actions lies in the light it throws on his very unusual personality, and on the question whether anything in his past is any assurance about anything in his future. That is something for the country to take account of—if there is any possible way for the country to take account of such a condition.

Copyright, 1938, New York Tribune, Inc.

Word Of Warning

By Barnet Nover

Mr. Hull's Latest Speech.

THERE is a classic tale of a donkey that starved to death because it could not make up its mind as to which of two bales of hay was the better fodder.

An equally fatal hesitation has characterized American foreign policy for a long time. Only the choice facing the United States happens to be not between two desirable alternatives but between two undesirable ones.

That is why the Nation has never clearly made up its mind as to what course the United States should take in world affairs. But that does not mean that we can indefinitely avoid choosing. If we do not do it ourselves events will do it for us and hardly in a manner compatible with our wishes or in line with our interests.

• • • •

ISOLATION is a theoretically realizable ideal. There have been nations, such as Japan during the later centuries of the Shogunate, which have managed to isolate themselves to a considerable degree. But it is extremely doubtful if it can successfully be done at the present time and by a nation with as far-flung interests as ours. And it is even less likely that the American people would be willing to pay the gigantic price that would have to be paid—economically, politically, socially and psychologically—for building an hermetically sealed Chinese wall around our borders.

On the other hand, co-operation with other peace-loving nations against would-be aggressors is a policy whose risks, while exaggerated by the isolationists, are nonetheless real. And these risks the American people want desperately to avoid.

• • • •

SO, WHILE rejecting isolation, the United States has also rejected the logical alternative to isolation. We have no alliances, entangling or otherwise. We limit our participation in world affairs to non-political activities. Theoretically, our freedom to act or refrain from acting is not limited by commitments of the kind which bind other nations.

But there is a growing feeling that this freedom is an illusion. The very circumstance that we have entered the armaments race on so large a scale reveals the uneasy feeling that the uncertain course we have thus far pursued has not guaranteed our security. But even the rapid building up of our Navy, Army and air force has not stilled the growing alarm regarding the present world situation and its possible impact upon our welfare.

• • • •

YET EVEN in the face of the present crisis the United States does not appear ready to accept the alternative to isolation and act upon it. The neutrality law remains on the statute books. On the other hand, there has been no follow-up to President Roosevelt's suggestion of a quarantine against aggressors with the United States playing a part.

Yet, as Secretary Hull has repeatedly pointed out in his speeches and statements, we cannot remain indifferent to world developments nor be unaffected by them. We are opposed to the ruthless setting aside of recognized standards of international conduct, to the elevation of brute force into a philosophy of government, to war. We oppose these developments not only because our minds and hearts are in revolt against them but more particularly because they imperil us. However, until public opinion in this country is prepared to sanction co-operative effort by the United States with other nations toward the maintenance of standards and principles we hold dear, official statements on foreign policy, such as that of Mr. Hull on Tuesday, are bound to be vague and to have a limited, if far from negligible, value.

• • • •

THIS VAGUENESS, however, is deceptive. When Mr. Hull says that "the overwhelming majority of mankind is determined to live in a world in which lawlessness will not be tolerated, in which order in law will prevail, and in which peaceful economic and cultural relations will be inviolate," he obviously does not commit the United States to a specific program of action designed to make the wishes of the "overyhelming majority of mankind" prevail. In a world in which force plays the determining role in international affairs, wishes are not horses. To hope for peace is clearly not sufficient to make peace prevail.

Yet there is an underlying point in Mr. Hull's remarks which the aggressors cannot safely ignore. They are fully aware, if the American people by and large are not, that the United States is capable of throwing an enormous weight into the scales. They realize that should this weight be thrown in against them and their designs their jig would be up. And the successive speeches of American statesmen, notably Secretary Hull, may make them realize that the latter possibility cannot indefinitely be ruled out.

• • • •

In this particular, the timing of Mr. Hull's latest speech is even more significant than its substance.

The European crisis is approaching a dangerous climax. It may not prove possible to stop the juggernaut of war whose rumblings have made the Old World extremely jittery. But if it can be stopped at all this can only be through a firm stand for peace by all the nations anxious to see peace preserved.

The United States is undoubtedly one of those nations. We are not yet prepared to state concretely what we are prepared to do. This indecision may prove fatal. But reading between the lines of Mr. Hull's speech the dictators now realize that they can no longer count on this Nation's continued indifference and inaction. This is something. And tomorrow is another day.

The Federal Diary

By Scott Hart

Forced Out.

Uncle Sam, traditionally a mover de luxe, is on the verge of another moving day and it seems to us a little queer. The situation, boiled down, amounts to this:

Many employes of the registry and naturalization branch, Immigration and Naturalization Service, have long tenanted space on the air-cooled and pleasant fifth floor of the Labor Department palace. Early this month rumors circulated that these boys and girls would have to move—either to the less desirable sixth floor or to a garage building at 1516 Fourteenth street northwest.

The object: To install on the Labor Department's fifth floor certain units of soon-to-be expansive wage-hour division.

The reaction of the Immigration and Naturalization people: Consternation and anger.

Sixth Floor Taken.

Certain department officials were indulgent. The three unions ganged up and asked permission for the Immigration and Naturalization people to inspect the alternative sites, the sixth floor and the garage. An election was held Monday and they voted 53 to 7 to grab the sixth floor—despite the fact that the sixth floor was not designed for office space. These rooms—6108, 6116, 6209, 6221, 6303, 6315, 6321, 6327, 6333, 6341, 6349, 6408 and 6412—were designed for storage space and have no windows, but many skylights.

Among our correspondence on the subject:

"The garage should not be compared to the sixth floor of the Labor Department Building. It has no ventilation, affords no suitable places in which to eat nearby. Restroom facilities are decidedly inadequate (there are only three in the entire garage). The elevator service is unsatisfactory, as compared with that in our present quarters and the passageways between floors are narrow.

"The odors from kitchens hard-by are to be considered, as are the gasoline fumes from neighboring garages."

May Hit Others.

The United Federal Workers of America, which organized the fight against the impending moving day, is of the opinion that the Wage-Hour Division soon will be expanding and elbowing other groups out of the pleasant Labor palace. They want to know why the wage-hour people don't get a building of their own. Or, at least, some suitable quarters of their own.

They wonder why the powers that be are about to move the vast Immigration and Naturalization files from the present location to permit the installation of the files of a new division—which, ironically enough, hasn't very many files as yet.

And we are sure that we haven't the answer. We can only say that Uncle Sam, traditionally, is a mover de luxe, and that any group which moves into quarters had better not hang a "Home, Sweet Home," sign on the wall. For they're liable to be shaken out most any day.

Maybe they save something by it in the long run; but at first blush it would certainly appear that all this criss-cross moving is more expensive than the moving of a single unit. If new quarters are to be used, it would seem that they should move a new unit into them. This thing of moving an old unit out of an old stand to place them in a new stand so that a new unit can get the old stand becomes too much for hot weather reasoning. And we forthwith give it up.

Hail! To celebrate the 21st birthday of the National Federation of Federal Employes, the District of Columbia Federation of Federal Employes Unions will hold a coming-of-age banquet at the Mayflower Hotel on Saturday, September 17. Similar celebrations will be held simultaneously by the more than 650 locals of the N. F. F. E. Henry G. Nolda, former secretary-treasurer of Local 2, is general chairman of the banquet.

The gentleman in the Commerce Department hated the heat of Tuesday, even as you and I. So he called in, to charge off a day against his sick leave. And then, later in the day, he was apprised of the fact that Commerce had granted nearly a whole holiday, because of the heat. This must have happened in dozens of instances Monday.

Grape Is Backed For Commissioner

A resolution presented to President Roosevelt yesterday by the Cleveland Park Businessmen's Association urged the appointment of Theodore S. Grape as District Commissioner.

The association, through its president, Walter E. Cersley, recommended Grape "in order that residents of the District of Columbia may have as one member of their governing body a man who is thoroughly familiar with the various problems which beset the businessmen of this city and one who as a long resident with a record of civic service not only can, but will be of inestimable value in aiding the Administration to give the District of Columbia an efficient, progressive and economical government."

Georgetown House To Close DayCamp

Georgetown Children's House will end its summer program of day camps today when some 50 boys and girls will be taken to their camp on Pimmett Run in Virginia just above Chain Bridge. Parents and friends have been invited.

According to Philip Pierce, director of boys activities, there will be a treasure hunt, turtle derby and nature contest and camp letters will be awarded. Ordinarily boys and girls are taken to the camp on alternate days, the custom being waived for today's celebration.

Miss Helen Gaber is director of girls activities and Miss Winona Rohrby supervisor of the camps.

West Pointers in Artillery Training Drill; Storm Lashes D. C.

The Post is the only daily morning paper in Washington with A. P. WIREPHOTO Service.

Pointing Big Guns at Fort Story

Associated Press Photos.

Just as the Commander Does

1 West Point cadets squint through the battery commander's telescope during a training drill at Fort Story, Va. The boys took turns firing the big guns. Shown are (left to right) L. W. Hendricks, J. A. Roosa, J. D. Darcia and John Watt.

Grid Training

2 Stripped to the waist, big Jim Mather (upper center), football tackle on the Army eleven, gets a workout in a tussle with the elevation wheel of an 8-inch railroad cannon during West Point Academy cadets' artillery drill at Fort Story.

'Eyes' of the Big Guns

3 Two cadets sit in as "eyes" of a 155-millimeter gun during artillery practice at Fort Story. Cadet Don Hull (left) is the gun pointer and W. M. Jones is the elevation setter. The cadets spent a day at the fort and then moved on to Langley Field.

Hurry to Reload

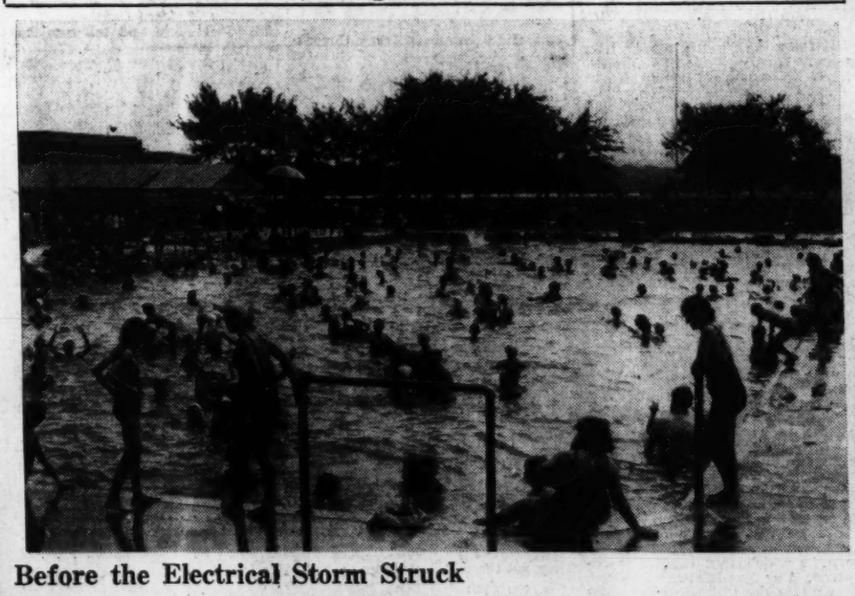
4 West Point cadets hurry to reload an antiaircraft gun at Fort Story. A cadet on left can be seen ramming a shell into the gun. The maneuvers at the fort were part of the summer training tour.

Associated Press WIREPHOTO.

Relief Washed Up

Determined to stay off relief after losing his job six weeks ago, Clyde Zibell, 25, of Milwaukee, began taking in washing to support his wife and two children. He is shown at work at left.

Rain Drives Capital Bathers Indoors



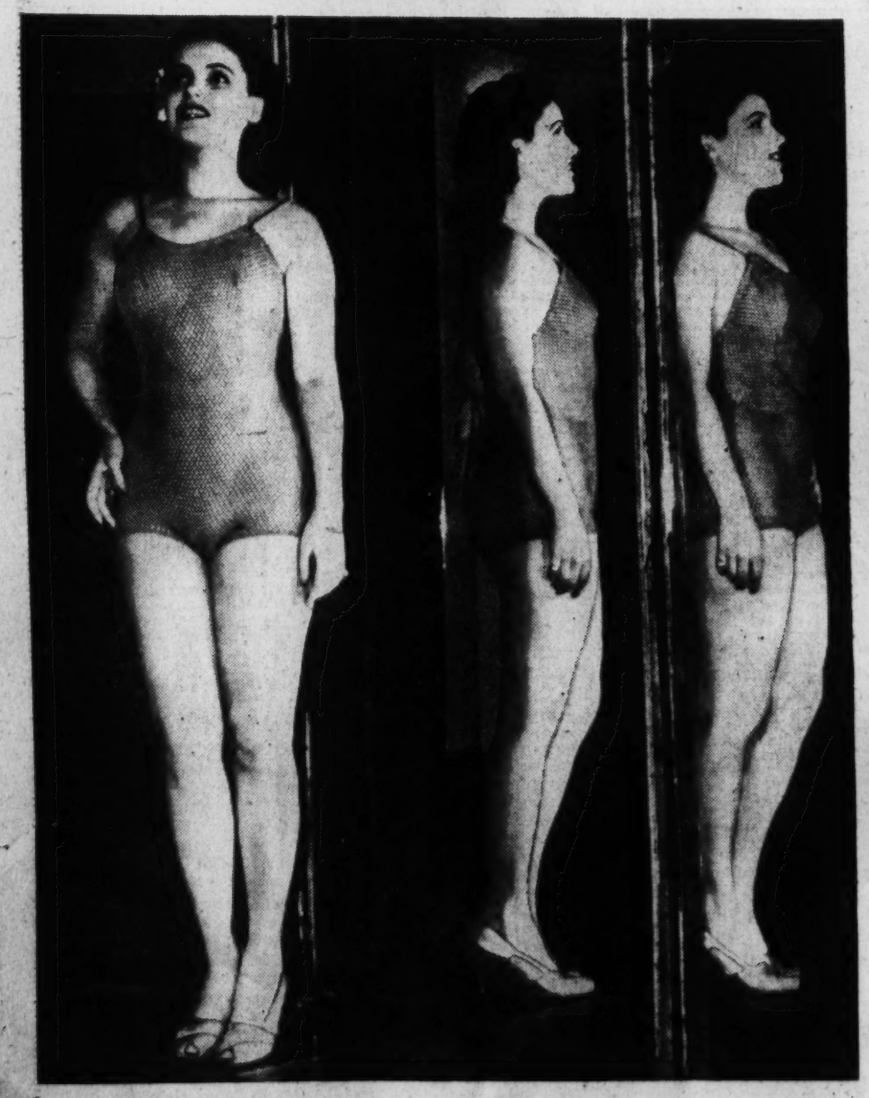
Before the Electrical Storm Struck

Gay were these bathers in Hains Point pool as they sought relief from the continued heat wave yesterday, but their retreat was hasty and not a bit orderly when the electrical storm struck. (See below.)

Post Staff Photo.

Lightning Stuns Five Children

Lightning which struck this tree in front of 1312 Delaware avenue southwest knocked unconscious five colored children seeking refuge from the rain beneath the tree. Children point to where the bolt hit.



Associated Press WIREPHOTO.

Most Wholesome Showgirl

Three of the Nation's best-known artists say Mira Stephens, of Detroit, shown at left, is Broadway's most wholesome-looking showgirl. She won the votes of James Montgomery Flagg, Peter Arno and McClelland Barclay.

Post Staff Photos.

Bathers Keeping Dry

The situation at Hains Point pool had an odd angle when the storm struck. Bathers ran from the water to any available shelter. Here a group is shown under an awning—all in bathing suits and trying to keep dry.

Underwood & Underwood.

'Wool' From Sour Milk

Dr. Earl Whitter, co-inventor of the process to make a wool-like fiber from sour milk, is shown with the spinneret apparatus. The experiments are being conducted by the Department of Agriculture.

MARY HAWORTH'S MAIL

Girl Would Reform Man Who Tries to Lead Her From Straight and Narrow Path; How to Do It?

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: For the past few months I have been associating with a young man, 26 year old, who would lead me off the straight and narrow path if I would permit him. I have endeavored to reform him but have not succeeded in changing his point of view on morals. He has almost gotten me to wonder if virtue is as essential as it was once considered. He says that nearly every girl has had an illicit love affair and declares that he does not object to marrying a girl who has deviated from the "straight and narrow."

* * * *

He frankly admits that he is not in love with me and has not asked me to marry him, but says that an illicit affair would have no bearing on him at all as to whether or not he would want to marry me. I am 24 years old. I am not in love with him but am perhaps slightly infatuated. He is very nice looking, well-educated, intelligent and ideal in every way except for his low moral standards.

* * * *

Please tell me what to do. Do you think he will ever want to marry me? Will I be able to reform him or must I part with him forever, as I have planned to do? I do want to continue to be friends with him, but I do not want to lower my standard of conduct. I am considered pretty, but am aloof and reserved and do not have many men admirers. Sincerely yours,

JUNE.

* * * *

Ivory-Tower Innocent.

DEAR JUNE: To my certain knowledge, this mildewed argument about "nearly every girl's having had an illicit love affair" has been kicking about in modern society since the time of the World War—mostly employed by pseudo-intellectual young squirts of second-grade moral caliber for the purpose (or with the intention) of seducing socially inexperienced girls. Those girls who swallow the bait and run away with it, to the damnation of their own previously cherished ideals to the contrary, are proving what? Merely this—their utter lack of the very social quality they had sought to demonstrate: namely, savoir faire.

* * * *

In view of the earnestly troubled attentiveness, the already more than half-convinced ear, that you have lent to this young man's specious and outmoded brand of persuasiveness, it was scarcely necessary to read your letter through to the end to know that you are "aloof and reserved and do not have many men admirers." Only an ivory-tower dweller, largely ignorant of and inexperienced in the ways of many men with a maid, would waste time or thought in attempting to dispute such a creed with such a man, in attempting to defend her philosophy of life against his, in attempting to effect any reconciliation between the two.

* * * *

The last thing on earth that a girl who was practically prepared for realistic participation in modern social life would do with such a man would be to attempt, by preachment or persuasion, to reform him. Neither would she lend herself in the slightest degree to any attempted refashioning of her own philosophy or conduct, pursuant to any of his theories or suggestions. If, aside from his sporadic efforts at amoral beguilement, she found him an amusing and presentable sometime social companion, she might see him and associate with him on just that neutral ground.

* * * *

But the understanding would be implicit between them, at all times, that their relationship was of the most superficial variety—that there could never be anything significant in their association, since he stood for one thing and she for another, and since she hadn't the slightest notion of making a move to bridge the difference. And, incidentally, it is just that attitude on the part of a level-headed, sturdily rooted, firmly balanced girl of sound principles and wholesome ideals which most frequently effects the reform—where reform is possible—of trifiers and would-be philanderers.

* * * *

Of one thing you may be sure—the type of philanderer who reads it into the record, while attempting to negotiate an illicit affair, that he is not in love with the girl in question, is an old hand at the game. He is reinforcing rather than razing his bridges of retreat behind him. When the time comes, as it usually does in illicit affairs, that the girl begins weeping and clutching and begging for marriage as palliative or poultice, he intends to be free to say—"But you understood this was an experiment; that it committed neither of us to anything; so what are you whining about?"

* * * *

There is only one possibility that this particular man may ever wish to marry you, and that possibility is contingent on your remaining blandly impervious to his crackpot theories about illicit love. Whatever reform he is ever to know must come from within; and if you have the power to evoke the will to be reformed in him, that power lies in your demonstrating an imperturbable determination and ability to hold cheerfully to your chaste and idealistic theories of behavoir.

M. H.

Miss Haworth will be glad to help you in solving your problems. Write her in care of The Post Woman's Page.

Time to Prepare Savory Herb Bags

Soup and stew days may seem a long way off, but now is the time to get ready for them by making the bags of savory herbs which will flavor them to perfection. Make 2-inch square bags of washed cheesecloth, fill them with a tablespoon of mixed dry herbs, sew up the fourth side, and they will be ready to savor the boiled meals that are so popular on wintry days.

To make the herb mixture take 1 tablespoon each of dried, crushed thyme, marjoram, bay leaves, celery seed, rosemary and sage. Mix them together, then measure out a tablespoon of the mixture for each herb bag. These bags may be made in quantity and if they are stored in a covered box or jar they will retain their full strength until used.

AUGUST SALE . . . NOW

Lafayette BED SHOP

1747 RHODE ISLAND AVE. at Connecticut Ave. at M

French and Colonial Periods

FOUR FLOORS AIR COOLED

Lansburgh's

TUSSY
Dusting Powder

Luxurious Jumbo Size for Summer

The two-purpose accessory—cools your skin—and acts as a dainty deodorant. So fine, it does not clog pores. Scented with the new bouquet perfume.

$1

Lansburgh's—Toiletries—Air-Cooled Street Floor

Braided Black Dress and Terraced Soles Give That Distinctive Fall 1938 Imprint

BRAID, which used to adorn nearly everything our grandmothers wore, is back in many forms this season, among them the all-over braided effect. Many of the new black crepe dresses for fall are ornamented with braid and in that way escape looking like all of their numerous fall predecessors. The black crepe dress at left, embroidered all over with soutache braid, is an example of how braid gives a costume that different look. The young woman at left also shows she is up with the times by her shoes—suede sandals with the new terraced soles of calfskin, which may be in contrasting color or the same shade as the suede.

Today's HEALTH TALK

By Logan Clendening, M.D.

How Science Makes Possible Reading With Eyes Shut

I always felt it was an oversight on the part of nature that she did not provide means to allow us to close our ears as we do our eyes. Think of the luxury of closing out all ugly sounds, all the noises of the world. It would certainly promote comfortable sleeping, especially in city hotels, where I have been trying to sleep for the last night or two.

I suppose the strict evolutionist would say that it was a protective device to promote the survival of the fittest—that we must have some warning to wake the sleeper in case danger is near. So for the sake of what might possibly happen we will have to bear the honk of the midnight motorist in the street below.

Perhaps science would devise some method to overcome shut ears anyhow, as it has to overcome shut eyes. I was startled to find in a medical journal the other day an article on reading with your eyes shut.

This is not one of those hocus-pocus medicine stunts, and does not mean that anyone can read with the eyes shut under normal circumstances. It means the use of the X-rays to stimulate the retina.

Of course, the X-rays penetrate the closed eyelids and throw an image on the retina. A film on which are printed words is passed between the X-ray tube and the closed eyelids, and the letters can be seen quite clearly.

The idea has practical uses in eye medicine. For instance, in the case of an old cataract, the doctor does not know whether the prolonged presence of the opacity has caused atrophy of the retina or not. Eyes do deteriorate from having light shut off from them. The cataract prevents the patient from seeing print or light and the doctor from examining the retina with an ophthalmoscope. Here the X-ray comes in. It can penetrate the eyelid and the cataract both, and if it be turned on in such an instance and the patient sees light, then it is known that the retina is intact and removal of the cataract will be followed by a return of vision.

Also in the case of foreign bodies in the eye. Small pieces of steel can penetrate the eyeball and remain inside. When small they may be very difficult to locate, or even their presence at all may be doubtful. If the X-ray is turned on such an object the patient sees everything light except the foreign body, which will appear as a dark object in the field of vision. By using a metallic grid, the patient can point out the exact location of this body inside the eyeball.

Injury to the retina—the seeing part of the eye—can also be made out by the patient in this way, because it appears dark to him when the rays are turned on.

Summer Spice Cake.

Spice cake in summer has a number of notable advantages. For one thing, most of these cakes have sufficient tastiness so that stickily sweet icings are unnecessary. Made without fruit or nuts they are light and delicate and are not to be confused with the definitely winter-time spice fruit-cakes. Then, too, they exude a fragrance which is very stimulating, even on a very hot day when it would seem as if food of any kind were unthinkable.

The GENTLER SEX

By Malvina Lindsay.

Feminist Era.

Career Woman.

I have powdered my nose,
And dusted my cheeks with rouge,
And with my lipstick,
Carefully drawn a fresh Cupid's bow at my mouth,
I have combed and patted and puffed my hair,
And put a drop of perfume under each ear,
I have shaped up my nails,
And anointed my hands with lotion,
And seen that my stocking seams were perfectly straight.
I will now go in,
And ask the executive assistant to the second vice president,
If he wants this letter sent air mail or regular postage.

Wife.

I will not ask him a question.
Before breakfast, but keep out of the way
While he putters in the bathroom;
I will see that his paper's lying folded and untouched
Beside his breakfast plate, and that the sun's not in his eyes;
That his egg is just right and that so is his coffee.
I will stay still as a mouse
Until he is ready and willing for conversation;
And then if the news of the day is not too depressing,
And if he should lean back
Well filled and amiable, I will timidly venture
That we really ought to decide about the new refrigerator.

Board Member.

I will wear my most feminine gown,
For men hate a woman in public life who suggests
A very strong character;
And when I go into the board room I will be, oh, so smiling;
And before the meeting begins I shall quietly draw aside
Mr. Picklesniff and tell him that all of the women
Have sort of intangibly gathered
That he is toying with the very bright and original notion
Of setting up public make-up booths in all of the parks,
And that it would be simply ducky
If he went ahead and proposed it right at this meeting,
And that all of the women would be 100 per cent behind him.

Socialite.

I will be very charming
To that insufferable Mr. Sprigg who's approaching,
For some time he might come in handy
To help fill a stag line as men are so scarce,
And here comes Mr. Proser, no, no, I won't run,
After all, he wears trousers and I can't always be seen
Just talking with women.
And I really must go at once and greet warmly
That terrible Timpkins who embezzled that money,
And ran off from his wife,
For the fact can't be denied that he's now a grass widower
And a good extra man, and he looks dashing in tails.

Menus For Today

By Alice Clayton.

BREAKFAST

Chilled prune juice
Cooked cereal with cream
Giblet toast with elderberry jelly.
Hot coffee Milk for children

LUNCH

Platter of yesterday's cold left over meat loaf slices
Stuffed cucumber cups
Horseradish dressing Radish roses
Georgia sweet potato biscuits
Frozen peaches and cream

DINNER

Chilled fruit juice with seeded crisps
Swedish stew Baked potatoes
Steamed broccoli with lemon butter
Shredded lettuce with old-fashioned dressing
Cantaloupe a la mode Hot coffee

SWEDISH STEW.

2 pounds round beef, cut in 1½-inch cubes
1 carrot
1 turnip
6 onions
2 tablespoons tapioca
1 cup cooked tomato
½ cup milk vinegar.

Have the beef cut into cubes. Slice the carrot, turnip and small onions. Pack in layers in a bean pot or casserole. Sprinkle with 2 tablespoons tapioca, a little salt and paprica. Add 1 cup cooked tomato and a small ½ cup of milk vinegar. Cover and seal. Bake for 3 hours.

YOUR FIGURE, MADAME!

Persons of Slow Action Use Only One-Third as Many Calories as Nervous, Agile Types; Latter Must Economize Energy.

By Ida Jean Kain.

IF YOU are built for comfort and not for speed, you probably gain weight quickly and lose it slowly. The trouble is that you don't get around fast enough, for slow movements use only about one-third as many calories as fast movements, and you will have to get a move on to speed up your reducing program.

This probably goes deeper than a problem in locomotion. More than likely you will have to try to change your temperament. Overweights, it seems, are "just naturally slow." For them life is on the de luxe scale, with plenty of time for everything—unless it is exercise—and with a capacity for too much food.

What a contrast this type offers to the nervous, overactive underweights who are always in a hurry, always on the run. They have too much to do and too little time to do it, and they don't get enough to eat because they can't sit still long enough for a square meal.

Weight a Factor.

How fast you move has a lot to do with your weight, as you will see by a comparison of slow and fast walking. If you walk at the rate of 2½ miles an hour you burn only 1.30 calories per pound of body weight in an hour. But if you walk for an hour at the rate of 5.3 miles an hour you will use 4.22 calories per pound of body weight.

Your weight is the index to your temperament, and proof of whether you move fast or slow. Underweights must learn to economize on their energy, and the overweights must use more. A normal amount of physical activity is just as essential to the one as to the other, but the underweights should take their exercise in a leisurely manner and cultivate the overweight habit of thinking they have plenty of time.

Besides learning to speed up or to slow down, you must control your food intake, and the surest way of doing this is to make it a rule to eat the protective foods first. Either the gaining or the reducing menu should be built around milk, eggs, fruits, vegetables, lean meats and whole grains to assure an optimum diet.

Foods for Energy.

The underweight fills out this basic diet with a tempting variety of creamed soups, creamed and scalloped vegetables, generous portions of cream and butter and desserts that would be the finish of the overweight's diet! The overweight, on the other hand, does not have too hard a time keeping down the calorie requirements. There are plenty of bulky low-calorie foods to supplement the protective food list, and the menus are highly satisfying.

Be sure that you are eating the foods you need for high vitality, and then strike at balance between calorie intake and energy outgo. Your weight control is as simple as that!

MENU TO REDUCE OR TO GAIN.

BREAKFAST	Calories
Orange juice, ½ glass	50
Fried egg, 1	75
Toast, 1 slice	75
Butter, ½ pat	50
Coffee, 1 teaspoon cream, 1 rounded teaspoon sugar	50
	300

(To make this a gaining breakfast menu, add a slice of toast, use 1 pat of butter, have honey and take more cream in the coffee—this will double the calories.)

LUNCHEON
Toasted lettuce, tomato and bacon sandwich with Reducer's Mayonnaise	275
Glass of buttermilk	80
Melon	50
	405

(Weight gainers should have more mayonnaise and butter on the sandwich, use whole milk and add a scoop of ice cream to the melon—adding at least 500 calories to the menu.)

4 P. M.
Tea for reducer, with 1 lump sugar	25
For the gainer, glass whole milk with 2 tablespoons cream.

DINNER
Chicken, 3 slices white meat	100
And second joint, 1	100
Fresh peas, ½ cup	50
Stuffed tomato salad (Reducer's Mayonnaise)	75
Hot roll	100
Butter, ½ pat	50
Fruit	50
	525

(To add calories to the dinner menu, use two pats butter on peas and rolls, regular mayonnaise on salad, and cream on the fruit, adding around 500 calories to the dinner menu.)

TOTAL CALORIES FOR DAY FOR THE REDUCER 1,255

Linens Once Limited To Homes of Wealthy

Every housewife treasures her tablecloths and napkins, whether they are mode of pure flax or cotton or rayon threads. Some of the loveliest modern so-called "linens" consist of two or more types of yarn.

Time was when only the wealthy used linens for dining. Poor folks were satisfied to place their dishes directly upon bare boards. Napkins, too, used to be a luxury confined to the upper classes.

Paris Displays Skirts for Day Of Knee Length

Paris, Aug. 17 (AP).—Old-fashioned long crinoline skirts and much shorter ones just covering the knee were two diverse trends in the winter collections of Paris designers.

The hem-line of daytime wear inched up to the knee. But for evening wear, designers found inspiration for new fashions in eighteenth century French painters' depictions of beautiful women exquisitely clad. Furs and fabrics especially reflected the period's glamour.

The chief colors shown ran the entire range of violets, and included sulphur yellow, peony pink, guardsman red, olive green, salt water greens, Ardoise blues, medium grays, wine reds and black in addition to white and pastels.

Platinum fox and Siberian lynx formed rope-like trimmings around necks and down fronts. Broadtail fur coats were accented with jeweled embroideries or latticed with quilting stitches.

The collections indicated a big fur year.

AUTHENTIC REPRODUCTIONS . . .

Choose furniture by Biggs . . . designed by the great masters of furniture art.

BIGGS ANTIQUE CO., Inc.
1217 Conn. Ave. DI. 0429

Kann's AIR COOLED

Phone Orders DI. 7200

Your Hostess Will Like

The New Silverice

In Brilliant Fruit Colors

—A smart week-end gift . . . so smart, so practical, in fact, you'll want a set for your own use. Orange, lemon, lime and tomato . . . bright balls that chill without diluting. Assorted or all in one color.

Four For $1.00

• Also Nickel-Plated Balls, 4 for $2

Kann's—Air-Cooled Third Floor

DIRNDLS

Go Glamorous In Crush-Resistant

Rayon Velvet

$12.95

—Devastating is the only word that describes Fall's newest dirndls of luxurious, crush-resistant rayon velvet! You'll never know how enchantingly feminine dirndls can be 'til you see them in these new versions . . . with Lastex shirring that gives the velvet liquid grace, new square necklines and youthful short sleeves. Black and jewel blue. Sizes 12 to 18.

Air-Cooled Second Floor

Kann's

New Low Prices On

"HUMMING BIRD"

Sheer Chiffons

Formerly Priced at $1.15—Now Only

$1.00 pr.

$1.35 Two-Thread 51-Gauge Chiffon, now..$1.15

—For peerless quality, sheer beauty, glamorous colors . . . ask for Humming Birds! Crystal clear and thin as a cobweb, these famous stockings are made of finest twist Davencrepe silk . . . and for sheer hose, they wear surprisingly well! Stunning new colors. Sizes 8½ to 10½.

• No. 620—an ultra-smart sheer for formal wear..$1.15

• No. 452—lace-top sheer for afternoon clothes..$1.00

Kann's AIR-COOLED STREET FLOOR

Ellen Franklin Is Wed To Robert King Norton

Ceremony Performed at Church of Pilgrims for Washington Girl and Pittsburgh Man; Couple to Live Here.

One of the outstanding weddings of the late summer season took place yesterday afternoon when Miss Ellen McKee Franklin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Franklin, became the bride of Robert King Norton, son of Mrs. Fred Lee Norton, of Pittsburgh, Pa.

The Church of the Pilgrims was the scene of the ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. George Pigneron at 5:30 o'clock. Palms, ferns, lilies, while gladioli and white hydrangea decorated the church and banked the altar before which the couple exchanged vows. Theodore G. Lewis played the music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was gowned in a filmy white frock, with a lace bodice and a four-tier skirt and train of net. A heart-shaped neckline and long tight sleeves were also features of the frock, which was set off with a long veil, falling from a cap of lace and caught at the back with a garland of orange blossoms.

Mrs. John Alfred Norcross, the matron of honor, was gowned in chartreuse net; trimmed with periwinkle blue ribbon. Her wide-brimmed leghorn hat was trimmed in periwinkle ribbon and she carried a cascade bouquet of apricot gladioli and delphinium.

Sister Serves As Maid of Honor

Miss Margaret Allen Franklin, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Her frock was similar to that of the matron of honor, and she carried a bouquet of the same type. Bridesmaids included Mrs. Claude Reeder, jr., and Miss Louise Durham Ford, of Knoxville, Tenn.; Mrs. Douglass Porter and Mrs. Preston Walker Grant. Their gowns of periwinkle net were trimmed with chartreuse ribbon and their big leghorn hats were trimmed with chartreuse ribbon.

Betty McKee Reeder, junior bridesmaid, wore a frock of white net trimmed with chartreuse ribbon, and her leghorn hat was banded in chartreuse and periwinkle ribbon. Her bouquet was a smaller version of the ones carried by the bridesmaids and was made of peach gladioli and blue delphinium.

Dr. Fred Lee Norton, of Belle Vernon, Pa., was best man, and ushers were Willard F. Norton, of Pittsburgh, Pa.; Preston Walker Grant, James C. Christopher, Harland L. Walters and Marvin Johnston of Washington.

Following the ceremony there was a reception at the home of the bride's parents at 2214 Cathedral avenue. Mrs. Franklin, who stood with members of the wedding party to greet the guests, was gowned in beige and brown marquisette and lace and wore a picture hat of leghorn. A corsage of orchids completed her ensemble. The bridegroom's mother had chosen a frock of blue lace with blending accessories and an orchid corsage.

To Live Here After Honeymoon in Bermuda

Assisting at the reception were Mrs. Claude Reeder, sr., in peach lace with blue accessories; Mrs. Fred Ford, in brown net. Both Mrs. Reeder and Mrs. Ford are aunts of the bride.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding and reception were Claude Reeder, jr.; Fred Ford, jr.; Mr. and Mrs. James Durham and Miss Frances Durham, of Knoxville, Tenn.; Mrs. James Heilman, of Lancaster, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Parrish Quick, of Richmond; Mel Comer, of Racine, Wis.; Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Graham, Miss Eleanore Graham, and Mrs. Angie King, of Pittsburgh.

After the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Norton left on a wedding trip to Bermuda. The bride's traveling costume was a white sports suit with a dusty rose blouse and white accessories, and a corsage of orchids. They will spend their honeymoon at the Castle Harbour Hotel in Bermuda and upon their return will live at 3925 Fulton street.

The bridegroom attended the University of Pittsburgh and was graduated from Pennsylvania State College. Later, he received his law degree from National University here. He is a member of Theta XI and Pi Lamba Sigma fraternities, Scarab and Blade Society and the Kenwood Golf and Country Club.

America's Finest Value
KIMBALL PIANOS
W. W. KIMBALL CO., 724 11th St. N. W.

WOMEN'S PORTRAITS
Low Summer Prices
Quality Assured
Open Saturday Till 1
UNDERWOOD & UNDERWOOD
1230 Connecticut Avenue
District 1488

Local Notables On Normandie

Belgian Envoy, Barkleys, Arthur de Tittas Are Among Passengers.

When the Normandie steamed out to sea at noon yesterday, a number of Washington residents were on board. The Belgian Ambassador, Count van der Straten-Ponthoz, who left Washington Tuesday, will go directly to Belgium to join the countess and their family for several weeks.

Senator and Mrs. Alben Barkley were also on board. They are on their way to The Hague, where Senator Barkley will preside at the Interparliamentary Conference beginning August 22.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur de Titta, who formerly lived here at the Wardman Park Hotel, were among other passengers. Leaving Washington several days ago they have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Reek at Altantic Beach, Long Island. They will go directly to Paris, where Mr. De Titta will assume his duties as assistant European director of Fox Movietone News.

Others on the Normandie are Lieut.-Gen. Sir Reginald Hildyard, K. B. C., Governor General and Commander in Chief of Bermuda, who is accompanied by Lady Hildyard; Garrard Winston, attorney, former Undersecretary of the Treasury; Serge Koussevitsky, conductor of the Boston Symphony Orchestra, accompanied by Mrs. Koussevitsky.

Of social importance on the sailing list was the Earl of Carnarvon, of London, who has been visiting in New York. He is widely known there, where, in 1922, he married Catherine Tredick Wendell, daughter of the late Jacob Wendell, of New York. They were divorced in 1936.

James H. Grews Visiting in Paris; Will Return Soon

After a visit with Count and Countess Bourbon-Busset at Chateau Busset in Vichy, France, Mr. and Mrs. James Hooper Grew, who were married in New York several weeks ago, are now the guests of Mrs. Grew's mother, Mrs. Alma Clayburgh, at the Hotel Crillon in Paris.

This week-end they will leave for England and will sail from Southampton early in September to return here. Mrs. Grew is the former Miss Alma Clayburgh. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sturgis Grew, of Boston, Mass., and the nephew of Joseph Grew, United States Ambassador to Japan.

Major and Mrs. Hughes Take Trip to Canada

Maj. and Mrs. Roy E. Hughes, with their children, Helen, Roy, jr., and Charles, are on a motor trip to Canada.

They plan to visit the exposition in Ottawa, August 24 and 25, then go to Quebec and up the Saguenay to Lake St. John, returning by way of the Gaspe Peninsula and New England.

William Whiting to Wed Myrtle A. Layton

Mr. and Mrs. William O. Layton, of Woodbine, Md., announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Myrtle Almeda Layton, to William Casper Whiting, son of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Whiting, of Washington.

The wedding will take place on Saturday afternoon, August 27, at 3 o'clock at Jennings Chapel, Florence, Md. Miss Layton is a members of the Jennings Chapel congregation and has long been interested in civic work in her community. Mr. Whiting, who is with the Government Printing Office here, is a brother of the Rev. Henry J. Whiting, pastor of the Christ Lutheran Church, of Bethesda, Md.

THE Shoreham Terrace
DINNER DANCE
Dinner, $2 including cover: Sat., holidays, $2.25. Supper cover, 50c; Sat., holidays, $1. Prices plus tax. For reservations phone ADams 0700.
Maxim Lowe's music, Barnee directing
The Ashburns
Dance Team
Hal Sidare and Marta Kay
Eccentric Dance Diversions
Kirk and Lawrence
"Comic Laughs"
CONNECTICUT AVE. AT CALVERT

To Return Soon From Vacation in Maine

Harris & Ewing

MISSES EMILY AND RUTH JANE FITZGERALD, daughters of Major and Mrs. Donald D. FitzGerald, who left recently for Millinock, Me., where they are spending some time. They are expected to return to their father's quarters at Bolling Field September 1.

Boones Planning September Trip

Major and Wife Will Leave Fort Myer Soon for Western Tour.

Maj. and Mrs. Milton Orme Boone, who have been at Fort Myer, Va., most of the summer, will leave September 5 for a month's motor trip. They plan to take "an unplanned journey" toward the West, driving just so far each day as fancy directs them.

While they have promised themselves not to make many stops on the trip, they will visit briefly at Fort Snelling, Minn., where Maj. and Mrs. Stanley F. Griswold are living. Maj. Griswold, who is widely known in Washington, is on duty at the University of South Dakota.

A tour through the Black Hills and, on the way back, a stop in Champagne, Ill., and Indianapolis, Ind., for short visits are other definite plans for their rather indefinite trip. They expect to return to Fort Myer October 5. Maj. Boone is quartermaster there.

Mexican Envoy's Wife Will Leave Today for Nogales

Senora de Castillo Najera, wife of the Mexican Ambassador, and their youngest child, Memo, will leave today for Nogales, Mexico, where they will spend several weeks.

Senorita Erma Castillo Najera and two brothers, who have been in Mexico City for some time, are expected to return to Washington early next month. She plans to be back shortly before the South Boston, Va. National Tobacco Festival, at which she will be queen on September 8 and 9.

* * * *

Mrs. Payne Whitney entertained at a luncheon in her cottage at Saratoga yesterday in compliment to her son, John Hay Whitney, whose brithday it was.

Recent arrivals in Saratoga from the Virginia hunting country include Raymond Guest and Dr. Archibald Cary Randolph, of Middleburg, Va., who are registered at the United States Hotel.

* * * *

Ensign Randolph Meade, jr., is visiting his mother, Mrs. Randolph Meade, at the Hotel Grafton. He has been transferred from the U. S. S. Pennsylvania to the Naval Finance School in Philadelphia, where he will report for duty September 1.

While in Washington he will spend part of his time visiting Gen. and Mrs. Frederick W. Coleman at the U. S. Soldier's Home.

* * * *

Gene Everrett Hill, who has been spending the last six weeks in camp near Harrisburg, Pa., has returned to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul A. Hill, of North Irving street, Arlington.

Mr. and Mrs. Hill and Gene will leave today for a two-week motor trip through the Smoky Mountains, and while they are away they will spend several days in Greenville, S. C., as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph McDonald.

* * * *

Dr. and Mrs. O. F. Blackwelder, of the Broadmoor Apartments, who have been visiting in Roanoke, Va., are now spending several days at Craig Healing Springs, Va.

Miss Joan Stafford-Allen Wed To Harrison Williams Yesterday

Englishwoman, Married in Quiet Ceremony, Leaves With Virginian for Two Weeks; Bridegroom's Son Is Best Man.

In a quiet ceremony yesterday afternoon at the Washington Cathedral Miss Joan Stafford-Allen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Stafford-Allen, of Hill House, Long Melford, Suffolk, England, and Harrison Williams, of Leesburg, Va., were married. The bridegroom is the son of the late Griffin Stedman Williams, of Buffalo, N. Y.

Only relatives witnessed the wedding, at which the Rev. G. Peyton Craighill, rector of St. James' Episcopal Church, Leesburg, officiated at 4 o'clock.

Mrs. Christopher Scott-Nicholson, of Yorkshire, England, a cousin of the bride and a daughter of the late Lord Mayor Carr, of Carlisle, England, was matron of honor. Mrs. Scott-Nicholson accompanied Miss Stafford-Allen to this country. They arrived in New York on Tuesday. Lord Mayor Carr was President Wilson's host in Carlisle, England, after the armistice.

Winslow Williams, of Leesburg, was best man for his father.

Shortly after the ceremony, the couple left on a wedding trip. After two weeks they will go to Leesburg to take possession of the home that Mr. Williams recently completed on West Market street.

Announcement of the engagement in April came as a surprise to Mr. Williams' friends in Virginia, Washington and New York.

A resident of Loudoun County a number of years, Mr. Williams practiced law in New York, where he is still a member of the bar. He is the author of a recently published book, "Legends of Loudoun." Also, he is president of the Thomas Balch Library in Leesburg.

The bride's family is prominent in Suffolk. Her father is chairman of the Petty Session.

Son Is Born To O. C. Browns

Friends and relatives here have received report of the birth of a son to Commander and Mrs. O. Cunningham Brown, of London, on August 4. The child has been named Donald McNeale Brown.

Mrs. Brown was formerly Miss Polly McNeale, daughter of Mrs. Donald McNeale, of 1823 Biltmore street, and the late Mr. McNeale.

* * * *

Lieut. William C. Fitzhugh Robards, U. S. Navy, who recently arrived from the West Coast, is the guest of his mother, Mrs. Frank Robards, widow of Col. Robards, U. S. M. C.

Lieut. Robards, who is assigned to the destroyer Balch, spent Sunday at Annapolis with friends.

* * * *

Mrs. M. R. Buckler, of Washington, was entertained at a cabana party recently at the exclusive Lido Country Club, Lido Beach, Long Island, where her hostess was Mrs. George Bailey, of Rockville Center, Long Island.

In another party at the club was Miss Mary Asquith, of Washington, who was the guest of Mrs. William H. Brereton, of Long Beach, Long Island, professionally known as Helen Rowlan, newspaper columnist.

Mrs. Stokes Jones Visits in Midwest

Enjoys Family Reunion at Battle Creek, Mich.

Mrs. Stokes Jones and her daughter, Miss Mary Helen Jones, are enjoying a family reunion at Battle Creek, Mich., with six members of "The Jones Clan" from Mississippi, Oklahoma and Washington.

Others in the group are Mrs. S. J. Winters, of Kusciusko, Miss.; Mrs. R. L. Jones, Miss Mary Ethlyn Brown, and Mrs. E. W. Reynolds, of Bristow, Okla. Mrs. Winters and Mrs. Reynolds are sisters-in-law of Mrs. Stokes Jones and Mrs. R. L. Jones, and Miss Brown is a niece of Mrs. Reynolds' husband.

Miss Jones will leave Battle Creek this week-end for Chicago, going on to Evanston, Ill., to visit the Misses Harriet Ann and Emily Pribble. From there she will go on to Oklahoma to visit other relatives before returning to Washington late next month. Mrs. Jones will come here directly from Battle Creek the latter part of this month.

Off to East Hampton.

Abram I. Elkus, former United States Ambassador to Turkey, and Mrs. Elkus, who have been in New York recently, left yesterday for East Hampton, Long Island, where they will visit friends.

Kaspars Give Fifth Recital

'A Mid-Summer Night's Music' Presented by Couple.

In their fifth studio recital of the season, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kaspar presented "A Mid-Summer Night's Music" on Tuesday evening at Mintwood House. Mr. Kaspar's studio has been well known to musical Washingtonians for a great many years, and recitals always draw a representative group of residents.

Miss Margaret Sampson, daughter of Mrs. Odiorne Sampson and the late Col. Sampson, a pupil, was on the program, as was Frances Villaret (Mrs. Gustave Villaret, wife of Maj. Villaret, U. S. A.) Mrs. Villaret, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Griffith, of Chevy Chase, is spending the summer with her children at The Pines on the Severn, near Annapolis. She came from Mississippi, where Maj. Villaret is stationed with the R. O. T. C. unit of the university, in order to be able to study another season of music with Mr. Kaspar. Maj. Villaret recently obtained a few days' leave and came to Washington especially to hear his wife play in the recital.

Among the youngest pupils who took part in the recital were Carter W. Clarke, jr., son of Capt. and Mrs. Carter W. Clarke, of Washington; 7-year-old Norman Kiess and Etheldreda Kaspar, the young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kaspar.

Another participant on the program was Miss Bessie Hubach, of Pittsburgh, who flies down from her home in that city twice a week for lessons from Mr. Kaspar.

Among the guests were Mrs. Lindsay Russell, Mrs. George Oakley Totten, jr., and her son, George 3d, and Mrs. Odiorne Sampson.

Eleanor Preston And Mother Are At Hot Springs

Miss Eleanor C. Preston and her mother, Mrs. Ord Preston, are in Hot Springs, Va., where they will be until the middle of September. They will come on to Washington then to reopen their home.

Arriving in New York Tuesday on the Aquitania, Miss Preston spent a couple of days at the Waldorf-Astoria. She has been abroad for several weeks, spending most of her time in Paris and London.

Lenora Coberth To Marry Sept. 10

Miss Lenora Coberth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Coberth, of Washington, has completed plans for her wedding September 10 to Robert Newell Zearhoff, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Elmer Zearhoff, of Alexandria. The ceremony will take place at 4 p. m. at Calvary Baptist Church and will be followed by a reception at the church.

Miss Vivian Marks will serve as maid of honor and Miss Betty Anne Fiffinger will be junior bridesmaid. J. Elmer Zearhoff, jr., will be best man, and the ushers are Chester Jones, Ademar Weingardner, Robert A. Mayer, and Denney Williams.

Burnetts Plan Departure for Far East Tour

General Will Inspect Hawaii and Philippines, Then Go On to Japan.

Brig. Gen. Charles Burnett, Chief of the Bureau of Insular Affairs, and Mrs. Burnett, who make their home at the Wardman Park Hotel, will leave Washington next week and will sail on the United States Army Transport Republic from New York on September 1.

They will reach San Francisco September 19 and will arrive in Honolulu October 1. Gen. Burnett is making an official inspection trip and after a week in the Hawaiian Islands, they will sail for the Philippines, arriving in Manila on October 24.

Mrs. Burnett will go directly from the Philippines to Japan. After completing his inspection trip, the general will join her there. Gen. Burnett studied the Japanese language on a detail to Japan for that purpose from 1911 to 1914. From 1919 to 1924 he was military attache at the embassy in Tokyo and, again from 1925 to 1929 he was attache. He and Mrs. Burnett have lived longer in Tokyo than in any one city in the United States and feel that it is practically their home.

Mrs. Burnett also studied Japanese with her husband and has learned to compose and write Japanese poetry, from which she has attained great fame even in Japan. Her work is particularly noted for its purity of style and wording, of a period so ancient as to compare with the English of Chaucer and Beowulf.

Mrs. Burnett will visit among her many friends in Japan and after Gen. Burnett joins her they will remain in Tokyo for a short while and return to Washington late in January.

Grosvenors Plan Nova Scotia Stay Until September

Dr. and Mrs. Gilbert C. Grosvenor, who are at their summer home, Beinn Bhreigh, at Badedeck, Nova Scotia, will not return to their Bethesda home until the middle of September. Their younger daughter, Miss Gloria Grosvenor, and their sons, Melville and Gilbert Grosvenor 2d, are with them. Dr. Mabel Grosvenor, another daughter, is en route to Washington after a stay with her parents.

Another couple thinking of a sojourn in Nova Scotia are former Representative and Mrs. Fred Britten, who will go there if Mr. Britten succumbs to his annual attack of hay fever.

Birthday Party Is Held For Miss Ellen Taylor

Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey E. Taylor entertained at the Shoreham last evening for their daughter, Miss Ellen Taylor, whose sixteenth birthday was celebrated.

Guests were Miss Bonniemason Throckmorton, Miss Mary Ellen Henry, Fred Mizell, Carroll Curran and Norman Barrett.

White Sulphur Concert to Aid Stratford Work

Many Members of Capital Society Will Attend Event August 24.

Many members of Washington society who serve on the board of the Stratford Memorial Foundation, organized for the purpose of restoring Robert E. Lee's birthplace at Stratford, Va., will be actively interested in the concert which will take place at White Sulphur Springs Wednesday evening, August 24. The musical event will be for the benefit of the work of the foundation and will be one in a series of concerts to take place during Robert E. Lee Week at the Greenbrier.

Mrs. Charles D. Lanier, chairman of the Stratford Board, will come from Greenwich, Conn., to attend the program in which four stars of the Metropolitan Opera Company, Mary Craig, Elizabeth Wysor, Norman Horn and Arthur Anderson, will take part.

Mrs. Harry B. Hawes, former chairman of the board, will not be able to attend, for she is in the midst of moving into her new home in Spring Valley where she and the former Senator Hawes will live after closing their apartment at 2101 Connecticut avenue. Her daughter, Mrs. Hawes Dunn, is now in Reno, where she will receive a divorce from Henderson Dunn on September 1. Before returning to Washington, she will visit in California. The Haweses expect to be settled into their Spring Valley place by October 1.

Last spring Mrs. Hawes entertained at luncheon at Stratford in honor of Mrs. John Nance Garner, wife of the Vice President. The party was attended by wives of Cabinet officials and members of the Senate Ladies' Club.

Mrs. Casenove Lee, also a member of the board, with her daughter, Miss Marguerite Lee, is spending the summer in Charlestown, R. I. Mrs. Lee will return to the city early next month to join her husband, who has been here most of the season.

Vandergrift and Richard Lee, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Lee, will be back in September after a tour of several months in Europe.

Mrs. Charles Royce Plans to Join Husband

Mrs. Charles Royce, who this summer has been the guest of her parents, Maj. Gen. Walter L. Reed and Mrs. Reed, at their home on South Knoll road, Arlington, will leave early in September to join her husband, Capt. Royce, at Fort Leavenworth, Kans. Capt. Royce was formerly on duty at Governors Island, N. Y., and has just been assigned to his new post in the Midwest.

With her mother, Mrs. Royce returned on Tuesday from a visit of several days at Blue Ridge Summit, where they were guests of Mrs. Reed's sister-in-law, Mrs. Blossom Reed, at the Blossom Inn.

At Ocean City.

Dr. and Mrs. G. Le Roy Lansdale and their sons, George and Billy, are vacationing at Ocean City, N. J., where they are staying at the Bellevue.

NOTES OF SOCIETY

Official and Residential

Dr. Custis Lee Hall recently arrived at the Seigniory Club in Quebec, Canada.

* * * *

Mrs. Thomas J. Mangan, jr., and her son, Thomas J. Mangan 3d, of Washington, are at the Ambassador Hotel in New York City.

* * * *

Mrs. Arthur J. White, of Middleburg, Va., and her daughter, Miss Bettina Belmont, who have been in Saratoga for several days, are now in New York City at the Ritz Carlton.

* * * *

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Morris are in Pittsburgh, and will visit in Sewickly, Pa., while there.

* * * *

Mr. and Mrs. Angus Caswell Porter and their young son, Angus, jr., of Wheeing, W. Va., have arrived for a visit in Washington and are the guests of the former's mother, Mrs. Samuel Judson Porter, at her home on Sixteenth street.

Miss Blanche Cornell and Miss Frances Cowley, of Passaic, N. J., are stopping at the Shoreham. They will visit Williamsburg, Va., before returning to their home.

* * * *

Among Washingtonians who sailed from Montreal on the Clarke cruise liner New Northland on her August 15 Labrador cruise were Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Harper and Mrs. Frank Westbrook.

* * * *

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Gallegher, of Hershey, Pa., are at the Shoreham.

* * * *

Mrs. W. H. Schroeder and Miss Meredith Schroeder, of Dallas, Tex., are spending a few days at the Dodge.

* * * *

Mrs. C. G. Hofmeister, of St. Louis, is at the Hay-Adams House. With her is Miss Frances M. Grecelius.

The Integrity of the Store from which you Buy is of Importance
Julius Garfinckel & Company
OUR QUALITY FUR COATS
SPECIALLY PRICED
UNTIL AUGUST 31st ONLY
Acknowledged pre-season savings event, with our name for traditionally fine furs assuring satisfaction and enjoyment with every purchase. Truly the important opportunity for choosing exceptional values. Coats purchased now stored without charge in our cold storage vaults on the premises until wanted.
F at Fourteenth

Many Alexandria Girls to Sport Bright Dresses at School, Thanks to Sewing Classes Conducted by the Woman's Club

Old House Is Attractively Arranged as Scene of Activities.

Young Seamstresses Are Hard at Work Despite Summer Heat.

By Jessie Ash Arndt,
The Post Club Editor.

Many girls in Alexandria will have bright gingham dresses to wear when school opens next month, because of the interest of members of the Woman's Club in teaching them to sew. Although the general club meetings have been suspended during the summer, members of the welfare section have been busy throughout the season, looking after the organization's newest and most important project, the Alexandria Girls Club.

April 1 a clubhouse for girls was opened at 217 North Asaph street, with Miss Alice Gavin as matron. It is an old house, although not one of the historic places which Alexandria boasts. On the first floor are a living room, a reading room, dining room and kitchen. All of the furnishings have been donated by the women of the club and by merchants in Alexandria and Washington.

Behind the house is a garden with flowers and a bird bath where, another season, some of the club activities will be held. This summer it has been partly occupied by lumber in use for remodeling which was done on the house.

The second story includes a room on the front, equipped with a sewing machine, tables and chairs for the sewing classes, and one adjoining which is used for a game room and for cutting when needed by the young seamstresses. At the back is the room occupied by Miss Gavin, who is resident hostess at the clubhouse.

Welfare Section
Is Fairy Godmother

The project was undertaken by the welfare section of the Woman's Club, of which Mrs. Irving Diener is chairman. It is open to any girl in Alexandria.

There are sewing classes taught by Mrs. Diener, Mrs. Tyson Janney and Miss Virginia Bladen, of the Woman's Club, with the occasional assistance of volunteers from outside who are interested in the work.

Instruction in cooking has been given by Mrs. John M. McGraw, of the club, and Miss Ida Lansden. The kitchen is equipped with electric refrigerator, gas stove, a white enamel work table and at the windows are gayly-flowered chiniz curtains.

The girls also are being tought to knit and crochet, with Mrs. Lewis Cheeseman, Mrs. Walter Nicklin, Mrs. George Schelhorn and Mrs. Harvey Westbrook as their instructors. They have a choral group, too, directed by Mrs. Henry Schauffler and Mrs. J. Burchell Leachman.

Material for some of their sewing is provided by church societies and others interested and, in some instances, the girls bring their own. Many of them are now making attractive school dresses to be ready for the beginning of the fall term. They have worked regularly and neither they nor the club women have been daunted by the weather.

Mrs. F. H. Harper is program chairman in general charge of all their activities, including special entertainment on Friday nights, and Mrs. J. Maynard Brumstetter is house chairman.

The Community Chest in Alexandria allots $25 a month toward the maintenance of the clubhouse and the rest is provided by the Woman's Club through benefit parties and donations.

One of the affairs for raising money will be a flower sale in October. The younger members of the Woman's Club will be the flower venders, selling both plants and cut flowers from push carts, to be stationed at every other corner along King street. They will stand under bright umbrellas and wear peasant costume, according to present plans for the event.

The welfare section, beside its work with the Girls Club, has also made 40 uniforms this season for girls at the Kiwanis camp. The garden section has to its credit a bird sanctuary on the library grounds which it helped plant in co-operation with the Alexandria Garden Club. There is also a choral group of 30 voices in the Woman's Club, under the leadership of Mrs. Robert F. Gooding, organist at St. Paul's Church, which has contributed to many programs in the community and has also broadcasted a number of times.

Mrs. Oscar B. Ryder
Serves as President

Mrs. Oscar B. Ryder, wife of a member of the United States Tariff Commission, is president of the club, which was organized only four years ago. Preceding her as first president was Mrs. Walter D. Brookings, who now heads the Wellesley Club, of Washington. Other officers are Mrs. Joseph B. Carper, first vice president; Mrs. Willard Parker, second vice president; Mrs. George Schloffer, treasurer; Mrs. Arthur J. Mellot, corresponding secretary and Mrs. J. Byrchell Leachman, recording secretary.

The club meets on the fourth Wednesday of each month at Gadsyby's Tavern and section meetings, also held monthly, are at the homes of members. Section chairmen, in addition to Mrs. Diener, are Mrs. Richard L. Ruffner, garden; Mrs. Schauffler, current events; Mrs. William Sader, literature; Mrs. David C. Book, music.

Founders of the club were Mrs. George T. Klipstein, Mrs. Richard L. Ruffner, wife of the Mayor of Alexandria, and Mrs. Brookings. The charter members include Mrs. Harry B. Caton, Mrs. David C. Book, Mrs. Robert F. Gooding, Mrs. Llewellyn Powell, Mrs. James W. Pierce, Mrs. E. Wiley Stearns, Mrs. Herbert Oliver, Mrs. John B. Abraham, Mrs. William Morton, Miss Clara Talbott, Mrs. J. Burchell Leachman, Mrs. Frank J. Coffin, Mrs. William Hulfish, Mrs. Sherman B. Fowler, Mrs. Harrie White, Mrs. Benjamin Bayol, Mrs. Arthur J. Mellott, Mrs. Clarence Strader, Mrs. Wilmer Waller, Mrs. Eugene Dooman, Mrs. C. M. Shepperson, Mrs. Elliott Hoffman, Mrs. R. R. Baker, Mrs. Francis Drichler, Mrs. Cameron Weymss, Mrs. Joseph A. Hoeft, Mrs. George Warfield.

SEWING classes were held yesterday at the Alexandria Girls' Club. Left to right in the lower picture are Doris Acton, Elizabeth Martin, Mrs. Tyson Janney and Ethel Palmer. At the right are Dorothy Martin, Mrs. Bernice Day, a volunteer instructor; Annabelle Mathews and Miss Alice Gavin, matron of the clubhouse. Mrs. Janney is a member of the welfare section of the Woman's Club, which sponsors the project.

Post Staff Photo

Hessler-Henderson.

MRS. OSCAR B. RYDER, president of the Woman's Club of Alexandria, who succeeded Mrs. Walter D. Brookings, president when the club was first organized four years ago.

Party Will Recall Maud Younger

A garden party dedicated to the memory of Miss Maud Younger will be given by the Government Workers' Council of the National Woman's Party at Alva Belmont House, 144 B street northeast, at 8 o'clock tonight.

A varied program of music and informal talks has been arranged, which will be followed by refreshments. Close friends of Miss Younger, who were associated with her during the campaign for woman suffrage, will pay tribute to her memory and give reminicenses concerning her work for the improvement of the status of women. Among them will be:

Miss Alice Paul, leader of the National Woman's Party and a member of its international relations committee, member of the international board of Equal Rights International, member of the women's consultative committee on equal rights for women at Geneva, and the representative of the United States on the legal committee of the International Council of Women, with headquarters at Brussels; Mrs. Harvey W. Wiley, vice chairman of the National Woman's Party, who will present a series of stereopticon slides depicting some of the activities of the woman suffrage campaign in which Miss Younger participated; Miss Anita Pollitzer, vice chairman of the National Woman's Party, who is returning from South Carolina, in order to take part in the program; Mrs. Burnita Shelton Matthews, prominent Washington attorney and legal counsel for the party; Miss Laura Berrien, treasurer of the party and president of the National Association of Women Lawyers, and Mrs. Helen Hunt West, editor of Equal Rights, who took over the chairmanship of its congressional committee upon the death of Miss Younger in 1936.

Red Cross Is Teaching Mothers Here to Swim

The District Chapter of the American Red Cross, which has been co-operating with the Welfare and Recreation Association and the District of Columbia Playgrounds in giving swimming instruction to children during the summer months, is concentrating now on teaching mothers of the boys and girls.

Classes for mothers were started last season with marked success at the Takoma Pool and now have been extended to others throughout the city. For 10 days, Monday through Friday of each week, the classes will be held from 9 to 10 a. m. They are under the supervision of Gordon O. Stone, director of instruction in first aid and life saving for the chapter.

Girls to Leave For Scout Camp

Special Interests Listed to Speed Entries in Activities.

Another group of girls leaves tomorrow for the fourth session at Camp May Flather, of the Girl Scouts, which is progressing toward the close of another successful season.

Each girl enrolls with her camp record and her special interests listed so there will be preparation for her to enter into the activities program as soon as she arrives.

The girls leaving tomorrow are Mary Lou Aiellew, Alice Ballantine, Edith Betts, Marjorie Betts, Barbara Briggs, Mary Brunner, Leah Marion Burket, Shirley Canova, Jean Casanova, Caroline Clinite, Phyllis Ann Ceek, Ruth Darby, Jean Adele Dieffenbach, Ruth Dowden, Jean Drenenburg, Betty Jane Elder, Jean Elliott, Lydia Frances Ewing, Nancy Gaye Eshleman, Edith Foster, Betty Harden, Patty Anne Harris, Marjorie Hensely, Theodore Higgins, Betty May Hobbs, Dorcas Alice James, Lillian Alma Jenkins, Janet Juve, Jean Lewis, Pat Lipscomb, Nancy Marner, Irma Milstead, Patricia Nicholson, Jeannette Owen, Margie Parr, Care Parkins, Mary H. Raitt, Nancy Raspberry, Betty Lou Rednick, Pauline Saur, Nancy Smith, Eleanor M. Snodgrass.

Others are Carol Stedman, Gracie Stouffer, Margaret C. Swanton, Eunice Teel, Elizabeth Thornthwaite, Jane Turner, Frances Van Emden, Elsie Van Ness, Shirley Jeanne Wilson, Margaret Warren, Patricia Wilson, June Berman, Jean Berman, Josephine Garrett, Madaline Scallinger, Edith Dadcysman, Barbara Lyddane, Nancy Dulaney, Nancy Galloway, Jean Kennkel, Frances Schaff and Betty Barthlowe.

D. of A. Councils To Hold Outings

Banner Unit to Sponsor Moonlight Cruise August 26.

The Daughters of America are planning a series of outings next week, sponsored by the various councils.

A moonlight excursion will be given for the benefit of Star-Spangled Banner Council of Capitol Heights, Md., on August 26 at 8:30 aboard the City of Washington, with Mrs. Carrie A. Wardon as chairman.

The John L. Burnett Council will have its second cruise of the season, August 27. Mrs. Nellie Skillman is chairman and proceeds will go to benevolent work of the organization.

Mizpah Council's sewing club will have its annual outing, a trip to Colonial Beach, on August 27, for which various councils will make up parties. Mrs. Grace Trollinger is secretary of the club and Mrs. Naomi E. Swann is chairman of the outing.

The annual picnic of Unity Council will be held Sunday at Oak Grove Beach. Cars will leave 43 Anacostia road northeast at 10:30.

Women of Moose Alumni Unit Meets

The alumni committee of Columbia Chapter, Women of the Moose, held its monthly meeting at the home of the chairman, Mrs. George B. Clark, a past regent, last evening. All past regents and Mooseheart graduates of the chapter comprise the membership of this committee.

Past Regent Mrs. Richard Blankenship is vice chairman and Past Regent Mrs. Anna Wagner is secretary-treasurer. The alumni committee acts as an advisory council to the officers of the chapter and works with the general alumni association of the organization in maintaining a revolving fund for assisting Mooseheart graduates to secure college educations, or become established in the trade or profession for which they are trained at Mooseheart.

The principal topic discussed last evening was the annual visitation of the grand regent, Women of the Moose, to Columbia Chapter next month, when this committee will arrange the details of her entertainment.

BEDTIME STORIES

By Thornton W. Burgess

Tommy Puts a Question.

Questions should to knowledge lead;
Ask and to the answers heed.
—Old Mother Nature.

"If all bucks drop their antlers every year why aren't they found oftener?" Sammy asked the Old Naturalist.

"Many are found but often only one of a pair, and few folks want a single antler," was the reply. "Now if I had the mate to this one of Lightfoot's that I picked up the other day they would look fine up over the door, but this single antler alone would look foolish. To look well it just has to have its mate."

"Didn't you look for the mate where you found that one?" Sue asked.

"Yes, my dear. Yes, I looked for it for quite a distance around, but I wasn't surprised that I didn't find it. You see they didn't fall off at the same time," replied the Old Naturalist.

"I had an idea that they were joined together, sort of all one thing," said Sammy.

"No, indeed. They grow separately, just as the ears or the eyes are seperate. When the time comes for Lightfoot to lose his antlers he loses one at a time just the way you lost your first teeth. The second one may drop very soon after the first one or it may be hours later, even the next day, before it loosens enough to fall. Meanwhile, Lightfoot isn't standing still. He is moving about. So sometimes the second one drops off a long way from where the first one fell," explained the Old Naturalist.

While we are talking about antlers and horns," began Tommy when Sammy interrupted. "We haven't been talking about horns, only antlers," said he.

"Well there is something I want to know about horns, or one kind of horn anyway. At least it is called a horn," replied Tommy.

"Just what do you want to know about it?" asked the Old Naturalist.

"And what kind is that?" asked the Old Naturalist.

"The kind that the rhinoceros carries on his snout," was Tommy's prompt reply.

"Just what do you want to know about it?" the Old Naturalist asked.

"I want to know if it is ivory like the tusks of an elephant," Tommy answered. "If it isn't ivory what is it? I've wondered about it ever since I first read about the critter and saw a picture of one. I know that elephant tusks are solid ivory and valuable and and for a long time I've wondered about those rhinoceros horns. If they are not ivory what are they?"

The Old Naturalist smiled. "You'll be surprised," said he. "One of those horns and an elephant's tusk are not the same material at all. I suppose you know what an elephant's tusk really is."

Tommy looked puzzled. So did Sue and sammy. "What is it?" asked Tommy.

"It is a tooth," was the unexpected reply.

"A tooth!" squealed Sue. "Did you say a tooth?"

There was a twinkle in the eyes of the Old Naturalist as he replied, "That is is what I said. It is a modified tooth specially adapted to its owner's needs just the same as the tusks of a boar are modified teeth."

"Then I suppose the horn of a rhinoceros is a modified tooth," said Sammy.

"And your supposition is quite wrong. Yes, sir, it is wholly, completely and entirely wrong." The Old Naturalist's eyes twinkled. "You see instead of being a modified tooth, that horn is modified hair."

"What," cried the three together.

"Aw, Mr. Naturalist, give it to us in smaller doses," added Sammy.

"It is a pretty big dose to swallow all at once, almost as bad as trying to swallow the horn itself, isn't it?" chuckled the Old Naturalist. "What I mean is this: That horn is composed of the same material as hair.

I suppose you might call it a solidified mass of hair. I admit that it sounds queer, but that is what the scientists whose business it is to know about such things tell us."

"Some hair, I'll say," muttered Sammy.

Copyright, 1938, by T. W. Burgess.

Zontians Talk Of Winter Garb Despite Heat

Edna Barreau, of Chicago, Is Luncheon Guest at Y. W. C. A.

Start the season with a velvet beret and you can get along with just two hats next winter, members of the Washington Zonta Club were told yesterday by a visiting Zontian from Chicago. She was Edna May Barreau, who has a millinery establishment and shopping service there.

Mrs. Barreau was a guest at the club's regular luncheon at the Y. W. C. A., as was Mrs. Lucille McMurray, of Altrusa, who described the activities and objectives of her club.

The summer heat was no deterrent to the Zontians' interest in the discussion of a winter wardrobe. Mrs. Barreau advised selecting the type of beret which was most becoming and having one for both summer and winter. The other hat, this season, should be a felt or velour of an up-turn model, she said, so it would not interfere with furs or high coat collars coming up around the ears.

Advises Individuality
In Every Wardrobe

She advised following the general style trend in the selection of clothes and with that as a basis, expressing the individuality. She suggested for the coming winter using the two hats with a variety of costumes by the simple plan of having the milliner make different trimming for them which could be snapped on or off as the occasion required.

Pointing out that a hat can't be selected without taking the rest of the outfit into consideration, Mrs. Barreau told of the personal shopping service conducted by her firm supplementary to the regular millinery business.

Mrs. Barreau was introduced by Miss Emma T. Hahm, president of the club, who presided at the luncheon. Mrs. McMurray was presented by the first vice president, Mrs. Elizabeth Cox, who recently was appointed chairman of the committee on the legal status of women for Zonta International.

Mrs. McMurray told of the work of Altrusa clubs throughout the country, including the maintenance of scholarships for young people and, their major work, a vocational information service.

Altrusa Takes Vocational Surveys

The latter was devoted in the early years of the organization to the problems of girls just out of school. For the past six years, however, emphasis has been placed on the economic problem of the older women, said Mrs. McMurray. Some clubs have made surveys in their communities, others sponsor a vocational information week once a year in which the club members open their offices for conferences with those interested in work in their field, and devise other means of giving vocational guidance. The local club is but two years old, she said, and has only 14 members, so its activities in the field of service is necessarily limited.

Among the guests at the luncheon were Miss Annie Strickland, who is the new treasurer of Calvary Baptist Church, and Miss Lenora V. Coberth, whom she succeeds in that position. Miss Coberth will be married on September 10 at the Calvary Church to Robert Newell Zearfoss, a student at Colgate-Rochester Divinity School.

Other guests were Mrs. Ann Preston, a former member of the club, Harriet Ashby and Leonor Coop.

Madame Chairman

By Suzanne.

TOMORROW MORNING at 5 a party of young business women of the Y. W. C. A. will leave by motor for Lochearn Clan, near Ely, Vt., to spend a week.

They are Virginia Johnson, Florence Nichols, Jean Carr, president of the Xenos Club; Sara Motley, president of the Blue Triangle Club; Esther Hemingway, Margaret Hibble, Miss Bertha Pabst, of the board of directors of the Y. W. C. A.; Dorothy Sweadner, Marie de Novens and Miss Mary Ann Putnam, of the professional staff.

Miss Edith J. Rieger, executive secretary of the business and professional department, is an assistant director at the camp.

The girls plan to spend the first night in the Catskills and while at Lochearn Clan will climb Mount Mouchilouckie.

• • • •

A BOAT TRIP on the Potomac is being sponsored tonight by some of the girls of Strong Residence, for the benefit of the Girls' Friendly Society. Among them will be Vina Staron, Margaret Iwinski, Clara Jones, Marjorie Bennett, Gladys Blankers, Gertrude Luedike, Janice Smart and Jane Lafferty.

• • • •

VACATION LODGE is providing a cool residence for a number of Washington business women this summer. Its wooded grounds, tennis courts and pleasant porches out in Cherrydale, Va., have attracted more than 50 girls this season. Miss Bessie Brown, of the Y. W. C. A. staff, and her mother have just gone out to spend two weeks.

Some of the girls who moved there for the season, deserted the lodge long enough to go traveling on their "two weeks with pay" and then returned. One of these is May Richards, who went to the Pacific Coast and Alaska. Hazel Purdy was also on the West Coast. Elizabeth Raymond, of the Civil Service Commission, spent her vacation motoring through New England. Johanne Kerstein, of the Treasury Department, and her sister, Lillian, of the Federal Communications Commission, spent a week at North Long Beach, N. J.

• • • •

MRS. WALTER B. FRY, president of the D. C. Congress of Parents and Teachers, is expecting as her guest this week-end a girlhood friend, Mrs. William Weitz, of Kansas City.

Mrs. Fry has been in Washington all summer but expects to take a short trip with Mr. Fry before the opening of school. She will attend the meeting of the executive board of the national congress, September 12 to 16.

MRS. O. G. HANKINS, also of the District Congress, with Mr. Hankins and their son is at Rehoboth Beach; Mrs. W. J. Greenleaf, secretary of the congress, is spending the summer at Sebago Lake, Me., and Mrs. J. Phil Campbell is visiting relatives in Watsonville and Tiffin, Ga.

• • • •

WITH the usual modesty of a publicity chairman, Mrs. Edward R. Seal, director of press and publicity for the D. C. P.-T. A., neglects to mention herself when she is giving news of her organization. However, she and Mr. Seal had with them last week-end their son, Midshipman John Seal, and two other boys from the Naval Academy in Annapolis—Midshipman Cyrus Radford, of Philadelphia, and Dick Nesbitt, of Reno, Nev.

THE WASHINGTON BRANCH of the American Association of University Women is presenting Donne O'Delle in a song recital at its regular weekly tea Monday afternoon at 4.

Miss O'Delle, who is from Illinois, does other things beside her singing. She is now holding a secretarial position in the Department of Commerce.

Mrs. Joseph Brisebois will be hostess at the tea.

ARE MUDDY MIXERS SPOILING YOUR DRINKS?

If you're having Mixer trouble—turn over a new leaf, with Poland Mixers. They're made with pure natural fruit juices—no artificial flavor—and pure internationally known Poland Water, carbonated. Try Poland Mixers for the easiest drink you ever made—and the best you ever tasted. Add liquor, add ice and serve.

TOM COLLINS • PLANTER'S PUNCH • WHISKEY SOUR

Poland Mixers

Distributed by J. E. DYER & CO. 3330 M Street N.W. Washington, D. C.

Brooks 1109 G Street

Camel's Hair-and-Wool SPORT COATS processed with "Neva-Wet and "Neva-Moth"

16.95

Guaranteed for five years against moth damage! . . . besides the famous "Neva-Wet" process which makes it shed water like a duck! The famous Balmacaan style in rich-textured Camel's Hair-and-Wool . . . lined and interlined. Sizes 12 to 20.

Better Coats—Second Floor

Only 5'-1" Long, New Model Steinway Grand

No piano like it at or near the price. Its tone thrills everyone who plays it.

$885 Droop's ★ 1300 G

THE HECHT CO. BASEMENT

F St. at 7th NA. 5100

Imitation Persian FUR FABRIC COATS

Guaranteed against Moth Damage for 5 YEARS!

$15.95

7 Beautiful Models to choose from, all styled to look like high-fashion Fur Coats! Made of "Babelamb" . . . a fur-fabric product of Carlton Mills. Warm, Durable and Smart!

Sizes for WOMEN . . . 38 to 44

MISSES . . . 12 to 20
JUNIORS . . . 11 to 17

Convenient Terms May Be Arranged!

(The Hecht Co. Basement.—Coat Dept.)

Fresh Nuts Daily
National Peanut Corporation
Two Stores 705 15th St. N.W. 1010 F St. N.W.
Open Evenings and Sundays

OPEN ALL SUMMER
Forrest Oakley SPORTSWEAR
1313 Connecticut Ave.

FOUR FLOORS AIR COOLED

Lansburgh's SEVENTH, EIGHTH and F STREETS District 7575

Dr. Mattison's New "Perfect Posture" MATTRESS

Exclusively at Lansburgh's

19.75

Scientifically designed to support your body in proportion to weight. Springs graduating from light to heavy construction. Contains 308 of these specially made high-tempered coils.

Other "Perfect Posture" Mattresses, 29.50 to 49.50

Lansburgh's—Fifth Floor

SAVE The Post's Weekly Parade of Bargains THURSDAY AND FRIDAY SPECIALS

FRENCH'S

1403 W St. N.W. DEcatur 5131

Open Until 10 o'Clock P. M.

RADIO REPAIRS

Approved Factory Methods

60c

EXTRA PARTS IF NEEDED REASONABLE

★

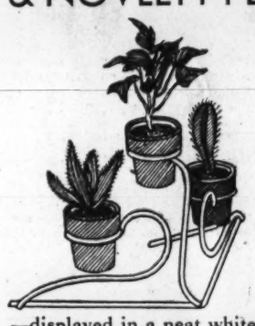
ALL WORK GUARANTEED

- Chassis analyzed
- All tubes tested
- Speaker cone centered
- Aerial and ground checked
- All connections checked
- Set thoroly brushed out
- All minor repairs

MURPHY'S

At F & G between 12th & 13th Sts. N.W.
810 to 818 7th St. N.W.
3128 14th St.—Next to Arcade Market

3 MEXICAN CACTI PLANTS & NOVELTY PLANT HOLDER



39c COMPLETE WITH 3 PLANTS

Gayly-colored pots of long-lasting cacti plants—displayed in a neat white wire pot holder—make an attractive decorative piece for whatnot shelves, sun porch or kitchen.

AT 3 MURPHY STORES THURS.—FRI.—SAT.

★ All Stores Are Completely Air-Conditioned ★

HECHINGER CO.

Four Great Building Material Stores

MAIN OFFICE 15th & H N.E. | DOWNTOWN 6th & C S.W. | BRIGHTWOOD 5925 Ga. Ave. | ANACOSTIA 1905 Nichols Ave.

GAS RANGE

★ Genuine "Fire King"
★ Enameled Lining
★ Sturdily Constructed
★ Gives Same Baking and Cooking Results as Larger Models.

Today & Friday

$17.90 Delivered

Same stove enameled in color. Choice of table top or shelf model, add..... $4

Phone Orders ATl. 1400

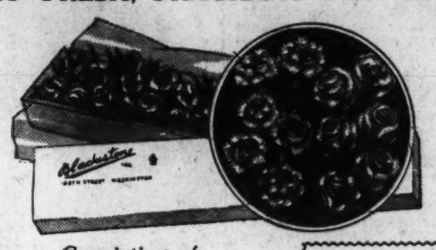
● MANY OTHER MODELS TO $83.40

BLACKISTONE, Inc.

1407 H St. N.W. DIs. 1300

BEAUTIFUL WEEK-END FLOWER GIFT BOX

OF FRESH, FRAGRANT FLOWERS



Consisting of
1 Dozen Gladioli
1 Dozen Asters
3 Water Lilies

$1.50 COMPLETE

Phone Your Order—DI. 1300—and Charge It

SPORT CENTER

"Where Sportsmen Meet"

Eighth and D Sts. N.W. MEtro. 6444

Washington's Largest Official Boy Scout Headquarters

$9.50 FISHING OUTFIT

Includes Rod, Reel, Line, Hooks, Sinkers

Outfit Consists of:

- 2-piece split bamboo salt water rod, screw locking reel seat, double grip, agatine guides and tip, rubber butt cap.
- Ocean City's "Olympic" salt water reel, 250-yard capacity, free spool.
- 50 yards 45-pound test Cuttyhunk line.
- 6 gut-snelled salt water hooks.
- 2 four-ounce sinkers.

THURS. & FRI. ONLY

$4.89 Complete

Free Parking on Steele's Lot a Few Doors Up 8th St.

MORTON'S

7th & D STS. A-I-R-C-O-O-L-E-D

OPEN SATURDAY UNTIL 9 P. M. DURING THE SUMMER

Brings You the Latest Hollywood STAR Creation

GENUINE LUSTR' OR MOHAIR FABRIC

COATS

$14.90

Coat Pictured as Worn by Jane Wyatt, Columbia Star.

Featuring the new fall shade of Teal Blue and Rural Autumn in sizes from 12 to 20.

This is another example of the amazing values made possible by Morton's Low Price Policy.

NACHMAN

FURNITURE COMPANY
512 9th ST. N.W.

AUGUST FURNITURE SALE!

4 Pc. BEDROOM SUITES

This four-piece bedroom suite is a real buy. Consists of bed, chest of drawers, dresser and vanity. Can be had in maple, walnut or mahogany veneer. Drawers of dove-tail construction with hardwood interiors. This suite must be seen to be appreciated.

$54

Pay $4.50 Cash and $4.50 a Month

MILSTONE'S ACME LIQUOR STORE

927 Penn. Ave. N.W. Open Till 9 P. M.

"Home of Low Prices"

CONTINUING OUR SPECIAL SUMMER SELLING SALES!

Remember, a different item each week at a SMASHING REDUCTION! Watch this page weekly. This week it's—

Old STONEWALL 8 YEAR OLD Straight Bourbon 100 PROOF BOTTLED IN BOND

MELLO-BROOK 9 YEAR OLD STRAIGHT RYE 100 PROOF

MADE TO SELL FOR $1.95 THURSDAY, FRIDAY AND SATURDAY ONLY!

$1.29 Full Pint

$15.25 Case of 12 Pints

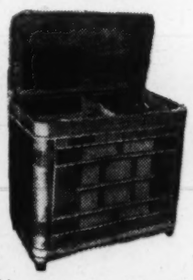
OLD STONEWALL ALSO IN ½ PINTS—69c Each

HOMER L. KITT CO.

1330 G Street

FLOOR SAMPLE

1938 MODEL PHILCO RADIO-PHONOGRAPH



List Price, $144.50

Now $79.50

A splendid set with all latest features; 6-tube American and foreign radio; phonograph has tone control, automatic stop, crystal pick up and self starting motor. Very handsome conveniently sized cabinet.

Also New Models of RCA-Victor • Capehart McMurdo • Silver Philco

FAMILY SHOE STORE

312 7th St. N.W.

Established 1873—Satisfaction Guaranteed

Every Pair From Regular Stock!

CLEARANCE! WOMEN'S SHOES

FORMERLY $3.95 to $8.50

NOW— $2.00 PR.

Medium Heels, High Heels, Sport Heels, Flat Heels, Cuban Heels, Arch and Novelty Types, Brown and White — Black & White, All Black and Plain Colors, Several hundred pairs of low heel Oxfords for School Girls.

★ 2,500 pairs, not every size in every style, but every width in each size to 5 . . . Many pairs nationally known trade-marked shoes . . . ★

An extraordinary shoe sale you shouldn't miss.

MURPHY'S

At F & G between 12th & 13th Sts. N.W.
At 810 to 818 7th St. N.W.

Now Exclusive for Us

Specially Packed for Murphy's Boned & Rolled Sugar Cured SMOKED HAM

35c lb.

Packed exclusively for Murphy's by Goetze's—ready to fry, bake or boil.

THURSDAY, FRIDAY & SATURDAY ONLY

★ Our New 7th St. Delicatessen Department Is Now Ready to Serve You ★

CLEAN-RITE VACUUM STORES

905 G St. N.W. | 3015 14th St. N.W.

14th Street Store Open Till 9 P.M.

ELECTROLUX

The Cleaner of 101 Uses!

Completely Rebuilt Throughout!

By our expert mechanics, and backed by our famous written

GUARANTEE BOND

That protects you against defects in workmanship or material, REPLACEMENT or REPAIRS, for the same length of time as a NEW CLEANER.

COMPLETE WITH ATTACHMENTS

Mail Orders Filled—Send $1 Deposit

$17.95 TERMS ARRANGED

PHONE COL. 6100 For FREE Home Demonstration

ROYAL LINOLEUM CO.

Corner 11th & H N.W. DIstrict 7410

Genuine Armstrong's INLAID LAID AND CEMENTED

$1.39 Sq. Yd. Installed

Usually $1.85 Yd.

You Can't Go Wrong With Armstrong!

Proper laying is one-half the success of an attractive floor. Our linoleum mechanics are thoroughly experienced in factory approved laying methods that positively guarantee you a beautiful, durable floor.

Our Estimator will cheerfully submit sample and measure your room WITHOUT COST. District 7410-8342.

GARRISON'S

1215 E St. N.W. Open Evenings NAt. 1586

In Time to Greet Fall's Advance Fashions!

COSTUME JEWELRY

- Bracelets
- Rings
- Brooches
- Novelties

Regularly $1.00

89c

CLEVER, sparkling, appealing shapes of animals, birds, and modern designs. Rhinestone and simulated precious stone settings. Definitely SMART!

A & N TRADING CO.

Formerly Named Army & Navy Trading Co. (Same Firm)

8th & D Sts. MEt. 6608 Our Only Store

Values Up to $1.39 in Ladies' & Misses'

POLO SHIRTS, SLACKS SHORTS and CULOTTES

THURS., FRI. & SAT. ONLY

2 pcs. for $1

Lots of styles! Lots of materials! Lots of colors! Many are ones and twos of a kind, so we've price-slashed them all! Sizes are broken, but you'll even find extra-size slacks and culottes in the group. Shop early and save!

FREE Parking on STEEL'S LOT A FEW DOORS UP 8th STREET

Open tonite till 8 p. m. Saturday until 10 p. m.

MURPHY'S

810-818 7th St. N.W.
At F and G, Between 12th and 13th

It's a Habit Now—Every Week "College Hill"

CHICKEN!

Delicious LEGS and BREASTS

49c lb.

FRYING & ROASTING CHICKENS

Ready for the Pan

35c lb.

COME AND GET IT!

Prices in effect for Thursday, Friday and Saturday at our F Street Store and our 7th Street Store.

SECTION II — Local News, Sports

The Washington Post

Classified, Comics — SECTION II

*X — WASHINGTON: THURSDAY, AUGUST 18, 1938 — 15

Over the Coffee

By Harlan Miller

REGRETS FOR YOUR GROCER.

We could live on the fat of the land, you and I, if we only had such fancy phrases for our landlord and our grocer as the diplomats of the lands which owe us money have for Mr. Cordell Hull. I have just culled a few gems from the debt correspondence which you might try the first of the month (and let me know how it works):

Saint Quentin . . . no regrets?

* * * *

Van der Straten-Ponthoz, of Belgium, which owes $440,576,360 in all: "The Royal Government keenly regrets to find that the reasons which have forced it to suspend, since December, 15, 1932, the service of its debt to the U. S. have lost none of their validity . . . No new element having arisen . . ." ($70,642,538 overdue.)

* * * *

Hurban, of Czechoslovakia, which owes $165,658,603 in all: "My government regrets that prevailing conditions do not warrant, at this time, the resumption of discussions which would result in a mutually satisfactory settlement of this question." ($17,998,212 overdue.)

"—try it on your grocer"

Saint Quentin, of France, which owes $4,121,120,502 in all: "As soon as the satisfactory development of the situation will permit the French government will not fail to seize the opportunity, which it hopes will be soon, to enter into conversations for the negotiation of an agreement . . ." ($545,951,725 overdue.)

* * * *

Potocki, of Poland, which owes $252,159,819 in all: "For reasons analagous to those contained in the note of Dec. 8, 1932, the Polish government are obliged to request similarly a deferment . . . still not being in a position to resume the service of the debt." ($55,805,187 overdue.)

* * * *

Suvich, of Italy, which owes $2,019,907,055 in all: "My government regrets to be still unable, at the present moment, to submit any proposals, and wishes to refer to the considerations previously brought to the attention of the Federal Government." . . . ($100,861,350 overdue.)

* * * *

Zadeikis, of Lithuania, which owes $7,429,514 in all: "The Lithuanian government, acknowledging its indebtedness to the United States, regrets exceedingly its continued inability to effect payment of the installment on their debt." . . . ($1,522,849 overdue).

* * * *

Bilmanis, of Latvia, which owes $8,300,892 in all: "To their regret the Latvian government find it impossible to effect the payment of the instalment on their debt." . . . ($1,742,811 overdue.)

"—waste money on slingshots"

Fetich, of Yugoslavia, which owes $61,663,515 in all: "The Royal Government, while appreciating the willingness of the U. S. Government to discuss, through diplomatic channels, any proposals concerning this indebtedness, are still unable, to their sincere regret, to resume payment . . ." ($2,352,031 overdue.)

* * * *

The English note, the most hoity-toity of the lot, doesn't even regret inability to pay:

Lindsay, of Great Britain, which still owes $5,263,719,066 in all: "His Majesty's Government will be willing to reopen discussions on the subject whenever circumstances are such as to warrant the hope that a satisfactory result might be reached." ($1,080,157,132 overdue.)

Germany hasn't even answered our last note about what she owes us.

* * * *

Fine language, my fine buckos; but how about a few dollars on account? After all, compared with the money you throw away on slingshots, these bills are as trifling as a $15 grocery bill to a man who's buying a new $1,500 automobile . . . And, you recall, Finland and Hungary are doing the polite thing . . . Isn't it odd, too, that it's only the small debtors who express regret; England and France are very brisk about it, with no regrets at all—like the boy in the song about Chinatown—"with lots of debts and no regrets."

Copyright, 1938, Washington Post and Publishers Syndicate.

Md. Plasterer Killed In Auto-Truck Crash

Westminster, Md., Aug. 17 (AP).—Charles Owings, 34, was fatally injured late today when his automobile crashed into the rear of a lumber truck.

William Sinnott, driver of the truck, said he was about 3 miles south of Westminster when he slowed down to make a turn. He said Owings, a plasterer who recently returned to his home here from Richmond, Va., where he was employed, evidently failed to see the truck.

Ruby Pickett, 24, of Westminster, was riding as a passenger in Owings' automobile, but he suffered only lacerations.

1940 Sewer Budget Asks 80% Increase

Estimate of $2,018,634 Due Largely to 19 New Networks.

Boost Is Largest Asked by Any Department in District.

The District Sewer Department presented the District Commissioners yesterday with a $2,018,634 budget estimate for the 1940 fiscal year, an increase of 80 per cent over the present appropriation.

Due largely to requested funds for the construction of 19 new sewer systems which would aid eliminate river pollution, the increase of $902,134 is the largest requested to date by any municipal department.

Specifically, the department requested $956,964, an increase in itself of $698,464 over the present appropriation, for the construction of the new sewers and basins.

The department requested $100,000 for the construction of divorcement sewers in the Klingle Valley area, for which $96,855 has already been provided by the PWA. This network of sewers is designed to eliminate pollution of Rock Creek in that area.

Salary Jump Asked.

The money requested by the Sewer Department is necessary for laterals from 200 houses in this section.

A divorcement sewer system for Good Hope road is also requested. Here, also, the PWA has supplied $58,900 for the construction of the sewers. However, the department needs $42,500 to separate the sanitary and storm-water drainage from some 85 houses in the Good Hope area. It is intended to eliminate diluted sewage from this neighborhood from flowing into the Anacostia River.

For slaries in the department, $181,420 was requested. This is a $6,420 increase over the present appropriation. For cleaning and repairing sewers and basins, a sum of $245,000, or an increase of $15,000 over the present appropriation, was asked.

In anticipation of Highway Department projects, the Sewer Department requested $100,000 to perform any sewer work which might come about.

Other sewers contemplated include Macomb street drainage area divorcement sewers, Luzon Valley divorcement, Portland street drainage area, Arizona avenue intercepting sewers, South Dakota avenue sanitary trunk sewer, Pope's Run storm-water sewer, Arizona avenue storm-water sewer, Broad Branch road storm-water sewer, Thirty-fourth street storm-water sewer, Sedgewick street storm-water sewer and Ordway street storm-water sewer.

Replacement Planned.

It is planned to construct a replacement sewer on Gales street, between Fifteenth and Sixteenth streets northeast. The present sewer was constructed in 1890.

Because of numerous complaints from District residents, the department has requested funds to construct sewers on Fourteenth street, between Belmont and Clifton streets; Nebraska avenue northwest between Reno road and Fort drive; Falls Branch, from Forty-eighth street to Alton place.

An outlet for South Capitol street and Nichols avenue stormwater sewers is planned, as is a storm sewer for Massachusetts avenue branch.

For mosquito control in the District, the Sewer Department requested $15,250, an increase of $3,250 over the present appropriation. For an Oxon Run interceptor, the department asked $60,000. Sewage treatment plant work will need $210,000. For assessment and permit work, an increase of $125,000 over this year's appropriation of $225,000 was requested.

Wheelwright Returns To Latter-Day Saints

D. Sterling Wheelwright, director and organist of the Latter-Day Saints Washington Chapel at Sixteenth street and Columbia road northwest, will resume his organ recitals in the chapel this week after a two-month vacation in the West. During his absence the recitals were presented by Lorin F. Wheelwright of Salt Lake City, director of music education.

The recitals are held every Monday, Wednesday and Friday

15,000 Defy Rain to Hear Symphony

Last 2,000 Sit in Torrent Until Dr. Kindler Stops Final Concert.

Fifteen thousand persons, who had been hoping for relief from the heat for days, last night tried to defy a weatherman bent on depriving them of their last "Sunset Symphony" of the summer.

They all meant to stick out—remain loyal to the masters of music and the National Symphony Orchestra to the end. But a cloudburst threw a damper in the path of their devotion.

About two thousand actually did hold their places until the rain-soaked Dr. Kindler stopped his orchestra after Debussy's "Clair de Lune ("Moonlight") to say:

"That is all."

It was raining in on his first violins and cellos.

Rides Scarce.

As for the other 13,000 or so, who had abandoned art for comfort's sake—they were swarming around the Lincoln Memorial grounds hoping to land a bus or taxi seat. Many of them did; most of them didn't. The motor traffic was terrific; the pedestrian traffic was wet.

But even those who retreated before the storm were no cowards. They held their places at the Watergate far beyond the moment of reasonable safety. While ominous drops fell on their faces they wouldn't budge for the half hour or so that the lovely Carole Goya, the dancing solost, was before the orchestra picturing the romance of Old Spain.

It was only after the last roll of her crackling castenets that some thought it might be wise to move toward home. The concert ended shortly after Dr. Kindler resumed the exclusively orchestral part of the program.

No Postponement.

Rain came after the concert was half over, so there is no postponement.

After the concert C. C. Cappel, the orchestra's manager, for whom this summer's season meant a half dozen drenchings, smiled in the face of another wash-out, and a deficit resulting from the series of rainy nights. He said he was proud of the way followers of the orchestra have turned out despite repeated threats of wet weather.

Rain, such as last night's, was responsible for four postponements in the series of 12 concerts, he said. And threatening weather held down attendance at others.

Deficit "Inevitable."

"A deficit in the operation of the summer series is inevitable," he said, "but I would like to take this opportunity to thank the many friends who stood by the orchestra under most trying circumstances."

Whatever the attendance figures for the whole season may turn out to be, last night's crowd was, nevertheless, one of the largest ever assembled at the Watergate. When the regular number of seats had been taken, late comers sat on the lawns flanking the Watergate steps. Others took places along Arlington bridge.

Briskly, Hans Kindler, the orchestra's regular leader, led his men through Glinka's overture to "Russlan and Ludmilla." Then came the Cesar Franck Symphony in D Minor, a work which had won out in audience balloting over Schubert's "Unfinished Symphony."

Dancing Praised.

The Franck Symphony is one that Dr. Kindler and his men know well. They have played it many times. But last night, while the conductor performed it with an authoritative hand, it was still fresh and vigorous.

Miss Goya is as colorful as the Spain she depicted in a half dozen dances last night. She played peasant women, courtesans and noblewomen—all with a flair for detail reminiscent of the late Argentina, greatest of Spanish dancers. Miss Goya depicted with great art and adroitness the Spain of gayety and music castanets—the Spain that was. It was a lovely sight—even if it was dancing in the rain.

Sues for Reno Divorce.

Reno, Nev., Aug. 17.—Mrs. Florence E. Offutt today filed a divorce suit against Clarence H. Offutt. The counle were married in Washington, D. C., June 30 1926. Mrs. Offutt charged cruelty.

Allen Names 'Tube' Study Group Today

Committee to Investigate High-Speed Subway for Capital.

Proposed $2,500,000 System Would Ease Traffic Jams.

Commissioner Allen will name a committee today to investigate feasibility of $2,500,000 Diesel-equipped high-speed subway system to relieve traffic congestion in the District's downtown area.

The plan to be considered calls for a loan of the funds from the PWA, Allen revealed yesterday.

The proposed underground electric railway follows closely the plan suggested by Waldo J. Schmitt, of National Museum. The subway would run along a 2½-mile route from Rock Creek and Virginia avenue to Constitution avenue, south to Twelfth street and along Twelfth street to a terminus at Maryland avenue southwest.

The Schmitt plan would utilize the existing railways, providing them with Diesel electric trains and having them linked to the subway.

Would Clear Streets.

The "tube," designed to clear the downtown area of commuters' automobiles, woud make quick, easy connections with the suburban towns, inducing commuters to use the railway-subway system and leave their autos at home or at a terminus.

A train from Forest Glen would pick up passengers along North Chevy Chase, Chevy Chase, Bethesda, Edgemoor and Somerset to the Virginia avenue subway station. The existing raiway from Woodside would pick up others at Silver Spring and Takoma Park. The Branchville train would make stops at College Park, Riverdale and Hyattsville to the Maryland avenue terminus. The subway would connect with the major Federal departments.

Only One Break in Loop.

Allen said he planned to name representatives from the Public Utilities Commission, Highway Department, Police Department, Traffic Department, and other municipal bureaus to the subway committee. Application for a PWA loan must be made by September 30.

According to Schmitt, a continuous loop of railway tracks runs around the city from a point between Woodside and North Chevy Chase, making a complete circuit except for a short stretch between Twelfth street and Maryland avenue southwest, and Rock Creek and Virginia avenue northwest, route of the proposed subway.

Allen offered the opinion that construction of the subway would meet with no particular technical problems.

300 to Perform Tomorrow to Aid Hospital Shows

Everything but the weather has been settled for the gala Outdoor Circus at Griffith Stadium tomorrow night when more than 300 performers will strut their stuff for the benefit of the hospital entertainers who throughout the year supply shows for the shut-ins.

Proceeds will help continue the free entertainment to more than 75 local institutions during the next year.

Tomorrow night at the stadium the entertainers will present their acts, bands will play, boys and girls from the local 4-H clubs will hold a cow-milking contest and a genuine band of Scots will perform on the bagpipes.

The evenings festivities begin at 8 p. m. In case of rain the circus will be held Saturday night. Co-sponsors of the circus are the Fort Stevens Post of the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Children from the local orphan and charity homes will be admitted free, but the regular price is adults 40 cents and children, 25 cents.

Man on 380-Mile Swim.

Wheeling, W. Va., Aug. 17 (AP).—Steve Tanky, of nearby Windsor Heights, churned down the Ohio River today in an announced attempt to swim to Cincinnati, 380 miles away.

Well, Well! Our Own Ultra-Modern Washington Still Sports 2 of Them, and Good Water, Too

Post Staff Photo.

On these hot days little water comes out of this public pump at Twelfth and M streets northwest, one of the District's two remaining pumps. The dry children are (left to right) Jack Bell, 9; Bobby Bell, 6; Betty Patton, 3, and Mack Bell, 3.

Well, well!

It seems that ultramodern Washington still has two public wells of the old-fashioned variety, not equipped with old oaken buckets, to be sure, but easily recognizable by the long handles like the one you used to swing down at the farm.

One well is in the heart of things at Twelfth and M streets northwest, the other near the busy intersection at Maryland avenue and Fifteenth street northeast. Just who uses the wells, no one seems to know. But there they stand, leftovers from the days before public water mains and hot and cold faucets.

Once a week the rusty handle of the Maryland avenue pump creaks and enough water trickles out to fill a test tube for a Health Department inspector. He turns the sample over to Raymond Wilson, Bureau of Sanitation bacteriologist, who analyzes it for bacteria content. And despite the fact the well water comes from Good Old Mother Nature without benefit of filter plants and fancy pumping stations, it "compares very favorably with city water," Wilson says.

"The danger signal, in the case of unsafe water, is the presence of 'b. coli'," he explained, "and we've never found any in the well water. The general bacteria count for city water is below 10 per cubic centimeter, which means it is good drinking water. The count for the Mayryland avenue well also is below 10."

Wilson was glad to hear that there is another pump on M street. He'd never heard of it and plans to send for a sample from it today. He says he has no idea of the depth of the Maryland avenue job, but presumes it is considerable in view of the high quality of the water.

Water Division officials, who are responsible for the upkeep of the pumps even though they are not fed from the city mains, estimate their depth at between 90 and 120 feet. As the pumps become more and more outdated—they've been in use about 50 years already—it becomes more difficult to secure parts. When the parts become obsolete the division probably will ask the District Commissioners to authorize the removal of the pumps.

The Health Department wouldn't mind seeing the wells go either, according to Wilson. "It's just another thing we have to keep check on," he said.

There is a legend about an abortive attempt to remove the pumps about ten years ago.

The movement failed because of an aged resident who told District officials he'd drunk well water all his life and didn't propose to start fooling around with new-fangled faucets at this late stage.

Extreme age and possibly neglect have decreased the efficiency of both pumps. In fact, at the height of yesterday's heat a Post photographer and reporter took turns at the handles for about five minutes and couldn't force a drop of water from either.

Abner Drury Brewery Is Sold At Auction; Old-Timers Sorry

Charles Jacobsen, Lone Bidder, Gets Plant for $113,000; Future Use Undecided; 30 or 40 Employes at Sale.

The Washington Brewery, Inc., successor to Abner Drury Brewery which made a net profit of $140,000 the first seven months of legal beer, was sold at auction yesterday for $113,000.

Only one bid was submitted to Auctioneer Adam A. Weschler at the property at Twenty-fifth and G streets northwest. Bidder was Albert E. Steinem, an attorney who would not name his client.

The Post learned, however, that actual purchaser was Charles Jacobsen, vice president of the Heurich Brewing Co., president of the Arlington Bottling Co., president of the Frazee Potomac Laundry Co., and former vice president of the Washington Baseball Club.

Jacobsen confirmed his purchase last night, but said that he had yet made no decision concerning future of the plant. He said he was considering operating it as a brewery.

For 30 to 40 former employes the autcion was a sad affair. As rain poured down outside they stood in a little group and heard Weschler go through formality of offering the property for sale in four ways. There was only one bid, and that for the minimum price set by court order.

After the auction was closed and Lawrence J. Heller, trustee in bankruptcy, had accepted a $10,000 check in deposit, he said he would ask District Court to ratify the sale today.

As the rain let up so officials could get to their automobiles, the old employes left the old truck-loaking platform and went into the deserted plant for a last look around.

"For a price like $113,000 the property itself is a good investment," they said. "And then the equipment can be sold second-hand for a good $50,000. Heurich Brewery is the only logical buyer, and since that plant has equipment for twice its output, they don't need this place."

The land is near the Heurich Brewery and is in a location toward which Federal Government's building program is expanding. Attorneys last night considered it a sound investment on which considerable profit could be realized in a few years, even if the plant were never opened.

"It breaks my heart to see it go," said J. F. Paul Eschner, who had been connected with the brewery for the past 18 years in positions from clerk to vice president and general manager. John J. Barnes, jr., secretary and assistant treasurer, agreed.

The Abner Drury Co., was organized in 1898 and the brewery operated continuously until February 1 of this year, when its license was not renewed.

When beer became legal the company made money fast. New machinery and equipment costing $165,000 was installed.

Business lagged and Abner Drury Brewery, Inc., as the new organization was known, went into bankruptcy July 31, 1935. The company was reorganized as Washington Brewery, but again business lagged. The license was not renewed this year, and the trustee in bankduptcy was appointed March 1.

The sale leaves Washington with but one brewery.

Allen to Keep Job as Chief Of WPA Here

Harry Hopkins Too Busy to Find Successor for Him Yet.

Quits Commissionership September 1 but Will Stay in City.

Commissioner Allen announced yesterday he would remain administer of the District Works Progress Administration at the request of WPA Administrator Hopkins until a successor is named. He will receive no salary for his services, it was said.

On September 1, Allen leaves his post as District Commissioner to become vice president of the Home Fire Insurance Co., of New York. He does not intend, however, to give up his residence here.

First indication that Allen would not resign as administrator of the local WPA came Tuesday at President Roosevelt's press conference, when he said he was glad "George" was not leaving Washington.

Deferred Resignation.

For some time after he sent his letter of resignation to the President, Allen deferred resigning the job as administrator until a successor could be found. Up to the present time, Hopkins has not had the opportunity to select a successor, and recently asked Allen to remain.

It was thought Allen might even change his mind about resigning as Commissioner. Last week-end he accompanied the President on the Presidential yacht and the successor as Commissioner was discussed.

Allen yesterday stated his decision to remain as administrator resulted from his talk with the President. Allen also stated he would have remained as Commissioner if the President "really wanted me to."

$7,500,000 to Spend.

As administrator of the District WPA, Allen will have some $7,500,000 to spend on work relief during this year. In addition he will have an administrative staff of more than 200. Maj. Daniel J. Donovan, District auditor, has been named principal assistant administrator and director of finance for WPA; Ross Haworth, administrative assistant to Allen, was named as assistant administrator, and Otto J. Cass will remain as deputy administrator.

Haworth will act as deputy administrator during the absence of Cass, who has been ill for the past two months.

TROUSERS
TO MATCH YOUR ODD COATS
EISEMAN'S. 7TH & F

—SHAH & SHAH—
Jewelers-Silversmiths
921 F St. N.W.
Sterling Silver
COMPOTE
Choice of Plain or Fancy Borders . . .
Sells regularly for $3.
Limited Quantity
$2.25

Wm. Rogers 3-Pc. Sugar, Cream and Tray
Fully warranted and made to sell for $3.00.
$2.25
No Mail or Phone Orders

J. B. SPUND'S MARKET
WINE AND LIQUOR DEPARTMENT
3423 CONNECTICUT AVE.
"Quality for Less"
CLEVELAND 4400 — MEAT DEPARTMENT

CARLYLES VAT
BLENDED SCOTCH WHISKY
12 YEARS OLD
Bottled in Scotland
100% Product of Scotland
80 Proof
FULL FIFTH $2.59

SARTHE ST. CROIX RUM
35% WORLD'S FAMOUS HAITIAN RUM
65% ST. CROIX RUM
90 PROOF
Regular Price $1.00
Special Price 75c Tenth

SPUND'S UPTOWN BALTIMORE PURE RYE
2 YEAR OLD— 90 PROOF $1.39 Full Qt.
3 YEAR OLD 90 PROOF $1.79 Full Qt.

Prime New York Beef
Rib Roast 33c lb.
Fricassee Chicken 29c lb.
Frying Chicken 29c lb.
Prime Lamb
Legs selected by J. B. 27c lb.

NO MESS! NO FUSS!! NO HOMEWORK!!!
IT'S ALL FUN NOW!
Recipe for enjoying your own party is to buy a supply of Rock Creek Ready Mixers for Tom Collins and Whiskey Sour. No lemons, no waste of time. Keeps you out of the kitchen and in the party all the time. And you mix a perfect drink each time!
Rock Creek
READY-MIXERS FOR Tom Collins Whiskey Sour
15¢ Party-Size Bottle
Bottled by Rock Creek Ginger Ale Co., Washington, D. C.

—SELINGER'S—
Credit Jewelers
818 F STREET N.W.
"Look for the Big Clock"
We're proud to offer—you'll be proud to wear—these
PEARL NECKLACES
—Will Not Peel, Break or Discolor!—
Breaking All Records for Value, Quality, Style
$1.50 Value
39c
INDESTRUCTIBLE
Here's something extra special for you . . . beautiful necklaces—suitable for day or evening wear with any kind of attire—with handsome pearl button clasps.

★ 2-DAY SALE ONLY—SEE THEM ★

—MANHATTAN—
AUTO & RADIO CO.
1706 Seventh St. N.W.
SPECIAL FOR THIS WEEK-END
FREE AUTO TUBE with every ATLAS TIRE
Purchased on our
EASY BUDGET PLAN
NO MONEY DOWN
PAY AS YOU RIDE

—as little as 50c a week! Immediate service. Tires to fit all cars. These tires are first line and are guaranteed by all Standard Oil stations as well as by Manhattan Auto & Radio Co.
STORE HOURS
Sat., 7:30 A. M. to 11:30 P. M.
Sun., 8:30 A. M. to 1:00 P. M.

TRADE MARK REGISTERED
HOUSEHOLD EFFECTS Of Every Description at Public Auction
AT SLOAN'S
715 13th St.
FRIDAY
10 A. M.

'Going Native' Is New Week's Ace Offering

All-Local Revue Features Roster of Amusements Opening Tomorrow.

The piece de resistance of the bill opening tomorrow at Loew's Capitol Theater will be the sixth annual edition of the all-local revue, "Going Native," produced under the joint direction of Gene Ford and Chester Hale. This elaborate stage entertainment will enlist the services of the cream of the Capital's resident aspirants for stage fame. Lee Everett, popular radio personality, will be the master of ceremonies and headline spots on the program will be held by Sylvia Kaplowitz and her accordion octet, John High Smith's sepia rhythm boys and the Lyons Twins, tapdancing saxophonists. A large number of others, including singers, dancers, comedians, prestidigitators and whatnot also will appear, supported by a real dancing beauty chorus. On the screen the chief feature of the entertainment will be "Woman Against Woman," in which the stellar roles are played by Virginia Bruce, Mary Astor and Herbert Marshall. The bill will be completed by the Fox Movietone News and orchestral overture.

* * * *

Martha Raye, Bob Hope, Jack Whiting and Betty Grable are the foremost members of the cast in "Give Me a Sailor," announced as a major screen feature for the week beginning tomorrow at the Warner Brothers' Earle Theater. The story of this Paramount comedy has to do with two sisters and two sailors, impersonated by the players named. The stage bill will be headlined by Ozzie Nelson and his orchestra, with Harriet Hilliard, in person, as vocalist. Miss Hilliard is a popular star of stage, screen and radio. Other acts will be presented by Fritz and Jean Hubert and Frank Paris and his marionettes.

* * * *

"The Crowd Roars" will be continued for a second week, beginning tomorrow, at Loew's Palace Theater. This romance of the prize ring is handsomely interpreted by Robert Taylor, Maureen O'Sullivan, Frank Morgan, Edward Arnold, Lionel Stander, William Gargan and scores more. The supplementary subjects also will be retained, with a new issue of the "News of the Day."

* * * *

Paramount's picturization of Ernest Hemingway's "A Farewell to Arms," costarring Helen Hayes and Gary Cooper, will be revived as chief screen feature of the bill beginning tomorrow at the Metropolitan Theater. Adolphe Menjou leads the supporting cast with Mary Phillips, Jack LaRue and Henry Armetta in prominent roles.

* * * *

So great has been the popularity of Charlie McCarthy, Mortimer Snurd, Edgar Bergen, Andrea Leeds, Adolphe Menjou, Eve Arden, Rita Johnson, George Murphy, Ernest Cossart and the many other members of the cast in "Letter of Introduction," Universal's splendid comedy-drama, that will be continued a third week at RKO-Keith's. The new issue of "The March of Time" and Walt Disney's cartoon comedy, "Polar Trappers," also will remain on the bill.

* * * *

"Love Finds Andy Hardy," which opened yesterday with Mickey Rooney, Judy Garland, Ann Rutherford, Cecilia Parker, Lewis S. Stone, Fay Holden, Gene Reynolds, Lana Turner, Raymond Hatton and numerous others in the cast, will continue throughout the ensuing week at Loew's Columbia Theater. One of the hits of the current season, this subject is augment by selected short subjects.

* * * *

"Necking Party," with Charlie McCarthy; a travelogue devoted to Hong Kong; goggle-fishing, "Underwater," and Walt Disney's Silly Symphony, "Music Land," will be the foremost short subjects on the bill opening tomorrow at the Trans-Lux Theater. The program, as usual, will be based on newsreel coverage of the world.

* * * *

After a three-year search, the management of the Little Theater has secured a print of "The White Sister," costarring Helen Hayes and Clark Gable, for revival as chief feature of the screen bill opening Sunday. This tender screen romance also enlists the services of May Robson, Lewis S. Stone, Edward Arnold, Louise Closser Hale and Alan Edwards.

* * * *

The National Sylvan Theater's final Summer Festival program of the season will be presented next Tuesday night at 8 o'clock, by the Tempo Choral Society of Washington, under the direction of Dr. W. Scott Mayo. Well-known colored soloists will take part in this "Evening of Song" to be participated in by more than 50 local singers.

* * * *

David McWilliams' dance orchestra, the Crystal Pool, the exciting rides and all of the other 50-odd amusements at Glen Echo Park continue in high favor with the public these hot August days. The free-admission amusement center is playing to capacity crowds and the picnic groves are more popular than ever.

* * * *

At the Olney Theater next week, beginning Monday night, the distinguished actress, Eugenie Leontovitch, will be the guest star of Stephen E. Cochran's professional acting company in "Tovarich," the amusing story of two royal Russian emigres stranded in Paris. This should prove one of the hits of the summer season. Matinees will be given on Thursday and Saturday at 2:45 p. m.

* * * *

Beginning a fortnight's engagement at the Roadside Theater next Monday night, the attraction will be Augustus Thomas' play of "Alabama," a stirring old drama of the deep South. It will be performed by one of the Roadside's most competent casts of resident players.

Final Titles Given New Series Picture

"Sharpshooters" has been selected as the title of the first picture of Twentieth Century-Fo new Camera Daredevils series featuring Brian Donlevy and Wally Vernon in the title roles. It is now in production with James Tinling directing.

"Down on the Farm" will be the title of the next Jones Family production. It is based on the story, "Corn on the Cob."

Nelson B. Bell About The Showshops

Comedy and Action Promised In New Bookings for Earle

Famous Titles Included in Warner Announcement of Early Screen Attractions; Song That Made History; Bands Are on Way; 'Alabama Night;' Theater Notes.

IT is a lively outlook that confronts patrons of the Earle Theater.

In an announcement of forthcoming screen attractions, Zone Manager John J. Payette, major domo of the Warner interests in this territory, yesterday stressed the fact that the feature pictures coming in during immediately impending weeks place heavy emphasis on comedy and action. Those are the precise qualities upon which the motion-picture industry grew up from babyhood and cut its teeth.

BELL.

First of the new batch of late summer releases to reach Thirteenth street will be "Boy Meets Girl," the Warner picturization of the Spewacks' stage hit, with James Cagney and Pat O'Brien in the principal male roles and Marie Wilson as their leading woman. This item will open on the Earle screen a week from tomorrow, August 26.

Then will come along, in exactly what order I wouldn't know, the latest vehicle for the bristling talents of Errol Flynn, "Four's a Crowd;" "Racket Busters," the film play that already has broken out in the news of the Hines trial in New York; "Valley of the Giants," "Four Daughters" and "You Can't Take It With You."

"Four's a Crowd," the current attraction at the Radio City Music Hall, in New York, is a modern comedy romance in which the dashing hero of "Robin Hood" heads a titular mob that includes Olivia de Havilland, Rosalind Russell and Patric Knowles, with Walter Connolly and Hugh Herbert tossed in for good measure.

"Racket Busters" probably was the release in mind when that "action" business was mentioned in Mr. Payette's memorandum. It is said to be the first Hollywood film to win the official seal of approval of a Government agency—the Commercial Crime Commission, a national organization with the object of eliminating racketeering from business. George Brent Humphrey Bogart, Gloria Dickson and Walter Abel play the leads in this one.

More action, against a background of unusual grandeur, is promised in "Valley of the Giants," a story of the lumber industry in the great Northwest, filmed entirely in Technicolor, with Wayne Morris, Claire Trevor—the "fence" in "Dr. Clitterhouse"—Charles Bickford, Jack LaRue, Frank McHugh, Donald Crisp and Alan Hale foremost in the cast.

"Four Daughters," as is pretty generally known by now, is the filmization of Fannie Hurst's novel of "Sister Act," and has three of the Lane sisters—Lola, Priscilla and Rosemary—in the same cast for the first time, with John Garfield, Jeffery Lynn, Claude Rains, Gale Page, Dick Foran and Frank McHugh conspicuous among the numerous others who will be found dangling around.

"You Can't Take It With You," in film form, would seem to be something to look forward to with especial impatience. The screen rights to the Pulitzer Prize-winning stage play cost a tremendous sum. The property was turned over to Frank Capra, to salvage the heavy investment, and Frank Capra is one director who makes very few mistakes. Among others under his direction in this strip of celluloid will be found Jean Arthur, James Stewart, Lionel Barrymore, Edward Arnold and Mischa Auer. It looks as if Columbia might have something here!

And it looks as if the Earle might have something, too, clear down the line.

* * * *

Joe Kaliski, for the past four years Washington manager for Gaumont British Pictures, beat the gun and left Washington yesterday morning with Mrs. Kaliski for his new post as G. B. Branch Film Exchange manager in the Pittsburgh territory. Somebody must have given him a hot-foot. His original plan was to leave the Capital today. However, he will be back over the week-end of the twenty-seventh to be guest of honor at a farewell smoker to be tendered him by the Washington Variety Club in the Willard Hotel the night of Monday, August 29.

In the meantime, Mr. Kaliski has been succeeded in the Washington office by Milton Kaplan, a veteran film man, well known in local theater circles, who is "breaking in" under the helpful supervision of William Barrett, Gaumont British field executive. Mr. Kaplan's other name is "Chubby." Remember?

* * * *

There are some interesting statistics pertaining to "Alexander's Ragtime Band," the Irving Berlin song that gave rise to the title of the Twentieth Century-Fox filmusical hit touched upon briefly in a few thousand words here yesterday.

It was written first as a number called "Alexander and His Clarinet" and had no lyrics. It was revamped and lyricized for a "Friar's Frolic" in New York, in 1911, and was introduced to the public the same year by Emma Carus. If it did not actually create it, it at least lent tremendous impetus to the ragtime vogue that followed and marked the genesis of the present craze for "swing" music.

In 27 years to date, "Alexander's Ragtime Band" has been given 10,000-odd public performances; in motion picture form, it will give more than 60,000 performances within the brief span of one year. That just goes to show.

At the peak of its popularity, the song sold 2,000,000 copies of sheet music. The staggering total that must have been run up during all of those 27 years cannot be even roughly approximated.

And the irony of the whole thing is that Irving Berlin did not own the copyright to his own composition until 1925, when he bought it outright. When he wrote it he was on a salary of $25 per week.

* * * *

Miss Isabelle M. Parks, a one-time "letter-to-the-editor" enthusiast, who seems to have gone a bit into eclipse these past few months, swings her eloquent typewriter into action to inquire: "If you feel you have suffered in the past, what do you think will happen when you get parked in a theater next fall behind one of these specimens?" Inclosed with the query is a newspaper clipping depicting two of the most gosh-awful pieces of feminine headgear these aged eyes ever have beheld. Trying to view a show over, around or through either one would be about the equivalent of being seated behind the Washington Monument. And to make the matter worse, the clipping is from The Post!

Somehow, and inexplicably, reminds me of the old gag about the poorhouse. The poorhouse, you know, wasn't tough enough by itself; they had to put a hill in front of it!

* * * *

The opening performance of Augustus Thomas' play of "Alabama" will be signalized by the observance of "Alabama Night" at the Roadside Theater, with members of the Alabama Society of Washington constituting the greater part of the audience. President Lee Barnes and Secretary Claude Sizemore will be the special guests of honor and it is anticipated that a large number of Alabamans will be on hand to witness the first local revival in many years of "their" play.

"Alabama" will be presented at the Roadside Theater for the customary fortnight's run.

* * * *

Plenty of good band music in sight. Tomorrow Ozzie Nelson opens at the Earle, with Harriet Hilliard (Mrs. Nelson in private life) as featured vocalist. Saturday night, Paul Whiteman and his 26-piece orchestra will play for two cruises on the S. S. Potomac, leaving the wharf at 8:30 p. m. and 12:30 a. m., instead of 12:45 a. m., as suggested yesterday. Whiteman, incidentally, will have his full crew with him—the Swinging Teagardens, "Jackson T." and brother Charlie, Joan Edwards, Roy Bargy, Al Gallodore, "Goldie," the Four Modernaires and all the rest. Then next week, beginning Friday, August 26, Loew's Capitol will have George Hall and his orchestra, with Dolly Dawn to do the canarying.

Swing it, you "cats!"

* * * *

Ode-to-Hains Point Note.

I hear you calling me!

Film Time Table.

Palace—"The Crowd Roars," at 11 a.m., 1:05, 3:15, 5:25, 7:35, and 9:45 p.m.

Earle—"The Amazing Dr. Clitterhouse," at 11 a. m., 1:40, 4:25, 7:10 and 9:55 p. m. Stage shows at 12:50, 3:35, 6:20 and 9:05 p. m.

Loew's Capitol—"Rich Man, Poor Girl," at 11 a. m., 1:45, 4:35, 7:25 and 10:15 p. m. Stage shows at 12:50, 3:40, 6:30 and 9:15 p. m.

Columbia—"Love Finds Andy Hardy," at 11:15 a. m., 1:20, 3:25, 5:30, 7:35 and 9:40 p. m.

Metropolitan—"Booloo," at 11:55 a. m., 1:55, 3:55, 5:55, 7:55, 9:55 p. m.

RKO-Keith's—"Letter of Introduction," at 11:50 a. m., 2:10, 4:35, 7:05 and 9:35 p. m. "March of Time" at 11:30 a. m., 1:50, 4:15, 6:45 and 9:15 p. m.

Trans-Lux—Newsreel and shorts, at 10 and 11:45 a. m., 12:30, 1:45, 3, 4:15, 5:30, 6:45, 8, 9:15 and 10:45 p. m.

Little Theater—"Escapade," at 11:35 a. m., 1:35, 3:35, 5:35, 7:35 and 9:40 p. m. "La Cucaracha," at 11:15 a. m., 1:15, 3:15, 5:15, 7:15 and 9:20 p. m.

Mount Vernon (Auto Theater)—"Her Jungle Love," at 7:50 and 10:25 p. m.

Tivoli—"Always Goodbye," at 1, 2:50, 4:40, 6:25, 8:15 and 9:55 p. m.

Ambassador—"Lord Jeff," at 6:15, 8 and 9:45 p. m.

Uptown—"Tropic Holiday," at 2:30, 4:10, 6, 7:50 and 9:40 p. m.

Police Escort Is Aid to Hasty Actor

Chick Chandler gives an unidentified speed cop all credit for getting him back to the Twentieth Century-Fox Studio from La Jolla on time for added scenes in "While New York Sleeps."

Summoned by phone on a hurry-up call, the comedian jumped into his car and cruised northward as fast as the law allows, but, reaching Del Mar just as the racetrack crowd was leaving, he was stymied.

At that moment the sound of a motorcycle officer's siren came to his ears and a minute later the speed cop whipped past, clearing the way for a touring car. Chandler dropped in right behind and followed, at 70 miles an hour, to Long Beach, where the other car turned off.

Ankle Sprain.

Fernand Gravet went through the strenuous riot sequence in "The Great Waltz" despite a sprained ankle. He injured it at the opening of the sequence, but refused to stop for treatment until the scene was completed.

Held Over for a Third Week

"I SEE WE ARE A HIT!"

is probably what Charlie McCarthy is saying to Edgar Bergen and Eve Arden, as they glance over the theater page of the daily paper. All three are among the comedy mainstays of "Letter of Introduction," retained for another hit week at RKO-Keith's Theater. The stellar dramatic roles are played by Andrea Leeds, Adolphe Menjou and Rita Johnson.

The Post's New Yorker

By LEONARD LYONS

London, Aug. 17.

WE FLEW, via Imperial Airways, across the Channel, from Le Bourget to Croydon . . . Arrived at the Savoy, went to John O'Hara's for cocktails, and saw Jim Thurber—who just had learned that, because of a kidding article he had written about Italy for the New Yorker magazine, the Italian government had ordered all Italian ads—amounting to $12,000 a year—yanked from the magazine . . . Thurber no longer spurns the sparkling grape. He had forsworn drinking when, after visiting Bob Benchley, he fell asleep there, and then found it difficult to put on his shoes. "The day has come," he groaned. "If my feet have swelled so much, I'd better get on the water wagon." He did—until he discovered that he had been wearing Benchley's size 6½ shoes.

* * * *

THEN BACKSTAGE at the St. James Theater to see Luther Adler, who confessed that he and Sylvia Sidney would be married in London—and asked us to be his attendants . . . Then backstage at the Adelphi, to see Bea Lillie, and accompanied her to the Cafe de Paris. In the balcony upstairs a group of American midshipmen whoop it up. Lord Mountbatten, cousin of the King and officer of his Majesty's fleet, sent his card to the midshipmen, requesting that they honor him by permitting his Lordship to pay their bill.

* * * *

TO THE SAVOY GRILL, where Hannen Swaffer introduced Eddie Cantor to Winston Churchill. "You know Mr. Cantor, of course," Swaffer began. "Of course," Churchill acknowledged. "Mr. Cantor, what're the last words of that song you sang in 'Roman Scandals'—the song which goes la-da-da-de-da-da?" . . . Across the room David Lloyd George described the vast number of gold keys presented to him by almost every city in the empire. "I got these keys for killing people," lamented the man who was prime minister during the war. "They didn't even give me one of these—for social service."

* * * *

NEXT MORNING to the Surrey country home of Alfred Hitchcock, the director. Hitchcock will visit Cambridge this week to see Mrs. Arthur Schnitzler, widow of the playwright. Cambridge has purchased all the Schnitzler manuscripts, and Mrs. Schnitzler now is working in association with the university officials . . . Drove back to London, by way of Headley Grove, the estate of Sir Malcolm Campbell, the speed king—who uses a bicycle for his personal needs. Campbell's estate is complete even to a bomb-proof shelter.

* * * *

BACK TO THE STRAND to hear of Hal Thompson, whose last Broadway appearance was in "Take a Chance." One year ago, jobless, he impulsively left New York on the Normandie, tourist class. He arrived in London with no money and no prospect, was auditioned at the B. B. C. and clicked. On last July 10 he was at a party, teaching Lord Mountbatten and the Duke of Kent how to Big Apple. Thompson saw a calendar—realized it was the first anniversary of his arrival here—drew Mountbatten and Kent to a mirror and shouted: "Oh boy— look at me!"

* * * *

NIGHT TRAIN to Edinburgh, where we surprised our nephew, who is studying at the Royal Academy there; walked with him through Princess street and around the city. The 11 a. m. train to Glasgow and, via subway, to the Empire Exhibit—whose theme is "Peace," which is why the trades unions succeeded in having the Japanese, German and Italian flags removed.

Child Publishes Tiny Newspaper

A one-woman newspaper has made its bow in Hollywood.

It is the Hollywood edition of the Capetown (South Africa) Daily News—owned, published, written and edited by 9-year-old Sybil Jason.

Each morning on the set of "Curtain Call," in which she plays Kay Francis' daughter, Sybil sits down with a lead pencil and tablet and personally publishes her paper. Her Daily News includes news of the day, comics (she draws them herself), a woman's department in which Sybil offers home-making hints and fashions, and a screen column in which she puffs "Curtain Call" far beyond the talents of any press agent.

"Someone gave me a reporter's badge," Sybil explains, "and I decided to use it. Anyway, it's good training because some day I'm going to be a writer."

Sawdust to Sage.

Tights, and also cowboy chaps and sombrero, are the contrasting attire worn by Joe Penner during the course of "I'm From the City," in which the popular comedian is seen as a circus rider who is induced to become a ranch hand.

Speedy Rise.

Ann Morriss never before appeared in a motion picture, yet she has the feminine head in Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's "The Chaser," opposite Dennis O'Keefe.

AMUSEMENTS

RKO KEITH'S NOW ALWAYS COMFORTABLY COOLED

2ND WEEK!

EDGAR BERGEN • CHARLIE McCARTHY

ANDREA LEEDS • ADOLPHE MENJOU

"Letter of Introduction"

with GEORGE MURPHY

Also... A new edition... The MARCH of TIME

WALT DISNEY'S "POLAR TRAPPERS"

Coming... Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers in "CAREFREE."

In Hollywood

With HEDDA HOPPER

Hollywood, Calif. Aug. 17.—The complications over George Raft's suspension at Paramount are greater than meets the ege. It appears to be an agent's battle as well. I wouldn't advise George to make this a habit. Didn't he do the same thing before "Souls at Sea?" He got more money and a two-year contract calling for eight pictures. He's made two in 18 months—which would seem to give George the best of it—$4,000 a week isn't to be sneezed at in any man's language. I've always thought him too smart to run up against the fickleness of the public, especially on the eve of the release of "Spawn of the North," his best picture.

HEDDA HOPPER

George's agent is the same one who's barred with Twentieth Century-Fox over the Loretta Young contract. And the bankroll of $250,000, which is the budget for the coming Lubitsch picture, would just about cover the salary Paramount paid him for directing "Bluebeard's Eighth Wife." A commission of $25,000 in the hand is worth 20 birds in the bush—or am I wrong?

Dick Arlen has leased 7 acres of his land to Standard Oil, and they're drilling. So he doesn't care if he never makes another picture.

Sensational news of the day is that the elusive Garbo will do an air show for Packard Motors. Incidentally, the two years Fred Astaire and Charlie Butterworth were on, they drove Buicks. Now that Charlie is off, he's driving a Packard. Maybe this is Garbo's way of getting a new car.

Bob Montgomery and Bob Young, in fact, all of Franchot Tone's pals, are trying to keep him in Hollywood, but Franchot says, "The theater group was my first love . . . to heck with everything, I'm going back to it."

Gary Cooper, who works for Sam Goldwyn but for years was under contract to Paramount, received a letter addressed to his former studio. Written across the face of it, was: "Unknown at Paramount."

Willie Wyler, who lost $30,000 when he stepped out of directing "The Lady and the Cowboy," doesn't seem to mind. He's holding hands with the English star, Tamara Desni, at the Savoy in London. When he comes back to direct "Wuthering Heights" with Merle Oberon, who's let her hair down—I mean let her hair grow—Tamara won't be far behind. And I don't mean tomorrow.

There were shouts of joy at the preview of the All-Spanish picture, "My Two Loves," starring Tito Guizar and directed by Nick Grinde. Nick's fiancee, Marie Wilson, said, as she was hanging on his arm, "I've been reading the brightest things in the papers that I'm supposed to have said." Nick shushed her . . . "Don't camplain, honey, look at the reputation those cracks made for Sam Goldwyn."

Contrary to report, Sigrid Gurie does intend to marry Dr. Spengard as soon as her divorce in final When approached by a press agent, seeking a new client, Sigrid said, "I don't need your services—everything I do is news." And it is, too.

Charles Boyer, who gave the finest performance of his life in "Algiers," is more than a little burned—he's toasted—over the lack of publicity he's getting on that picture and is blaming it on the studio. 'Taint fair, 'twas Hedy herself who went to the heads of the pubic. Now, her great problem is not to be oversold before she makes her next pictures.

Hollywood perspired while tails wagged. Life went to Bette Davis' part and shot pictures of Bette and Howard Hughes over the heads of three carpenters in overalls and shirtsleeves. They were there ripping out windows in the Beverly Hills Hotel, which hadn't been opened since the Civil War—but Bette and the rest of us had to get a gasp of fresh air.

Boys' Community Pays Star Honor

On the set of "Boys Town," Spencer Tracy and Mickey Rooney were made honorary members of the famous Nebraska school, Boys Town. The presentation of the certified scroll was made by Father Flanagan, head of the group. Among the few chosen for this honor is President Roosevelt.

The youngsters on the set came in for a treat when in celebration of the event, Tracy ordered ice cream and cake for the entire cast.

AMUSEMENTS

MT VERNON OPEN-AIR AUTO THEATRE

RICHMOND HIGHWAY—ROUTE 1

3 MILES SOUTH OF ALEXANDRIA

CONTINUOUS NIGHTLY FROM 7:15

Dorothy Lamour, Ray Milland "Her Jungle Love." News—Shorts

ADULTS 35c CHILDREN & CARS FREE

AMUSEMENTS

"Motion Pictures Are Your Best Entertainment"

Watch Warner Bros. Screens And Newspapers For Details

$250,000 MOVIE QUIZ CONTEST

EARLE

TOMORROW

On Screen

Martha . . . The New Glamour Girl Sets Out To Catch A Sailor In A Grand Comedy . . .

MARTHA RAYE & BOB HOPE

In Paramount's Funfest

"Give Me a Sailor"

with BETTY GRABLE JACK WHITING J. C. NUGENT

On Stage

Young America's Favorite Orchestra . . .

OZZIE NELSON

And His Famous Orchestra

with HARRIET HILLIARD

Also EVELYN POE

Fritz & Jean Hubert

Frank Paris & His Marionettes

25c to 1 P. M.

Last Day—"THE AMAZING DR. CLITTERHOUSE" Stage—SCHNICKELFRITZ BAND

Returns TOMORROW By Demand

GARY COOPER HELEN HAYES

ADOLPHE MENJOU

in ERNEST HEMINGWAY'S story of an undaunted love

"A FAREWELL TO ARMS"

a paramount picture

METROPOLITAN

25c TO 5:30 P.M. SMOKING IN BALCONY

Last Day - "BOOLOO"

AMUSEMENTS

OLNEY THEATRE S. E. COCHRAN'S

Mats. Today & Sat., 2:45. Tonight 8:45

Between Olney and Ashton Md.

BERT LYTELL

in the stage version

"THE AMAZING DR. CLITTERHOUSE"

(Not a Movie)

City ph. No. 8248. Theatre Ashton 197

GLEN ECHO

Is reached; 40 min. street car 25c R. T.; motor 20 min. Mass. Ave. Once there one will find more than 50 amusements, including 9 big rides, swimming, dancing & groves. Admission Free

LITTLE AIR CONDITIONED

POWELL RAINER FRANK MORGAN

"Escapade"

Miss Rainer's First American Picture

LOEW'S PALACE COOL AS ICE

The fighting Bob you've always wanted

ROBERT TAYLOR

"The CROWD ROARS"

Maureen O'SULLIVAN • Frank MORGAN

Edward ARNOLD

Hot! "Alexander's Ragtime Band"

LOEW'S COLUMBIA

Now "Love Finds Andy Hardy" Mickey ROONEY Judy GARLAND

AMUSEMENTS

TODAY Last Day • "RICH MAN, POOR GIRL" with Robert Young • Stage • Virginia VERRILL • 24 Chester Hale Girls

Here's not only the year's BIGGEST SHOW... it's WASHINGTON'S HAPPIEST ANNUAL EVENT!

MOTION PICTURES are your finest ENTERTAINMENT

COOL AT CAPITOL F AT 14th DOORS OPEN 10:45

SCREEN FRIDAY STAGE

Dramatic love story! ... A story that proves the adage ... "Hell hath no fury like a woman scorned"

Herbert MARSHALL

VIRGINIA BRUCE MARY ASTOR

in

Woman Against Woman

A METRO-Goldwyn-MAYER Picture

It's Here!... The show the whole town will cheer..!

SIXTH ANNUAL EDITION of "GOING NATIVE"

ALL-WASHINGTON REVUE

Produced by GENE FORD

65 STARS OF THE FUTURE featuring

Lee EVERETT OLD SOL HIMSELF

VERSATILE N.B.C. FAVORITE

MILBOURNE CHRISTOPHER

RHAPSODISTS in 4½ ST. TIME

Sylvia KAPLOWITZ & her Kitt Accordion Octette

ELLIS MEEKER • HELEN FORREST

The LYONS TWINS • Earline KING

Wilbur HALL • Bella SHOLT

TEN SIZZLING SHAGGERS

and others including...

24 DANCING DELIGHTS

in colorful dances created & staged by

CHESTER HALE

25c to 1 P. M. 1900 Seats every night 40c

Watch Loew Screens and the Newspapers for $250,000 MOVIE QUIZ CONTEST

Today's NEIGHBORHOOD Movies

Theaters Having Daily Matinees.

CALVERT 2324 Wisc. Ave. N.W. CL. 2343. Mat. 2 P.M. HEALTHFULLY AIR CONDITIONED Barbara Stanwyck, Herbert Marshall in "Always Goodbye." At 2:30, 4:20, 6:10, 7:55, 9:45. Comedy, News.

CENTRAL 425 9th St. N.W. Open 11 A.M. ME. 2841 HEALTHFULLY AIR CONDITIONED Sylvia Sidney, George Raft in "You and Me." At 11, 1:05, 3:15, 5:20, 7:30, 9:40. Also Cartoon and News.

PENN 650 Pa. Ave. S.E. LI. 2179. Mat. 2 P. M. HEALTHFULLY AIR CONDITIONED "Cowboy From Brooklyn," with Dick Powell, Pat O'Brien, Priscilla Lane. At 2:15, 4:10, 6, 7:50, 9:40. Cartoon.

SHERIDAN Ga. Ave. & Sheridan. Mat. 1 P.M. RA. 2400 HEALTHFULLY AIR CONDITIONED Martha Raye, Bob Burns, Dorothy Lamour in "Tropic Holiday." At 1:40, 3:40, 5:40, 7:40, 9:40. Newsreel.

TIVOLI 14th & Park Rd. N.W. Col. 1800. Mat. 1 P.M. HEALTHFULLY AIR CONDITIONED Barbara Stanwyck, Herbert Marshall in "Always Goodbye." At 1, 2:50, 4:40, 6:25, 8:15, 9:55. Comedy and News.

UPTOWN Conn. Ave. & Newark CL. 5400. Mat. 2 P. M. HEALTHFULLY AIR CONDITIONED Dorothy Lamour, Martha Raye, Bob Burns in "Tropic Holiday." At 2:30, 4:10, 6, 7:50, 9:40. Cartoon, News.

Theaters Having Eve. Performances.

AMBASSADOR 18th & Col. Rd. CO. 5595. HEALTHFULLY AIR CONDITIONED Freddie Bartholomew, Mickey Rooney in "Lord Jeff." At 6:15, 8, 9:45.

APOLLO 624 H Street N.E. LI. 2275. Madeleine Carroll, Henry Fonda in "Blockade." At 6:15, 8, 9:50. Short.

AVALON 5613 Conn. Ave. N.W. CL. 2600. Air Cooled Fred MacMurray, Harriet Hilliard in "Cocoanut Grove." At 6:10, 7:55, 9:45. Also Colored Cartoon.

AVE. GRAND 645 Pa. Ave. S.E. LI. 2406 Brought Back by Popular Demand. Rudolph Valentino in "The Sheik." At 6:15, 8, 9:50. Pete Smith Short.

COLONY 4935 Ga. Ave. N.W. GE. 6500. Air Cooled. Simone Simon, Don Ameche in "Josette." At 6:35, 8:05, 9:45. News.

HOME 1220 C St. N.E. AT. 8188. Danielle Darrieux, Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., in "Rage of Paris." At 6:15, 8, 9:48. Also Short Subject.

SAVOY 3030 14th St. N.W. CO. 4908. Brought Back by Popular Demand. Wallace Beery, Jackie Cooper in "Treasure Island." At 5:45, 7:40, 9:40

YORK Ga. Ave. & Quebec Pl. N.W. RA. 4400. Madeleine Carroll, Henry Fonda in "Blockade." At 6:25, 8:05, 9:45.

ARLINGTON, VA.

WILSON 1730 Wilson Blvd. Opp. Colonial Village Freddie Bartholomew & Mickey Rooney, "LORD JEFF."

DUMBARTON 1342 Wis. Ave. Air Conditioned CLOSED FOR REMODELING Will open Saturday, Aug. 20, at 6:30 P. M.

FAIRLAWN ANACOSTIA, D. C. Henry Fonda, "BLOCKADE."

TAKOMA 4th & BUTTERNUT STS. No Parking Troubles Errol Flynn, "ADVENTURES OF ROBIN HOOD." Selected Short Subjects.

CONGRESS 3951 Nichols Ave. S. E. Air-Conditioned Robert Taylor, "THREE COMRADES."

CIRCLE Home of "Microphonic Sound" Penna. Ave. at 21st N.W. Open 2:30 P. M. Freddie Bartholomew, Mickey Rooney, "LORD JEFF," News and Short.

STANTON 6th and C Sts. N.E. Finest Sound Equipment "IN OLD CHICAGO." with Tyrone Power, Alice Faye, and Don Ameche. Also "FEMALE FUGITIVE."

FALLS CHURCH, VA.

STATE No Parking Worries LEE Barbara Stanwyck, Herbert Marshall, "ALWAYS GOODBYE." | Bing Crosby in "DOCTOR RHYTHM."

STATE-BETHESDA 6970 WIS. AVE. BETHESDA, MD. Ginger Rogers, James Stewart "VIVACIOUS LADY." at 6, 7:40 and 9:30.

SECO 8244 Ga. Ave., Silver Spring, Md. 6 P. M. Jane Withers, "RASCALS." "PENITENTIARY," Jean Parker.

ACADEMY Of Perfect Sound Photoplay 8th at G S.E. William Powell, Annabella, "BARONESS AND THE BUTLER." Also "MAID'S NIGHT OUT."

JESSE THEATER 18th & Irving Sts. N.E. "CRIME SCHOOL," Humphrey Bogart, "Dead End" Kids. Modern Air Conditioned.

SYLVAN 1st and S. L. Ave. N.W. "THREE COMRADES." Robert Taylor, Margaret Sullavan. Modern Air Conditioned.

PALM THEATER DEL RAY, VA. "THREE COMRADES" Robert Taylor, Margaret Sullavan.

NEWTON 12th and Newton Sts. N.E. "THE TOY WIFE." Luise Rainier, Melvin Douglas. Matinee at 1 P. M. Modern Air Conditioned.

BORO 7101 Wisconsin Avenue BETHESDA, MD. Free Parking—Air Conditioned. SPENCER TRACY, F. BARTHOLOMEW "CAPTAINS COURAGEOUS." At 6:30 and 9:00 P. M.

HIPPODROME K near 9th Double Feature "MR MOTO TAKES A CHANCE." Will Rogers, "COUNTY CHAIRMAN."

CAMEO MT. RAINIER, MD. Cont. 6-11. Robert Taylor, "THREE COMRADES." Completely Air Conditioned.

ARCADE Hyattsville, Md. Cont. 6-11. Simone Simon, "JOSETTE."

RICHMOND ALEXANDRIA, VA. Today-Tomor.-Sat. "LITTLE MISS BROADWAY."

REED Alexandria Va. Alex 3443 Today, Tomor., Sat. "HAVING WONDERFUL TIME." Free Parking Space—800 Cars Completely Air Conditioned.

MILO ROCKVILLE, MD. Cont. 7-11. Barbara Stanwyck, "ALWAYS GOODBYE." Completely Air Conditioned.

MARLBORO Upper Marlboro, Md. Cont. 7-11. Margaret Sullavan, "SHOPWORN ANGEL."

WARNER BROS. THEATERS — In event of busy signal call Republic 0500. — DIRECTION SIDNEY LUST — BERNHEIMER'S THEATERS — For additional information phone theaters direct.

Armstrong Wins Ambers' Title on Decision

The Washington Post Sports

*X WASHINGTON: THURSDAY, AUGUST 18, 1938 17

This Morning

With Shirley Povich

Pimlico race track stewards are currently concerning themselves with the case of Bye Bye Will, a mysterious steed of uncertain ownership which went bye bye with a wad of the public's money last May 7 at Pimlico.

POVICH.

It seems that the good burghers of Baltimore, noting the name of Bye Bye Will in the entries and knowing the horse by reputation, promptly bet on everything else in the race with great alacrity. And who should step down as the surprise winner at a $31.60 mutuel but Bye Bye Will himself, the old rogue.

But now it is reported that Bye Bye Will was not Bye Bye Will at all, and the Pimlico stewards strongly suspect that they have a ringer case on their hands. Suspicions were first aroused when the steed entered as Bye Bye Will galloped home several lengths in front in a 6-furlong race. Because in all of his previous starts, Bye Bye Will failed to finish in the money.

To hear race track promoters tell it to State Legislatures, our present generation of race horses have no manners at all. And on the theory that newer and better horse tracks improve the breed of the thoroughbreds, they have legalized racing in 16 States. The breed has perhaps improved a bit through the track promoters' efforts, but the sudden improvement of Bye Bye Will on May 7 was too startling. Because, as we were saying, Bye Bye Will was a very low-bred animal.

Suspect Is Named Uallno

Paradoxically, the horse which the Pimlico people now suspect was masquerading as Bye Bye Will that day was a gelding by the name of Uallno. If the substitute steed had been named Dobbin's Pride or Laddie Boy or some other such common name, it might not have been so bad. But Uallno—that was rubbing it into the track people who didn't know at all.

Of course there were some folks who perhaps knew all the time that Bye Bye Will was not Bye Bye Will, and they are the folks who cashed their bets at 15 to 1. But the entire case is very mystifying, what with Bye Bye Will's owner saying that Bye Bye Will won the race and the Pimlico stewards saying he didn't, and the Pimlico stewards alleging furthermore that Uallno ran as Bye Bye Will and Uallno's owner says he didn't.

The Bye Bye Will-Uallno case is the turf's second startling contribution to the week's news. Only a few days before the Pimlico stewards admitted they were probing the possibility that they had a ringer in their midst on May 7, the announcement came from Florida that Jockey Don Meade had been reinstated to good standing.

Don Meade, you remember, was unhorsed by the Florida Racing Commission two years ago when it was discovered that he was betting on horses in violation of the rule forbidding jockeys to bet. Meade, moreover, was betting on races in which he had mounts. But his greatest offense was betting on mounts other than his own in the same race.

By dint of wire-tapping and shadowing the movements of Meade, the evidence against him was unearthed and he was set down for life. Now, apparently, "for life" means two years to the Florida Racing Commission, which would certainly not be acceptable to any respectable life insurance company as an authority on expectancy or longevity.

Like Rehiring Embezzler

Anyway, Don Meade was reinstated and will begin to accept mounts in Florida next December when the racing season opens there. He was known to have powerful friends and there were wagers that they would win reinstatement for him last year. They failed then, but there is no disputing their success now.

It isn't difficult to agree with Walter Haight, our friend in the horsey set, who cracked in his Bill Bennings column the other day that "putting Meade back in the saddle is like rehiring a bank teller after he has served time for embezzlement." Haight, you have something there. Ask the folks who bet on Meade's mounts when Meade was betting on other mounts in the same race and seeing that they got safely home.

"But what burns me up," says Mr. Haight, who ordinarily is a very tolerant, unexcitable fellow, "is that they put Meade back in the saddle the same week that the people up in Narragansett bar Jockey Laurin for life for using a battery on a horse. I don't have any defense for Laurin. He was caught red-handed. But at least Laurin was trying to win with his horse. Meade wasn't." Mr. Haight undoubtedly has something there, also.

The Florida Racing Commission can reinstate Meade if it likes, but one thing it cannot do. It cannot force folks to bet on his mounts. And that creates a situation, because Meade is a very good rider and his mounts ordinarily are worth a bet. But the bettor would be gambling not only on Meade's horse but on whether Meade had a personal interest in his mount or another horse in the race.

Couldn't Happen in Baseball

It couldn't happen in baseball, this business of reinstating a guy convicted of acts like Meade's. Baseball club owners shudder at the thought of scandal in their midst. Their business is founded on public confidence and no player ever convicted of crookedness is ever forgiven. Baseball thanks its lucky stars that Babe Ruth came along in 1920 to make fans forget the Black Sox scandal. Millions of dollars invested in stadiums, real estate and ball players were seriously threatened. Baseball can't afford to harbor such as Don Meade. It isn't as hardy a sport as racing. At least it doesn't have the same resistance to scandal. Racing fans allow for crooked racing, on the theory that it always will be with us.

Certain race fans remind us of the Westerner who walked into a Montana mining town in the lush days before the turn of the century and asked the location of a spot where he could gamble a bit. Roulette, cards, dice—it didn't matter.

"Stranger, there's only one gambling spot in town, and that's crooked," he was informed by a kindly citizen.

The Westerner thanked his informant. "If you're sure that's the only place in town," he said, "I guess it'll have to be that one. How does a fellow get there?

Police Protection for Powell Here Demanded by Harridge

By the Associated Press.

Chicago, Aug. 17.—William Harridge, president of the American League, today telegraphed Clark Griffith, president of the Washington Senators, to provide "ample police protection to prevent a recurrence" of the pop-bottle throwing which greeted Jake Powell, New York Yankee outfielder, in the second game of Tuesday's doubleheader.

"The umpires reported to me," Harridge said, "that there was considerable bottle throwing. It is a local matter and up to the individual club to control."

Bottles were tossed onto the field when Powell went to bat and when he took his position in the field at Washington Tuesday. It was the first game in which he had appeared since he received a ten-day suspension for making what was described as a derogatory remark about Negroes in a pregame radio interview here.

Major League Standings

American League.

Standing of the Teams.

	Won	Lost	Pct.	G.B.
New York	70	33	.680	...
Cleveland	61	41	.589	8½
Boston	57	44	.564	12
WASHINGTON	55	53	.509	17½
Detroit	51	55	.481	20½
Chicago	43	55	.439	24
Philadelphia	38	65	.369	32
St. Louis	37	66	.359	33

Yesterday's Results.

New York-WASHINGTON (rain).
Boston, 4-5; Philadelphia, 3-0.
St. Louis, 10; Cleveland, 7.
Detroit, 4-3; Chicago, 3-2.

Games Today.

New York at WASHINGTON (2)—Ferrell (13-8) and Hadley (6-3) vs. Leonard (11-9) and Weaver (7-4).
Philadelphia at Boston—Nelson (8-8) vs. Bagby (10-7).
St. Louis at Cleveland—Newsom (13-10) vs. Feller (12-6).
Chicago at Detroit—Stratton (12-6) vs. Lawson (5-8).

Games Tomorrow.

WASHINGTON at Boston.
New York at Philadelphia.
Chicago at Cleveland.
St. Louis at Detroit.

National League.

Standing of the Teams.

	Won	Lost	Pct.	G.B.
Pittsburgh	65	39	.625	...
New York	62	46	.574	5
Cincinnati	60	48	.556	7½
Chicago	58	49	.542	8
Boston	51	54	.486	14½
Brooklyn	50	56	.472	16
St. Louis	46	60	.436	20
Philadelphia	32	72	.308	33

Yesterday's Results.

Pittsburgh, 3; St. Louis, 2 (10 innings).
New York, 4; Brooklyn, 2.
Cincinnati, 8; Chicago, 4.
Boston, 3; Philadelphia, 0.

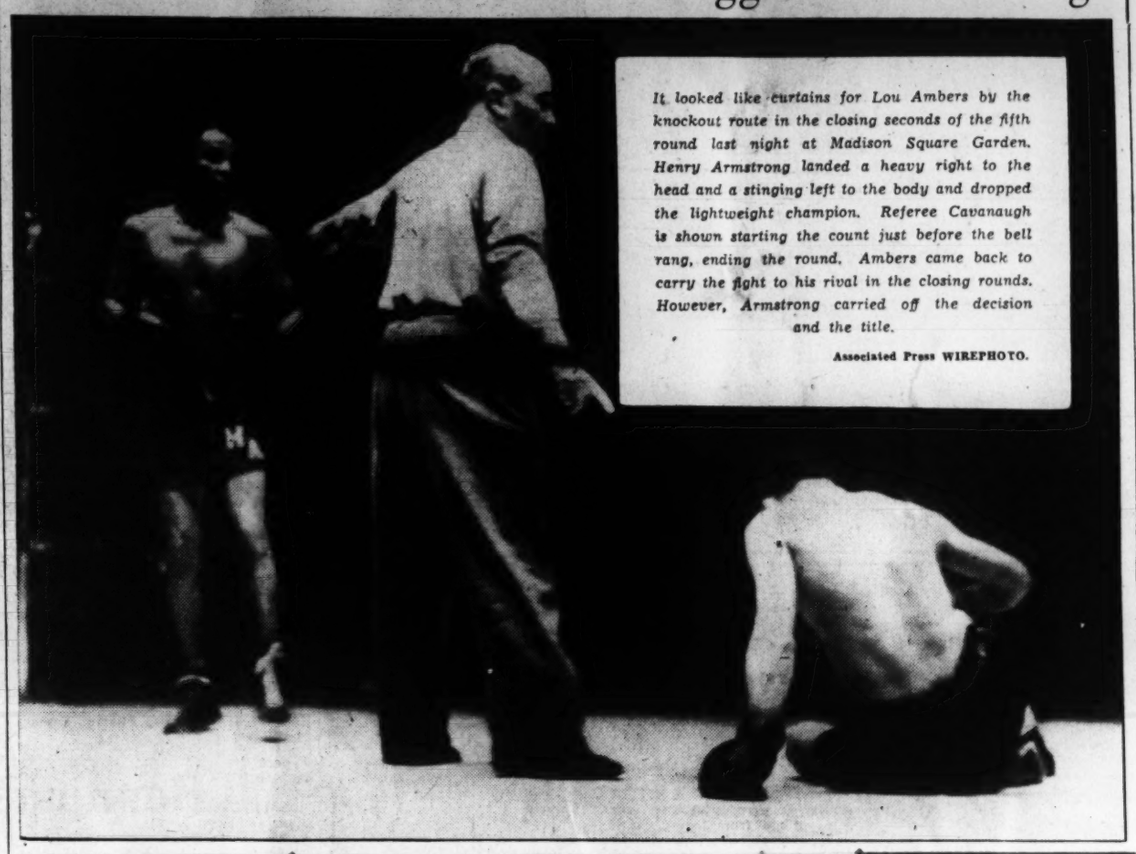
Games Today.

Brooklyn at New York—Mungo (4-9) or LaMaster (4-7) vs. Hubbell (13-9).
Cincinnati at Chicago—Derringer (15-9) vs. Root (4-3).
Boston at Philadelphia—MacFayden (10-5) vs. Passeau (9-13).
Pittsburgh at St. Louis—Bauers (8-8) or Klinger (8-4) vs. Weiland (11-9).

Games Tomorrow.

Pittsburgh at St. Louis.
Philadelphia at New York.
Boston at Brooklyn.
Only games scheduled.

Ambers Down but Not Out in Bitter Struggle With Armstrong



It looked like curtains for Lou Ambers by the knockout route in the closing seconds of the fifth round last night at Madison Square Garden. Henry Armstrong landed a heavy right to the head and a stinging left to the body and dropped the lightweight champion. Referee Cavanaugh is shown starting the count just before the bell rang, ending the round. Ambers came back to carry the fight to his rival in the closing rounds. However, Armstrong carried off the decision and the title.

Associated Press WIREPHOTO.

Tigers Take Two Games

Detroit Beats Chisox, 4 to 3 and 3 to 2.

By the Associated Press.

Detroit, Aug. 17.—The Detroit Tigers captured both ends of a double-header today with the Chicago White Sox, taking the opener, 4 to 3, and the nightcap, 3 to 2.

Tommy Bridges limited the Sox to six hits as he bested Ted Lyons in a mound duel in the opener. Manager Jimmy Dykes, of the Chicago Club, was banished from the playing field in the first inning for disputing a decision by Umpire George Pipgras, one-time pitcher of the New York Yankees.

Home runs by Gerald Walker and Joe Kuhel gave the Sox a lead in the second tilt that Pitcher Jack Knott held until the ninth, when he committed an error that enabled Detroit to tie the count at 2-all and then allowed Charley Gehringer a single that drove in the winning tally.

Chicago.	AB	H	O	A	Detroit.	AB	H	O	A
Berger,3b.	4	0	3	2	Morgan,cf.	2	1	2	0
Owen,3b.	4	1	2	3	Rogell,ss.	2	0	3	5
G.W'ker,rf	4	0	1	0	G'inger,2b.	4	1	0	1
Radcliff,lf	3	2	0	0	Gr'berg,1b	4	0	7	1
Appling,ss	3	2	2	8	York,c.	3	1	6	0
K'vich,cf	3	0	1	0	Fox,rf.	3	0	1	0
Kuhel,1b.	4	1	11	0	P.Walker,lf	3	0	0	0
Rensa,c.	3	0	2	1	Ross,3b.	3	1	2	2
Lyons,p.	3	0	0	3	Bridges,p.	2	0	2	0
Totals.	31	6	24	17	Totals.	29	7	27	10

Chicago	1	0	0	0	0	1	0	1	0	1—3
Detroit	0	2	0	0	1	0	0	1	x	—4

Runs—Owen, Radcliff, Appling, Morgan, York, Fox, Ross. Errors—Berger, Appling. Runs batted in—Appling, Kuhel, Kreevich, Fox, Morgan, F. Walker, Gehringer. Two-base hit — Ross. Three-base hits — Fox, Kuhel, Gehringer. Sacrifices — Bridges, Rogell. Double plays—Lyons to Appling to Kuhel; Appling to Berger to Kuhel; Gehringer to Rogell to Greenberg. Left on bases—Chicago, 4; Detroit, 5. First base on balls—Off Lyons, 2; off Bridges, 3. Strikeouts—By Bridges, 4.

Second Game.

Chicago.	AB	H	O	A	Detroit.	AB	H	O	A
Berger,2b.	4	0	3	0	Morgan,cf.	2	2	2	0
Owen,3b.	4	1	3	1	Rogell,ss.	3	2	2	7
G.W'ker,rf	4	1	2	1	G'inger,2b.	5	2	2	3
Radcliff,lf	4	2	3	0	Gr'berg,1b	4	0	11	0
Appling,ss.	3	0	2	4	York,c.	4	0	4	1
K'vich,cf	4	1	1	0	Fox,rf.	3	0	1	0
Kuhel,1b.	3	1	6	1	P.Walker,lf	3	0	2	0
Schl'ter,c.	3	1	4	1	Ross,3b.	1	1	2	2
Knott,p.	3	0	0	4	†Chr'man.	0	0	0	0
Lee,p.	0	0	0	0	Benton,p.	2	0	0	0
					‡White.	1	1	0	0
Totals.	32	7	24	12	Totals.	28	8	27	15

*None out when winning run was scored.
†Batted for Benton in ninth.
‡Ran for Ross in ninth.

Chicago	1	0	0	0	1	0	0	0	0	—2
Detroit	0	0	1	0	0	0	0	0	2	—3

Runs—G. Walker, Kuhel, Ross, Christman, White. Errors—Knott (2), Appling, Owen. Runs batted in—G. Walker, Kuhel, Rogell, Gehringer. Two-base hit—Ross. Home runs—G. Walker, Kuhel. Stolen bases—Kuhel (2), Gehringer. Sacrifices—Benton, Morgan (2). Knott, Kuhel. Double play—Knott to Appling to Kuhel. Left on bases—Chicago, 7; Detroit, 12. First base on balls—Off Knott, 8; off Benton, 2. Struck out—By Knott, 3; by Benton, 5. Hits—Off Knott, 7 in 8 innings (none out in ninth); off Lee, 1 in 0 inning. Losing pitcher—Knott. Umpires—Quinn, Pipgras and Moriarty. Time of game—Two hours 15 minutes.

Colonials Invited To Play Colorado Team on Oct. 15

George Washington has been invited to meet Colorado University in its home-coming football game at Boulder, Col., October 15, the Post learned last night.

A letter offering the game is in the hands of Colonial officials, who pondering the matter, a source close to the school revealed. No decision is expected to be made, however, until they have conferred with Bill Reinhart, head football coach, who is vacationing in Oregon.

The proposed game would not conflict with George Washington's schedule, nor would it inflict an unnecessary burden on the eleven. The Colonials open their season here, September 30, against Furman, meet Butler on October 7 and then are idle until the Davis-Elkins game, October 21.

Old Dressing Room Unlucky for Ambers

By Jesse Abramson.

Madison Square Garden, New York, Aug. 17.—Despite the heat, or maybe because of it, there was a last-minute stampede for seats that packed the neighborhood of Madison Square Garden and filled the arena in the face of a top price of $16.50 that set a precedent in the Garden for a nonheavyweight program.

The belated and figurative click of the turnstiles caused Mike Jacobs no anguish at all. The postponement and shift from the Polo Grounds, following last week's rain, almost doubled the attendance for the battle of one or two titles. By the time the first preliminary went on the upper tiers were jammed, and by 9 o'clock the more expensive pews were all occupied, boosting the crowd to approximately 15,000.

* * *

Lou Ambers might have had a star's dressing room all to himself, as Henry Armstrong did, but Herkimer Lou said the Fiftieth street dressing room he had wnen he won the lightweight crown from Tony Canzoneri in 1936 was still good enough for him, and he shared it with some of the preliminary boys.

* * *

The air-cooling apparatus, if it was in operation (and we'll take Col. John Reed Kilpatrick's word for it) caused no apparent cases of chilblains or frostbite.

* * *

The Hollywood set was out in force to cheer for their Hennery. Lee Tracy, the Ritz Brothers (most of them), Ken Murray, William Howard and Al Jolson, of course, were spotted at the ringside.

Tom Gallery, the Los Angeles promoter, who hopes to stage the welterweight championship fight between Armstrong and Ceferino Garcia looked on.

* * *

Postmaster General James A. Farley, recently returned from his Alaska vacation, had a front row seat on the aisle.

* * *

Barney Ross had a good look (with both eyes open this time) at the fellow who relieved him of the welterweight title. He checked for himself the report that Armstrong was really two fellows.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dempsey viewed the proceedings from the second row . . . Jimmy Braddock and Tommy Farr sat cheek and jowl in the sixteenth . . . Dick Bartell, Jimmy Ripple and Hank Danning tried to forget their batting troubles by watching some one who always connects—meaning Armstrong.

* * *

The fellow sitting next to you at the ringside might have been a detective from District Attorney Tom Dewey's staff. It was reported that 15 plainclothesmen were present looking for four witnesses. If they found them it was a secret.

* * *

Armstrong shadowboxed for several rounds in his dressing room to get warmed up, and continued shadow boxing as he entered the ring in a natty blue robe.

* * *

The restrictions on the number of introductions set by the boxing commission bother Mike Jacobs not at all. Only seven fellows were presented, including Tony Canzoneri and Benny Leonard, who received quite an ovation. Benny hasn't the form he used to have; he almost fell on his face vaulting through the ropes.

* * *

When Al Weill jumped into the ring as Ambers went down under a hail of punches it was the first intimation to Referee Billy Cavanaugh that the fifth round had ended. He couldn't hear the clang of the bell above the roar of the crowd.

Orioles Split.

First game—			R.	H.	E.
Baltimore	300	001	0—4	7	0
Buffalo	000	000	1—1	3	1
Reninger and Pencer; Marcum and Tresh.
Second game—			R.	H.	E.
Baltimore	000	000	010	0—1	10	3
Buffalo	000	001	000	1—2	3	0
Matusak and Phillips.			Bolyard; Kline and

Wes Ferrell Hurls Today

Hadley Also to Pitch in Double Bill.

Two of Clark Griffith's former employes—Wesley Cheek Ferrell and Irving Hadley—will take the mound for the Yankees today against the Nats in a double-header.

The twin bill is necessitated by the rain which washed yesterday's game off the calendar.

In pitching Ferrell against the Nats, Manager Joe McCarthy, of the Yankees, is showing a complete disregard for Clark Griffith's opinion of Ferrell as a pitcher. Immediately after being released and labeled "unwanted" by Griffith last week, Ferrell was signed by the Yankees.

Hadley, Ferrell's pitching partner today, was a member of the Nats for five seasons until 1932, when he was traded to the White Sox in a deal that brought Carl Reynolds to the Nats. He returned to the Nats in 1935 and was traded to the Yankees in a swap for Jimmy DeShong before the 1936 season.

Manager Bucky Harris will send Dutch Leonard and his knuckle ball to the mound in one of the games today. Monte Weaver, despite only three days' rest, is expected to be his second choice.

During the past two days, the Nats have lost ground to both the third place and fifth place clubs. The Red Sox have picked up a game and a half to extend their margin over the fourth-place Nats to 5½ games, and the fifth-place Tigers similiarly have picked up a game and a half to cut the Nats' fourth-place margin to three games.

Manager Joe McCarthy yesterday defended his action in playing Jake Powell in the Yankees' outfield despite Washington fans' penchant for showering Powell with pop bottles. Powell made his first appearance in the Yankees' line-up on Monday after drawing a ten-day suspension for a radio interview which aroused resentment by the colored race.

"Powell will play in our outfield against southpaw pitching if they throw a million bottles on him," McCarthy was quoted yesterday. "I had to send him out there to face the music. Once Powell got in the game, I wouldn't have taken him out if we'd all been killed."

If necessary, McCarthy declared he would demand police protection for Powell. With Washington pitching right-handers today, however, it is not expected that Powell will be in the New York line-up.

Champion Loses In Coast Tennis

Los Angeles, Aug. 17 (AP).—The defending women's champion, Mary Arnold, of Los Angeles, was eliminated from the sixteenth annual national public courts tennis championship today by Catherine Malcolm, of Chicago, 6—1, 6—4.

David Perchonock, Philadelphia, defeated Louis Soukup, St. Paul city titlist, 6—1, 6—1, 6—2 as top seeded players emerged victorious in the third round of the men's singles.

Giants Beat Dodgers, 4-2

Terrymen Score Three In 6th to Win.

By the Associated Press.

New York, Aug. 17.—The Giants bunched three hits in a sixth-inning splurge today to score three runs, whip the Brooklyn Dodgers, 4 to 2, and even the current series.

Cliff Melton weakened in the eighth, but Walter Brown came to the rescue and the stringbean southpaw was credited with his first victory since July 10.

George Myatt, playing his second game in the major leagues since being brought up from Jersey City, hit a homer and two singles, walked once and stole a base.

Both sides were held to seven hits, but only in the eighth, when Leo Durocher's triple and Packy Rogers' single produced the final run of the game, did the Dodgers get more than one in any single frame.

Brooklyn.	AB	H	O	A	New York.	AB	H	O	A
Rosen,rf.	2	1	0	0	Moore,lf.	4	0	4	0
Hudson,2b.	3	0	3	1	Myatt,3b.	3	2	0	1
†Phelps.	1	0	0	0	Danning,c.	3	1	2	1
Pressnell,p	0	0	0	0	Ott,rf.	3	1	3	1
St'back,cf	4	0	1	0	Ripple,cf.	2	1	2	0
Camilli,1b.	4	0	6	0	McC'thy,1b	2	0	8	1
Koy,lf.	4	0	1	0	Cissell,2b.	4	1	5	5
La'retto,3b	4	0	4	2	Bartell,ss.	4	0	3	2
D'ocher,ss	2	1	1	3	Melton,p.	3	0	0	2
Shea,c.	2	0	3	1	Brown,p.	0	0	0	0
R'ers,2b.	2	1	0	0
Posedel,p.	2	1	1	1	Totals.	29	7	27	13
*Cuyler.	0	0	0	0
†Hassett.	1	0	0	0
Campbell,c	0	0	1	0
Totals.	30	7	24	9

*Batted for Posedel in eighth.
†Batted for Cuyler in eighth.
‡Batted for Hudson in eighth.

Brooklyn	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	1	0	—2
New York	1	0	0	0	0	3	0	0	x	—4

Runs—Rosen, Durocher, Myatt (2), Danning, Ott. Errors—Bartell, Lavagetto, Hudson. Runs batted in—Stainback, Myatt, Ott, Cissell, S. Rogers. Two-base hit—Cissell. Three-base hit—Durocher. Home run—Myatt. Stolen bases—Cissell, Myatt. Sacrifices—Ripple, 2. Double plays—Cissell to McCarthy; Hudson to Camilli; Bartell to Cissell to McCarthy, 2. Left on bases—New York, 7; Brooklyn, 4. First base on balls—Off Melton, 2; off Posedel, 2; off Brown, 1; off Pressnell, 2. Struck out—By Posedel, 4; by Pressnell, 1. Hits—Off Posedel, 7 in 7 innings; off Pressnell, none in 1 inning; off Melton, 7 in 7 innings (none out in eighth); off Brown, none in 2 innings. Winning pitcher—Melton. Losing pitcher—Posedel. Umpires—Reardon, Pinelli and Goetz. Time of game—Two hours 13 minutes.

Redlegs Take Third Place

By the Associated Press.

Chicago, Aug. 17.—Doing all their scoring in the third and fourth innings, Cincinnati mixed Harry Craft's thirteenth homer and 11 other hits with a pair of Chicago errors today to defeat the Cubs, 8 to 4, and take third place away from Gabby Hartnett's charges.

Cin'nati.	AB	H	O	A	Chicago.	AB	H	O	A
Frey,2b.	5	1	3	4	Hack,3b.	4	1	2	2
Berger,lf.	5	2	2	0	Herman,2b	4	0	4	3
Goodman,rf	3	1	3	0	Collins,1b.	4	1	10	0
McC'lick,1b	5	1	10	0	Galan,lf.	4	2	2	2
Lo'bardi,c	4	2	3	0	R'nolds,cf.	4	3	3	0
Craft,cf.	5	2	1	0	O'Dea,c.	4	2	3	1
Riggs,3b.	5	1	1	2	Demaree,rf	3	0	2	0
Myers,ss.	3	2	4	7	Jurges,ss.	4	1	0	5
Walters,p.	3	0	0	0	Page,p.	1	0	0	2
Schott,p.	1	0	0	0	Russell,p.	2	0	1	1
					*Ca'retta.	1	0	0	0
Totals.	39	12	27	13	French,p.	0	0	0	0
					Totals.	35	10	27	16

*Batted for Russell in eighth.

Cincinnati	0	0	3	5	0	0	0	0	0	—8
Chicago	0	0	0	0	4	0	0	0	0	—4

Runs—Berger, Lombardi, Craft, Riggs, Myers (2), Walters (2), Hack, Herman, Collins, Galan. Errors—Lombardi, Jurges, Russell. Runs batted in—Berger (2), McCormick (2), Craft (2), Galan (2), Reynolds (2). Two-base hits—Berger, O'Dea. Three-base hit—Myers. Home run—Craft. Sacrifice—Myers. Double plays—Frey to Myers, Frey to Myers to McCormick. Left on bases—Cincinnati, 8; Chicago, 8. First base on balls—Off Walters, 2; off Schott, 2; off Page, 1; off Russell, 1. Struck out—By Walters, 2; by Schott, 1; by Russell, 1. Hits—Off Walters, 9 in 4⅔ innings; off Schott, 1 in 4⅓ innings; off Page, 7 in 3 innings (none out in fourth); off Russell, 4 in 3 innings; off French, 1 in 1 inning. Hit by pitched ball—By Russell (Goodman). Winning pitcher—Walters. Losing pitcher—Page. Umpires—Barr, Stark and Stewart. Time of game—One hour 58 minutes.

Verdict Is Greeted By Salvo of Boos

Ambers Roundly Cheered as He Leaves Ring Minus His Crown; Pacific Coast Battler 1st in Pugilistic History to Hold 3 Titles.

By Alan Gould.
Associated Press Sports Editor.

Madison Square Garden, New York, Aug. 17 (AP).—Hammering Henry Armstrong, the dusky dynamiter from Los Angeles, pounded out a new chapter is fistic history tonight by whipping gallant Lou Ambers, of Herkimer, N. Y., for the world lightweight championship and thus becoming the first man to hold three ring crowns at one and the same time.

Bloody, arm-weary and nearly exhausted from his efforts to stop the game title defender, Armstrong emerged from 15 savage rounds of fighting to win a split official decision, despite an erratic finish that cost the little Negro three rounds on penalties for hitting low and a spectacular rally by Ambers.

Armstrong, although unable to finish his sturdy foe and actually hard pressed to save his winning margin through the last five rounds, scored two knockdowns and won decisively, notwithstanding the penalties assessed against him for questionable tactics and the partisan demonstration by a majority of the crowd after th everdict was announced.

Ambers Floored Twice.

Ambers was knocked down in the fifth round, and saved by the bell, which rang just one split second after the champion was smashed to the canvas by a right to the jaw.

Armstrong brought his man down again, for the count of eight in the sixth round but his most desperate efforts thereafter were unable to upset the champion.

Armstrong threw every punch in his arsenal in a bid for a knockout in the eleventh. Again, in the fourteenth, after losing three straight rounds to Ambers—two of them on penalties—the Negro connected with a right hand that knocked the champion into the ropes. But for the backstop Lou would have gone down, for the third time, but he recovered his footing and averted further trouble.

The victory for the 25-year-old Negro capped the climax of the most amazing championship winning streak in pugilistic annals, giving Armstrong his third world title within less than ten months.

Second Title This Year.

Hammering Henry won the featherweight title by knocking out Petey Sarron in the Garden, last October 29. He captured the welterweight or 147-pound crown on points from Barney Ross last May 31.

By lifting the lightweight or 135-pound honors from Ambers the little perpetual-motion machine of the ring recorded his thirty-ninth consecutive victory within a two-year period. Ambers was only the fourth opponent in this string to go the limit.

Armstrong, while he gained his objective, yielded the crowd's plaudits to his beaten rival. The near-capacity turnout of 18,240 cash customers not only gave the loser an ovation but booed the verdict and jeered Armstrong himself as the Negro youth left the ring, so weary and groggy that he had gone to the wrong corner after the final bell.

Crowd for Ambers.

The sentiments of the crowd, pro-Ambers from the start, obviously were stirred not only by the champion's gallant uphill bid to save his crown, after being close to a knockout, but by Armstrong's inability to keep many of his punches above the belt line.

The seventh, eleventh and twelfth rounds were awarded to Ambers on penalties, although in each of them Armstrong had a margin on points. This combined with Ambers' rally to make the official decision much closer than it appeared to most ringside experts.

The referee, Kavanagh, combined with one of the judges, George Tecron, to clinch an unexpectedly close verdict for Armstrong. Kavanagh credited the Negro with seven rounds, Ambers with six and rated two even. Tecron tallied eight for Armstrong and six for Ambers, with one even. The remaining judge, Marty Monroe, scored in Ambers' favor, eight rounds to seven.

On the Associated Press score sheet Armstrong, due to his continual forcing tactics and his heavier punching, was a decisive winner. The Negro was credited with 11 rounds and Ambers with the remaining 4, including 3 on fouls.

Armstrong Badly Cut.

Armstrong was cut so badly about the mouth that he spit blood through the last half of the bout. His mouthpiece was knocked loose repeatedly by Ambers' short punches to the chin. In one round, the tenth, Henry carried the protective piece in his right hand until the referee took it away. The Negro finally discarded it entirely.

The fight reached dramatic heights for the Ambers rooters in the thirteenth when the champion outpunched Armstrong and appeared on the verge of turning the tide of battle completely. Lou belted Henry with both hands to the head, while the crowd stood and roared its acclaim, but the champion lacked anything resembling a finishing wallop to take advantage of his rival's obviously weakened condition.

Armstrong was so tired, toward the finish, that he looked as though he might fall at times from the force of some of his own missed blows, but he rallied to stagger Ambers in the fourteenth and finish strongly in the last round.

It was a savage bout, and one of the most exciting waged in years in the lightweight division, with Ambers making a heroic stand in defense of the title honors he won on September 3, 1936, from the veteran Tony Canzoneri.

Armstrong rubbed a sore and bleeding lip in his dressing room after adding the stout-hearted Lou Ambers to his long list of victims and said:

"He's the most bothersome fellow I ever ran into. He don't hit hard, but he hits often and my body is so sore I can hardly move it. He gave See FIGHT, Page 19, Column 1.

Round by Round Of the Fight

ROUND ONE.

Ambers threw a right and a left and they moved in close. Armstrong missed a vicious right, but kept shuffling in punching away. Ambers scored with two left uppercuts and Henry came into a clinch where they worked inside viciously.

Ambers was moving swiftly about the ring. Ambers scored with two hard lefts to the jaw and a series of rights and lefts to the stomach. Armstrong leveled all of his fire at Ambers' body. They backed against the ropes and had the crowd yelling as they slugged away viciously. Each man scored dozens of vicious punches. Armstrong's face was red from Ambers' blows as they stood toe to toe and threw punches at each other. Ambers had the better of the in-fighting at the bell.

The crowd roared its approval as they battled away on the ropes at the bell.

It was Armstrong's round.

ROUND TWO.

Ambers landed the first punch, a left hook. Armstrong shuffling ever forward, gloves flying. Armstrong backed the champion into a neutral corner and flailed away at the belly. Armstrong scored a right to the body. Ambers was bleeding from the left brow from a hard right to the head. Armstrong landed a vicious left to the jaw and followed with a hard right to the head. Armstrong dropped his head on the champion's chest and pummeled away viciously. They were fighting like tigers now, chest to chest, arms pumping. They threw punches from every angle and all landed.

Armstrong forced Ambers to the ropes and beat the champion unmercifully with rights and lefts. Armstrong peppered away with hard rights and lefts and had the better of the in-fighting. It was a toe-to-toe, chest-to-chest round and the Garden's rafters shook from the roar of the mob.

It was Armstrong's round.

ROUND THREE.

Referee Cavanaugh halted the fight to rub vaseline off Armstrong's hair. Ambers landed hard right to the chin, but Henry forced him to the ropes. They continued their barrages of leather. The boys were setting a killing pace with Armstrong the aggressor, always driving toward his foe. They ripped at one another inside and then Henry ran his man across the ring to land a thundering right on the button and a terrific left to the face.

Ambers was hurt and Armstrong beat him alternately on the head and body. The champion tried to beat Henry off with uppercuts, but the tireless black boy bored ever in and threw punches from all angles. Armstrong forced Ambers to the ropes and beat his man at will. Ambers was in full retreat at the end of the round. Armstrong's round.

ROUND FOUR.

Ambers backed away as Henry, head down, leather whistling, moved in. Ambers, now fighting from long range, got in two good lefts and a right to Armstrong's face. Armstrong chased the champion across the ring and smashed his face with punches.

Ambers danced away lightly and speared the Negro with two beautiful right jabs. With the ropes against his back, Ambers took a light left and hard right to the jaw. Ambers knocked Armstrong's mouthpiece to the canvas with a hard right to the mouth.

Heads together, Billy-goat style, they boomed away in vicious fashion. Armstrong landed hard right. In a neutral corner a savage, hand-to-hand barrage took place. Armstrong had the better of it at the bell. Armstrong's round by a slight margin.

ROUND FIVE.

Ambers missed left to face. They wasted no time and tore into each other with hard lefts and rights to the face. Both men were now using body attacks. Ambers threw two lefts and a series of uppercuts as Henry bulled him in a corner.

Both landed clean rights on the jaw in a savage scrimmage and neither would give ground. Ambers used a right uppercut effectively as Henry shuffled in throwing body punches.

They sparred in midring for the first time. Ambers landed two hard rights to the head. Henry forced the champion to the ropes. The crowd yelled at Armstrong for what seemed a dangerously low blow. The pace slowed momentarily as Ambers circled around the ring.

Armstrong knocked Ambers down. Ambers took a count of three as the bell saved him. It was a series of rights and lefts to the jaw that floored the champion.

Armstrong's round.

ROUND SIX.

Armstrong shuffled in as Ambers backed away on wobbly legs. Ambers' legs were rubbery as he retreated in face of his merciless foe. Armstrong hooked to the head with rights and lefts.

Armstrong knocked Ambers down for the count of eight with a right and left. Armstrong tore into Ambers with both fists flying. Ambers was helpless as he staggered around the ring.

Armstrong threw rights and lefts to the body and face trying for the kill. Armstrong bulled in, but Ambers gamely hung on. Ambers ducked three terrific rights. Ambers knocked Henry's mouthpiece out again with a hard left to the mouth.

Armstrong switched his attack to the body trying to bring the champion down. When the bell rang Ambers had recovered a bit and walked fairly briskly to his corner. It was Armstrong's round.

ROUND SEVEN.

Ambers came out steadily to meet the same tireless Armstrong. Ambers drew a cheer by landing two left jabs to the face. Henry caught up with him and whaled away at his belly. In Armstrong's corner, the Negro beat a tattoo on the champion's stomach.

Ambers was in retreat now. Armstrong again dropped his mouthpiece without being hit. Armstrong sliced away with wicked left uppercuts on the ropes. Ambers offered little offensive, so busy was he protecting himself.

Lou speared Armstrong from long range. His shoulders rolling, Henry came in to beat a stream of blood from Amb

Royal Business, $7.50 Shot, Wins Cumberland's Feature

Post Scripts

What's the use, it's just as one ball player remarked yesterday as the deluge stopped the Yanks—somethings the Nats have been unable to do all season. "If you don't get drenched inside to outside by the sun, you get drenched outside to inside by rain? . . . Well, the fans got a break, anyway; today they may get a chance to see the Nats lose two games for the price of one . . . Dutch Leonard and George Case discovered to their sorrow that there's little compassion in a policeman's heart, even though the skies may be weeping . . . Dashing out of the clubhouse, they piled into George Case's car, along with an unidentified party, and felt right pert at escaping the rain . . . Just then a blue-clad minion of the law peered through the mist, saw four men in the front seat of a business coupe, and with an umpire's motion thumbed two of 'em out . . . The two were Leonard and Case . . .

MEL OTT.

The District A. A. U. will have charge of all the arrangements for the Chase-Chapman race here on abor Day . . . It will supply judges, timekeepers, etc. . . . Tony Suess, a Post printer, and A. C. Nelson, a Post proof reader, have been playing golf together for years, but until yesterday never met in match play . . . By pure coincidence they were paired in the second round of the Rock Creek midsummer tournament . . . Because his cinematcress wife, Andy Ondra, frowns on the idea, Max Schmeling probably will never fight in America again . . . Looks like Wes Ferrell may finally get into a World Series without paying . . . Notice the latest marathon mania is a 100-inning exhibition softball game and both starting pitchers have declared their readiness to go the route . . . Wonder when we'll have tennis matches best 85 out of 100 sets? . . . Al Baer, son of the former Congressman and a prominent golfer and bowler, is working on the parking lot at Fourth and the Avenue . . .

Though Vic Sampson, the G. W. gridder, has not yet decided to ditch his job at a local cocktail lounge in favor of another season of football, Colonial press releases name him as one of the backfield nucleus . . .

This in spite of the fact that the Anchor Room, which employs Sampson, recently announced he would preside over a series of college and fraternity "nights" which would be held there during the winter . . . Add Oddities . . . Not more than 48 hours after he had been chosen the most popular third baseman in baseball by a cereal company poll, Mel Ott was shifted back to his old outfield position, and may stay there indefinitely. JACK MUNHALL.

Games Wanted.

The Warrenton (Va.) Boys Club desires games with teams, 16 years old and under. Write John T. Brawner, jr., Warrenton, Va.

Want Game.

The Girardians want an inlimited game for Saturday. Call Ge. 5191.

Cumberland Entries.

By the Associated Press.

FIRST RACE—About 6½ furlongs; purse, $400; claiming; for 2-year-olds.

3	*Red Wings	111	2	*Home Hunter 114
6	Maying	106	3	Fazetta 109
7	Lena Girl	112	4	Hero Miss 109
1	Maolissa	112

SECOND RACE—About 6½ furlongs; purse, $400; claiming; for 3-year-olds and upward.

8	Trostar	113	1	Addis Ababa 113
9	*Square Play	108	2	Grunt 113
10	Radial	110	3	*Casey 103
11	*Philisal	97	4	Post Brigade 113
12	Boulder Dam	106	5	Tweety 108
13	Prince Kim	113	6	Lilteen 108
14	Marine Maid	107	7	*Prince Girl 103

THIRD RACE—About 5 furlongs; purse, $400; claiming; the Maryland Day Purse, for 3-year-olds and upward.

8	Schley Goree	107	1	Timber Storm 114
9	Boro Poker	116	2	*Kincaid 97
10	Clock Fixer	107	3	*Lit. Mistress 97
11	*On Sea	104	4	*Mahi 114
12	†Canson	114	5	*Bromide 114
13	*Lead Please	106	6	Lilteen 106
14	*Dark O'clock	102	7	*Happy Host 114
	†R. W. Oliver-H. R. Bishop entry.

FOURTH RACE—About 6½ furlongs; purse, $800; the Harry A. Manley Handicap; for 3-year-olds and upward.

6	Shebang	104	1	Mamas Boy 116
7	Sunrise	107	2	Miss Bathsa 102
8	Ever Grand	110	3	†Titian Kidd 112
9	Pat. Begone	112	4	Justa Giro 104
10	Ladys Favor	109	5	*Sally Quick 104
	‡J. S. Archer entry.

FIFTH RACE—About 1⅛ miles; purse, $400; claiming; for 3-year-olds and upward.

6	Broken Rhm	100	1	Ranicilla 106
7	*Cora Kay	106	2	Jungo 110
8	*Lt. Wackie	111	3	Veritas 103
9	Incendiary	105	4	Pam. Clayton 108
10	Prince Pettie	108	5	Best Policy 106
11	*Green Water	95
	†Mrs. N. Gray-C. Beall entry.

SIXTH RACE—About 1⅛ miles; purse, $400; claiming; for 3-year-olds and upward.

6	Justa Flight	109	1	*Bargain Boy 112
7	Channins	117	2	Merid. Time 103
8	Two Aces	106	3	Happy Chase 103
9	Chase Him	111	4	Happy Road 117
10	Quick Vine	104	5	Counter Pass 109

SEVENTH RACE—About 1⅛ miles; purse, $400; claiming; for 3-year-olds and upward.

6	*Kaleida	107	1	Coat Tails 112
7	*The Swan	109	2	*Huppy 107
8	Cahynge	117	3	*Krakatoa 107
9	Little Perry	114	4	*Sunacree 102
10	Fly Carpet	117	5	Spotless 112
11	Star Miner	112

EIGHTH RACE (substitute)—About 6½ furlongs; purse, $400; claiming; for 3-year-olds and upward.

6	War Chat	113	1	*Kiwo 100
7	Jimmy S.	106	2	Judith B 105
8	National	111	3	Westigal 105
9	Morn. Flight	106	4	Jacksaw 106
10	Janstar	106	5	Chief Hollis 113
11	*Doub on Sea	108

*Apprentice allowance claimed.
Weather, clear; track, fast.

Daily Double Pays $289 Sets Record

The Trout Teams With Monologue to Bring Healthy Pay-Off.

Special Dispatch to The Post.

Fair Grounds, Cumberland, Md., Aug. 17.—The rebel yell of Old Virginia rang out over this picturesque half-mile plant, as Royal Business, belonging to Capt. Ewart Johnson, dashed 6½ furlongs in 1:21, to capture the Cumberland Purse, feature event.

Apprentice George Witmer rode a clever race astride the filly. Favorite with the crowd of 12,000, which included Mayor Koon of this city and Mayor Jackson of Baltimore, Royal Business ran true to expectations, following the fast early pace of Sally Quick and Caidon. She went on to a three-length victory, to pay $7.50. G. O. Ferguson's Schley Nurse stepped into the place, with Miss Jane Waugh's Gaidon showing the way to five others.

Following the race, Mayor Koon presented Owner Johnston with a handsome trophy.

The largest daily double pay-off of the meeting—289.50—was posted by Pari-Mutuel Manager Walden when Mrs. Robert H. Heighe's The Trout, $14.90, won the day's five-eighths opener, with S. H. Hall's Monologue, $13.60, capturing the 6½ furlongs in the second race. Both winners took the track at the break and led throughout.

Steward John McMullen resigned today. His place was filled by A. L. McCullough. Steward James T. Wolfe, who was overcome by heat yesterday and taken to a Cumberland hospital, was back at his post today.

Merry Lassie Wins At Saratoga.

Saratoga Springs, N. Y., Aug. 17 (AP).—Merry Lassie, fleet 3-year-old filly from Mrs. H. C. Phipps' Wheatley Stable, sprang a surprise here today when she came from behind to win the thirty-sixth Catskill Handicap of six furlongs. Although the daughter of Stimulus is famed for stopping after getting to the front, she actually wore down the Millsdale Stable's Mower to earn the $2,165 lion's share of the purse by a head.

Go Home, representing the Maemere farm of Dewitt Page, finished third by five lengths but was disqualified and the show awarded to Warren Wright's Crossbow II, which was last away in a bad start. The stewards, after talking to Nick Wall, Go Home's rider, and Wayne Wright, pilot of G. D. Widener's Salamis, charged that Go Home came over and bothered Salamis between the eighth and sixteenth poles.

Smart Crack Victor On Muddy Track.

Pawtucket, R. I., Aug. 17 (AP).—Romping to a three-lengths victory over a track fetlock deep in mud, Mrs. W. T. Anderson's Smart Crack today scored her third straight victory in the $5,000 added Jeanne D'Arc Stakes for 2-year-old fillies, Narragansett feature.

The two-year-old slate gray daughter of Kiev-Wisecrack tripped the five and one-half furlongs in the very good time of 1:06.4 and paid $6.60 to win.

A. E. Silver's Heather Time that finished out of the money last time out after reputedly swanning herself while coming down in the van from Rockingham, made a vastly improved showing to run second behind the Anderson filly and pay $6 to place.

A half length away from Heather Time and a length in front of Sweet Nancy was James Cox Brady's War Plumage that returned $6.10 to show.

Torchy in Vivtory At Chicago.

Chicago, Aug. 17 (AP).—On top soon after the start the Dixiana Farm's Torchy scored its fourth victory of the year by winning the featured mile handicap at Washington Park today. Torchy was a length in front of Novelette at the wire with Rhiniz third.

Torchy was away alertly with Novelette, Lassator and Rushaway close behind. Bomber challenged briefly at the far turn, but only Novelette threatened the Dixiana horse in the stretch run. Torchy clocked in 1:39 2-5 over a good track, paid $7.60 straight.

Airport Will Hold Meet on Saturday

Airport Swimming Pool, under the direction of Manager Hardy Pearce, will hold a high and low board diving meet Saturday night. Entries close at Airport tomorrow night.

Among the prominent drivers already entered are Bill Tarbett, who only Sunday won the D. C. A. A. U. high board title; John Marshall, former D. C. A. A. U. titleholder and former Florida State champion; H. S. Crider, Kansas State high board champion, and Pat Ryan, South Atlantic high board champion.

Time Out! By Chet Smith

The faculty frowns on commercialism, Bryson!

Frank Buck is famous for "Bring 'Em Back Alive," but he got his start bringing back a coyote—dead. You'll enjoy reading Dale Carnegie's article about Frank Buck's success in Sunday's Post.

Yesterdays' Race Results

Narragansett Park Results.

By the Associated Press.

FIRST—Six furlongs; purse, $1,000; claiming; for 3-year-olds and upward.

Crusand, 96 (Krovitz)	38.50	18.30	[illegible]
Rock High, 104 (Yarberry)		8.70	6.00
Royal Bird, 116 (Duffy)			4.80

Loafer, Balanced Budget, Joe D., Genaibl, Supreme Maiden and Actdine also ran. Time, 1:15 1-5.

SECOND RACE—Five and one-half furlongs; purse, $1,000; claiming; for maiden 2-year-olds.

War Trade, 113 (Dupps)	10.40	8.00	5.00
Maestrung, 113 (Luther)		7.30	5.20
Oversight, 116 (Maschek)			5.50

Althorp Park, Sunabell, Fiddle Faddle, Easter Thorn, Happy Picnic, First Affair, Conadara and Marbran also ran. Time, 1:08 1-5.

THIRD—One and one-sixteenth miles; purse, $1,100; claiming; for 3-year-olds.

Little Sally, 108 (Jackson)	8.40	4.80	3.70
Lovick, 107 (DeLara)		6.00	4.00
Rhodium, 113 (Berger)			5.00

Liberty Torch, Weary Flower, Bob C., Little Tramp, To the Rescue, Grand Light, Miss Canron, Cash o' Boy and Mob Cap also ran. Time, 1:50 1-5.

FOURTH—Six furlongs; purse, $1,400; handicap; for 3-year-olds and upward.

Bold Turk, 98 (Yarberry)	13.50	5.40	3.10
Beach Ensemble, 96 (Krovitz)		3.80	2.60
Talked About, 116 (Anderson)			2.80

Kentucky Blues, Navarre and Paul Scarlet also ran. Time, 1:13 1-5.

FIFTH—Five and one-half furlongs; purse, $5,000 added; the Jeanne d'Or Stakes; for 2-year-old fillies.

Smart Crack, 107 (Merritt)	6.60	4.60	4.10
Heather Time, 119 (Maschek)		6.00	4.90
War Plumage, 105 (Dotter)			6.10

Lerno, Soldiering, Flying Ebony, Catechism, Alice Faye, Gay Amazon, Sweet Nancy, Lotta Bull, *Morcarine and *Ebony Blue also ran. Time, 1:06 4-5.

*Field.

SIXTH RACE—Six furlongs; purse, $1,100; claiming; for 3-year-olds and upward.

Porcellus, 108 (Stevensen)	20.50	7.20	3.60
Fraidy Cat, 113 (Donoso)		4.50	2.90
Happy Knot, 111 (Luther)			2.60

Lady Bewithus, Ossilee and High Voltage also ran. Time, 1:13 2-5.

SEVENTH—One and one-sixteenth miles; purse, $1,000; claiming; for 3-year-olds and upward.

Count Mc, 115 (Snyder)	11.40	6.10	4.60
Super John, 110 (Adair)		5.50	4.30
Top Hich, 110 (Krovitz)			8.40

Suncircle Blaze, Dinna Do, Doctor C. N. Candar, Galloping, War Chase and Baby Ward also ran. Time, 1:51.

EIGHTH—One and one-sixteenth miles; purse, $1,000; claiming; for 3-year-olds and upward.

Whippercracker, 115 (May)	14.20	6.50	4.20
San Pietro, 115 (Porter)		7.20	4.60
Founder, 110 (Krovitz)			3.80

Fair Scout, Hymarque, Prince Alex, Bugle Call, Bold General, Dizzy Dame, Belshazzar and King Bonny also ran. Time, 1:50 3-5.

Thistle Down Results.

By the Associated Press.

FIRST—One mile and a quarter; purse, $600; claiming; for 3-year-olds and upward.

Joan Macaw, 101 (Sylvia)	16.00	6.60	4.20
Secured, 109 (Horn)		4.20	3.40
John Shouse, 101 (Hanauer)			7.20

Miss Horton, Urchin, Flying Jay, Bichloride and Paplay also ran. Time, 2:08 3-5.

SECOND—One mile and a quarter; purse, $600; claiming; for 3-year-olds and upward.

Col. Martin, 104 (Cowley)	7.20	3.60	2.80
Black Arms, 110 (Loturco)		4.20	3.00
Miss Mascara, 112 (Sylvia)			4.20

Oddesa Beau, *Impli Wilki, Mantador, Coming Back, *Free Play, Alan Chicle and Major Sweep also ran. Time, 2:07 2-5.

*Field.

THIRD—Six furlongs (chute); purse, $500; claiming; for 3-year-olds and upward.

H. Hand II, 110 (Murphy)	16.20	6.00	4.20
Hindu Princess, 103 (Schulte)		7.20	4.60
Imperial Folly, 113 (Molbert)			2.80

Miss Ivory, Leros, Doc Oster, Grandeem, *Tenopo, *Trace Boy and Down in Front also ran. Time, 1:13 4-5.

FOURTH—Six furlongs (chute); purse, $600; claiming; for 3-year-olds and upward.

Marching Man, 116 (Clutter)	6.40	3.40	2.80
Mottled, 111 (Grant)		10.40	6.60
Jadva, 111 (Craig)			5.40

Ethels Choice, Dorothy Hicks, Miss Baiko, *Mad Gallop, *Grand Sweep, Gamalie and Magnolia Cash also ran. Time, 1:12 4-5.

*Field.

FIFTH—One mile; purse, $700; claiming; for 3-year-olds and upward.

Har. Belle, 109 (Fernandez)	8.00	5.20	3.20
Adolf, 109 (McCadden)		5.60	4.40
Migal Fay, 112 (Grill)			4.40

The Millay, Legal Gamble, Squads Right, Watercure, Boon Time, Wendy Darling also ran. Time, 1:39 4-5.

SIXTH—One and one-sixteenth miles; purse, $600; claiming; for 3-year-olds and upward.

Manhunt, 98 (McCadden)	34.20	14.40	6.80
Gunwale, 108 (Grant)		4.20	2.80
Kansascitian, 112 (Dew)			3.00

Lac-Ha-Carolyn, Buena Oro, Dee Dee W., Uncle July, Mr. Quick and Ladino also ran. Time, 1:47 1-5.

SEVENTH—One and one-sixteenth miles; purse, $600; claiming; for 3-year-olds and upward.

Sucre, 111 (Meloche)	8.00	4.00	3.20
Lowry, 108 (Dew)		10.00	4.40
Miss Johnston, 109 (Lowe)			3.60

Broadway Roxy, Unparalleled, Listowel, Exchange Club, Appletime and Handsome John also ran. Time, 1:47.

EIGHTH—One mile and 5½ furlongs; purse, $800; claiming; for 3-year-olds and upward.

Son Richard, 114 (Calvert)	8.60	4.60	3.60
Gipsy Dance, 111 (Sylvester)		10.00	5.20
Silent Don, 112 (Terry)			3.40

Woodbridge, Warrior Slave, Kev Ray, Henry Dew, High Explosive and Beckville also ran. Time, 2:54 3-5.

Saratoga Results.

By the Associated Press.

FIRST—Six furlongs; purse, $1,000; claiming; for 2-year-olds.

Meadow Morn, 111 (Peters)	15-1	6-1	3-1
Bibliophile, 111 (Wright)		8-1	4-1
Kate Smith, 112 (Arcaro)			1-1

Forfend, Taut, Gridine, Skating Pool, River Pirate, Spanish Beauty, Pomary, Scout About and Peterhof also ran. Time, 1:13 1-5.

SECOND—One and one-eighth miles; purse, $1,000; claiming; for 3-year-olds and upward.

More Pep, 110 (Polk)	16-5	6-5	1-2
Somali, 117 (Longden)		4-5	2-5
Wrenace, 117 (Hanford)			4-5

Diavid, Broad Vision and Palan Easter Way also ran. Time, 1:54.

THIRD—Six furlongs; the Muskallonge Handicap; Class 1; purse, $1,000 added; for 3-year-olds.

Pagliacci, 122 (Wright)	7-1	5-2	6-5
Armor Bearer, 116 (Arcaro)		4-1	2-1
Cattistock, 122 (Stout)			1-4

Poona, Pernie, Bunny Baby, Royal Eminence, Inhale and C Note also ran. Time, 1:11 1-5.

FOURTH—Five and one-half furlongs; purse, $1,000; for maiden 2-year-olds.

Easy Mon, 116 (Balaski)	6-1	5-2	6-5
‡Co-Pilot, 116 (Westrope)		6-5	3-5
Banner Man, 116 (Robertson)			1-1

Time Step, *Marriage, Tin Devil, Partone, Big Flag, Watch Over, †Mill River, Balaclava, Oklab, †Part Time, Flying Lancer, Bright Victory, Race Riot and Close Kin also ran. Time, 1:06 1-5.

*Mrs. S. C. Register and Mill River Stable entry.

†Brookmeade Stable entry.

FIFTH—Six furlongs; the Catskill Handicap; purse, $1,500 added; for 3-year-olds and upward.

Merry Lassie, 120 (Longden)	8-1	3-1	7-5
Mower, 123 (Corbett)		5-2	6-5
Crossbow II, 121 (J. Gilbert)			1-2

Airflame, Salamis, †Go Home and Bill Farnsworth also ran. Time, 1:11.

†Finished third but disqualified.

SIXTH—One and one-eighth miles; the Olamba Handicap; purse, $1,100; for 3-year-olds and upward.

Pastry, 122 (Workman)	13-10	2-5	1-6
Recussion, 112 (L. Hanford)		8-5	7-10
Ualino, 119 (Fels)			5-2

Larose, Little Sleeper, Knoxville, First Alarm and Fred Tracey also ran. Time, 1:53 2-5.

SEVENTH—One and one-eighth miles; purse, $1,000; claiming; for 3-year-olds and upward.

Head Hunter, 120 (Balaski)	15-1	5-1	2-1
Invermark, 115 (James)		1-2	1-5
Everzold, 115 (Woodhouse)			7-5

San Antiocs, Early Settle and Steepletop also ran. Time, 1:53 1-5.

Washington Park Results.

By the Associated Press.

FIRST—Six furlongs; purse, $800; 3-year-olds; claiming.

Port Girl, 106 (McCombs)	10.80	5.80	3.80
Peggy Byrd, 100 (Finnerty)		10.40	6.00
Brown Ben, 110 (Litzenberger)			3.40

Turn Out, Sam K., Jean Dale, Alpi, Norie, Cyrus F., Jubilee C., Miss Reveille and Blondkin also ran. Time, 1:16 4-5.

SECOND—Six furlongs; purse, $800; claiming; 4-year-olds and upward.

Broad Lights, 107 (Conley)	7.00	4.00	3.20
Hypo, 112 (South)		5.20	3.40
Cottingham, 102 (McCombs)			4.00

Freebura Boy, Busy Lutrecia, Mannere Queen, Getabout, Texas Maid, Cantrip, Roquill and Hedon also ran. Time, 1:15.

THIRD—One mile (chute); purse, 800; claiming; maiden 2-year-olds.

Grit and Grace, 106 (Conley)

	15.60	8.40	5.80
Reigh Begog, 111 (Vercher)	25.40	16.60
Isolene, 111 (Rosen)		5.20

Rail Down, Alacrvant, Swift Spot, Lauerman, Intrip, Hilton, Agnes Knight, Crashing Idea and Count Cary also ran. Time, 1:43 1-5.

FOURTH—Six furlongs; purse, 1800; claiming; 4-year-olds and upward.

China Boy, 107 (Parise)	18.20	6.40	3.40
Black Buddy, 112 (Finnerty)		5.40	3.20
Wilco, 118 (Martin)			2.60

Gilded Lass, Fluke, Eva R., Worthing, Just Imperial, Sky Haven, Countess Mario and Georges Heir also ran. Time, 1:14 2-5.

FIFTH—Six furlongs; purse, $1,000; claiming; 4-year-olds and upward.

Dark Sun, 112 (Finnerty)	16.40	8.40	5.00
Our Crest, 110 (Parise)		7.20	4.20
Bien Fait, 112 (South)			3.40

Tramamulata, Black Rives and Black Arrow also ran. Time, 1:13 3-5.

SIXTH—One mile (chute); purse, $1,000. Grade C handicap; 3-year-olds and upward

Torchy, 109 (Rosen)	7.60	4.00	3.40
*Novelette, 104 (McCombs)		6.00	3.80
Rhiniz, 110 (Simmons)			6.20

Bomber Lassator, Rushaway, Enchented Vespasiano and †Invincible also ran. Time, 1:39 2-5.

†Mrs. J. Lowenstein and M. Vehon entry.

SEVENTH—One mile and 1 furlong; purse, $1,000; claiming; 3-year-olds and upward.

Boy Valet, 113 (Rollins)	20.40	8.20	4.60
Thistle Rose, 108 (South)		8.60	3.00
Ski, 101 (Scurlock)			4.40

Stout Heart, Ice Queen, Zevar and O'Buddy also ran. Time, 1:55 4-5.

EIGHTH—One mile and 1 furlong; purse, 1,000; claiming; 3-year-olds and upward.

Bereil, 103 (McCombs)	7.20	3.80	3.00
Rock Sally, 103 (Conley)		6.00	4.00
Splcate, 110 (Lake)			9.20

Escolee, Bombastic, Highman, Starwick and Ebony Parasol also ran. Time, 1:56 1-5.

Major League Leaders

By the Associated Press.

BATTING.

Player and Club.	G.	AB.	R.	H.	Pct.
Lombardi, Reds	90	336	49	110	.331
Travis, Senators	103	398	75	138	.347
Foxx, Red Sox	101	373	90	131	.347
Radcliff, White Sox	78	300	41	104	.347
Vaughan, Pirates	105	388	61	136	.335
McCormick, Reds	108	462	65	153	.331

HOME RUNS.

American League—Greenberg, Tigers, 28; Foxx, Red Sox, 25; Johnson, Athletics, 25; York, Tigers, 24; DiMaggio, Yankees, 23; Gehrig, Yankees, 23.

National League—Goodman, Reds, 27; Ott, Giants, 27; Camilli, Dodgers, 17; Mize, Cardinals, 16; Medwick, Cardinals, 15.

RUNS BATTED IN.

American League—Foxx, Red Sox, 115; DiMaggio, Yankees, 90; Dickey, Yankees, 87; Keltner, Indians, 87; Greenberg, Tigers, 86.

National League—Ott, Giants, 89; Medwick, Cardinals, 85; McCormick, Reds, 81; Rizzo, Pirates, 75; Goodman, Reds, 74.

Post Nine Wants Game.

The Washington Post Circulators nine is seeking a game for Sunday, preferably with an out-of-town team. Especially challenged are Snug Harbor, Capitol Heights, Remington, Va., and White Oaks Athletic Club, of Fredericksburg. For games call N. M. Outcault, at Potomac 2004.

Bees Blank Phillies, 3-0

Hutchinson Is Victor Over Max Butcher.

By the Associated Press.

Philadelphia, Aug. 17.—Ira Hutchinson outpitched Max Butcher, of the Phillies today to gain a 3-to-0 shutout for the Boston Bees. The game was called at the end of the eighth because of rain and darkness.

Hutchinson yielded only six hits, three of them by Buck Jordan. The Phillies threatened several times, but on each occasion Hutchinson retired Emmett Mueller to end the threats.

Butcher, making his second start since joining the Phils, yielded a run in the second on Tony Cuccinello's double and Fletcher's single. The Bees scored two more in the fourth on Cuccinello's homer, his third in two days, and doubles by Fletcher and Lopez.

Boston.	AB	H	O	A
DiM'gio,cf	3	1	1	0
Cooney,rf	4	0	3	0
Stripp,3b	4	1	0	2
Cuc'ello,2b	4	2	1	2
West,lf	3	0	2	0
F'cher,1b	3	0	9	1
Lopez,c	3	1	4	0
W'stler,ss	3	0	2	4
H'hinson,p	3	1	1	1
Totals	30	6	24	11

Phila.	AB	H	O	A
Jordan,3b	3	3	0	2
Mueller,2b	4	0	1	2
Martin,cf	4	1	0	0
W'traub,1b	3	0	13	0
Klein,rf	3	1	1	1
Brack,lf	3	0	2	0
Atwood,c	3	0	4	0
Young,ss	2	0	4	0
*Whitney	1	0	0	0
Sch'ein,ss	0	0	1	0
Butcher,p	3	1	0	0
Totals	29	6	24	12

*Batted for Young in seventh.

Boston	0	1	0	2	0	0	0	0	—3
Philadelphia	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	—0

(Called, rain.)

Runs—Cuccinello (2), Fletcher. Runs batted in—Fletcher, Cuccinello, Lores. Two-base hits—Cuccinello, Fletcher, Lopez, Klein, Jordan, Stripp. Home run—Cuccinello. Double plays—Young to Mueller to Weintraub; Brack to Atwood; Warstler to Fletcher. Left on bases—Boston, 4; Philadelphia, 8. First base on balls—Off Butcher, 1; off Hutchinson, 1. Struck out—By Hutchinson, 3; by Butcher, 2. Umpires—Parker, Moran and Masterkurth. Time of game—One hour 50 minutes.

Washington Park Entries.

By the Associated Press.

FIRST RACE—Six furlongs; purse, $800; claiming; for 2-year-olds.

8	Jay Jane	108	1	*Nana Kate	110
9	Charlotte G.	110	2	Model Mary	115
10	Step Ladder	108	3	Quick Quick	111
11	My Day	108	4	Bien Chance	110
12	*Premeptor	104	5	Plucky Byrd	113
13	*Our Queen	105	6	Master Mort	113
14	On Pudge	110	7	Orchids Next	115

SECOND RACE—One mile (chute); purse, $800; claiming; for 3-year-olds.

5	*Royal Lill	102	1	Back in Time	107
6	Miamba Girl	105	2	Rich Cream	106
7	*Only Son	103	3	Busse T'pet	106
8	Gato	114	4	Ron	109

THIRD RACE—Five and one-half furlongs; purse, $800; for maiden 2-year-olds.

6	*Scotch Trap	110	1	*Match Up	110
7	*Irvana	107	2	Imperial Anhut	115
8	Carl Bad	110	3	Sidney	115
9	Vividity	112	4	Shelby King	115
10	Fly Stone	112	5	*Circus Night	107
11	Pascua	112

FOURTH RACE—Six furlongs; purse, $800; claiming; for 4-year-olds and upward.

10	*M. Caroline	101	2	Spanish Babe	106
11	*Zebar	111	3	John Francis	111
12	Sir Gawaine	116	4	Star Bess	106
13	Budd. Treacy	113	5	The Hare	111
14	*Chipeta	108	6	Cruising	108
15	*Play May	103	7	*Marbold	106
16	*Arthur B.	106	8	*Dedication	108
17	Sir Quest	111	9	*Worthing	106
1	Silver Brass	116

FIFTH RACE—Five and one-half furlongs; purse, $1,000; handicap; for 2-year-old fillies.

6	Burgoo Miss	108	1	Chicarra	106
7	Mordain	106	2	Miss Belsma	115
8	*Hope D'ond	113	3	Flying Lill	115
9	*Blue Su	115	4	†Wafer	115
10	True Enough	101	5	*Egypt. Belle	101
	†Valdina Farm entry.

SIXTH RACE—One mile and 70 yards; purse, $1,000; claiming; for 3-year-olds.

6	Miss Lampley	104	1	Gallant Stroke	108
7	Red Hay	111	2	Startling	111
8	Belle S'meer	106	3	*Mothers Love	103
9	*Colonel Joe	99	4	*Low Cuts	103
10	Inscomira	108	5	World War	111
11	Blond Spook	113

SEVENTH RACE—One mile and 70 yards (chute); purse, $1,000; claiming; for 3-year-olds and upward.

10	Genesis	110	1	Spartan Lady	110
11	*Quotum	107	2	*Pulsion	102
12	Lady Fitz	102	3	Chatterfol	112
13	Scout Azure	112	4	Playaway	112
14	Grey Broom	107	5	Sir Alax	112
15	Wild West	110	6	Run Him	116
16	Spanish Red	112	7	Forceful	115
17	Birds Eye	112	8	Mister Jacko	104
18	Black Hat	112	9	*Sky Breeze	107

EIGHTH RACE—One and one-eighth miles; purse, $1,000; claiming; for 4-year-olds and upward.

6	Carl B.	110	1	Jewelry	110
7	Play Chance	118	2	Emir	118
8	Mr. Mack	114	3	Gayatma	110
9	Wanderobo	112	4	*Towson	107
10	*Polante Seth	108	5	Bolling Point	112

*Apprentice allowance claimed.
Weather, cloudy; track, good.

WASHINGTON PARK SELECTIONS.
(For good track.)

1—Plucky Byrd, Bien Chance, Orchid's Next.
2—Busse Trumpet, Gato, Rich Cream.
3—Vividity, Shelby King, Pascua.
4—Sir Gawaine, Cruising, Buddie Treacy.
5—Wafer, Hope Diamond, Burgoo Miss.
6—Belle Sharmeer, Inscomira, Gallant Stroke.
7—Black Hat, Chatterfol, Spartan Lady.
8—Boiling Point, Emir, Play Chance.
Best bet—Wafer.

—Louisville Times (E).

Thistledown Entries.

By the Associated Press.

FIRST RACE—Six furlongs (chute); purse, $500; claiming; for 4-year-olds

Bosox Defeat Athletics Twice; Browns Upset Indians, 10 to 7

Detail of Fight

Continued from Page 17.

with a right uppercut, but Ambers answered with a clean right to the jaw. They went to the ropes to fight like two men in an alley. Armstrong was low with two lefts and the crowd booed.

Armstrong had his mouthpiece in his right glove. The referee ordered Armstrong to drop his mouthpiece which he did. Armstrong landed ten or twelve body punches without return. Armstrong roughed the champion with elbow punching for fully thirty seconds. The fighters with their heads touching slammed away at each other's body.

Armstrong was low with a left. Ambers tried to escape from the ropes, but the Negro pinned him in as the crowd booed him for hitting with low punches. The referee failed to recognize any foul blows. It was Armstrong's round.

ROUND ELEVEN.

Ambers landed a left to the mouth which drew blood. They stood apart and swung full-sized rights and then Armstrong scored with a smashing right to the head.

Ambers landed a right and left but had his head snapped back by a short right uppercut. Armstrong was cautioned by the referee for hitting low. In a neutral corner Ambers tried to ride Armstrong's punches which were still coming at a mile-a-minute clip. They fought savagely in the corner, both men landing telling right and left swings to the face.

Armstrong scored with a tremendous right and left that stunned Ambers momentarily. The champion weaved under the terrific beating that was being dealt by the Negro.

It was Ambers' round on a foul. Referee Cavanaugh again penalized the Negro for obvious foul tactics.

ROUND TWELVE.

Ambers was first out of his corner, but was backed into it as Armstrong tore in. They swapped right uppercuts in midring and then stood jowl-to-jowl and fought at each other with free-hand punching. Ambers took a left on the head to deliver a right to the jaw. Ambers, against the ropes, scored with three left uppercuts. Henry landed a left to the face in close.

Blood trickled from the mouths of both men as they wrestled and tugged in a neutral corner. Ambers beat Armstrong to the punch with a swinging right. Armstrong missed two rights and lefts to the head. Armstrong was low with a left and was cautioned by the referee.

They fought savagely against the ropes with Armstrong still beating away at the champion's stomach.

Ambers, while he was the winner, was given the round on a foul.

ROUND THIRTEEN.

Ambers walked out and hit Armstrong with a left and peppered away with uppercuts. Armstrong bore in and landed a full right flush on Ambers' jaw that staggered the champion. Ambers retreated slowly as Armstrong tore in trying to put his man away.

Armstrong was swinging from the floor now and belting Ambers with everything he had. Ambers shook Armstrong with two hard rights and lefts to the head and then they went to the ropes to slug it out. Ambers had the better of the exchange. Armstrong appeared a bit dazed but came to life and Ambers beat him to the punch.

Ambers buckled the Negro's knees with full right and left shots to the chin. Armstrong, spitting blood, rallied to drive Ambers to the ropes, but Ambers came back and beat the Negro unmercifully. Ambers made the Garden a bedlam by rocking Armstrong on his heels with rights and lefts to the chin. At the bell every man and woman in the house was standing in cheering for the champion.

Ambers' round by a wide margin.

ROUND FOURTEEN.

Ambers circled cautiously and they clinched. Ambers threw a left hook and took a right uppercut. Ambers was dancing around the Negro now trying to keep him away in order to stab him with long rights. Armstrong's mouth was a smear of blood from left jabs. Armstrong landed a damaging right to the jaw. Armstrong landed a low left.

Armstrong landed a left to the head and they clinched to slug each other in the stomach. They laid against the ropes and let fly with all they had. Ambers connected with a hard left and backed away. Armstrong staggered Ambers with a long right hand.

The champion went to the ropes, but fought back savagely, landing light lefts to the face. Ambers was wobbly legged when the round ended.

Armstrong's round.

ROUND FIFTEEN.

They touched gloves and Ambers danced away as Armstrong moved in close. They ripped uppercuts at each other and then stood toe-to-toe in midring and mauled away at one another.

They roughed it up in Ambers' corner as Lou seemed intent only on protecting himself. Ambers scored two left chops and then backed to the ropes to take a beating about the head.

Armstrong butted Ambers with his head and the referee had to part them in a clinch. Both men landed whistling rights and then bulled about in a neutral corner.

Armstrong was the aggressor as the champion jumped away. They fell against the ropes and Ambers all but went through them. They came together savagely and were slugging away madly at the bell.

They fought for ten seconds after the bell as the crowd stood up and roared and sailed straw hats into the ring.

Ambers round.

Fight

Continued from Page 17.

me a lot more trouble than Barney Ross because of his fast-moving style and unexpected punches. I'll say he's a game one. I fed him plenty of punches."

"We have no plans," said Manager Eddie Mead. "We'll be willing to defend the featherweight title in Cleveland in December if Henry doesn't decide to let it ride. We'll know within a week. Right now we'll all take a rest."

Weill Protests Verdict.

Ambers took his defeat stoically, but not Manager Al Weill.

"It was plain murder," shouted Weill. "Lou won that fight from here to the Battery. They let Armstrong get away with everything that isn't in the book—elbows, butting, low belts and everything else. It was terrible."

Ambers wouldn't say whether he thought he had won or lost but he freely admitted he had been in a fight.

"Armstrong is a good sharp puncher," he said, "but he didn't hurt me much. Even when he floored me I wasn't bothered much. I could have got right up again. I'd like to fight him again. I'll promise it'll be another good show."

Chalky Wright, of Los Angeles, 125½, knocked out Al Reid, of New York, 125¼, in 2:31 of the fourth round in a bout waged after the main go.

The Preliminaries

Slugger" White, colored lightweight of Athens, Ga., and one of Ambers' sparring partners, won the opening four-round bout by decision over Sammy Julian, of Brooklyn. White weighed 135, the same as Julian. There were few vacant seats left at this time.

In the second preliminary, Jimmy Garrison, Kansas City lightweight, won a six-round decision over George Zangaras, of New York. Garrison weighed 135 pounds; Zangaras 133½. The Garden seemed to be jammed now.

Small Montana, of the Philippines, former world flyweight champion, won a six-round decision over Tommy Forte, Philadelphia bantam. Montana weighed 106¼ pounds; Forte, 115¾.

Sammy Luftspcing, 146½, Toronto, won the six-rounder before the main event, taking the decision over Salvy Saban, 147, New York.

End Slump By 4-3, 5-0; Heving Star

Former Indian Hurls Shutout, Starts Three Double Plays.

By the Associated Press.

Boston, Aug. 17.—The Red Sox broke up a six-game losing slump today with 21 hits and a double victory over the Philadelphia Athletics, 4 to 3 and 5 to 0.

The opener, which came after a long, uphill struggle, gave Jack Wilson a hard-earned victory over George Caster, although he wasn't around at the end. John Peacock, who batted for him in the eighth, knocked in the tying run with a double and scored a moment later on Doc Cramer's single. Then Archie McKain held the A's in check for the final inning.

Jimmy Foxx hit his thirty-second homer in the opener.

Joe Heving, the 33-year-old veteran whom the Sox picked up from Cleveland recently, hurled the shutout in the nightcap, allowed seven hits and started all three of Boston's double plays.

Making his first start for Boston, he had only one bad inning, the fourth, in which he gave up three hits. Then, with the bases full, and one out, he stopped Sam Chapman's drive and started one of the double plays.

Phila.	AB	H	O	A	Boston.	AB	H	O	A
Sperry,2b.	5	1	2	0	Cramer,cf.	5	3	5	0
Moses,rf.	4	1	2	0	Vosmik,lf.	5	1	5	0
Finney,1b	5	3	13	0	Foxx,1b...	4	2	4	0
Hayes,c...	5	1	2	0	Cronin,ss.	3	2	2	1
John'n,cf.	2	1	3	0	Higgins,3b	4	0	2	0
S.C'man,lf	4	0	1	0	B.C'man,rf	4	1	1	0
Ambler,ss.	3	0	1	3	Doerr,2b..	3	0	1	2
Parker,3b.	4	2	0	1	Desautels,c	3	2	6	1
Caster,p..	3	1	0	3	Wilson,p..	3	0	0	3
					*Peacock..	1	1	0	0
Totals.	35	10	24	9	McKain,p.	0	0	0	0
					Totals.	35	12	27	7

*Batted for Wilson in eighth.

Philadelphia	0	0	3	0	0	0	0	0	0	—3
Boston	0	0	0	0	1	0	1	2	x	—4

Runs—Moses, Finney, Caster, Cramer, Foxx, B. Chapman, Peacock. Errors—Johnson, Ambler, Parker. Runs batted in—Finney (2), Hayes, Cramer, Foxx, Cronin. Two-base hits—Finney (2), Hayes, Caster, Peacock. Three-base hit—Johnson. Home run—Foxx. Sacrifices — Caster, Doerr. Double plays—Cronin to Doerr to Foxx. Left on bases—Philadelphia, 10; Boston, 10. First base on balls—Off Caster, 2; off Wilson, 4. Struck out—By Caster, 1; by Wilson, 5. Hits—Off Wilson, 9 in 8 innings; off McKain, 1 in 1 inning. Winning pitcher—Wilson. Umpires—Kolls, Basil, Rommel. Time of game—One hour 50 minutes.

Second Game.

Phila.	AB	H	O	A	Boston.	AB	H	O	A
Sperry,2b.	4	0	3	2	Cramer,cf.	4	1	2	0
Moses,rf.	4	1	0	0	Vosmik,lf.	2	1	0	0
Finney,1b	4	2	7	0	Foxx,1b...	3	1	14	1
Hayes,c...	4	2	6	0	Cronin,ss	4	1	1	2
John'n,cf.	4	2	3	0	Higgins,3b	4	0	1	3
S.C'man,lf	4	0	0	0	B.C'man,rf	4	2	1	0
Ambler,ss.	2	0	0	1	Doerr,2b..	4	1	2	4
Parker,3b.	2	0	0	3	Peacock,c.	4	1	2	1
Potter,p..	3	0	0	3	Heving,p..	3	1	1	8
Totals.	32	7	24	10	Totals.	32	9	27	19

Philadelphia	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	—0
Boston	2	0	0	3	0	0	0	0	x	—5

Runs—Cramer, Vosmik, Foxx, B. Chapman, Doerr. Error—Cronin. Runs batted in—Cramer (2), Foxx, Cronin, Higgins. Two-base hits—Finney, Vosmik, Cronin, B. Chapman. Sacrifice—Heving. Double plays—Heving to Peacock to Foxx, Heving to Doerr to Foxx, Heving to Cronin to Foxx. Left on bases—Philadelphia, 6; Boston, 7. First base on balls—Off Potter, 2; off Heving, 1. Struck out—By Potter, 5; by Heving, 4. Hit by pitched ball—By Potter (Vosmik). Umpires—Basil, Rommel and Kolls. Time of game—One hour 45 minutes.

Record Field In Muny Golf

A record-breaking field of 250 players, including 56 teams, also a new mark, have entered the National Public Links championship, starting Monday, August 22, over the Highland Park Municipal Course, Cleveland. The field includes 72 communities from 29 States, districts and territories, according to the United States Golf Association.

The tourney will be played over the old and new course at Highland, with half the field in Monday and Tuesday's qualifying rounds playing the old and half the new. Andrew Oliveri, District champion, will play the old with Anthony Klimecko, of Niagara Falls, at 10:10 Monday and 12:45 Tuesday.

Jimmy Gipe, one of the four members of Washington's Harding Cup team, will play the old course with Milt Coggins, of Phoenix, Ariz., at 11:15 the first day and 8:40 on Tuesday.

Bob Morris, runner-up to Oliveri, will play the new layout with Fred Whittaker, of New Haven, Conn., at 10:40 Monday and 1:15 Tuesday, while Bradley Burrows, seven-time qualifier from the District and three-time city champion, will play in company of Arthur A. Wienke, of South Milwaukee, Wis.

The field includes Defending Champion David Mitchell, Atlanta; Andrew Szwedko, of Pittsburgh; John Armacost, Baltimore, and Tommy and Domenic Strafaci, of Brooklyn's golfing Strafacis.

The team championship and Harding Cup, going to the four players from a city with the lowest gross score in the two-day qualifying rounds, will be defended by the Sacramento, Calif., team.

Graham and McCulloch Win in Quarterfinals

In quarter-final matches in the Women's Tennis League tournament yesterday on the Rock Creek courts, Margaret Graham defeated Hazel Bishop, 6—2, 4—6, 6—4, and Edith McCulloch beat Kay Baker, 4—6, 6—2, 6—2.

The semifinals are scheduled today, with Charlotte Decker facing Miss McCulloch at 10 a. m., and Miss Graham meeting Joan Bransford at 4.

Also carded for today are consolation matches between Dorothy Harding and Johanna Zeltemeier at 5 p. m. and Christine Peebles and Bernice Kislin at 6.

BASEBALL TODAY 1:30 P.M.
DOUBLEHEADER
Washington vs. New York
AMERICAN LEAGUE PARK

Footlight and Football Stars Meet at Banquet

Post Staff Photo.

"Slingin' Sammy" Baugh, champion forward passer of the National Football League, pictured with Corinne Griffith, former stage and screen beauty and in private life Mrs. George P. Marshall, as the Redskins were guests of the Shoreham Hotel management last night.

Mather Golf Tickets on Sale Today

Mrs. Giles Is Winner at Beaver Dam; Golf Notes.

By Merrell W. Whittlesey.

Tickets for the Warner Mather benefit exhibition matches between Baltimore and Washington professionals were placed on sale yesterday at all local golf shops. The price of the tickets is $1 and that entitles the holder to a voice in the distribution of several merchandise prizes, including sets of clubs, golf balls, jackets, umbrellas, etc.

The first match is carded September 11 at Indian Spring and the second the following Sunday at Woodholme, in Pikesville. Mather, a former professional at Woodholme and Rodgers Forge and Middle Atlantic P. G. A. member, has been ill for several years.

Wiffy Cox, Leo Walper, Cliff Spencer, George Diffenbaugh, Robert Barnett and Fred McLeod will play for the local team while Andy Gibson, Ralph Beach, Johnny Bass, Charles Betschler, Carroll McMasters and Willie Schreiber are members of the Baltimore invaders.

BEAVER DAM.

Mrs. K. S. Giles, Indian Spring linkswoman, won the visitors flag tourney in the ladies' day event at Beaver Dam yesterday, placing her final shot 12 feet from the pin on the eighteenth green. Mrs. Giles scored an 87 for the round, including a deuce on the 165-yard fourteenth hole that lacked only two inches of being a hole in one.

Dorothy Campbell, the 14-year-old St. Louis junior champion, was second, playing her last shot in the ditch on the home hole, aided by a 12 handicap. Mrs. J. C. Dale, of Kenwood, was third, finishing 7 inches from the cup on the seventeenth hole.

Mrs. M. A. Dent won the members' tourney, placing her final shot 6 inches from the pin on the seventeenth green.

WOODMONT.

Gene Larkin, Woodmont professional, and Dr. Milton Harris, club champion, will form the local team's No. 1 duo against Ralph Beacon and partner when the Suburban Club golfers seek their second win of the season Sunday at the Bethesda course.

The entire Woodmont team will line up like this: Howard Lordlinger and W. Goldheim, C. Schulman and E. Melnicker, Vic Zeve and W. Slepian, A. Schneider and A. Steinem, Lou Harris and Gus Ring, R. Goldsmith and M. Eisman, N. Bord and S. Galanty, and Jerry Brode and B. Wilner.

CHEVY CHASE.

Lewis Worsham, jr., assistant to Robert T. Barnett, at Chevy Chase, will play in the Lake Placid Open August 26 to 28. Worsham and Barnett plan to play in the Lancaster (Pa.) pro-amateur on Monday, with the former continuing to Lake Placid for two days' practice before the event.

Worsham finished three strokes out of the money in the Cleveland Open, finishing with a 69 for a 297 total for the four rounds. Eight penalty shots hurt his chances of finishing in the money.

KENWOOD.

George Diffenbaugh, Kenwood professional, and Wiffy Cox, of Congressional, who were responsible for the pros competitive schedule in the city last year, will attempt to salvage a fall card for the golf fans in a meeting today at Kenwood.

TRICO WINDSHIELD WIPERS
SALES & SERVICE
CREEL BROTHERS
1311 14th St. N. W. DEcatur 425

BICYCLES REPAIRED
Called for and Delivered
CORR'S BICYCLE & SPORT STORE
5535 Ill. Ave. (Opp. 5522 Ga. Ave.)
Open Evenings and Sunday Mornings
Phone GE. 2255

Dusek, Robert to Face In Mat Feature Tonight

Yvon Robert, handsome French Canadian and former blacksmith, moves into Turner's Arena, Fourteenth and W streets, tonight, to meet Emil Dusek, the generalissimo of the Dusek "Riot Squad," in the headline wrestling match.

Promoter Turner announced the matches are being held indoors at the Arena in view of the uncertain weather. He has installed giant electric fans to keep the Arena cool.

Robert will be on the "spot" tonight, for on the same card will be Cliff Olson, the Minnesota Swede, who broke Yvon's leg in a championship match in Washington two years ago. Olson, it is recalled, at first said he wouldn't accept the title, but later, like the tricky Swede he is, declared himself the legitimate successor to Robert's crown.

Olson meets Reb Russell, the cow hand from the Rio Grande, in the semi-windup, and it so happens that Russell was given a thorough trouncing by Robert in July, 1937, at the Stadium.

Robert won the title a few years ago from Dano O'Mahoney, and his victims include most of the leading lights of the mat game.

Both Emil Dusek and Olson were victors last Thursday at the Arena, the Dusek running wild to beat Abie Coleman, the Swede winning a riotous match from Paul Boesch.

In 30-minute bouts Bibber (Fat Man) McCoy, winner of the battle royal, meets Jack League; Abie Coleman engages Ed Newman and Ed Meske takes on Steve Budyniss.

Sandlot Pickups

Hitting and hurling highlights: This is really stinging the ball . . . Bobby Waters, who plays leftfield for the Takoma Tigers, slammed six hits in six trips to the plate as his chums walloped the Mulhall nine, 22 to 9, in an independent tilt last Sunday . . . Toby Bright, Post all-high second team pitcher, who hurled for the Western High School team during the past interhigh series, is doing a great job on the sandlots . . . He struck out 12, only walked 2, and allowed but two hits as his club—the Heurich Brewers—nosed out the Seven-Up Athletic Club, 2 to 1, in a well played Industrial League engagement.

• • • •

It seems as though Sherrod and Billy Robertson, nephews of Prexy Clark Griffith, are leading the District Plumbers to the second half National City League B title . . . In Sunday's game against the Anacostia Motors, Billy whacked a homer with one mate aboard to give his club a 7-5 victory . . . Sherrod nipped the enemy hurler for three hits in four attempts . . . It should be mentioned, however, that the Plumbers own a pitching sensation in the person of Wee Willie Shaeffer . . . This young man has won every game—six all told—that he has twirled for the league leaders . . . His last time out, he pitched 4-hit ball . . . Incidentally, as long as we are talking about the District Plumbers, a correction is in order . . . Sunday's edition carried the story that the Plumbers had clinched the second half League B crown . . . That was the information that we received . . . It develops that there is one game yet to be played and if the Plumbers win, they will be in . . . But if they lose, and the Anacostia Motors triumph, the league will be thrown into a tie between the Plumbers and the Motor aggregation.

• • • •

Softball smatter: . . . The United States Housing Authority softball team, which won the first half title in the PWA section also clinched the second half crown. . . . The Land Office ten captured both the first and second half title in the Interior section . . . The two clubs will meet in a three-game series for the league championship . . . Due to the fact that Land Office played its entire schedule without a defeat, and the USHA squad lost only one tussle, the series should disclose some first-class softball.

Linen Suits Properly Cleaned and Pressed. 75c.
Full protection by insurance parkway CLEANERS & DYERS
5010 CONN. AVE.
Phone 3600
Plant 8107 Conn. Ave. KEn. 490

Relieve Torture of Athlete's Foot Tonight
Druggist's "Double-Action" Ringworm Treatment Must Give Relief or Your Money Back
Medical authorities agree that Athlete's Foot discomfort is caused by both a vegetable (fungus) and an animal parasite. Often there is a "mixed" infection. That's why it's important that you use a treatment designed to kill both types of germs. What you need is A-ZIM SOLUTION. It penetrates deeply into the cracked infected areas. First application stops the itching. Quickly attacks both types of parasites and helps to speed away the scales, sores and blisters. Easy to use. Try A-ZIM SOLUTION for 5 days. If your Athlete's Foot, ringworm or jockey itch does not improve to your entire satisfaction, your money will be refunded. Only 50c at druggists on this positive iron-clad guarantee.

Rizzo Single Gives Bucs 4-3 Victory

Scores Lloyd Waner in 10th to Beat Cardinals.

By the Associated Press.

St. Louis, Aug. 17.—The league-leading Pirates shook off a spell of legarthy at the last minute today to protect their five-game lead over the Giants with a 4 to 3 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals in 10 innings.

It was the "Poison" boys—Paul and Lloyd Waner—who played the biggest part in the rallies that brought Pie Traynor's crew through. But Johnny Dickshot, Pep Young and Johnny Rizzo and Relief Pitcher Bill Swift, who held the Redbirds hitless in the final two frames, also were important factors.

Lloyd Waner doubled in the tenth and scored the winning run on John Rizzo's single. "Little Poison" also led the two-run rally in the sixth with a double. Paul Waner drove him in with a mighty triple and then "Big Poison" scored on Johnny Rizzo's long fly.

In the ninth the Pirates tied up the score when Brubaker singled, went to third on Young's double and scored on Dickshot's pinch single. After that Swift relieved Joe Bowman on the hill and the Cards continued as powerless as they had been since the second innng.

The Cardinals were off to a 2-run lead in the first on singles by Stu and Pepper Martin, Medwick's infield-out and Johnny Mize's only hit of the game. In the second Mickey Owen poled a homer to complete the Redbird scoring.

Pittsburgh	AB	H	O	A	St. Louis.	AB	H	O	A
Handley,3b	5	1	0	5	Martin,ss.	4	0	4	0
L. Waner,cf	5	3	4	0	B.M'tin,2b.	5	1	4	2
P. Waner,rf	5	2	3	0	J.M'tin,rf.	5	3	0	0
Rizzo,lf...	5	2	1	0	Medwick,lf	4	0	2	1
V'shan,ss.	4	2	1	3	Mize,1b...	4	1	8	1
Brubaker,1b	5	1	7	1	Fletcher,3b.	3	1	1	3
Young,2b..	4	3	3	2	Myers,ss..	3	0	2	6
Berres,c..	3	0	4	1	†Bo'garay,	1	0	0	0
Todd,c....	1	0	2	0	Brown,ss..	0	0	0	0
Brandt,p..	0	0	0	1	Owen,c....	4	1	3	3
‡Tobin....	1	0	0	0	Walkup,p..	0	0	0	0
Bowman,p	2	0	0	0	Shoun,p...	0	0	0	0
†Dickshot	1	1	0	0
Swift,p...	0	0	0	0	Totals.	38	8	30	17
Totals.	41	15	30	12

*Batted for Brandt in third.
†Batted for Bowman in ninth.
‡Batted for Myers in ninth.

Pittsburgh	0	0	0	0	0	2	0	0	1	—4
St. Louis	2	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	—3

Runs—L. Waner (2), P. Waner, Handley, S. Martin, J. Martin, Owen. Errors—Rizzo, Bowman. Runs batted in—Medwick, Mize, Owen, P. Waner, Rizzo (2), Dickshot. Two-base hits—L. Waner (2), Ycnuz (2). Three-base hits—Handley, P. Waner. Home run—Owen. Sacrifice—Moore. Double plays—Medwick to Gutteridge to Myers, Gutteridge to S. Martin to Mize. Left on bases—Pittsburgh, 9; St. Louis, 6. First base on balls—Off Henshaw, 1; off Shoun, 1. Struck out—By Bowman, 2; by Swift, 1; by Henshaw, 2. Hits—Off Brandt, 4 in 2 innings; off Bowman, 4 in 6 innings; off Swift, 0 in 2 innings; off Henshaw, 14 in 9 innings (none out in tenth); off Shoun, 1 in 1 inning. Winning pitcher—Swift. Losing pitcher — Henshaw. Umpires — Ballanfant, Klem and Sears. Time of game—Two hours 23 minutes.

Here's What to Do When Snake Gets Ball.

Milledgeville, Ga., Aug. 17 (AP)—Just in case any golfer encounters a similar situation and wants to avoid a stroke penalty, here's what Lonnie Minor did when his ball plopped into the middle of an angry rattlesnake's coil:

It was on the eighth hole at the Echetah Country Club, Minor related. A slice carried the ball into the rough. The caddy investigated sufficiently to find the ball wrapped 'rounds by the snake's body, and eight rattles buzzing busily.

Minor killed the snake with an iron and played the ball from its original lie.

Close Match To Leapley

Cook Defeated, 1 Up, in Rock Creek Tourney.

Bill Leapley's one-up triumph over Thomas Cook was the only close match in the Rock Creek midsummer tournament yesterday as Bobby Bowers, Larry Byers and George Nealis and Leapley won their way to the semifinal round.

Bowers, medalist and favorite, won 4 and 3 over Joe Rodgers, scoring his second eagle of the tournament on the third hole of B course by driving the green and dropping the putt. Byers, the southpaw stroker, required only 14 holes to win 5 and 4 over Harold Kelley.

Nealis, who tied Bowers for the medal and lost in the playoff, scored the most one-sided win of the tourney over Roy Loy, 7 and 5.

Anne Dolan, the host club waitress, advanced to the semifinals of the second flight with a 3 and 2 triumph over Jimmy Anderson, while Mrs. A. Suess, the other woman player in the event, lost in the third flight to Claude McCredie.

Meanwhile Mrs. Suess' husband, Onthony, a Post printer, defeated A. C. Nelson, Post proofreade., by a 4 and 2 margin, and should he and McCredie win their matches today he will have an opportunity to avenge Mrs. Suess' defeat in the finals tomorrow.

Bowers, the clerk at Rock Creek, and Leapley, schoolboy golfer, meet in the upper bracket semifinal today and the winner will play the Nealis-Byers victor for the title tomorrow.

Championship Flight.

Bobby Bowers defeated Joe Rodgers, 4 and 3; Bill Leapley defeated Thomas Cook, 1 up; Larry Byers defeated Harold Kelley, 5 and 4; George Nealis defeated Roy Loy, 7 and 5.

Second Flight.

Anne Dolan defeated Jimmy Anderson, 3 and 2; L. Liebman defeated James Patterson, 4 and 3; Eddie Hutchinson defeated Dick Schattman, 2 and 1; Dick Gentry defeated Eugene Fling by default.

Third Flight.

Anthony Suess defeated A. C. Nelson, 4 and 2; Claude McCredie defeated Mrs. A. Suess, 4 and 3. Morris Polliman and W. M. Kelley drew byes.

Today's Pairings.

Bowers vs. Leapley, Byers vs. Nealis. Dolan vs. Liebman, Hutchinson vs. Gentry. Suess vs. Polliman, Kelley vs. McCredie.

Allen Fails In Attempt To Win 14th

Bell Leads Attack With Homer, Double and Two Singles.

By the Associated Press.

Cleveland, Aug. 17.—The St. Louis Browns knocked three Cleveland pitchers around for 16 hits today, with Beau Bell contributing four, and came out on top, 10-7.

The Brownies stomped on Johnny Allen, trying for his fourteenth victory of the season, with nine hits in the first five innings, and Allen retired to see if Al Milnar and Willis Hudlin could keep him from going into the records as the losing pitcher. They couldn't.

A drizzle made pitching difficult, Both Allen and Fred Johnson, the winning pitcher, cut loose with two wild pitches apiece.

Johnson also lasted only five innings, getting into trouble in the fifth when the Indians were able to put across four runs on four hits, the two wild pitches and a walk. Ed Cole finished for the Browns.

Bell batted in four runs, one a fifth-inning double. His homer in the ninth started the inning.

Earl Averill tried to put the Indians back in the running with his thirteenth home run of the season, in the ninth, but it was in vain.

St. Louis.	AB	H	O	A	Cleveland.	AB	H	O	A
Almada,cf	4	2	5	0	Lary,ss...	5	1	5	2
McG'nn,1b	6	1	9	0	Ca'pbell,rf	4	2	0	0
B.Mills,lf.	4	1	2	0	Pytlak,c..	4	2	6	1
Clift,3b...	5	2	1	5	J.Heath,lf.	4	2	2	0
Bell,rf...	5	4	0	0	Averill,cf.	3	3	4	0
Kress,ss..	4	1	2	2	Trosky,1b..	4	1	7	0
T.Heath,c.	5	3	4	0	Keltner,3b.	5	0	0	2
Heffner,2b	5	1	3	3	Hale,2b....	4	2	2	1
Johnson,p.	2	1	0	1	Allen,p....	2	0	0	1
*McQuinn.	1	0	0	0	†Weatherly	1	0	0	0
Cole,p....	2	1	0	2	Milmar,p..	0	0	0	0
					‡Solters...	1	0	0	0
Totals.	43	16	27	10	Hudlin,p..	0	0	0	0
					‡Hemsley..	1	0	0	0
					Totals..	39	12	27	8

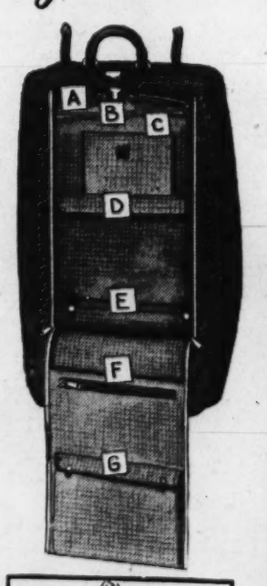
*Batted for Johnson in sixth.
†Batted for Allen in fifth.
‡Batted for Milnar in seventh.
‡Batted for Hudlin in ninth.

St. Louis	0	0	2	1	4	0	2	0	1	—10
Cleveland	1	0	1	0	4	0	0	0	1	—7

Runs—Almada, B. Mills (2), Clift, Bell (3), Kress, T. Heath, Johnson, J. Heath, Campbell (3), Pytlak, Keltner, Averill. Error—Keltner. Runs batted in—J. Heath (2), Averill (2), Keltner, Hale, Almada, B. Mills (2), Heffner, Bell (4), T. Heath. Two-base hits—T. Heath, Campbell, Hale, Bell, Clift. Three-base hit—Averill. Home run—Bell, Averill. Sacrifice—Kress. Double play—Kress to Heffner to Clift. Left on bases—St. Louis, 10; Cleveland, 11. First base on balls—Off Johnson, 2; off Cole, 4; off Allen, 1; off Milnar, 1; off Hudlin, 1. Struck out—By Johnson, 1; by Cole, 2; by Allen, 5; by Milnar, 1. Hits—Off Johnson, 10 in 5 innings; off Cole, 2 in 4 innings; off Allen, 9 in 5 innings; off Milnar, 3 in 2 innings; off Hudlin, 4 in 2 innings. Hit by pitched ball—By Allen (Almada). Wild pitches—Allen (2), Johnson (2), Cole. Passed ball—T. Heath. Winning pitcher—Johnson. Losing pitcher—Allen. Umpires—Rue, Grieve and Hubbard. Time of game—Two hours 23 minutes.

Additional Sports On Page 22

The Modern Man's Way of Going Places
Val-A-Pak
"The Traveling Valet"
8.95
Others Up to $25



The Val-A-Pak is more than just a depository for your clothes. It is, as its name implies, a "traveling valet" that is always considerate of your wearing apparel, delivering your clothes to you exactly as they were when you placed them in its care.

This Is What It Holds

A. Regulation suit hangers.
B. Pocket for underclothes and socks.
C. Pocket for handkerchiefs and jewelry.
D. Pocket for shirts without folding.
E. Shoe and soiled linen pocket.
F. Waterproof toilet articles pocket.
G. Small accessories pocket.

Luggage Shop—Second Floor

Keeps clothes freshly pressed for entire trip

A lightweight bag that makes a smart appearance

Phone DIstrict 9400 or Mail This Coupon
The Hecht Co.
F St. at Seventh
Washington, D. C.
Kindly send me ( ) Val-A-Paks at $8.95.
Charge ( ) C. O. D. ( ) Cash ( )
Name .....
Address .....
City .....

The Hecht Co.
F St. at Seventh NAtional 3100

"COULDN'T PASS UP DODGE TRUCKS AT THESE PRICES"
says Edward C. Reif, Berwyn, Ill.

"Famous Dodge Quality At Today's Price Means Big Savings" say Buyers Everywhere

DODGE ½-TON PICKUP—116" W. B.—Has famous Dodge economy features. Will haul full loads at real savings. See your Dodge dealer.

DODGE 1½-TON STAKE—133" W. B. with 9' body and 159" W. B. with 12' body—Many extra-quality features make it today's big truck value. See your Dodge dealer.

"As an experienced truck user," says Mr. Reif, "I know that Dodge trucks have many extra quality features that cut upkeep expense and make them last longer. When I checked up recently and found that today Dodge quality is priced right down in the lowest price group I simply couldn't pass up Dodge trucks at these prices."

SAVE GAS, OIL, TIRES! Think what it means when you can get all the famous Dodge extra-quality features at today's low prices! See your Dodge dealer... learn how easily you can start saving money with a new Dodge truck right away.

This advertisement endorsed by the Engineering Department, DODGE Division of Chrysler Corporation, Manufacturers of Dependable Cars and Trucks.

NEW Cab-Over-Engine
Combines accessibility, fine appearance, real comfort for driver. Easy to get in and out. Pictured is 1½-ton stake, 133" wheelbase, 12 foot body. (108" W. B. available for tractor service.)

LIBERAL BUDGET TERMS
Many are now operating Dodge trucks because of the low down payment and liberal terms made available to them.
DODGE TRUCK PRICES DELIVERED IN DETROIT
Including Federal Taxes. (Local, State Taxes Not Included)

½-TON 116" WHEELBASE CHASSIS $475
½-Ton Pickup—116" W. B.... $600
½-Ton Panel—116" W. B.... $605*
¾-Ton Express—120" W. B.... $604
Price includes front bumper, spare tire and tube. *Also includes rear bumper.

1½-TON 133" WHEELBASE CHASSIS $604
1½-Ton Chassis and Cab—133" W. B. $702
1½-Ton Stake—133" W. B. $798
1½-Ton Stake—159" W. B. $843
Price includes front bumper.

Other models of ½, ¾, 1, 1½, 2 and 3-ton, at correspondingly low prices. FOR DELIVERED PRICES IN Y

Wheat Prices Advance With U.S. Price Aims

Rise Was 4 1/8 Cents Above Previous 5-Year Low.

By the Associated Press.

Chicago, Aug. 17.—Largely in response to United States Government efforts for higher wheat prices, the Chicago market moved up 1¾ cents today, with gains mostly held. The extreme rise was to 4¼ cents above five-year low record quotations reached yesterday.

Sharp notice in particular was taken of a cable from a leading Chicago grain specialist now in Europe that indicated the Government would purchase Chicago September wheat futures, and would accept delivery on such contracts. A bulge of nearly 3 cents a bushel at Minneapolis was also a stimulus, together with much talk prevalent that recent bottom prices had discounted all that was bearish in supply and demand conditions.

At the close, Chicago wheat futures were ¾@1¼ cents higher, compared with yesterday's finish, September 63¼@63⅜. December, 65⅜@65⅝. Corn ¾@1½ down, September 52@52⅛, December, 48¼@48⅜. Oats ⅛ off to ¼ up, rye showing ¼ up, rye showing ¼@⅜ gain, and provisions a bulge of 7 to 27 cents.

Futures Price Range.

	Open.	High.	Low.	Close.
Wheat—
September	62⅜	64⅛	62¼	63¼
December	64¾	66⅛	64½	65⅝
March	67⅛	67⅞	67¼	67¼
May	67⅞	68¾	67¼	68⅛
Corn—
September	52⅜	53⅜	52	52
December	48¾	49⅜	48¼	48¼
March	50	50	50	50
May	51¼	52	51	51
Oats—
September	22⅞	23⅛	22⅞	22⅞
December	23½	23¾	23½	23¾
May	25¼	25⅝	25¼	25¼
Soybeans—
October	77¾	77¾	77¾	77¾
December	76¾	77⅜	76¾	*77
May	.....	79	79	79
Rye—
September	42	43	41¾	42
December	43	44¼	42⅝	43
May	45⅝	46⅝	45½	45¾
Lard—
September	8.20	8.30	8.20	8.25
October	8.30	8.40	8.30	8.35
December	8.30	8.35	8.28	8.32
January	8.30	8.35	8.30	8.32

Cash Grain Prices.

WHEAT—No. 3 red, 66; No. 2 mixed, 65¾@66¼; No. 1 yellow hard, 66; No. 4 mixed, 58¾.

CORN—No. 3 mixed, 54½; No. 1 yellow, 55¼@55¾; No. 3, 55; No. 3 white, 53¾.

OATS—No. 2 mixed, 22@24½; No. 2 white, 26; No. 4, 20@23¾.

BUCKWHEAT—No. 2, 2.25@2.40 nominal.

BARLEY—Sales, 42@60; feed, 35@52 nominal; malting, 50@66 nominal.

TIMOTHY SEED—2.75@2.85.

New Insurance Lower in July

New York, Aug. 16 (AP).—New life insurance for the month of July was 28.9 per cent less than the corresponding month of 1937, while the total for the first seven months of the year was 23.5 per cent under the same period last year, the Association of Life Insurance Presidents reported today.

The association's report summarizes the new paid-for business of 40 companies having 82 per cent of the total life insurance outstanding in all United States legal reserve companies.

The July total was $528,452,000, against $743,716,000 in the same month last year. The total for the seven months was $4,213,221,000, compared with $5,504,983,000 in the 1937 corresponding period.

Money Markets

Foreign Exchange.

New York, Aug. 17 (AP).—Closing rates follow: Great Britain in dollars, others in cents.

Great Britain, 4.88⅛; 60-day bills, 4.87⅝.

Montreal in New York	99.60	Yugoslavia	2.34
New York in Montreal	100.39⅛	Netherlands	54.66
Belgium	16.83½	Norway	24.53
Czecho'vakia	3.45½	Poland	18.87
Denmark	21.79	Portugal	4.43⅝
Finland	2.17	Rumania	.75
France	2.72⅞	Sweden	25.17
Germany	40.12	Switzerland	22.93
Travel	22.45	*Argentine	32.83
Benevolent	19.95	*Brazil (free)	5.90
Greece	.90	*Mexico City	20.28
Hungary	19.85	Japan	28.46
Italy	5.26¼	Hongkong	30.56
		Shanghai	16.85

*Nominal.

New York.

Bar silver 42¾; unchanged.

London.

Money, ½ per cent. Discount rates, short and 3-month bills, ⅝ per cent.

Bar gold, 142s 4½d, off 4 pence. (Equivalent $34.77.)

Bar silver, 19⅛d, off ⅛. (Equivalent 42.72 cents.)

Paris.

Three per cent rentes in the bourse were 73.35; 4½s "A," 76.80; 4½s 1937, 136.75.

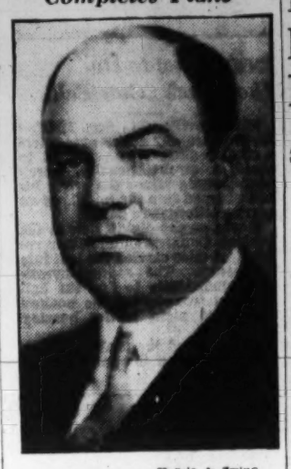
Bank Stocks

New York, Aug. 17 (AP).—(Investment Bankers Conf., Inc.).

Bank & Trust.	Bid	Asked
Bk of Am NTS (SF) (2.40)	48½	50½
Bank of Man (.96e)	16¼	17¾
Bankers Tr (2)	45¼	47¼
Bklyn Tr (4)	79	84
Cen Han Bk & Tr (4)	82½	85½
Chase Nat (1.40)	30½	31½
Chem Bk & Tr (1.80)	39¼	41¼
Commercial (6)	131	137
Cont Bk & Tr (.80)	24½	26½
Corn Ex Bk & T (3)	47¼	48¼
Empire Tr (1)	15¾	16¾
First Nat (Bos) (2)	38½	40½
First Natl (100)	1660	1700
Guaranty Tr (12)	238	243
Irving Tr (.60)	10½	11½
Manufacturers Tr (2)	37¾	39¾
Manufacturers Tr pf (2)	51	53
Natl City (1)	24½	26
N Y Trust (5)	83	86
Public (1½)	27¼	28¾
Title G & T	5¼	6¼
Insurance.
Aetna Cas (3a)	92½	96½
Aetna Ins (1.60)	44½	46½
Aetna Life (1a)	24½	26½
Am Equit (1)	25¼	26¾
Am Ins Nwk (1.2a)	12¼	13¾
Am Reins (1.60)	33¾	35¾
Am Reserve (1½)	28½	30
Am Surety (2½)	40½	43½
Automobile (1)	31	33
Bait Amer (.20a)	6	7
Carolina (1.30)	23½	25
City of N Y (1.20)	18½	19¾
Conn Gen Lif (.80)	24	25¾
Contin Cas (1.20)	30½	32½
Fid & Dep (4a)	106	110
Firem's Nwk (.30)	8½	9¾
Frank Fire (1a)	23½	26¾
Gen Reinsur (1e)	27½	30¼
Glens Falls (1.60)	41¾	43¾
Globe & Rep (½)	13	14½
Globe & Rut	30¼	33
Gt Amer Ins (1a)	24½	26
Hanover (1.60)	32	34½
Hartford Fire (2)	73½	75½
Home Fire Sec	2½	3½
Home Ins (1a)	29	30½
Homestead (1)	15¼	16¾
Knickerbocker (½)	10¼	12¼
Lincoln Fire	2½	3½
Marriand Cas	4½	5½
Mass Bond (3½)	52½	55¼
Mere Ins Pr (.32)	5¼	6¼
Natl Fire (2)	61	63
Natl Liberty (.20a)	7	8
N. Hampshire (1.60)	43½	45½
N Y Fire (.55e)	14¼	16¼
Nor River (1)	26½	28¼
Phoenix (2a)	79½	83½
Prov Wash (1)	33½	35½
Rever (P) In (1.20a)	23	24
Rh Hl Ins (.40)	7½	8
Rossia Ins	5½	6¼
St. Paul Fire (8)	206	214
Springfield (4½a)	123½	126½
Sun Life (15)	475	525
Travelers (16)	449	458
U S Fid & G	14¾	16
U S Fire (2)	51¾	53¾
Westchester (1.20a)	32½	34½

(a) Also extra or extras.
(e) Declared or paid so far this year.
(z) Paid last year.

Completes Plans



Harris & Ewing.

HILLEARY G. HOSKINSON, president of the District of Columbia Bankers Association, who yesterday completed plans for a trust research week here in November.

Cotton Higher With Buying

New York, Aug. 17 (AP)—Cotton advanced further today as the South continued to restrict offerings and the market responded to moderate trade and foreign buying. December sold up from 8.30 to 8.36 and closed at 8.34, with final prices 3 to 7 points net higher.

The market opened 3 to 5 points higher in sympathy with steadier Liverpool and Far Eastern markets and on a small volume of foreign buying. There was some trade price-fixing, and a little Wall Street demand, but during the middle of the morning prices slipped back to around the previous closing levels under local selling.

Futures Price Range.

	High	Low	Last
October	8.30	8.23	8.28
December	8.36	8.30	8.34
January	8.36	8.30	*8.34
March	8.39	8.33	8.37
May	8.41	8.36	8.39
July	8.41	8.38	8.40

Spot steady; middling, 8.40.
*Nominal.

Cottonseed Oil.

Cottonseed oil closed 4 to 7 points net higher today on further covering and buying by Eastern commission houses and refining interests, promoted by the action of lard and cotton. Sales were 128 contracts. Bleachable spot nominal; September closed 8.15; October, 8.17; December, 8.16; January, 8.10; March, 8.22.

Retailers Expect Business Upturn

New York, Aug. 17 (AP).—The National Retail Dry Goods Association, reporting results of a poll of its members' views on the business outlook, announced today that 98 per cent of replying retailers look for a general pick-up in business in the fall months.

The replies, on the average, anticipated that retail sales would break even, in dollar volume, with September, October and November of last year, and 54 per cent of those who replied thought it possible that Christmas sales this year would be better than last year.

More than 70 pert cent of the merchants replying to the questionnaire said they felt that the Government's spending program would be a major factor in better business the next three months. More than 25 per cent cited the low state of inventories as a further cause for improvement.

Local Bankers Planning Trust Research Week

Sidney F. Taliaferro Is Named Committee Chairman.

Hilleary G. Hoskinson, president of the District of Columbia Bankers Association and vice president of the Riggs National Bank, announced yesterday that Gilbert T. Stephenson, director of the trust research department of the graduate school of banking, American Bankers Association, attended a meeting with local banking officials for the purpose of making arrangements to conduct a trust research week in Washington this fall.

The dates set for this trust research week are November 4 to 9, inclusive, and the five-day sessions will be conducted under the joint auspices of the fiduciaries section of the District of Columbia Bankers Association, the Washington, D. C., Clearing House Association and the Washington Chapter of the American Institute of Banking.

A special committee has been appointed to handle the program and arrangements, with Sidney F. Taliaferro, vice president and trust officer of the Riggs National Bank, as chairman, and the following personnel: Aubrey O. Dooley, assistant trust officer, Hamilton National Bank; Bruce Baird, vice president and trust officer, National Savings & Trust Co.; C. D. Ratcliffe, vice president and assistant trust officer, Munsey Trust Co.; Bernard L. Amiss, assistant trust officer, Washington Loan & Trust Co.; Henry K. Dierkoph, assistant trust officer, Riggs National Bank; J. Wesley Clampitt, assistant secretary and assistant trust officer, Union Trust Co.; J. Eliot Moran, assistant trust officer, American Security & Trust Co., and Harold A. Kertz, assistant trust officer, National Metropolitan Bank.

In addition to the above, C. F. Jacobsen, cashier of the National Metropolitan Bank, will serve on the committee as the representative of the Washington, D. C., Clearing House Association, and Joseph R. Fitzpatrick, assistant cashier of the Second National Bank, who is president of Washington Chapter, American Institute of Banking, will represent the chapter. Mr. Kertz will act as secretary of the special committee.

New Firm Formed on N. Y. Stock Exchange

New York, Aug. 17.—Announcement is made of the formation of the New York Stock Exchange firm of Elfast, Frisk & Co. to transact a complete brokerage business both here and in Europe, with offices in the International Building, Rockefeller Center, New York, and in Stockholm, Sweden.

Partners of the new firm are Henry C. Elfast, member of New York Stock Exchange; Arthur C. Frisk, who will act as resident partner manager of the firm's Stockholm branch, and Walter R. Lindall, formerly an official of the American Chicle Co.

Boston Wool Market.

Boston, Aug. 17 (AP) (United States Department of Agriculture).—Very little business was being transacted in the Boston wool market today. The scattered sales were mostly of small volume. Graded combined ⅜ blood territory wool was being sold in limited volume at 58@60 cents, scoured basis, but offerings were not plentiful at this range of prices. Graded combing ¼ blood territory wool was moved in small lots at 53@55 cents, scoured basis. Graded combing ⅜ and ½ blood bright fleece wools were available in Boston at 31@32 cents in the grease, but these grades were very quiet.

The Market

By C. Norman Stabler, A Special Correspondent.

Stocks Continue Their Upward Course With Small Gains in Light Trading Day.

New York, Aug. 17.—Stocks held to their upward course today, making it three in a row, but gains were small and trading on the big board fell away to only 595,950 shares. Government bonds went to new highs and there was a better tone in the leading commodities, wheat recovering on the prospect of another type of Government dole to aid exports, and the foreign exchange market was more orderly.

Only 211 bars of gold were offering in the London market at fixing time and foreign exchanges did well in the early part of the day but there was another rush of the hoarders after fixing time and it was reported about $5,000,000 in gold changed hands. A total of $3,550,000 in gold was purchased in London for shipment to this country, bringing to $31,700,000 the total since July 28.

The foreign currencies softened in late dealings, particularly sterling. Apparently the earlier strength was based on more reassurance regarding the possibility of a disturbance in the Czechoslovakian affair but it failed to hold.

Optimistic Outlook.

The gain in stocks was minor, amounting to only 0.14 point on the average and the street is not looking for any fireworks in the speculative field for the balance of this month. It is felt that in a few weeks a clearer idea may be obtained of the possible trend of business this fall and then it may be decided whether the two months' rise in prices discounted the expected improvement.

Motors Generally Lower.

Trading in stocks again centered about the motors and allied lines, but fractional losses predominated in these groups. General Motors again topped the list in point of activity and was down slightly along with Chrysler, Yellow Truck, Greyhound and United States Rubber. Third most active stock of the day was Consolidated Textile, which has been in the penny class for years and finally is to be stricken from the list after the close Saturday.

Mid-week trade news generally was on the favorable side. The "Iron Age" survey of the steel industry, although finding the recovery pace slackening, held that fundamentally conditions are still encouraging for a continuing uptrend. Electric power production went to a new high since January 8. American telephone declared its regular quarterly dividend, as was expected, the Erie Railroad placed a 3,363-ton order for rails, carloadings appear to be showing improvement over the previous week and gasoline stocks have been further reduced.

Coppers Drift Down.

Copper shares followed the steels and motors in showing early strength, but they dipped when trading turned dull and the majority showed small losses, fractional declines being scored by Anaconda, American Smelting and International Nickel. Bethlehem was off nearly a point and steel a small fraction. There was virtually no change in the leading aviation and gold mining shares.

U. S. Issues Advance.

In a slightly increased volume of trading bond prices turned irregular today. The feature of dealings was the firmness which United States Treasury bonds displayed and several new highs for the year were recorded.

No reliable indication is expected as to the Treasury's September 15 financing plans until Secretary of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau, jr., returns on August 29 from his European trip, but from the firmness of the long-dated issues today it did not appear that the market expected any large amount of new money securities next month.

Argentines Strong.

Outstanding in the foreign bond list was the strength in Argentine government issues. The decision of the finance minister to postpone the $25,000,000 Argentine bond issue scheduled to appear tomorrow seemed to impart new interest in Argentine issues, presumably on the theory that if the country's foreign debt is not increased at this time the position of the outstanding securities will be improved. Japanese issues were steady and continental bonds held their ground well.

In the corporate bond section interest again centered on the second-grade rails and here some rather large fluctuations were evident. St. Paul issues were inclined to softness, but New York Central issues were well taken. The better grade rails were slightly higher. International Telephone & Telegraph obligations were heavily traded at rising prices.

Exchange Head Names Wright to His Staff

New York, Aug. 17 (AP).—Ivan Wright, a finance lecturer at Columbia University Summer School, has been appointed a special executive on the staff of William McC. Martin, president of the New York Stock Exchange, it was announced today. Wright's exact duties have not been yet defined, it was said, but Martin wished to have the exchange avail itself of Wright's knowledge of the functions of securities markets.

Wright directed the first study of the Chicago money market and framed the organization of the money desk of the Chicago Stock Exchange. He has advised banks and corporations as an economist and has served as consulting economist for the Federal Reserve Board. He also advised the provincial government of Ontario in framing securities legislation.

Associated Output.

New York, Aug. 17.—For the week ended August 12, Associated Gas & Electric System reports net electric output of 89,560,589 units. This is 4,630,721 units or 4.9 per cent below production of 94,191,310 units for a year ago.

15 Most Active Stocks

Special Dispatch to The Post.

New York, Aug. 17.—The 15 most active Stock Exchange issues today were:

	Volume.	Close.	Net Ch.
General Motors	22,200	43⅝	— ⅛
U. S. Rubber	12,800	43¼	— ⅛
Consol. Textile	17,300	⅛	.....
Chrysler	17,100	69½	— ½
U. S. Steel	14,500	57½	— ⅝
Yellow Truck	9,200	13⅛	— ⅛
Mont. Ward	8,500	43⅛	— ⅛
Greyhound	7,600	15⅞	— ⅛
Nat. Biscuit	7,500	25	+ ⅛
Anacon. Copper	7,400	23½	— ⅛
Intern. Nickel	5,800	43½	— ⅛
N. Y. Central	5,800	13⅛	— ¼
Nat. Gypsum	5,700	13	— ¼
Radio	5,600	7	.....
Republic Steel	5,400	17⅝	.....

Volume, 15 stocks, 130,400 shares.
Ratio to total volume, 26.7 per cent.

Steel Activity Advances to 41% Capacity

Replenishing of Stock Is Factor in the Slow Improvement.

New York, Aug. 17.—Steel ingot output for the current week is estimated at 41 per cent, up 1 point over last week. A part of the gain is attributable to the building up of stocks of raw steel, as some companies find they cannot give the quick deliveries that are demanded by customers unless they have ingots and billets on hand, says Iron Age today in its weekly survey of the industry.

"Much of the slow improvement that is taking place comes from widely scattered buying, usually in small lots. In specific items, structural steel is showing a greater gain than other products, largely through the impetus of Government-financed projects, as private undertakings are still greatly in a minority.

"There is keen price competition on fabricated structural steel and reinforcing bars. On the latter product concessions of several dollars a ton below published resale prices have been given. Production of automobiles is expected to start an ascending scale, starting this week, Ford and Willys having resumed assemblies of 1938 models and other makers are to follow shortly on 1939 models. Steel orders from Detroit against recent commitments are gaining, but no further placing of new business is expected until September, when initial runs on new models will have been nearly completed.

Rail Buying Absent.

"In the railroad field the absence of important buying draws attention to the placing of 3,363 tons of rails by the Erie. The machine tool industry reports more promising prospects for a fall rise in buying. On top of a 28 per cent increase in orders in July over June, interest in new shop equipment is developing among industrial users that have not recently been in the market. A Toronto, Ontario, company is expected to buy several hundred lathes and milling machines for munitions work.

"As the time approaches for announcement of fourth quarter steel prices, which according to precedent may come late this month, there is no positive indication of an intention to raise quotations, nor is there any further discussion of industry-wide wage reductions. On the basis of results thus far in the third quarter, some steel companies have estimated that their break-even point has been lifted somewhere between 60 and 65 per cent because of price reductions and the freight rate absorptions made necessary by elimination of basing point differentials.

"This week's steel production rates show steadiness at Pittsburgh, where a 30 per cent average continues; a 2-point gain to 36 per cent at Chicago; a 1-point gain at Youngstown to 42 per cent; a 4-point gain in the Cleveland-Lorain area to 40 per cent; a 4-point rise in southern Ohio to 58 per cent, while the Wheeling-Weirton district, up 4 points to 74 per cent, continues to lead the industry.

"As American steel making gains slowly, the recession in Great Britain is causing anxiety there and a realization that armament business alone is not sufficient for maintenance of the present rate."

Security Averages.

Stocks.

	50 Inds.	20 Rails.	20 Utils.	90 Stks.
Yesterday	120.3	28.6	59.3	96.1
Previous day	120.1	28.7	58.4	96.0
Week ago	124.1	30.4	60.9	99.2
Month ago	122.0	29.5	63.2	98.0
Year ago	166.0	53.5	80.3	134.3
Two years ago	148.6	56.6	98.0	125.6
High, 1937	180.3	67.5	104.7	146.3
Low, 1937	96.9	29.8	55.9	80.7
High, 1936	169.6	64.0	102.0	140.5
Low, 1936	126.2	44.0	80.3	106.4

Bonds.

	20 Inds.	20 Rails.	20 Utils.	60 Bds.
Yesterday	85.7	58.7	98.1	80.6
Previous day	85.5	58.6	98.0	80.7
Week ago	86.0	60.7	98.5	81.8
Month ago	85.1	59.7	97.3	80.7
Year ago	92.0	91.4	101.6	95.0
Two years ago	91.5	95.6	105.7	97.6
Hikh, 1937	95.0	101.2	106.0	100.7
Low, 1937	80.1	68.3	92.3	81.1
High, 1936	94.8	100.4	106.2	100.2
Low, 1936	90.0	84.7	103.5	93.3

(1926 averages equal 100.)

Copyright, 1938, by Standard Statistics Co., Inc.

The Day's Movements In Leading Markets

Stocks.

	Wed.	Tue.
Advances	279	427
Declines	236	96
Unchanged	172	142
Total issues	687	665

Early rally fades in light trading; volume, 595,950.

Bonds.

Few rail issues advance; transfers, $4,977,400.

Curb.

Irregular; turnover, 94,000.

Commodities.

Wheat and cotton higher; sugar lower; coffee higher.

Exchange.

Lower, Great Britain, $4.88⅛; France, 2.72⅛ cents.

Rails Report Revenue Drop

Preliminary reports from 91 Class I railroads, representing 80.2 per cent of total operating revenues, just received and made public today by the Association of American Railroads, show that those railroads, in July, had established operating revenues amounting to $240,924,393 compared with $292,983,939 in the same month of 1937. Operating revenues of those roads in July were 17.8 per cent below those for July, 1937, and 34.7 per cent below July, 1930.

Freight revenues of the 91 Class I railroads amounted to $189,845,553 compared with $233,025,902 in July, 1937. Freight revenues were 18.5 per cent below the same month of 1937.

Passenger revenues, according to these preliminary reports totaled $31,248,582 compared with $34,619,802 in July, 1937, and $54,592,671 in July, 1930. For the month they were 9.7 per cent below the same month in 1937.

Treasury Certificates

(Reported by Smith, Barney & Co.)

Rate.	Maturity.	Bid.	Offer.
1¼	Dec. 15, 1938	101 24-32	101 26-32
1½	Mar. 15, 1939	101 24-32	101 26-32
2¼	June 15, 1939	102 14-32	102 16-32
1¾	Sept. 15, 1939	101 26-32	101 28-32
1¾	Dec. 15, 1939	101 29-32	101 31-32
1½	Mar. 15, 1940	102 14-32	102 16-32
1½	June 15, 1940	102 14-32	102 16-32
1½	Dec. 15, 1940	102 18-32	102 20-32
1½	Mar. 15, 1941	102 22-32	102 24-32
1¾	June 15, 1941	102 17-32	102 19-32
1¾	Dec. 15, 1941	102 18-32	102 17-32
1¾	Mar. 15, 1942	103 22-32	103 24-32
2	Sept. 15, 1942	108 1-32	105 3-32
1¾	Dec. 15, 1942	104 1-32	104 3-32
1¾	June 15, 1943	101 14-32	101 16-32

Chicago Stocks.

(Reported by W. B. Hibbs & Co.)

	Bid	Asked
Yellow Taxi	10¼	11
Thompson	5	5½
Wahl	2 1/16	2 1/16
Butler Bros	5⅝	5½
National Leather	13	18½
Swift	26½	27
Libby, McNeill & Libby	6¾	7¾
City Con com	.....	⅛
City Con pf	.....	⅛
Edison	26½	28¾
Quaker com	105	108
Quaker pf	148	.....
Borg Warner	30¾	31¾
Illinois Brick	6	7
Great Lakes Dredge & Dock	18½	18¾
Electric Household	3¾	4
McCord	10¼	10¾
Sangamo	24	24½
General Household	1⅛	1¼
Blessing	11	11¾

U. S. Treasury Receipts.

By the Associated Press.

The position of the Treasury on August 15:

Receipts, $16,860,484.58; expenditures, $29,910,710.89; net balance, $2,232,442.-090.78, including $1,627,868,735.46 working balance; customs receipts for the month, $14,063,115.24.

Receipts for the fiscal year (since July 1), $669,023,213.05; expenditures, $1,151.-158,356.65, including $328,735,278.32 of emergency expenditures; excess of expenditures, $482,135,143.60; gross debt, $37,373,208,402.93, an increase of $607.-316.32 above the previous day; gold assets, $13,044,913,966.75.

Montreal Silver Futures.

Montreal, Aug. 17 (AP).—Silver futures closed unchanged. Bids: August, 42.45; September, 42.20; December, 41.90.

BORED by the BOARD?

Trek to the Traymore for SURF—SUN—SAND—COOL, COOL SEA AIR—NEW LIDO BEACH—CABANAS—PATIO DEL SOL, FOR DINING OR DANCING—A PLACE FOR RELAXATION OR SPARKLING ENTERTAINMENT, WHICHEVER YOU DESIRE.

Board service IN the Traymore

THE TRAYMORE
ATLANTIC CITY
Bennett E. Tousley, General Manager

SPECIALISTS FOR BUSINESS RECORDS AND EQUIPMENT

POSTURE CHAIRS
save money

THE WALCOTT-TAYLOR CO
MILLS BLDG. MET. 5846

SAVE and HAVE
With Safety

A Savings Share Account may be started in this Association with any amount from $1.00 up. You may add any amount at any time. All accounts are FEDERALLY INSURED against loss up to $5,000. Combination accounts of husband and wife insured up to $15,000. Highest Earnings paid consistent with High Degree of Security. Conveniently located at 610 13th Street N.W.—District 2340. Special attention to Mail Inquiries.

FIRST FEDERAL
Savings and Loan Association of Washington.

FEDERAL SAVINGS AND LOAN INSURANCE CORPORATION
SAFETY OF YOUR INVESTMENT INSURED
UP TO $5000.

WE are paying worthwhile earnings on savings with PROVED SAFETY.

Ask us for details of our share savings plan.

PRUDENTIAL Building Association
1331 G St. N.W.
Di. 6270 Suite 304-5-6

REAL ESTATE LOANS

Before you buy, build, remodel or refinance your home or business property, let us go over your problem with you. We will save you commissions and renewal charges—and in joining this Association, you share mutually in the profits.

NORTHERN LIBERTY BUILDING ASSOCIATION
511 SEVENTH STREET, N. W.
Established 46 years

MEMBER OF FEDERAL HOME LOAN BANK SYSTEM
D. C. BUILDING AND LOAN LEAGUE
U. S. BUILDING AND LOAN LEAGUE

I. AIDLAW & CO.
28 Broadway—New York
Established 1842
Washington Office
727 15th St. N.W.
Telephone Di. 2255
Other Offices
Montreal Boston, Mass. Toronto
Providence, R. I. Oil City, Pa. Rutland, Vt.
252 Park Avenue, New York
Members
New York Stock Exchange
New York Curb Exchange
Boston Stock Exchange
Chicago Board of Trade
Facilities reach leading security and commodity markets

LONG TERM Mortgage Loans 5% INTEREST

Monthly Payments of $6.60 on each $1,000 borrowed, include interest and pay off loan in 20 years.

- Interest charged only on unpaid balance of principal.
- Amount loaned—up to 66 2-3% of appraised value.
- Valuable prepayment privileges.

Other plans of financing first mortgage loans available.

H. L. RUST COMPANY
1001 Fifteenth St. NAtional 8100

Our Report On FALL OUTLOOK
gives plain answer to business men's and investors' most urgent question.

Babson's Reports
Div. 24-32. Babson Park, Mass.
Send complimentary copy of your Fall Outlook.
Name
Address

Transactions on N. Y. Bond Market

By the Associated Press.

Total bond sales yesterday, $4,977,400; previous day, $4,426,000; week ago, $5,020,800; year ago, $6,024,350; two years ago, $6,070,000; January 1 to date, $1,116,214,105; year ago, $1,945,232,175; two years ago, $2,211,964,000.

Range of United States Government Issues

(Sales in $1,000. Dollars and 32ds.)

1938 High.	1938 Low.	Aug. 17. Sales.		High.	Low.	Last.	Net Change.	Closing Bid.	Closing Ask.	Yield
110.5	107.2	8	Treasury 3½s, 1945-43	109.26	109.26	109.26	— .1	109.24	109.28	1.27
110.3	107	11	Treasury 3½s, 1946-44	109.27	109.26	109.26	+ .3	108.24	109.28	1.43
106.23	103.25	30	Treasury 2½s, 1947-45	106.22	106.22	106.22	— .1	106.20	106.23	1.73
108.27	105.27	6	Treasury 3½s, 1949-46	108.27	108.27	108.27	+ .4	108.26	108.30	1.88
119.5	116.4	10	Treasury 4¼s, 1952-47	119.4	119.4	119.4	+ .4	119.2	119.5	1.95
104.28	101	10	Treasury 2½s, 1948	104.28	104.27	104.28	+ .5	104.25	104.29	1.96
108.21	105.19	5	Treasury 3½s, 1952-49	108.23	108.23	108.23	+ .3	108.22	108.26	2.23
102.11	99.18	27	Treasury 2½s, 1953-49	102.11	102.9	102.9	+ .2	102.7	102.11	2.25
103.26	100.26	6	Treasury 2½s, 1954-51	103.26	103.25	103.25	— .1	103.24	103.27	2.39
106.26	103.26	2	Treasury 3s, 1955-51	106.26	106.26	106.26	+ .3	106.22	106.24	2.38
104.15	101.24	60	Treasury 2½s, 1960-55	104.10	104.8	104.8	— .2	104.7	104.10	2.52
103.10	100.14	11	Treasury 2¾s, 1959-56	103.10	103.7	103.7	— .1	103.5	103.8	.59
102.16	101.19	52	Treasury 2¾s, 1963-58	102.16	102.14	102.14	— .1	102.11	102.13	2.56
108.10	102.13	5	Federal Farm Mtg 2¾s, 1947-42	105.3	105.3	105.3	+ .2	105.2	105.4	1.26
103.13	102.9	5	Home Owners Loan 2¾s, 1949-39	102.26	102.26	102.26	— .1	102.25	102.27	.....
104.15	101.5	4	Home Owners Loan 2¼s, 1944-42	104.6	104.4	104.6	+ .3	104.5	104.6	1.14
106.23	103.9	72	Home Owners Loan 3s, 1952-44	106.12	106.12	106.12	+ .2	106.8	106.12	1.82

Sales in thousands.	High	Low	Close
CORPORATION BONDS.
A
32 Allis Chalm 4 '52	113⅜	113¼	113¼
12 Am & For 5 2030	58	57⅞	58
2 Am ICC 5½ '49	104	104	104
2 Am T&T 5½s'43	113⅛	112⅝	113⅛
10 Am T&T 3¼ '66	103⅝	103¼	103⅝
25 Anacond Cop 4½ '50	106⅛	105⅞	106⅛
44 Arm Del 4 '55	98⅝	98¼	98⅛
9 AT&SF cv 4½ '62	106⅞	106¼	106½
12 AT&SF cv 4½ '48	100⅜	100⅛	100⅜
27 A C Line 1st 4 '52	87	87	87
B
24 B & O rfg 6 '95	20¾	20	20
1 B & O 5 '96 F	19½	19½	19½
56 B&O cv 4½ '60	16	15¾	15¾
17 B & O 4 '48	40¼	40	40
5 Bell T Pa 5'48 B	117¼	117¼	117¼
16 Beth Stl 3½ '52	95¼	95	95¼
6 Bost & Me 5 '67	31	30¼	30¼
3 Buf R&P 4 ½'57	30	29½	29½
C
10 Can Pac 4 perp	78¾	78½	78¾
4 Cen Ill E&G 5 '51	101¼	100½	101¼
1 Cen Pac 5 '60	81	81	81
18 Cen Pac 1st 4 '49	71½	70½	71½
2 Certain-id 5½s '48	74¾	73¾	74¾
3 C & O 3½ '96D	94½	94½	94½
9 C&O rfg 3½ '96E	94	94	94
128 Chi & E Ill 5 '51	95¾	95¾	95¾
1 CMSP&Pac 5 '75	9¾	9¾	9¾
15 CMSP&P ad 5 2000	3¼	3	3¼
19 Chi&NW cv 4¾ '49	5¾

Local Produce.

(Prices paid shippers—net f.o.b. Washington.)

By the U. S. Bureau of Agricultural Economics.

EGGS—Market steady. Premiums of 1 to 2 cents being paid on some lots of white eggs according to quality. Government graded and dated eggs: Whites, U. S. extras, large, 34½ cents; U. S. extras, mediums, 28½; U. S. Standards, large, 28; U. S. Standards, mediums, 22; U. S. Trades, 20; pullets, 17; nearby ungraded eggs, current receipts, whites, 22 to 23; mixed colors, 18 to 20.

LIVE POULTRY—Market steady. Fowl, colored, large, 5 pounds and up, 16@18; under 5 pounds, 18@16; No. 2s, 12@13; Leghorns, 13@14; roosters, 10@11; chickens, Virginia Rocks, broilers and fryers, all sizes, 17@18; No. 2s, 13@14. Delaware Rocks and Crosses, broilers and fryers, all sizes, 17@18; No. 2s, 13; mixed colored fryers, 14@15; No. 2s, 10@12; Leghorns, broilers, all sizes, 14@15; turkeys, old hens, 20; old toms, 17; few broilers, small, 15@20.

Fruits and Vegetables.

APPLES—Market dull. No carlot arrivals; no cars on track. Truck receipts light. Bushel baskets, Maryland, Pennsylvania, Virginia and West Virginia, U. S. No. 1, Wealthys, 2¼-inch minimum, 60@65; 2½-inch minimum, 75@85; Maiden Blush, 2-inch minimum, 40@60; 2¼-inch minimum, 60@65; 2½-inch minimum, 75@85; Northwestern Greenings, 2¼-inch minimum, 50; 2½-inch minimum, 65@75; Wolf Rivers, 2½-inch minimum, 65@75; 2¾-inch minimum, 70@80; Rambos, 2½-inch minimum, 70@75; 2¾-inch minimum, 85@90.

CANTALOUPES—Market steady; 1 California arrived; 1 broken and 1 unbroken cars on track. California, salmon meats, standards 36s and 45s, 3.00@3.50.

HONEYDEWS—Market steady; 1 California arrived; 2 broken and 1 unbroken cars on track. California, standard crates 9s and 12s, 1.50@1.75.

PERSIAN MELONS—California, standard crates 6s, 1.75@2.00; jumbos 6s, 2.00@2.50; ponys, 1.50.

CARROTS—Market steady. No carlot arrivals; 1 broken car on track. California, Western crates, bunched mostly around 1.50. Pennsylvania, bushel baskets topped washed 75, per dozen bunches 25.

CELERY—Market steady. No carlot arrivals; 1 broken cars on track. Michigan, ¾ crates individually washed, 3-6 dozen, 1.50@2.00; highballs, 50@65. New York, ¾ crates individually washed, 3-6 dozen, 2.00@2.25.

LETTUCE—Market steady; 1 California arrived; 6 broken and 1 unbroken cars on track. California, Western crates, Iceberg type, 5 dozen, 1.00@2.25. New York, eastern crates Big Boston type, 2 dozen mostly around 75.

ONIONS—Market steady. No carlot arrivals; 2 broken cars on track. New York, 50-lb. sacks Yellows, U. S. No. 1, mostly around 85.

PEACHES—Market dull. Truck receipts liberal. Virginia, bushel baskets Elbertas, U. S. No. 1, 1½-inch minimum, 1.50@1.75. 2-inch minimum, 1.00@1.25. Eastern Shore Maryland, bushel baskets Elbertas and Hales, U. S. No. 1, 2¼-inch minimum, 1.25@1.75, fair condition 1.00, 2-inch minimum, 1.00.

POTATOES—Market steady. Relief—1 New Jersey arrived; no cars on track. New Jersey and Pennsylvania, 100-lb. sacks Cobblers, U. S. No. 1, 80@90.

MIXED VEGETABLES—No carlot arrivals; 2 broken cars on track.

SNAP BEANS—Market steady. Nearby, bushel hampers Green, flat type, 60@75.

LIMA BEANS—Market steady. Eastern Shore Maryland and New Jersey, bushel hampers, 3.25@3.50.

SWEET POTATOES—North Carolina, bushel baskets, U. S. Puerto Rican, U. S. No. 1, mostly around 1.25; fair condition, 1.00@1.10; bushel baskets, Nancy Halls, U. S. No. 1, 1.50.

WATERMELONS—Virginia, boat, bulk per 100 pounds, various varieties, selects, 30.00@40.00; primes, 15.00@25.00; culls, 5.00@10.00.

PEAS—California, bushel hampers, 1.75@2.00.

ORANGES—California, standard boxes, 2.75@3.50, as to grade and size.

LEMONS—California, boxes, No. 1, 5.50@6.00.

LIMES—Florida, ¼ boxes, Persians, 1.25@1.50; bushel baskets, 2.50@3.50, as to size.

PEARS—California, boxes, Bartletts, 1.75@2.25, as to grade and size.

GRAPES—California, lug boxes, Thompson Seedless, 1.00@1.75; Red Malagas, 1.75@2.00.

BLUEBERRIES — Per quart, North Carolina, 10@12½; Pennsylvania, 12½@15; Maine, Massachusetts, 18@20.

AVOCADOS—Florida, flat crates, 75@1.00; ventilated crates, 1.50@2.50, as to size.

MUSHROOMS—Pennsylvania, 3-pound baskets, 25@1.25, as to grade and size.

BROCCOLI—Pennsylvania, crates, 3 bunches, 1.50.

CABBAGE — Pennsylvania, 1½-bushel hampers, 60@90.

BEETS — Pennsylvania, 15@25 per dozen bunches.

DAMSONS—Virginia, bushel baskets, 2.00.

PLUMS—California, 4-basket crates, 1.75@2.50.

NECTARINES — California, 4-basket crates, 1.00@1.25.

BANANAS—No carlots arrivals; 1 broken car on track.

(Quotations From Other Sources.)

BUTTER—90 score, 1-pound prints, 27; tub, 26; ¼-pound prints, 28; 92 score, 1-pound prints, 28; ¼-pound prints, 29.

MEATS—Choice beef, 19; veal, 16; lambs, 19; veal, 16; sows, 19; fresh pork, 25; pork loin, 26; fresh hams, 24; fresh skinned hams, 17; smoked hams, 25; smoked skinned hams, 23; piece bacon, 20; sliced bacon, 32; compound, 11; lard, 11.

LIVESTOCK—Pigs, 120 to 140 pounds, 7@7¼; light pigs, 140 to 160 pounds, 7¼@7¾; 160 to 210 pounds, 8@8¼; 210 to 240 pounds, 7¾@8; 250 to 300 pounds, 7@7¼; sows, 4½@6; stags, 5 down; calves, 9@10; medium calves, 5@7; culls, 4.

Curb Bonds

Total bond sales yesterday, $1,200,000; year ago, $1,064,000.

Sales in thousands. | High | Low | Close

DOMESTIC BONDS.

A

1 Ala Pow 5 '51 ..... 92¼ | 92¼ | 92¼
3 Am G&E 5 2028 ..... 106 | 106 | 106
2 Am P&L 6 2016 ..... 84½ | 84½ | 84½
18 Ark P&L 5 '56 ..... 86 | 86 | 86
2 As Elec 4½ '53 ..... 42½ | 42½ | 42½
5 As G&E 5 '50 ..... 31 | 30¾ | 31
2 As T&T 5½ '55A ..... 75 | 74¾ | 74¾

1 †Baldw L 6 '50 ..... 81 | 81 | 81

C

6 Can Pac 6 '42 ..... 104⅛ | 104 | 104⅛
11 Caro P&L 5 '56 ..... 95 | 94½ | 95
7 Cen Ark P&L 5 '57 P ..... 94 | 94 | 94
26 Cen St El 5½ '54 ..... 34½ | 33¾ | 33¾
3 Cen St El 5 '48 ..... 34½ | 34½ | 34½
5 Cities Ser 5 '58 ..... 63½ | 63¼ | 63¼
28 Cities Ser 5 '50 ..... 63½ | 63¼ | 63¼
16 Cit S P&L 5½ '49 ..... 62¾ | 62 | 62¾
40 Cit S Pow 5½ '52 ..... 62½ | 62 | 62½
1 Con GEL&a 3¼ '71 ..... 109 | 108½ | 109
13 Cont G&E 5 '58 A ..... 80½ | 80 | 80
7 Del C Gas 6 '47 A ..... 106¼ | 106 | 106

E

27 †East G&F 4 '56 A ..... 76½ | 75½ | 75½
7 Elec P&L 5 2030 ..... 74¼ | 73 | 73
21 Emp O&R 5½ '42 ..... 10-32 all | | 2

F

39 Fla P&L 5 '54 ..... 93 | 92 | 93

G

11 Gary E&G 5 '44 st. ..... 95¼ | 95 | 95
4 Gatin P 5 '56 ..... 104¾ | 104¾ | 104¾
2 Gen Pow Us 6¼ '58 ..... 91½ | 90¾ | 91½
19 Geo Pow 5 '67 ..... 91½ | 90¾ | 91½

H

6 Hall Pr 6 '47 A st. ..... 97 | 97 | 97

10 Ill P&L 5 '56 C ..... 93 | 92½ | 92½
5 Ill P & L 6 '53 ..... 100⅛ | 100 | 100
4 Ind Svc 5 '50 ..... 54 | 53 | 53¼
4 Inters Pow 6 '52 ..... 36 | 36 | 36
14 Inters Pow 5 '57 ..... 56¼ | 56¼ | 56

J

2 Jer C P&L 4½ '61 C ..... 104⅛ | 104⅛ | 104⅛

L

6 Lehigh PS 6 2026 A ..... 101¼ | 101 | 101
6 Lib McN & L 5 '42 ..... 104⅜ | 104⅜ | 104⅜
29 Lou P & L 5 '57 ..... 106¼ | 106 | 106¼

M

1 Memph P&L 5 '48 ..... 90 | 90 | 90

N

4 Nat P&L 5 2030 B ..... 81½ | 80¾ | 80¾
1 Nevada Cal E 5 '56 ..... 83 | 83 | 83
2 N Eng G&E 5 '50 ..... 53¾ | 53¾ | 53¾
2 N Eng G&E 5 '47 ..... 87 | 87 | 87
1 N Eng Pow 5½ '54 ..... 89½ | 89½ | 89½
14 S Pow 5 '50 ..... 98½ | 98½ | 98½
7 NYPow&L 4½ '67 ..... 107¾ | 107¾ | 108⅛
19 NYStE&G 4½ '80 ..... 95¼ | 95 | 95

O

14 †Okla Nat Gas 4 '66 ..... 98¾ | 98¾ | 98¾
18 †OklaNatGas4½ '51A ..... 104½ | 104 | 104¼

P

6 Pac P&L 5 '55 ..... 74¾ | 73½ | 74¾
2 PenConPal 4½ '77 ..... 89¾ | 89½ | 89½
21 †Penn P&L 4½ '81 ..... 103⅝ | 103⅛ | 103⅝
7 Pub SePS&L 5¼ '49 ..... 77½ | 77 | 77½
4 Publ P&L 4½ '80D ..... 71½ | 70¾ | 71½

S

5 Shaw W&P 4½ '67A ..... 104 | 104 | 104
2 SEPdL 5 2025 A ..... 90 | 89½ | 90
9 †So Cal Ed 3¼ '65 ..... 105 | 104⅝ | 105
21 †So Cal Ed 3¼ '60 ..... 108 | 107½ | 107½
15 Stand G&E 6 '57 ..... 50¾ | 50¼ | 50¼
12 †Stand G&E 6 '66 ..... 50½ | 50 | 50
8 Stand P&L 6 '57 ..... 49½ | 49¼ | 49½
7 †Starrett Corp 5 '50 ..... 32¼ | 32¼ | 32¼

T

28 Tenn Pub S 5 '70 ..... 96½ | 96½ | 96½
1 †Tex El 5 5 '60 ..... 86¾ | 86 | 86
8 Tex P&L 5 '56 ..... 104½ | 104 | 104½
1 Toledo Ed 5 '62 ..... 103 21-32 | 103 | 103
8 Twin CRT 5½ '52A ..... 54 | 53 | 53

U

6 Unit L&P 6 '75 ..... 67⅛ | 67 | 67⅛
1 Unit Light 5½ '52 ..... 81 | 81 | 81

W

2 West Tex Ut 5 '57 A ..... 94¼ | 94¼ | 94¼

FOREIGN BONDS.

7 Don Mg Bk 5 '52 12 ..... 190 | 190 | 190
10 Ger C Mun 6 '47 ..... 21 | 20½ | 21
2 Rio de Jan 6½ '59 ..... 7½ | 7½ | 7½
1 Uni M Svs 7 '58 ..... 56 | 56 | 56

†Bonds so marked are fully listed on the curb exchange. All others are dealt on an unlisted trading basis.

‡Matured bonds. Negotiability impaired pending investigation.

ud—Under rule. ww—With warrants. xw—Without warrants. war—Warrants.

Complete Transactions Yesterday on New York Stock Exchange

By the Associated Press.

Total stock sales yesterday, 865,950; previous day, 614,300; Week ago, 809,880; year ago, 701,990; two years ago, 1,006,130; January 1 to date, 188,029,795; year ago, 260,266,205; two years ago, 312,204,204.

1938 High	1938 Low	Name and Dividend Rate	Sales—Add 00	High	Low	Close	Net Ch'ge
		A
52	36⅛	Abbott Lab (1.60a)	3	51⅞	51⅛	51⅝	+ 1⅛
12½	8¼	Adams Exp (.10e)	4	11⅛	11	11⅛	+ ⅛
29½	16⅝	Addressog (1.40)	2	28¾	28⅛	28⅝	+ ⅛
65⅝	⅝	Air Reduction (1a)	7	61½	60¼	60¾	+ ½
1⅝	⅝	Air-Way El Appl	1	1⅛	1⅛	1⅛	+ ⅛
13⅝	8¾	Alaska Juneau (.60a)	8	11⅛	10⅝	11	+ ⅛
1⅛	⅞	Allegheny Corp	3	1	1	1	—
17⅜	5½	Allegheny pf xw	2	9¼	9¼	9¼	— 1½
17⅞	6½	Allegheny pf 330 ww	2	12	11⅝	11⅝
17⅝	5	Allegheny pf 840 ww	3	10	9½	10	+ ⅜
21¾	11⅝	Allegheny Steel	7	17½	17½	17½	+ ⅛
10⅛	4⅛	Allen Industries	1	9¼	9¼	9¼	+ ¼
19	4½	Allied Strs	28	10⅝	10¼	10⅜	+ ¼
68½	38	Allied St pf (5)	2	64	64	64	+ 3
54¾	34½	Allis-Ch Mfg (2½e)	21	50½	48¾	48½	+ ⅜
19⅜	11½	Alpha P Cem (1)	1	17⅜	17⅜	17⅜	+ ⅛
3⅜	1¼	Amal Leather	1	2¼	2¼	2¼
78	55	Amerada Corp (2)	1	70½	70½	70½	— ½
84⅜	49	Am Brake Shoe (3e)	1	78¼	78¼	78¼	+ ¾
29½	16	Am Ag Ch Del (2½e)	7	20	20	20	+ ⅛
23¾	10	Am Bank Note (.40e)	7	18¾	18	18	+ ⅜
19¾	7⅛	Am Brake Shoe (1e)	1	13¼	13¼	13¼	+ ¼
39½	19¾	Am Car & Fdy	5	27	26⅝	23⅝	+ ⅜
10⅜	4⅜	Am Ch & Chem (.40e)	13	10	10⅛	10⅛	— ⅛
14⅜	8	Am Cont Alco	1	10¼	10¼	10¼
10⅜	8½	Am Crystal Sug	2	10⅛	10⅛	10⅛
8½	7½	Am Encaus Tiling	6	8¼	8	8⅛	+ ⅛
8¾	5½	Am & For Pow	1	7⅜	7⅜	7⅜	— ⅛
17⅜	5½	Am & F P 2 pf	1	9	9	9
13	9	Am Hawaii S S (1)	1	10½	10½	10½
58¾	22½	Am Hide & Leather	2	4	4	4
42¼	30⅜	Am Home Pr (2.40)	2	42	42	42	+ ⅜
9¼	1¼	Am Ice	1	1⅝	1⅝	1⅝	+ ⅛
20½	12¾	Am Int Corp	1	13¾	13¾	13¾	+ ⅛
15⅜	8	Am International	1	7½	7½	7½	+ ⅛
94⅜	42	Am Locomotive	16	79¾	79	79	+ ¼
17⅝	10	Am M & Fdy (.80e)	1	14	14¾	14¾	+ ⅛
37⅞	16⅛	Am Metal (1½e)	3	24	24	24	— ⅛
9¼	3¼	Am Pow & Lt	9	5¼	5	5	—
37⅞	16⅛	Am P & L 85 pf (1¾k)	1	30	30	30
17	9	Am Rad & S S	29	14¾	14¾	14¾	— ⅛
22¾	13¼	Am Roll Mill	30	19½	18⅝	18⅝	— ⅝
88½	58	Am Roll Mill pf (4½)	1	77½	77½	77½	—
20½	15¾	Am Safety Razor (1.80)	1	18½	18½	18½	+ ⅛
11⅝	7¼	Am Seating	2	13	13	13	+ ⅛
58¾	22¼	Am Smelt & R (1¾a)	16	37¾	36⅝	36⅝	— ⅛
34⅜	15⅝	Am St Fdrs	11	27⅜	27½	27½	+ ⅛
9¾	7¾	Am Stores	1	7⅞	7⅞	7⅞	+ ⅛
37	21½	Am Sugar Ref	12	24¼	23¾	24¼	+ ⅛
149¾	111	Am Tel & Tel (9)	8	141⅜	141	141	+ ⅜
87¼	58	Am Tobacco (5)	2	84½	84	84	+ 1¼
91	58¾	Am Tob B (5)	13	88½	85⅝	87¼	+ 1½
146	130	Am Tob pf (6)	1	146	146	146	+ 2½
8⅞	3⅜	Am Type Fdrs	4	7¼	6⅞	6⅞	— ⅛
6	4	Am Wat Wks	17	10½	10¼	10⅜	+ ⅛
43	23¾	Am Wool pf	10	40	38½	39½	+ ⅜
9½	4¾	Am Zinc L & S	5	7¾	7⅝	7⅝	— ⅛
38	21	Anaconda	74	34⅜	33½	33½	— ⅜
21⅞	10⅜	Anchor Hock Gl (.30e)	5	19½	19	19	+ ⅛
100½	72	Armour Del pf (7)	1	100½	100½	100½
7	3⅜	Arm Ill	5	5⅝	5⅝	5⅝	+ ⅛
46¾	24½	Armstrong Cork	5	43½	43	43	+ ⅛
11	5½	Arnold Const (½e)	1	9¼	9¼	9¼
7⅜	2½	Artloom Corp	1	5¼	5¼	5¼
11⅜	4	Asbestos Manv	1	9¼	9¼	9¼	— ⅛
42	22¼	Atch T & S F	25	36⅝	34½	34⅝	— 1¼
72	40	Atch T & S F pf	1	54	54	54
27⅜	14	Atl Coast Line (1½e)	3	21	21	21	+ ⅛
37⅜	17⅛	Atl Refining (1)	3	23½	23¼	23⅜
8⅞	5⅜	Atlas Corp (1¼e)	3	8¼	8	8¼
57½	36	Atlas Pow (1¼e)	1	53¾	53½	53½	+ ⅛
6½	2¼	Auburn Auto	2	4¼	4	4	+ ⅛
4⅜	2¼	Aviation Corp (.18⅛e)	12	4¼	4⅜	4⅜
		B
11¾	5	Bald Loco ct	20	9⅜	9⅛	9⅛	— ⅛
11	4	Balt & Ohio	11	8½	8¼	8¼	— ⅛
13¾	5⅛	Balt & Ohio pf	8	9¼	9	9	—
36	29	Bangor & Ar pf (6)	1	34¼	34¼	34½	+ ¼
93	86	Bangor & Ar pf (8)	10	95½	92½	92½	— 1½
23⅜	12⅛	Barber Asph	3	16⅜	16⅛	16⅛	— ⅛
13¾	5	Barker Bros	1	11	11	11	+ ¼
21⅜	10½	Barnsdall Oil (1)	18	18½	18	18
7⅞	4	Baynk Clear (.56⅓e)	3	15¾	15¼	15½
18½	11⅜	Beatrice Cream (1a)	1	16½	16⅛	16½
23¼	8⅜	Bendix Aviat	22	22¼	21¾	22	+ ⅛
19	15¼	Benef Ind Ln (.85e)	5	18¼	18	18	— ⅛
65⅞	39¾	Beth Steel	36	57	55½	55½	— ⅞
98⅛	58	Beth Steel 8% pf (1)	2	95⅜	95⅜	95⅜	— ⅝
99	75	Beth Steel 7% pf (7)	2	98½	98¼	98¼	+ ¼
20½	9¾	Black & Decker	1	13¼	13¼	13¼	+ ¼
19¼	10½	Blaw-Knox	1	16⅛	16⅛	16⅛
35½	20½	Boeing Airplane	12	27	26	26	— ½
39¾	15¾	Bohn Al & Brass	4	26	25½	25½	+ ⅛
48	40	†Bon Ami B (1⅛e)	10	46¼	46¼	46¼	+ ¼
10⅝	8	Borden Co (1e)	5	17⅛	17	17	+ ⅛
33⅛	16⅛	Borg-Warner	3	31⅛	30⅞	30⅞	— ⅛
12⅜	5⅜	Bridgeport Brass	9	11⅛	10⅜	10⅝
35½	12¾	Briggs Mfg (1¼e)	21	33½	32½	32½
40⅝	28	Bristol-Myers (2.40)	1	40	40	40	— ⅛
2⅜	1⅛	Brlyn & Qu Trans	1	1¾	1¾	1¾
13¾	5¾	Brooklyn-Man Tr	5	10	9¾	9¾	— ⅛
21½	10⅜	Bklyn Un Gas	10	17¾	16⅛	16⅛	— 1 ⅛
12⅞	5⅜	Bucyrus-Erie	7	11⅜	11	11	— ⅛
6⅜	3¼	Budd Mfg	1	5⅝	5¾	5½	+ ⅛
5½	3	Budd Wheel	3	4⅞	4¾	4¾	— ⅛
23¾	13½	Bullard Co	2	20½	20½	20½	+ ⅛
39	15⅛	Bulova Watch (2½e)	2	33½	33¼	33½	+ ⅛
26⅝	6⅝	Burling Mills (1)	4	14⅝	14⅝	14⅝
22½	14½	Burr Add Mach (.40e)	17	19¾	18⅝	18⅜	— ⅛
3½	1¼	Bush Terminal	1	2¼	2¼	2¼	— ⅛
11	4½	Bush Term 7% deb	1	8	8	8
9	5½	Butler Bros	1	8¾	8¾	8¾	— ⅛
4½	2¾	Byte Coo & Zinc	1	3¾	3¾	3¾	+ ⅛
13⅜	6	Byers (A M) Co	2	10½	10½	10½	— ⅛
22	13	Byron Jackson (1e)	4	19¼	18¾	18¾	+ ⅛
		C
24¾	15⅛	Calif Packing (1a)	1	20¼	20¼	20¼	+ ⅜
2½	1	Callahan Z-Lard	3	2	1⅞	1⅞	— ⅛
10¼	5⅛	Calumet & Hec	6	7¾	7¾	7¾	+ ⅛
18½	17	Campbell Wyant	4	17	17	17	+ ⅛
21½	12⅛	Can Dry G Ale	19	19	18½	18½	+ ⅛
8¼	3	Canad Pacific	13	6¾	6¾	6¾	— ⅛
18¼	12⅜	Carpenter Stl (.20e)	1	16⅛	16⅛	16⅛	— ⅛
4½	2½	Carriers & Gen (.10e)	2	3¼	3¼	3¾	+ ⅛
177½	62¼	Case (J I) Co	5	91	90	90	+ 1
58	20¾	Caterpil Tractor (1½e)	18	50¼	50	50	— ⅛
28½	9	Celanese Corp	22	23¾	22½	22¾	+ ⅛
25⅛	12½	Celote Corp	1	22¾	22¾	22¾	+ ⅛
28	18½	Cents Ageurre (1½)	1	20¼	20¼	20¼	+ 1
5⅝	2	Cent Foundry	7	4½	4½	4½
108¼	99	†Cent fil Lt pf (4½½)	10	108¼	108¼	108¼	+ ¼
14	7	Cent R R N J	3	12¾	11¾	11¾	+ ¼
13⅛	7	Cent Violeta Sug	1	9	9	9
49½	26½	Cerro de Pas (3a)	1	43½	43½	43½	— ⅛
10⅝	4⅞	Certain-teed Prod	12	9¼	9¼	9¾	+ ⅛
30½	18	Champ Pap & F	2	25	25	25	+ ⅛
38⅝	22½	Ches & Ohio (2e)	13	30	29⅝	29⅝
1¾	⅝	Chi & N West	1	1	1	1
4¼	1	Chi Grt West	41	2	1⅞	1⅞	— ⅛
8¾	2¾	Chi Grt W pf	6	4⅝	4½	4½	+ ⅛
1	⅛	Chi M St P & P	4	⅝	⅝	⅝
1¼	⅛	Chi M St P & P pf	2	1¼	1¼	1¼	— ⅛
16⅛	6¼	Chi Pneu Tool	5	14¾	14¾	14¾	— ⅛
2½	1	C R I & Pac 6% pf	2	1½	1½	1½
2½	1⅛	C R I & Pac 7% pf	1	2	2	2
19¼	12	Chickasha Cot Oil (¾e)	1	16⅜	16⅜	16⅜	— ⅜
10⅜	3¼	Childs Co	9	9½	9⅜	9⅜	— ⅛
75⅜	30⅛	Chrysler Corp (¾e)	171	71⅝	69⅝	69⅝	— ⅜
13½	10	City Ice & Fuel (.80e)	1	10⅜	10⅜	10⅜
18½	8	City I & F pf (6½)	10	60	60	60	—
8½	2	City Stores	1	4½	4½	4½
27⅞	15	Clev Graph Br (¾e)	1	25¾	25¾	25¾	+ ⅛
45⅜	22½	Climax Molyb (.60e)	1	25⅝	25⅝	25⅝
25⅜	10¼	Cluett Peabody (.40e)	13	23½	22½	22⅝	+ ⅛
54½	37	Coca-Cola (3)	1	49¼	48½	48½	— ⅛
86⅜	78	Colgate-Palm-P pf (6)	1	94	94	94	+ 4
17¾	12¼	Colgate Alk (1e)	3	15	14	14	— 1
8⅜	3½	Col & South	20	7¾	7¾	7¾
26	9½	Col Fuel & Iron	1	15½	15½	15½
22¾	13½	Colum Br cast A (.90e)	2	19½	19½	19½
10⅜	5	Colum G & E	18	6⅞	6⅞	6⅞
79	37	Col G&E pf A (6)	11	64	64	64	— ½
50	32	Coml Credit	1	48	47⅝	48⅜	+ ⅛
56	31½	Coml Invest Tr (4)	14	53⅜	53	53
12¼	5⅜	Coml Solvents	20	10¼	10¼	10¼
2	1	Com'wlth & South	19	1¼	1¼	1¼
44⅞	25	Com & South pf (2¼k)	2	36	36	36	— ⅛
28	22½	Com'wlth Edis (1¼)	14	26⅜	26⅛	26⅜	+ ⅛
28	15	Congoleum-Nairn	6	24⅛	24⅛	24⅛	+ ⅛
11	5	Consol Aircr	2	15⅛	15	15½	+ ⅛
10⅞	8½	Consol Cigar (⅝e)	1	8¼	8¼	8¼	+ ⅛
63⅞	71	†Con Cig pr pf (6½)	80	86¼	84½	86¼	+ 3
22¼	17	Cons Edison (1½e)	36	27⅛	26⅝	26⅞	+ ⅛
100	88⅞	Cons Edison pf (5)	2	99½	99	99¼	+ ⅛
1⅜	1	Consol Film Ind	2	1¼	1¼	1¼
2⅜	2⅜	Consol Laundries	1	5¾	5¾	5¾
10⅝	7	Consol Oil (.80)	13	9	9	9⅛
1	⅛	Consol Textile	165	⅛	⅛	⅛
5⅜	2¼	Consol'n Coal	1	4¼	4¼	4¼	+ ⅛
17⅞	8⅜	Container Corp	5	15⅜	15⅛	15⅜	+ ⅛
28⅛	16⅜	Cont Bak A	41	23½	21⅝	22	+ ⅛
2⅜	1¼	Cont Bak B	2	2	2	2
36½	21¼	Cont Can (1½e)	21	44¼	44	44	+ ⅛
9	2	Cont Diam Fib	2	9	9	9
34	21½	Cont Ins (1.60a)	3	34	34	34	+ ⅛
1⅛	⅝	Cont Motors	1	1⅛	1⅛	1⅛	+ ⅛
34	21¼	Cont Oil Del (¾e)	6	23½	23½	23½	+ ⅛
70⅝	53	Corn Products (3)	34	70⅝	69½	69½	— ⅛
8¼	2¾	Coty Inc	1	4¾	4¾	4¾
36½	19	Crane Co	23	33¾	32¾	32¾	— ⅛
13⅞	6	Crane Co cv pf (5)	1	32¾	32¾	32¾	— ⅛
37⅞	22¼	Crown Cork & S	4	34	33	33	+ ⅛
39½	25½	Crown Ck pf xw (2½)	2	34	34	34	+ ⅛
13⅛	7½	Crown Zellerbach (¾e)	11	12⅜	12⅛	12⅜	+ ⅛
44⅜	19¼	Crucible Steel	7	34½	33¾	33¾	+ ⅛
14⅛	6½	†Cuba R R pf	1.60	6¾	6¾	6¾	+ ⅛
4	3	Cuban-Am Sugar	3	4⅜	4⅜	4⅜	— ⅛
21⅜	12	Cudahy Pack	1	17	17	17	+ 1
8½	4¾	Curtis Publishing	6	7¾	7¾	7¾	+ ⅛
58	38	Curtis Pub pf (2½k)	3	54⅝	53	53	— 1
6	3½	Curtis Wright	43	5¾	5½	5½
24¾	12⅝	Curtiss-Wr A	22	23¼	22¼	22½
28⅝	13½	Cutler-Hammer	7	24½	23¾	24¼	+ ⅛
		D
18⅝	13¼	Davega Strs pf (1¼)	1	18⅝	18⅝	15⅝	+ ⅝
25¼	15⅜	Deere & Co	3	19⅝	19	19
28⅛	10⅝	Deere & Co pf (1.40)	3	25	25	25	+ ¼
23½	7½	Del & Hudson	45	22⅝	20½	21	— ⅛
8½	4	Del Lack & West	1	7	7	7	— ⅛
106	78	Detroit Edison (5e)	1	103	103	103	— ⅛
35	25	Detroit & Ray A (1¾e)	20	34	34	34
10⅞	5	Diam T Motor	2	10	9⅝	9¾
17½	11	Distil Corp-Seag (1e)	8	15

Sheriff Cleared For Failure to Whip Md. Man

Pugh Finds Officer Was Not Served With an Order Directing Lashing.

State's Attorney James H. Pugh last night cleared Sheriff G. Edington Bell of any culpability for his failure to whip Brown C. Turner, 42, of Derwood, Md., sentenced to ten lashes for wife-beating by Judge Harold C. Smith in Montgomery County police court at Rockville, Md.

The State's attorney said the sheriff had not been served with a commitment paper directing him to lash Turner. Pugh said he would direct his investigation today into why the clerk of the police court had not delivered the paper to the sheriff.

Sheriff Bell took Turner to the Maryland House of Correction last Saturday to begin serving a sentence of one year for assaulting a police officer at the time of his arrest. The commitment for this offense was delivered to the sheriff, who had no official knowledge of any other sentence pending.

The sheriff kept Turner at the county jail for five days waiting for the whipping order but not receiving it in that time acted upon the commitment he had received. The longest time any prisoner heretofore had been kept awaiting transportation to a penal institution was three days and most of them are transferred the same day that a commitment is received. Time served awaiting transportation does not count on the sentence.

Pugh announced that he would send a detainer to the house of correction that Turner be returned to the county jail for execution of the lashing sentence at the expiration of his sentence. It is unlikely that the house of correction would release the man to the county for the whipping before his term is completed.

Harry M. Williams, clerk of the police court, earlier had said he had held up the papers because he had been ordered to do so but refused to say who had ordered him.

The law requires that the lashing be carried out in the county jail and this would preclude Turner's being lashed at the house of correction.

Turner was sentenced to receive ten lashes for wife beating on August 8 and serve one year for assault on an officer at the same time.

Heat-Hurt Horse Hoisted to Hoofs By Nine Heavers

Two policemen, a veterinary surgeon and six stalwart citizens were required last night to revive and place on his feet Washington's largest victim of a hot and humid day.

He was a horse.

This horse, name unrecorded, was being driven along Rock Creek Church road near Quincy street northwest by George Hawkins, 25, colored, of 428 Six-and-one-half street northwest, when he collapsed between the shafts. After Hawkins and bystanders had endeavored for two hours without success to put the animal back in circulation, someone called a police scout car.

Its occupants, unskilled in this machine age in restoring heat smitten horses to normal, gave up and called Dr. W. P. Collins, of 2130 P street northwest, veterinary for the Washington Humane Society. With a bucket of oats, two ropes and six husky men, Dr. Collins soon had the horse on his feet nibbling at grass, munching snappily at the oats.

Canadian Open Today Will See 150 Seeking Title

By the Associated Press.

Toronto, Aug. 17.—Preliminary firing ceased at dusk tonight over the wind-swept Mississauga course with the par of 72 well established as something to worry the 150-odd professionals and amateurs who set out tomorrow in the three-day, 72-hole Canadian Open golf championship.

Leading the American contingent were Harry Cooper, the defending champion; Paul Runyan, the United States P. G. A. titlist, and Tony Manero, former open champion. Both Runyan and Manero had considerable difficulty approaching par over the 6,740-yard layout, slowed down by recent rains, in practice rounds today.

Runyan had a 73 and he and Cooper agreed the new champion would not need to beat 280 for the 72 holes if the present unsettled weather conditions continue.

Just behind the trio of Light Horse Harry, Runyan and Manero was Slammin' Sam Snead, the West Virginia slugger. Snead would be rated higher were it not for the narrowness of Mississauga's fairways.

Two of tomorrow's largest galleries are expected to follow Walter Hagen and Tommy Armour, old favorites with Canadians. Hagen won the title here in 1931, defeating Percy Ollis, of England, in a playoff, while Armour is making his first appearance in several seasons in Canada.

Other United States favorites included Jimmy Thomson, of Shawnee-on-the-Delaware, Pa.; Jimmy Hines, of Garden City, N. Y.; Horton Smith, of Chicago, and Lawson Little, of San Francisco, the 1936 winner.

Canadian favorites include Jule Holt, of Kent, Quebec; Bobby Alston and Stanley Horne, Ottawa; Dick Borthweick, Bob Gray, Lex Robson and Willie Lamb, of Toronto.

COLUMBIA.

Earl Skinker will accept entries for the Columbia Club Junior championship, scheduled September 6 to 8. Play will be in flights of eight.

Jimmy Thompson, finalist in the Metropolitan Schoolboy championship, is defending champion.

Minor League Results

INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE.
Jersey City, 1-2; Rochester, 1-3.
Syracuse, 4; Montreal, 0.
Newark, 5; Toronto, 0.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION.
Indianapolis, 3; St. Paul, 1.
Toledo, 2; Kansas City, 1.
Columbus, 10; Milwaukee, 3.

Daily Cross Word Puzzle

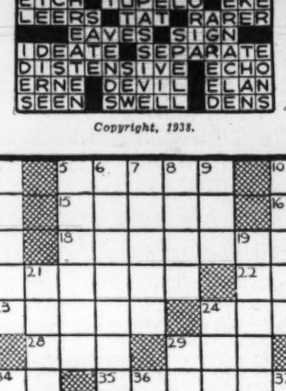
ACROSS.

1 Russian wolfhound
5 Peruvian llamas
10 Biblical pronoun
14 West African tree
15 Positive terminal of an electric acurce
16 Wander
17 Wild goat
18 Preciseness
20 Extraction of essence by boiling
22 Egyptian sacred emblems
23 Slumbered
24 Hovel
25 Constellatior
28 Bustle
29 Turkish can
30 Scarlet resin
33 French sculptor
35 Oriental ruminant
38 Twofold
39 Teutonic goddess of healing
40 Scandinavian explorer
41 Public walking space
44 Delight
45 Wager
46 Humans
47 Scandinavian monetary unit
49 Malt beverage
50 Craw
51 Smarten oneself
53 Card game
56 Prize winners
60 Primordial
62 Hew
63 Talented
64 Clay used in pottery
65 Grey with age
66 Sediment
67 The color of the Burmese ruby
68 Whirlpool

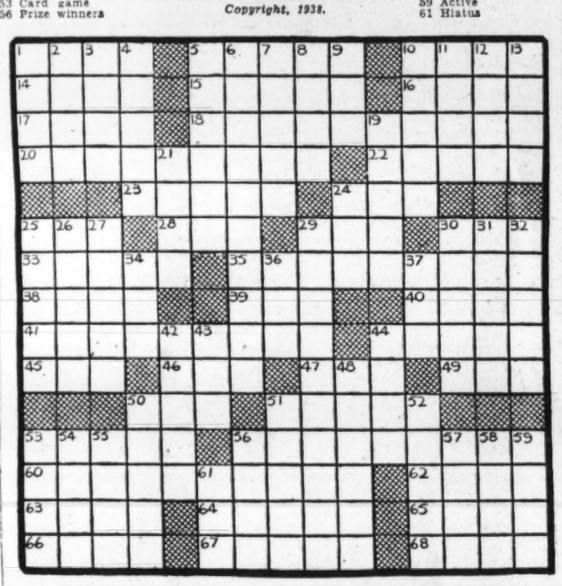
DOWN.

1 Pungent
2 Fleshy part of the ear
3 Fish sauce
4 Island in the Aegean Sea
5 Glued
6 Diametrically opposite
7 French Painter
8 Norse god
9 Japanese money
10 River in England
11 Sound horn
12 Every
13 Genus of turtles
19 Gossamer
21 Party
24 Edge of a garment
25 Egyptian unit of capacity
26 Incite
27 Modify
29 Appoint beforehand
30 Stage of insect development
31 Sprite in Shakespeare's "The Tempest"
32 Recurrent period
34 Badly
36 Disencumber
37 River in Wales
42 Kind of fiddle
43 Fresh
44 Scotch dance
48 Indeed
50 Customs
51 Hungarian coin
52 Recess
53 The Boer language
54 French ecclesiastic
55 Actor's part
56 Swampy ground
57 Wearing footgear
58 Batrachian reptile
59 Active
61 Hiatus

YESTERDAY'S ANSWER.



Copyright, 1938.



Lott Favors Australians

Battle Germany Today at Brookline.

By the Associated Press.

Brookline, Mass., Aug. 17.—The tennis teams of Australia and Germany wound up practice by dusk tonight for their Davis Cup playoff, starting tomorrow, to decide which will oppose Donald Budge and company for the famous international net trophy.

The Anzacs were heavily favored to take the series, and some, including George M. Lott, former American Davis Cup star who has been coaching the Australians, went so far as to pick them to sweep all five matches.

The opening day's singles matches, starting at 2 p. m. (E. D. T.), will pit Jack Bromwich, 19-year-old Australian, against Henner Henkel, the world's No. 3 ranking player, and Adrian Quist, 25-year-old veteran, against Georg von Metaxa, former Austrian who is representing the Germans through annexation.

On Friday, these same four will hook up in doubles, and on Saturday they will reverse their pairings for the final singles, Quist playing Henkel and Bromwich meeting Von Metaxa.

For the first time in history Nazi flags helped bedeck the stadium and the Longwood Cricket Clubhouse. Last year, when the Germans played in this country for the first time since the World War, officials said they would not display the German flag because of fear of picketing.

Even the Germans, who marched through Norway, Hungary, France and Yugoslavia to reach the interzone final, while Australia was beating Mexico and Japan, seemed somewhat dubious of the result.

Although F. C. "Salty" Uhl, their nonplaying captain, said he wouldn't "concede one match," Henkel asserted he would be surprised if he won; Metaxa thought the heat too great for the Germans to play their best and Karel Kozeluh, the Czechoslovakian pro who is coaching the Germans, just grunted.

Henkel's pessimism was based on a series of trimmings Bromwich inflicted on him in Australia last year and upon his own physical condition. He has been suffering from a tennis elbow, but felt much better today after a doctor stretched the arm muscles.

Bromwich, who lost both his singles to Japan, was hitting with great depth in workouts and appeared to have regained the touch.

Firemen Win Softball Tilt

Special Dispatch to The Post.

Montclair, N. J., Aug. 17.—The Washington, D. C., Fire Department softball team defeated the unbeaten to date, Montclair, N. J., Public Safety Department softball team, 10 to 7, before a crowd of 2,000 here today. Aided by the pitching of Snyder and the hitting of Al Reader, the Smoke Eaters from the Capital took the lead after the third inning and were never headed.

The Montclair champions staged a four-run rally in the ninth inning, throwing a scare into the visitors, but were stopped on spectacular infield plays by the Washington inner defense.

Wash'ton	AB	H	O	A	Montclair	AB	H	O	A
Wimer,3b	5	1	0	0	MacLlin,c	3	1	5	0
Sutphin,1b	5	1	6	1	Sautter,ac	5	2	0	0
Gnaugh,cf	5	2	3	0	Kupper,cf	5	0	3	0
Burdine,lf	5	1	1	0	Rubino,3b	4	1	4	0
Ritour,ss	5	1	4	4	Lamb,lf	4	1	3	0
Watt,rf	5	1	1	1	G'giano,2b	5	3	4	1
Gr'non,ac	3	2	8	0	J.Gra'm,1b	3	2	5	1
Raeder,wb	4	4	2	0	Cousins,ss	4	4	1	3
Davis,c	3	1	4	0	Knowles,rf	1	0	0	1
Snyder,p	4	2	3	0	Mueller,p	4	1	1	0
Stein,sc	2	0	0	0	Graham,rf	3	1	1	0
Peel,c	0	0	0	0
Totals	46	16	26	6	Totals	42	16	27	5

Washington	0	0	4	4	0	0	1	1	0	—10
Montclair	0	1	0	2	0	0	0	0	4	— 7

Runs—Sutphin, Goodenough, Grannon (2), Raeder (3), Davis (2), Snyder, Rubino, Lamb, Gaggiano (3), Cousins, Graham. Two-base hits—Grannon (2), Raeder, Snyder, Cousins. Three-base hit—Davis. Stolen bases—Rubino, J. Graham, Waldenmier, Davis. Double play—Sutphin to Snyder. Struck out—By Mueller, 1; by Snyder, 6. Wild pitches—Mueller (3).

Alice Marble In Semifinals

Leads Tennis Advance at Manchester.

By the United Press.

Manchester-on-the-Sea, Mass., Aug. 17.—Alice Marble, of Beverly Hills, Calif.; Mrs. Sarah Palfrey Fabyan, of Cambridge, and Miss Nancye Wynne, of Australia, entered the semi-finals of the fourteenth annual Essex Country Club women's invitation tennis tournament here today.

Two others, Kay Stammers, of England, and Thelma Coyne, of Australia, were scheduled to play their quarter-finals match tomorrow.

Miss Marble, top-ranking woman player in America and the top-seeded tournament favorite, eliminated 20-year-old Virginia Wolfenden, of San Francisco, 6—1, 6—3. Mrs. Fabyan, sixth-ranking nationally and third-seeded, eliminated unseeded Margaret Osborne, 20, of San Francisco, 6—3, 6—1. And Miss Wynne, fifth-seeded on the foreign draw, eliminated the fourth foreign seeded Margot Lumb, of England, 6—2, 6—3.

Miss Coyne, seeded sixth among the foreigners, won her quarter-final berth by eliminating the fourth-seeded Mrs. Johnny Van Ryn, of Austin, Tex., 6—2, 6—4.

As a result, Mrs. Fabyan will pair off against Miss Wynne in the lower-half semifinal tomorrow morning, while Miss Marble will meet the winner of tomorrow's Lumb-Stammers match in the upper-half semifinal on Friday.

The play in the women's doubles advanced to the semifinal round, with two of the four berths being filled. One semifinal bracket was occupied by the California tandem ofo Dorothy Workman and Dorothy Bundy, while the other was filled by Mrs. Van Ryn and Carolin Babcock Stark, of San Francisco.

Teams which advanced to the quarterfinals were as follows:

Kay Stammers and Margot Lumb, of England; Thelma Coyne and Mrs. Harry Hopman, of Australia; Miss Marble and Mrs. Fabyan, and the Australian team of Dorothy Stevenson and Nancye Wynne.

JackDempsey Here Monday

Jack Dempsey will be in the corner of Bill Boyd, Seattle heavyweight, when he squares off with Buck Everett, former District champion, in the ten-round headline bout Monday night at Griffith Stadium.

Dempsey, who personally supervises the training of the 24-year-old Gob, informed Matchmaker Goldie Ahearn yesterday that he would be here.

Boyd, winner of 21 consecutive matches, including knockouts over Bob Nestell and Sandy McDonald, and other Pacific Coast heavyweights, worked four rounds yesterday with Dempsey in New York, and Dempsey told Ahearn that he considers Boyd one of the most apt pupils he has ever coached.

Dempsey said:

"I am showing Boyd how to use the punch that brought me my world's championship. It is a good ole "Iron Mike," and Boyd is learning it fast. This big sailor showed me he is one of the fastest heavyweights in the country, and can punch hard and accurately with either fist. The Washington fight public will see in him one of the finest heavyweight prospects uncovered in many a year. I know Everett will prove a severe test, but I am anxious to see how he will go against a rough, rugged fighter who never stops throwing punches.

This will be Boyd's Eastern debut, and the first in a number of matches the former champion hopes will lead Boyd to a shot at Champion Joe Louis.

This will be Everett's first fight since he met Pastor last winter before a sellout crowd at Turner's arena.

Rail, Stopped By Strike, Lets Office Force Go

Mediator in Chicago Dispute Says Differences Are 'Surmountable.'

By the Associated Press.

Chicago, Aug. 17.—The Chicago, North Shore and Milwaukee Railroad, which suspended operations yesterday, furloughed its office and supervisory force of 300 today.

Operations ceased yesterday after union employes voted to stop work in protest against a 15 per cent wage cut.

Officials said that beginning tomorrow the North Shore Line would become a skeleton railroad, with only a handful of watchmen on duty.

Meanwhile, a Federal Department of Labor conciliator, Harry E. Scheck, rushed from one conference to another in an effort to settle the wage controversy.

Scheck made little comment between his conferences, but continued optimistic over settlement possibilities, asserting that "the differences are not insurmountable."

The railroad, which has 1,300 employes, has been in Federal Court receivership since 1932. The receiver, A. A. Sprague, declared "the reduction in wages is essential to the continued operation of the railroad."

Jews Quote Kuhn As Saying 'Hitler Isn't Behind Bund'

Special Dispatch to The Post.

New York, Aug. 17.—In an interview to be pubished in Friday's edition of the American Hebrew, weeky Jewish publication, Fritz Kuhn, national leader of the German-American bund, denies his organization is associated with the German Reich. He is quoted as saying Reichsfuehrer Hitler "does not stand behind the bund."

"It is not true," he says. "We are not associated with the German Reich. It is a lie, a Jewish lie. I am an American citizen; I am interested only in America. As for the Jew, he cares for no country. He has no more interest in America than a cow has in a piano. He does business with Aryans, because he woud starve if he did business only with others of his own race.

"The Jew complains he is being persecuted. It is the other way. We are being persecuted. We are forced to act in self-defense to protect ourselves. We cannot have freedom here. They interfere with our freedom."

Laurel and Hardy Split; Star Fired

New York, Aug. 17 (AP).—Hal Roach Studios announced tonight that Harry Langdon, pantomimist of the old silent screen, would replace Stan Laurel as movie teammate of Oliver Hardy.

Executive Producer Milton H. Bern said Laurel had been dismissed because of willful "disregard in failing to report" to the studio for retakes on a recent picture.

Ahepa Is Urged To Stress Sports

New Orleans, Aug. 17 (AP).—Van A. Nomikos, of Chicago, supreme vice president and national director of athletics of the American Hellenic Educational Progressive Association in annual convention here, today urged greater emphasis upon athletics by the Ahepa. He proposed an annual allocation of $1,000 for purchase of trophies.

V. I. Chebithes, Washington, D. C., reported membership had grown to more than 50,000.

Lindberghs Reach Moscow's Airport

Moscow, Aug. 17 (U.P.).—Col. and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh arrived at Moscow's central airport tonight in their orange and black monoplane to witness the Soviet Union's annual air show.

Although officials emphasized the transatlantic hero and his wife were here merely as "private tourists" there were reports Lindbergh might discuss with Soviet officials the possibility of establishing regular air service between Moscow and New York.

San Diego Woman Jailed After Threat to Jump

San Diego, Calif., Aug. 17 (AP).—Mrs. Noreen Leonard Macy, 24, was sentenced today to 90 days in jail for the excitement she caused in a downtown street yesterday by threatening to jump from a tenth-floor window ledge. She pleaded guilty to charges of intoxication and disturbing the peace.

Wife of Sen. Ashurst, Ill, Is 'Holding Own'

Prescott, Ariz., Aug. 17 (AP).—Senator Henry F. Ashurst said today Mrs. Ashurst, who underwent a major operation Saturday, spent a "poor night, but is holding her own."

"The crisis will not be reached for several days," he said.

Absentee Voters.

Washington State voters must register in person though they may vote by mail in both the primary and general elections, it was announced yesterday by L. W. Robert, jr., secretary of the Democratic National Committee. The primary election will be held in September and the general election November 8. Registering for the primary must be done by August 27.

Navy Crash Toll 8.

San Diegoo, Calif., Aug. 17 (AP).—Fatalities in the Navy's triple aircraft crashes at Camp Kearny and in San Diego Bay Monday were increased to eight today when R. O. Chrisinger, aviation machinist's mate, third class, died at Naval Hospital.

3 Injured in Rail Crash.

Montreal, Aug. 17 (Canadian Press).—Officials of Canadian National Railways said today "three or four" passengers received minor injuries when eight cars of the Ocean Limited were derailed near Levis, Quebec.

Rogers-Post Party Erects Memorial, Hunts Red Fliers

Barrow, Alaska, Aug. 17 (AP).—A possible clew to the fate of a missing Russian transpolar plane sent members of a Rogers-Post Memorial expedition to Oliktu today for a search near the mouth of the Colville River.

The expedition erected a monument Monday to Will Rogers and Wiley Post, who lost their lives in an Arctic plane crash three years ago.

Members of the party were told by a native that a plane was seen in the water about a year ago on the approximate course of Sigismund Levaneffsky and his five companions.

Reich Near Limit With 68 U-Boats Built or Building

Special Cable to The Post.

Berlin, Aug. 17.—With announcement that Germany has 37 submarines in commission and 31 building, the Reich rapidly is approaching the tonnage limit of U-boats fixed by the Anglo-German naval agreement of 1935.

Germany is availing herself of a clause in the pact which permits a 45-to-100 ratio for submarines provided a sacrifice is made in the tonnage of certain light surface craft. Under a special agreement the Reich might construct up to 100 per cent of the British submarine tonnage.

Apart from the scheduled launching at Kiel on Monday of a third new 10,000-ton cruiser it was disclosed a second 26,000-ton battleship of the new fleet is nearing completion.

Copyright, 1938, New York Tribune, Inc.

Sailor, Ashore for Fun, Knocks 5 Men Down

New York, Aug. 17 (U.P.).—James Coyle, 39, a sailor aboard the U. S. S. Arkansas, told his mates he was going ashore "to have some fun" today, and he did. He met Robert Kane, another sailor with whom he had a previous argument, and knocked him down. Three policemen arrived and he knocked them down. An emergency squad took him to the station where Detective Eugene McNally started to question him, and he knocked McNally down.

U. S., British Plan A Scientific Axis To 'Civilize' War

Cambridge, England, Aug. 17 (AP). British and American scientists are planning a joint effort to modify the death-dealing application of scientific discoveries to modern warfare.

Lord Rayleigh, in his presidential address at the annual convention of the British Association for the Advancement of Science, denied science deserve blame for great strides in development of death-dealing apparatus. He said most discoveries were made with other objects in view.

His speech followed by a week a proposal that a board of scientists and philosophers be created and empowered to give or refuse permits for inventions likely to affect human life.

It was understood that formation of an "Anglo-American science axis" and possibly steps to limit the uses of poison gas and bombs in wartime.

England Will Evacuate School Children in War

Cedar Point, Ohio, Aug. 17 (AP).—Preparations for war in England include plans for evacuation of school children from cities, Mrs. Elsie V. Parker, president of the English National Teachers Union, told the American Federation of Teachers convention today.

Miss Lillian Herstein, of Chicago, was nominated today to oppose Dr. Jerome Davis, incumbent, for presidency of the American Federation.

Imports Down So Far Boston Ignores Japan

Boston, Aug. 17 (AP).—Imports from Japan through the port of Boston have declined so sharply from third place last year that they no longer receive separate listing, the U. S. Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce today revealed. The bureau lists separately only imports from the 14 leading countries.

Indiana Mother Has Twins on Birthday

Evansville, Ind., Aug. 17 (AP).—What a day was yesterday!

Not only was it Mrs. Mary Day's birthday but she gave birth to twin girls.

Papa Sam Day, a grocer, exclaimed: "I'm so darn proud I can't keep my shirt buttoned."

Board Will Investigate Clipper's Disappearance

Appointment of a five-man investigating board to inquire into the disappearance of the Hawaii Clipper between Guam and Manila, July 28, was announced yesterday by Secretary of Commerce Roper.

What's Going On and Where

Breakfast.

Credit Women of Washington, Willard Hotel, 8 a. m.

Luncheons.

Cemetery Association of Maryland and District of Columbia, Hotel Raleigh, 1 p. m.

Cosmopolitan Club, Carlton Hotel, 12:30 p. m.

Ship Movements

SHIP MOVEMENTS.

At New York.

Arrived Yesterday.

Columbus, from Bremen.
Rex, from Naples.
St. John, from Yarmouth.

Arrive Today.

Ecanyork, from Gdynia.
Washington, from Hamburg.

Arrive Tomorrow.

Excambion, from Mediterranean.
Ile de France, from Havre.
New York, from Hamburg.
Rotterdam, from Rotterdam.

Sailing Today.

Black Osprey, for Rotterdam.
Kungsholm, for Gothenburg.

Sailing Tomorrow.

American Merchant, for Plymouth.
Kolsnaren, for Gothenburg.
Mormacsun, for Gothenburg.
Scribia, for Galway.
Veendam, for Rotterdam.

Lanham Urges Plan to Build 2 D. C. Airports

Suggests One Nearby for Short Flights, Farther One for Long.

The possibility that Washington may have two civil airports developed yesterday when the plan was outlined by Representative Lanham, chairman of the House Public Buildings and Grounds Committee.

The two-port suggestion calls for one port near the city—either at the present Washington Airport site or at Gravelly Point—which would serve for short flights. The other port would serve as a terminal for long flights and would be situated at a distance from the city—perhaps at Camp Springs, in southern Maryland.

Advantage of the idea, Lanham said, is that in the event of bad weather or fog making use of either field impossible, the second port could be pressed into service.

To make the suburban port feasible, Lanham suggested construction of a speedway to the city. He added the program would be considered by his committee, which already has held hearings on an airport for the District.

"Our committee," he added, "is not predisposed to any particular site."

Various sites in Virginia and Maryland, as well as the long debated Gravelly Point site, have been studied and recommended by other committees of Congress. President Roosevelt has taken part in the controversy and has spoken favorably of the Gravelly Point site.

Lanham said testimony has indicated enlargement of the present Washington Airport would involve use of the Agriculture Department's experimental farm, to part of which Arlington National Cemetery already has rights.

Lawson's Salary Withheld by Nice As Inquiry Begins

Baltimore, Aug. 17 (AP).—The salary which William P. Lawson has been drawing since he suspended himself as Baltimore police commissioner was ordered withheld by Gov. Harry W. Nice tonight as the grand jury began an investigation into Lawson's brokerage activities.

The Baltimore grand jury investigation which began tonight is the outcome of proceedings brought by the Security and Exchange Commission in the United States Circuit Court in which they sought to obtain an injunction to restrain Lawson from continuing his brokerage business.

Federal Judge W. Calvin Chesnut, who took the case under advisement, said Lawson "undoubtedly sold without authority and turned to his own use customers' property to the value of $75,000."

The Post Radio Time-Table

Thursday, August 18 — Washington — Eastern Standard Time.

	WMAL 456M—630KC	WRC 316M—950KC	WOL 229M—1,310KC	WJSV 206M—1,460KC
6:00		Gor. Hittenmark	Art Brown		6:00
6:15		" "	" "		6:15
6:30	Today's Prelude	" "	" "		6:30
6:45	" "	" "	" "		6:45
7:00	" "	" "	" "	Arthur Godfrey	7:00
7:15	" "	" "	" "	" "	7:15
7:30	Sta. FDS Presents	" "	News	" "	7:30
7:45	" "	" "	Art Brown	" "	7:45
8:00	" "	News	" "	News	8:00
8:15	" "	Gor. Hittenmark	" "	Arthur Godfrey	8:15
8:30	Earl Godwin	" "	News	" "	8:30
8:45	M. Glories	" "	Art Brown	Bach. Children	8:45
9:00	Just Neighbors	Mrs. Wiggs	Singing Strings	Pretty K. Kelly	9:00
9:15	Sear's Orch.	John's Other Wife	Choir Loft	Myrt and Marge	9:15
9:30	Josh Higgins	Just Plain Bill	Variety Prog.	Hilltop House	9:30
9:45	On the Mall	Woman in White	News; Police	Stepmother	9:45
10:00	Pres. Roosevelt	David Harum	Convocation	Mary L. Taylor	10:00
10:15	" "	Lorenzo Jones	of Queens	Women's News	10:15
10:30	Ch in Wildwood	Tete-a-Tete	Univ.	Big Sister	10:30
10:45	Timely Garden	Tropical Moods	" "	Real Life Stories	10:45
11:00	Campus Kids	D. Harding's Wife	M. Potpourri	Tempos	11:00
11:15	George Griffen	The O'Neills	Lee & Mickey	Aladdin's Kitch.	11:15
11:30	National Farm	Mary Mason	Mrs. D. Kushner	Helen Trent	11:30
11:45	and Home Hour	" "	Comm. Calendar	Our Gal Sund'y	11:45

AFTERNOON PROGRAMS.

12:00	" "	News	Luncheon Music	Goldbergs	12:00
12:15	" "	Devotions	News	Vic and Sade	12:15
12:30	Mother-in-law	Words & Music	Royal Rangers	Road of Life	12:30
12:45	News	" " "	Walkathon	Gospel Singer	12:45
1:00	Three Cheers	Betty and Bob	Harold Turner	News	1:00
1:15	Let's Talk	Grimm's Daughter	As You Like It	E. Light's Orch.	1:15
1:30	Rakov's Orch.	Valiant Lady	Joan King	Southern Cruise	1:30
1:45	Pres. Roosevelt	Church Hymns	To be announced	Pres. Roosevelt	1:45
2:00	" "	Mary Marlin	Tony Wakeman	U. S. Army	2:00
2:15	" "	Ma Perkins	" "	Band	2:15
2:30	" "	Young's Family	" "	Varieties	2:30
2:45	" "	Guiding Light	" "	" "	2:45
3:00	Club Matinee	Backstage Wife	News	Washington-	3:00
3:15	" "	Stella Dallas	Tony Wakeman	New York	3:15
3:30	" "	Happy Jack	" "	Baseball	3:30
3:45	" "	Girl Alone	" "	Game	3:45
4:00	The Four of Us	M. of Harmony	" "	" "	4:00
4:15	S. of the West	Nat. Study Prog.	" "	" "	4:15
4:30	Don Winslow	Your Family	Walkathon	" "	4:30
4:45	Shefter & B'ner	H. Folks Frolic	Johnson Family	" "	4:45
5:00	News	Jesse Crawford	Cocktail Capers	Music Moods	5:00
5:15	Resumes	Laura Suarez	H. Weber's Orch.	" "	5:15
5:30	Twilight Tunes	Sports Column	Reveries	Crossroads Hall	5:30
5:45	Lowell Thomas	Sundown Revue	News	Olympic Disc'on	5:45

EVENING PROGRAMS.

6:00	Easy Aces	Amos 'n' Andy	Sports Resume	Ray Heatherton	6:00
6:15	Mr Keen	Varieties	Variety	Arch McDonald	6:15
6:30	Elvira Rios	Mario Cozzi	Program	Del Casino	6:30
6:45	Howard Milner	Native Notes	Do You Believe It	Boake Carter	6:45
7:00	Stepping	Rudy Vallee	Fulton Lewis, Jr.	Men Age. Death	7:00
7:15	Ahead	" "	Sinfonietta	" "	7:15
7:30	Missing Hits	" "	Green Hornet	Goldman Band	7:30
7:45	" "	" "	" "	Concert	7:45
8:00	Pulitzer	Riddles &	Concert	Maj. Bowes	8:00
8:15	Prize Play	Rhythms	Crosby's Orch.	" "	8:15
8:30	" " "	Dreams Come	Lombardo's	" "	8:30
8:45	" " "	True	Orchestra	" "	8:45
9:00	People I	Music Hall	Press Time	B'ball Interview	9:00
9:15	Have Known	" "	" "	Of Men and B.	9:15
9:30	" "	" "	Concert Revue	Americans at	9:30
9:45	" "	" "	" "	Work	9:45
10:00	Ink Spots	News	" "	President	10:00
10:15	E. Schallert	Melody Lane	B. Locke's Orch.	Roosevelt	10:15
10:30	" "	R. Himber's Orch.	Walkathon	E. Duchin's	10:30
10:45	L. Clinton's Or.	" " "	Field's Orch.	Orchestra	10:45
11:00	News	Sports Resume	News	J. Long's	11:00
11:15	Music You Want	Modern	Kyser's Orch.	Orchestra	11:15
11:30	" " "	Music	J. Dorsey's	Ted Weem's	11:30
11:45	" " "	Maestros	Orchestra	Orchestra	11:45
12:00	Night Watchman	Missing Persons	Delange's	Weather Report	12:00
12:15		Sign off	Orchestra	Sign off	12:15
12:30			J. Livingston's		12:30
12:45			Orchestra		12:45
1:00			Dance Music		1:00
1:15			" "		1:15
1:30			" "		1:30
1:45			" "		1:45
2:00	Sign off		Sign off		2:00

The Weather

Today's Sun and Tide Table

(Furnished by United States Department of Commerce, Coast and Geodetic Survey.)

	A.M.	P.M.
Sun rises	5:23
Sun sets		7:00
High tide	12:33	12:53
Low tide	7:21	7:17

Weather Conditions.

U. S. Dept. of Agriculture, Weather Bureau, Washington, Wednesday, Aug. 17, 7:30 p.m.

Forecast for the District of Columbia—Partly cloudy, not so warm Thursday; Friday fair, slowly rising temperature; gentle northwest winds.

For Maryland—Partly cloudy, not so warm in central portion Thursday; Friday fair, slowly rising temperature in interior.

For Virginia—Partly cloudy, possibly local showers in south portion; not so warm in north and west central portions Thursday; Friday partly cloudy, slowly rising temperature in interior.

Conditions.

The disturbance that was over lower Michigan Tuesday night has advanced to southern Quebec. San Maur, 29.46 inches, with a trough extending southward to the Carolinas. Another disturbance is advancing eastward over northeastern Montana. Havre, 29.58 inches. Pressure continues high over the Canadian maritime provinces, Belle Isle, Newfoundland, 30.30 inches, and Sable Island, Nova Scotia, 30.24 inches. A weak high-pressure area is advancing eastward over the upper Mississippi Valley. Des Moines, Iowa, 30.08 inches, and pressure is relatively high on the Middle Gulf Coast, Fort Eads, La., 30.04 inches.

Local Weather Report.

Temperature—Midnight, 80; 2 a. m., 78; 4 a. m., 76; 6 a. m., 76; 8 a. m., 83; 10 a. m., 87; 12 noon, 90; 2 p. m., 95; 4 p. m., 75; 6 p. m., 76; 8 p. m., 75; 10 p. m., 75. Highest, 95. Lowest, 74.

Relative humidity—7:30 a. m., 72; 1:30 p. m., 45; 7:30 p. m., 82. Rainfall (7:30 p. m. to 7:30 p. m.), .86 inch. Hours of sunshine, 8.1. Per cent of possible sunshine, 60.

Departures From Normal.

Accumulated excess of temperature since January 1, 1938, 716 degrees.

Excess of temperature since August 1, 1938, 87 degrees.

Accumulated deficiency of precipitation since January 1, 1938, 5.75 inches.

Excess of precipitation since August 1, 1938, 89 inch.

Temperatures and Precipitation.

Temperatures and precipitation in other cities for 24 hours ended Wednesday 7:30 p. m.

	Highest Wed.	Lowest night	Wed. 7:30 p. m.	Rainfall.
Washington, D. C.	95	75	76	0.86
Asheville, N. C.	90	66	72	....
Atlanta, Ga.	94	74	86	....
Atlantic City, N. J.	88	72	74	1.26
Baltimore, Md.	94	78	78	0.09
Birmingham, Ala.	94	70	86	....
Bismarck, N. Dak.	90	52	86	....
Boston, Mass.	76	66	74	2.00
Buffalo, N. Y.	78	70	72	0.18
Cheyenne, Wyo.	82	50	78	....
Chicago, Ill.	74	64	72	0.04
Cincinnati, Ohio	84	76	74	....
Cleveland, Ohio	80	76	68	....
Dallas, Tex.	96	74	94	....
Davenport, Iowa	84	60	80	....
Denver, Colo.	82	60	80	....
Des Moines, Iowa	82	60	80	....
Detroit, Mich.	74	72	72	....
Duluth, Minn.	86	58	78	....
El Paso, Tex.	92	72	72	0.14
Galveston, Tex.	88	80	84	....
Helena, Mont.	82	48	76	....
Huron, S. Dak.	88	56	88	....
Indianapolis, Ind.	76	70	76	....
Jacksonville, Fla.	96	72	90	....
Kansas City, Mo.	86	64	82	....
Little Rock, Ark.	92	70	88	....
Los Angeles, Calif.	68	62	68	....
Louisville, Ky.	82	78	74	0.18
Marquette, Mich.	74	58	70	0.08
Memphis, Tenn.	90	72	86	....
Miami, Fla.	88	80	82	....
Mpls-St. P., Minn.	88	60	84	....
Mobile, Ala.	96	76	92	....
New

Read This Wide Selection of the Capital's Most Desirable Vacancies

Legal Record

MOTIONS COURT.
Justice Letts.

Assignments for Thursday.

McCarthy vs. McCarthy; rule.

Hackley vs. Hackley. Attys., Brick—Munter.

Cahill vs. Conner et al.; rule.

Biggins vs. Biggins. Atty., Smith.

Degges vs. Degges; rule.

Culliton vs. Culliton. Attys., Boardman—Chadwick.

Carter vs. Carter; rule.

Woolard vs. Woolard; rule.

Swanson vs. Swanson; rule.

Jackson vs. Jackson; rule.

Dalziel vs. Dalziel; rule.

McLaughlin vs. McLaughlin; rule.

Hockett vs. Hockett; rule.

Martin, Jr., vs. Holmes et al.; rule.

Lawsuits.

Frederick G. Pence, etc. vs. Bruce L. Melvin, et al.; damages, $10.000. Atty., John P. Labofish.

The Capital Transit Co.; to use of Arthur E. Wampler vs. George E. Walker, Inc.; damages, $10.000. Atty., Ralph T. Powell.

Harry B. Hackman vs. Joseph B. Shepherd; damages, $10.000. Atty., Lester Wood.

Equity Suits.

Harry Ferris et al. vs. Vivian Freeman et al.; substitute trustee. Attys., Schall, Bowder & McKenny. Charles J. Brandt, David L. Blanken, William H. Labofish.

George E. Marsh vs. Commercial National Bank of Washington, trustee; substitute trustee. Atty., Harry A. Grant.

Re substitution of trustee under deed of trust on lot 62, sq. 111. Atty., Andrew B. Duvall.

Re Albert Kaminsky; change name. Atty., H. Max Ammerman.

De Witt F. Drew vs. Commissioners of D. C.; injunction. Atty., Albert Lyman.

Anna M. Yeabower et al. vs. William F. Barens et al.; partition. Atty., John E. Laskey.

Bankruptcy Petitions.

Re O. O. Tarrant Co., Inc.; voluntary assets, $401.65; liabilities, $14,416.40. Atty., I. Brill.

Re Alva Brewer; voluntary assets, $185; liabilities, $2,573.63. Attys., Lowrey & Busby.

MOTIONS COURT.
Justice Proctor, Presiding.

Langley vs. Langley; decree proconfesso against all defendants.

Lee vs. Lee; order denying motion to reduce alimony.

Parrella vs. Parrella; order for alimony pendente lite.

Smoot vs. Smoot; rule continued to August 24.

Donaldson vs. Donaldson; William J. Kelly appointed to defend.

Schuster vs. Schuster; James K. Hughes appointed to defend.

Ivo Duro; James Duro; J. C. Turco granted leave to withdraw.

Packel vs. Prout et al.; order appointing process server.

Re Mrs. Hester M. Walker; order for discharge.

Massey et al. vs. Hyson et al.; final decree confirming private offer of sale.

Re William C. Walker; order for discharge.

Re Alva B. Brewer; adjudication and order of reference.

Golden vs. Golden; rule continued to August 19.

Young vs. Young; rule continued to August 26.

Forman & Sons vs. Hall; judgment by default vs. deft for $2,291, with interest from January 4, 1937, and costs.

Poindexter vs. Poindexter; order for temporary maintenance.

Clipper vs. Clipper; order for maintenance pendente lite.

Saunders vs. Saunders; adjudication and order of commitment.

Marsh vs. Commercial National Bank of Washington; trustee, order appointing substitute trustee.

O'Keefe vs. O'Keefe; order of publication.

In re Albert S. Tamorria; order continuing hearing to August 25.

Loy vs. Miller et al.; order appointing receiver pendente lite.

Masia vs. Myerson, et al.; order granting leave to amend bill.

Krey vs. Wilson, et al.; publication ordered.

Patterson vs. Widmayer; motion for security for costs denied without prejudice.

Hellweg vs. C. and P. Telephone Co.; time to file bill exceptions extended to September 10.

In re Lot 62, square 111; order appointing sub trustee.

Stickney vs. Stickney; order entering rule absolute and overruling motion to increase maintenance.

Hooff vs. Hooff; order vacating order of May 14 and 16 for alimony.

King vs. King; order of publication.

McKean vs. Speidel et al.; order of publication.

Aiken vs. Schuckers, et al.; order reinstating cause.

Bernstein vs. Unknown Heirs, etc., William Blaine, et al.; order appointing process server.

In re Albert Kaminsky; order of publication.

McGolrick vs. Wolf, et al.; decree substituting trustee.

Probate Proceedings.

Estate of Maria Colaizzi; letters testamentary granted George Colecchia; bond $1,000. Attys., Turco, DeNunzio & Chessin.

Estate of Maria Giangiulio; letters testamentary granted Carmela Campasano; special bond, $1,000. Atty., Thomas F. Burke.

Estate of Charles A. Rounds; letters of administration granted Elizabeth W. Rounds; bond, $4,000. Atty., Julian C. Hammack.

Estate of John C. Heide; letters testamentary granted Catherine L. Heide; bond, $1,000. Attys., Simon, Koenigsberger & Young.

Estate of Amy E. Adams; letters testamentary granted Percy C. Adams; special bond, $1,000. Atty., George W. Dalzell.

Estate of John C. Sullivan; letters testamentary granted Mary A. Ellen T. and Elizabeth G. Sullivan; special bond, $2,000. Atty., J. Carroll Hayes.

Estate of Bridget McCormack; letters testamentary granted Catherine and Ann McCormack; special bond, $1,000. Atty., William J. Sullivan.

Estate of Catherine A. Cleary; letters of administration granted Matthew J. O'Callaghan; special bond, $1,000. Atty., M. J. O'Callaghan, Jr.

Estate of Myer Landerman; order vacating commission, etc.; further directing commission to issue. Attys., Shigo & Welsh.

Estate of Frank L. Attwell; order of publication. Attys., Neudecker & Ashford.

Estate of Anna M. Moulton; order of publication. Atty., Vincent A. Sheehy, jr.

Estate of Hattie T. Kenyon; three appraisers appointed. Attys., Hoehling & Ogilby.

Estate of Joseph M. Ribes; order for rule to show cause. Attys., Brashears, Townsend, O'Brien & Beasley.

Estate of Anna von Bergen Kluepfel; order amending records. Atty., B. H. Conn.

Estate of Irene Moore; order authorizing sale. Attys., Syme & Syme.

Estate of Rosa B. Eiseman; order authorizing sale of stock. Atty., N. M. Luber.

Estate of Judith L. Steele; sale of tangible personal property ordered. Attys., Marsh & Rogers.

Estate of Beverly C. Tuckson; order overruling motion to dismiss petition. Attys., J. C. Turco, J. H. De Nunzio, Jesse H. Chessin.

Estate of Maurice Solain; will filed dated July 22, 1936.

Estate of Mary B. Hatfield; will filed dated April 29, 1936.

Estate of Silas A. Manuel; order authorizing partial distribution. Attys., Williams & Williams.

DIED.

BLANCHARD, ARTHUR. On Tuesday, August 16, 1938, at Garfield Hospital, ARTHUR BLANCHARD, of the Schuyler Arms Apartments, 1954 Columbia rd. nw. Friends are invited to call at Gawler's, 1756 Pennsylvania ave. nw. Services at Gawler's Chapel, 1750 Pennsylvania ave. nw., on Thursday, August 18, at 2 p. m. Interment Rock Creek Cemetery.

BLESSING, ETHEL MAE. On Tuesday, August 16, 1938, at her residence, 418 11th st. ne., ETHEL MAE BLESSING, wife of John F. Blessing. Services will be held at Zurhorst's funeral parlors, [illegible] Capitol st., on Thursday, August 18, at 2 p. m. Interment Cedar Hill Cemetery.

BURDETTE, THEODORE HAMILTON. Suddenly, on Tuesday, August 16, 1938, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Beavers, 4113 13th pl. ne., THEODORE HAMILTON BURDETTE, beloved son of the late Margaret and Ira Burdette. Funeral services at the W. W. Chambers Co. suburban funeral home, 916 Cleveland ave., Riverdale, Md., on Friday, August 19, at 1:30 p. m. Relatives and friends invited. Interment Arlington National Cemetery (Memorial Gate entrance at 3 p. m.)

BURROWS, WILLIAM H. On Monday, August 15, 1938, at his residence, 304 Pennsylvania ave. se., WILLIAM H. BURROWS, the beloved son of the late William H. and Margaret S. Burrows and brother of Mr. C. B. Spates, Mrs. Howard Blandy and Edmund S. Burrows. Funeral from the James T. Ryan funeral home, 317 Pennsylvania ave. se., on Thursday, August 18, at 2 p. m. Relatives and friends invited. Interment Cedar Hill Cemetery.

COFFIN, GEORGE T. On Tuesday, August 16, 1938, GEORGE T. COFFIN, beloved husband of Emma A. Coffin and father of Frank A., Esther M. and Fay L. Coffin. Friends are invited to call at the Takoma funeral home, 277 Carroll st., Takoma Park, D. C. Funeral services at the Takoma Park S. D. A. Church on Thursday, August 18, at 2 p. m. Relatives and friends are invited. Interment Washington Memorial Park.

DIED.

CASSIDY, CHARLES E. On Monday, August 15, 1938, at Mount Alto Hospital, CHARLES E. CASSIDY. Funeral from the W. W. Chambers Co. funeral home, 1400 Chapin st. nw., on Thursday, August 18, at 10 a. m. Relatives and friends invited. Interment Arlington National Cemetery.

DISMER, HENRY F. E. On Wednesday, August 17, 1938, HENRY F. E. DISMER, beloved husband of the late Elizabeth M. Dismer (nee Ardeeser) and father of Henry C. C. Dismer and Mrs. Carrie Gill. Funeral from his late residence, 1339 Montague st. nw., on Saturday, August 20, at 11 a. m. Relatives and friends invited.

DU HAMEL, LOLA Y. On Wednesday, August 17, 1938, at Walter Reed General Hospital, LOLA Y. DU HAMEL, the wife of James F. Du Hamel and mother of Mrs. George J. Newgarden, Jr., Mrs. Albert H. Burton and Lieut. Col. Notley Y. Du Hamel. Requiem mass at St. Matthew's Church on Friday, August 19, at 10 a. m.

EASTHAM, JENNIE R. On Wednesday, August 17, 1938, at Georgetown Hospital, JENNIE R. EASTHAM, the beloved mother of Robert L. Eastham and Mrs. Mary E. Mitchell. Remains resting at the W. W. Chambers Co. funeral home, 1400 Chapin st. nw., until Friday, August 19, at 11 a. m. Brief service and interment in Fairview Cemetery, Culpeper, Va., on Friday, August 19, at 2 p. m.

FULLER, MILTON WILLARD. On Wednesday, August 17, 1938, MILTON WILLARD FULLER, beloved son of Annie L. Fuller and brother of Edward E. Fuller. Funeral services at this W. W. Chambers Co. Southeast funeral home, 517 11th st. se., on Thursday, August 18, at 8 p. m. Relatives and friends invited. Graveside services and interment Lawn Croft Cemetery, Chester, Pa., on Friday, August 19, at 1 p. m.

HOUSEKNECHT, WILLIAM THEODORE. On Wednesday, August 17, 1938, at his residence, Ammendale, Md., WILLIAM THEODORE HOUSEKNECHT, beloved husband of Gloriana Houseknecht and father of Naomi Shreve, Ruth Riley, James Larue Houseknecht, Elizabeth Malonee and Lena Houseknecht. Funeral services at his late residence, Ammendale, Md. Notice of time later. Services by W. W. Chambers Co. Suburban funeral home, 918 Cleveland ave., Riverdale, Md.

HUNT, CHARLES W. On Tuesday, August 16, 1938, CHARLES W. HUNT, husband of Clara A. Hunt. Services at the S. H. Hines Co. funeral home, 2901 14th st. nw., on Friday, August 19, at 9:30 a. m.

HUSE, EDWARD A. On Wednesday, August 17, 1938, at Sibley Memorial Hospital, EDWARD A. HUSE, of 3305 22d st. nw., beloved husband of Jean L. Huse. Remains resting at Hysong's funeral home, 1300 N st. nw. Notice of funeral later.

HUTHER, MARY EMILY. On Wednesday, August 17, 1938, at her residence, MARY EMILY HUTHER, beloved mother of Mrs. Sam P. Hatchett and Mrs. Agnes B. Stallings. Funeral services at W. W. Chambers Co. funeral home, 1400 Chapin st., on Friday, August 19, at 10:30 a. m. Relatives and friends invited. Interment Glenwood Cemetery.

JONES, AGNES. On Wednesday, August 17, 1938, at Garfield Hospital, AGNES JONES, the beloved mother of Mrs. Leona J. Francis, of 1360 Fairmont st. nw. Remains resting at the W. W. Chambers Co. funeral home, 1400 Chapin st. nw. Notice of funeral later.

LINN, JAMES G. On Wednesday, August 17, 1938, at Emergency Hospital, JAMES G. LINN, of the Alabama Apts. Interment Carlisle, Pa. Washington arrangements by Hysong's funeral home, 1300 N st. nw.

LIPPHARD, ELIZABETH N. On Tuesday, August 16, 1938, ELIZABETH N. LIPPHARD, widow of Adolf F. Lipphard. Services at the T. Frank Murray funeral home, 714 11th st. se., on Thursday, August 18, at 2 p. m. Relatives and friends invited. Interment Congressional Cemetery.

MATTIA, JOSEPH. On Monday, August 15, 1938, JOSEPH MATTIA, beloved husband of Mary Mattia (nee Forrest), father of Louis and Robert Mattia, brother of Theodore and Oliver Mattia and son of Mrs. Frances Mattia. Funeral from the residence of his aunt, Mrs. A. L. Dariano, 716 5th st. nw., on Thursday, August 18, at 8:30 a. m. Requiem high mass at St. Mary's Church at 9 a. m. Interment Mount Olivet Cemetery. Relatives and friends invited.

MORGAN, IDA. On Wednesday, August 17, 1938, at her residence, 3307 Porter st. nw., IDA MORGAN, mother of Mrs. Harvey Baltwood, Washington, D. C., and Sanford B. Morgan, Denver Colo. Services at the S. H. Hines Co. funeral home, 2901 14th st. nw., on Friday, August 19, at 3 p. m. Interment Denver, Colo. Please omit flowers.

PRIOR, KATE. On Tuesday, August 16, 1938, at the Presbyterian Home, KATE PRIOR, age 87 years. Funeral services at the Presbyterian Home, 1818 Newton st. nw., on Thursday, August 18, at 11 a. m. Interment Glenwood Cemetery.

PUGH, WILLIAM T. On Wednesday, August 17, 1938, at his residence, 327 C st. se., WILLIAM T. PUGH, the beloved husband of Josephine Pugh and father of Mae Alice and Lillie Pugh. Notice of funeral services later. Services by the W. W. Chambers Co. Southeast funeral home.

SANFORD, GEORGE E. Jr. Suddenly, on Saturday, August 13, 1938, GEORGE E. SANFORD, Jr., beloved son of George E. and Nellie R. Sanford. Funeral from his late residence, 1213 K st. se., on Thursday, August 18, at 3 p. m. Interment Congressional Cemetery. Relatives and friends invited.

SMITH, RALPH PALMER, Jr. On Tuesday, August 16, 1938, at Children's Hospital, RALPH PALMER SMITH, Jr., beloved infant son of Ralph Palmer Smith, sr., and Jacqueline Laycock Smith, of Arlington, Va. Remains resting at 1854 South Vermont st., Arlington, Va., where funeral services will be held Friday, August 19, at 2 p. m. Interment Columbia Gardens Cemetery.

SPARKS, JOSEPH B. On Wednesday, August 17, 1938, at his residence, 2505 Bunker Hill road ne., JOSEPH B. SPARKS, beloved husband of the late Mary E. Doyle Sparks and father of Donna May Mulquin, Emma Joe Sparks and Mrs. Clara Belle Moore, all of Washington, D. C. Funeral services at the S. H. Hines Co. funeral home, 2901 14th st. nw., on Saturday, August 20, at 11 a. m. Interment Cedar Hill Cemetery.

FUNERAL DESIGNS.

GUDE BROS. CO., Florists
1212 F St. NAtional 4276.

Small's Flowers. DUpont 7000
Sprays $3.00 Up. Dupont Circle

GEO C. SHAFFER 900 14TH St. N.W.
Expressive Floral Tributes. Phone:
Moderate prices. Open Eve. & Sun. NA. 0106

FUNERAL DIRECTORS

J. WILLIAM LEE'S SONS CO.
FUNERAL DIRECTORS.
CREMATORIUM
4th and Mass. Ave. N.E. LI. 5200.

NAPOLEON AND UNCLE ELBY

By Clifford McBride

DIED

SWEENEY, JOANNA. On Tuesday, August 16, 1938, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. S. A. Mullikin, West Phalia, Md., JOANNA SWEENEY, wife of the late William R. Sweeney. Services at St. Thomas Episcopal Church at Croon, Md., on Friday, August 19, at 11 a. m. Interment church cemetery.

TRACEY, AUGUSTUS. On Monday, August 15, 1938, at his residence, 482 G st. sw., Master Sergt. AUGUSTUS TRACEY (retired), beloved husband of Rebecca Tracey (nee Nagle) and father of Mrs. Esther R. Reed and Mrs. Mabel T. Newman. Funeral services at his late residence on Thursday, August 18, at 1 p. m. Relatives and friends invited. Interment Arlington National Cemetery. (Baltimore papers please copy.)

WALLACE, KATHERINE SEELYE. On Wednesday, August 17, 1938, at her residence, 3112 South Dakota ave. ne., KATHERINE SEELYE WALLACE, beloved wife of Dr. Benjamin S. Wallace. Funeral services at her late residence on Friday, August 19, at 5:30 p. m. Services by W. W. Chambers Co. Suburban funeral home, 918 Cleveland ave., Riverdale, Md.

WATERS, EDWIN. On Monday, August 15, 1938, EDWIN WATERS, beloved husband of Mary E. Waters. Services at the home of his son, E. Griffith Waters, 9414 Georgia ave., Silver Spring, Md., on Thursday, August 18, at 10 a. m. Interment Goshen Cemetery.

Proposals

COMMISSIONERS, D. C., WASHINGTON, August 18, 1938. Sealed proposals will be received at Room 320, District Building, until 2 o'clock p. m., September 6, 1938, for furnishing twenty-five thousand reflector units for the D. C. Penal Institutions. Specifications and information at Room 320, District Building.

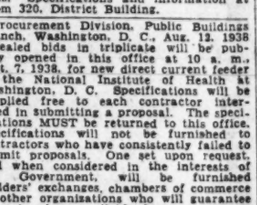
Procurement Division, Public Buildings Branch, Washington, D. C., Aug. 12, 1938.—Sealed bids in triplicate will be publicly opened in this office at 10 a. m., Sept. 7, 1938, for new direct current feeder at the National Institute of Health at Washington, D. C. Specifications will be supplied free to each contractor interested in submitting a proposal. The specifications MUST be returned to this office. Specifications will not be furnished to contractors who have consistently failed to submit proposals. One set upon request, and when considered in the interests of the Government, will be furnished builders' exchanges, chambers of commerce or other organizations who will guarantee to make them available for any sub-contractor or material firm interested, and to quantity surveyors, but this privilege will be withdrawn if the sets are not returned after they have accomplished their purpose. W. E. REYNOLDS, Assistant Director of Procurement, Public Buildings Branch. 18.20.22

Legal Notices

ROBERT I. SILVERMAN, Attorney
Hill Building.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE United States for the District of Columbia. Yetta Becker, trustee, et al., plaintiffs, vs. Louis Becker et al., defendants. Equity No. 44751. Order nisi. Yetta Becker, trustee under the last will and testament of Max Becker, deceased, having reported to the Court that she has received an offer from S. A. Gentry to purchase lot 1 in square 333 improved by premises known as 1201 Kennedy street nw. in the District of Columbia, at and for the price of Fourteen Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($14,500) subject to commission of Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00), and it appearing that a report has been filed by three appraisers appointed by the Court stating that said offer is fair and reasonable. It is, by the Court, this sixteenth day of August, 1938, adjudged, ordered and decreed that the said sale be ratified and confirmed unless cause to the contrary be shown on or before the TWENTY-NINTH DAY OF AUGUST, 1938; provided a copy of this order be published in The Washington Post newspaper for 10 successive days and the Washington Law Reporter for two successive weeks. (Signed) JAMES M. PROCTOR, Justice. A true copy. Test (Seal.) CHARLES E. STEWART, Clerk. By H. B. DERTZBAUGH, Assistant Clerk. 18-27

FUNERAL DIRECTORS



W. W. CHAMBERS
Call Col. 0432

$75 up
ONE PRICE INCLUDES EVERYTHING FOR A complete FUNERAL

Joseph GAWLER'S Sons
1750-58 Penn. Ave. N.W. NAtional 5512
A Washington Institution Since 1850

The Refreshingly COOL
Gawler Establishment
Is the Ideal Place for Funeral Services

DURING the trying time of bereavement, there is no greater aid to overwrought nerves and mind than the cool, soothing atmosphere of the beautiful, homelike Gawler Establishment. You will be charmed with the tasteful appointments and privacy that we offer for your comfort, and we invite you to have the services here.

Information for Guidance:
Prices of 1000 Consecutive Adult Services, as Selected by Our Patrons:

75 Services Under		$150
132 "	$151 to	$250
225 "	$251 to	$350
267 "	$351 to	$500
140 "	$501 to	$600
127 "	$601 to	$900
34 "	Above	$900

Cremations • Lady Attendant (Reg. Nurse)
Chapel With Pipe Organ

Alfred B. Gawler — Walter A. Gawler
William A. Gawler — Joseph H. Gawler

Just West of the White House

Legal Notices

The Treasury Department, Office of the Comptroller of the Currency, Washington, D. C., August 10, 1938. Notice is hereby given to all persons who may have claims against "The Fidelity Building and Loan Association of Washington, D. C." that immediate steps will be taken to terminate the receivership and that all persons who have not heretofore filed proofs of claims with the receiver under the notice previously published should do so not later than August 22, 1938, with the Receiver, James H. Nolan, 610 13th Street, N. W., Washington, D. C., inasmuch as the receivership will be closed and terminated after said date without reference to claims that have not been duly established. E. H. GOUGH, Acting Comptroller of the Currency.

R. G. SHURE, Attorney.
Citizens Bank Bldg.

IN THE MUNICIPAL COURT OF THE District of Columbia. J. Arthur Walters, trading as Takoma Funeral Home, 277 Carroll street northwest, Washington, D. C., plaintiff, vs. Adelaide Shupp, defendant. No. 371-415. Order of publication. The object of this suit is to recover judgment against the defendant, Adelaide Shupp, for funeral services rendered, pursuant to her order of June 16, 1938, for the deceased Mrs. Anna Elizabeth Boyle, in the sum of two hundred seventy-five ($275.00) dollars, and to have judgment of condemnation of property of the defendant levied on under attachment issued in this suit to satisfy the plaintiff's claim. It is, therefore, this 10th day of August, 1938, ordered that the defendant appear in this Court on or before the fortieth day, exclusive of Sundays and legal holidays, after the day of the first publication of this order, to defend this suit and show cause why said condemnation should not be had; otherwise the suit will be proceeded with as in case of default. ELLEN K. RAEDY, Judge. A true copy. Test: (Seal.) BLANCHE NEFF, Clerk.

HENRY S. GOODMAN, Attorney,
1039 Investment Building.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE United States for the District of Columbia. Alice Malone O'Keefe, 1231 Penn street northeast, Washington, D. C., plaintiff, vs. Francis O'Keefe, 1409 Perry place northwest, Washington, D. C., defendant. No. 67669. Equity. The object of this suit is to obtain an absolute divorce by the plaintiff, Alice Malone O'Keefe, from the defendant, Francis H. O'Keefe, on the grounds of desertion for more than two years. On motion of the plaintiff, it is this 17th day of August, 1938, ordered that the defendant, Francis H. O'Keefe, cause his appearance to be entered herein on or before the fortieth day, exclusive of Sundays and legal holidays, occurring after the day of the first publication of this order; otherwise as to them, this cause will be proceeded with as in case of default, provided a copy of this order be published once a week for three successive weeks in the Washington Law Reporter and The Washington Post, longer publication having been dispensed with for satisfactory cause shown. By the court: JAMES M. PROCTOR, Justice. A true copy. Test: (Seal.) CHARLES E. STEWART, Clerk. By H. B. DERTZBAUGH, Assistant Clerk. 18.25.1

Auction Sales

FRIDAY, AUGUST 19, 1938—
ADAM A. WESCHLER & SON, Auctioneers.

TRUSTEES' SALE OF GROCERY AND MEAT MARKET FIXTURES, STOCK IN TRADE, FORD TRUCK, ETC.

By virtue of a chattel deed of trust filed January 12, 1937, as instrument No. 905 among the records of the Recorder of Deeds, District of Columbia, and at the request of the party secured thereby the undersigned trustees will sell by public auction, at the Model Market, 3627 12th st. ne., on FRIDAY, AUGUST 19, 1938, AT TWO O'CLOCK P. M., the merchandise, stock in trade, equipment, fixtures and all and every other article of personal property located in the store premises at the above premises; and a certain Ford truck, 1936, Engine No. 2236224, Serial No. 7222.

TERMS: Cash.

BENJAMIN CRIPASI,
PAUL B. CRIPASI,
Trustees.

P—Ag.16.18.19

FRIDAY, AUGUST 26—
THOS. J. OWEN & SON, Auctioneers.
1431 Eye Street Northwest.

TRUSTEES' SALE OF VALUABLE DWELLING KNOWN AS PREMISES NO. 3412 TEXAS AVENUE SOUTHEAST.

By virtue of a certain deed of trust duly recorded in Liber No. 7148, Folio 441 et seq. of the land records of the District of Columbia, and at the request of the party secured thereby, the undersigned trustees will sell, at public auction within the office of Thos. J. Owen & Son, 1431 Eye St. N.W., on FRIDAY, THE 26TH DAY OF AUGUST, A. D. 1938, AT ONE O'CLOCK P. M., the following-described land and premises situate in the District of Columbia, and designated as and being Lot 40 in Square 5538 in the subdivision by Randle Estate, Inc., and Randle and Garvin, Inc., of part of a tract of land called Anon as per plat recorded in the Office of the Surveyor for the District of Columbia in Liber 106 at folio 47.

TERMS: Sold subject to a prior deed of trust for $4,700.00, of which $1,410.00 has not been advanced, further particulars of which will be announced at time of sale; the purchase price above said trust to be paid in cash. A deposit of $250.00 required. Conveyancing, recordings, etc., at purchaser's cost. Terms to be complied with within thirty days, otherwise deposit forfeited and the property may be advertised and resold at the discretion of the trustees.

THOMAS R. JARBOE,
GEORGE H. MARSHALL,
Trustees.

P—aug16.18.20.23.25.

Lost and Found 1

CANOE, nr. Fletcher's boathouse, dark blue. Bolling Field insignia; reward. WE. 2747.

COLLIE PUP, male, found near 9th and K sts. ne. Lincoln 4040-J.

FOUND—Male police dog, black and brown female mixed terrier, black and white female mixed collie police, brown. Call Dog Pound, NAtl. 6000.

FOUND—Police dog, male, brown and gray; Boltz, female, mixed; mixed police and collie, brown; terrier female, light brown. Call NAt. 6000.

Legal Notices

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE United States for the District of Columbia, holding an Equity Court. Eva A. Kerr, plaintiff, vs. Charles A. Wilson et al., defendants. Equity No. 67658. Order of publication. The object of this suit is to establish of record the title of the plaintiff by adverse possession to lots 24 and 25 in J. F. Callan's subdivision of lots in square 480, as per plat recorded in the Office of the Surveyor of the District of Columbia in Liber N. K. at folio 258; lot 24 being improved by premises No. 1341 Sixth street northwest, and lot 25 being improved by premises No. 1343 and 1345 Sixth street northwest. Upon motion of the plaintiff, it is this 17th day of August, 1938, ordered that the defendants, Charles A. Wilson, William Wilson Ketcham, William Emery Ketcham, Bessie or Elizabeth Taylor, Cora E. Ketcham, Laura G. Foote and Charles K. Westbrook, cause their appearance to be entered herein on or before the first rule day occurring after the expiration of forty days, exclusive of Sundays and legal holidays, from the day of the first publication of this order; otherwise as to them, this cause will be proceeded with as in case of default, provided a copy of this order be published once a week for three successive weeks in the Washington Law Reporter and The Washington Post, longer publication having been dispensed with for satisfactory cause shown. By the court: JAMES M. PROCTOR, Justice. A true copy. Test: (Seal.) CHARLES E. STEWART, Clerk. By H. B. DERTZBAUGH, Assistant Clerk. 18.25.1

JOHN J. CARMODY, Attorney for Plaintiff.
815 Fifteenth Street Northwest.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE United States for the District of Columbia, holding an Equity Court. Eva A. Kerr, plaintiff, vs. Charles A. Wilson et al., defendants. Equity No. 67658. Order of publication. The object of this suit is to establish of record the title of the plaintiff by adverse possession to lots 24 and 25 in J. F. Callan's subdivision of lots in square 480, as per plat recorded in the Office of the Surveyor of the District of Columbia in Liber N. K. at folio 258; lot 24 being improved by premises No. 1341 Sixth street northwest, and lot 25 being improved by premises No. 1343 and 1345 Sixth street northwest. Upon motion of the plaintiff, it is this 17th day of August, 1938, ordered that the defendants, Charles A. Wilson, William Wilson Ketcham, William Emery Ketcham, Bessie or Elizabeth Taylor, Cora E. Ketcham, Laura G. Foote and Charles K. Westbrook, cause their appearance to be entered herein on or before the first rule day occurring after the expiration of forty days, exclusive of Sundays and legal holidays, from the day of the first publication of this order; otherwise as to them, this cause will be proceeded with as in case of default, provided a copy of this order be published once a week for three successive weeks in the Washington Law Reporter and The Washington Post, longer publication having been dispensed with for satisfactory cause shown. By the court: JAMES M. PROCTOR, Justice. A true copy. Test: (Seal.) CHARLES E. STEWART, Clerk. By H. B. DERTZBAUGH, Assistant Clerk. 18.25.1

Help—Male 12

AUTO MECHANIC, experienced on Bear frame and alignment machine. None other need apply. Central Auto Works, 443 Eye st. nw.

BARBER—White, for Friday and Saturday; $10 guarantee and percentage. 2123 Pa. ave. nw.

BARBER wanted; sober. 1131 15th st. nw., Service Barber Shop.

BARBER—First class; steady. 2807 Wilson blvd., Arlington, Va.

BOYS to sell ice cream novelties on tricycles. Apply Smiles Ice Cream Co., 1325 Water st. sw.

BOYS, neat-appearing, 18 to 20 years, to sell ice cream on tricycles. Apply Jack and Jill Ice Cream Co., 1001 E st. nw.

BOYS—White, 18 to 21 years, to learn stationery business; chance for advancement. Apply 10 a. m. Stockett-Flake Co., 919 E st. nw.

BUS DRIVERS—Only men with experience driving buses and who possess a D. C. identification card need apply. Satisfactory recommendations from former employers required. Call Dist. 4104 for appointment.

COUNTERMEN AND COOKS.
APPLY 909 G PLACE N.W.

CURB BOYS, over 18; good tips. Apply The Blue Bell Cafe, 4300 Conn. ave.

MAN—Married, with car and sales ability for permanent job; small salary and commission while training; must be able to furnish references and bond. No floaters need apply. 3337 Conn. ave. nw.

MAN with canvassing experience for established route selling direct to homes; $56 cash bond required. Grand Union Tea Co., 603 F st. nw.

MEN (3), capable, neat, to work 6 days and 3 evenings weekly. Good pay. Advancement rapid. Apply mornings, Rm. 307, 1427 Eye st. nw.

The Washington Post
CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING
LOCAL RATES

For Washington and Points Within 50 Miles of the District of Columbia.

The following rates are for consecutive insertions:

1 time ..... 19c per line.
3 times ..... 18c per line
7 times ..... 15c per line.
15 times ..... 13c per line.

The one-time rate applies on skip ads or irregular insertions

OUT-OF-TOWN RATES.

Ads from points more than 50 miles from the District of Columbia are: 1 time, 21c per line; 3 times, 20c per line; 7 times, within 30 days, 17c per line.

When computing the cost of an ad kindly estimate 5½ average words to a line.

Rates for special classification and yearly contracts furnished upon request.

The Washington Post reserves the right to edit, revise or reject any classified advertising.

Misclassification of ads not permitted.

The Washington Post will not be responsible for more than one incorrect insertion on any order.

Kill Orders or Corrections before insertions (excepting Death Notices) cannot be made unless ordered before 6 p.m. daily or 4 p.m. Saturday for Sunday.

The Washington Post strives at all times to prevent insertion of fraudulent or misleading advertisements.

Information concerning any ad that proves misleading or fraudulent will be appreciated.

Phone NAtional 4200
Ask for An Ad-Writer

THESE DRUG STORES WILL TAKE YOUR WANT AD DAY AND NIGHT.
Alaska Ave. Pharmacy, 7806 Alaska Ave.
Chevy Chase Pharmacy, 5510 Connecticut Ave.
Garfield Park Drug Store, 711 15th St. S.E.
Hailstork Pharmacy, 772 Rhode Island Ave. N.W.
Imperial Pharmacy, 2624 P St. N.W.
Johnson Pharmacy, 600 3rd St. S.W.
Josic Pharmacy, 5000 First St. N.W.
Kingman Park Drug Store, 1917 Benning Rd. N.E.
Matthews Pharmacy, 1257 Mo. Capitol Street.
Modern Drug, 1300 11th St. N.W.
Novelty Store, 1601 11th St. N.W.
O'Donnell's Drug Store, Wisconsin Ave. and P Street.
Park View Pharmacy, Georgia Ave. and Park Road.
Paul's Drug Store, 901 Fourth St. S.W.
Smoot Pharmacy, 1548 N. J. Ave. N.W.
Standard Drug, 1748 7th St. N.W.
Suter's Drug Store, 1841 Columbia Road.
Williams Pharmacy, 501 1st St. S.W.

Lost and Found 1

HANDBAG—Lady's, black; Yellow cab, Sun. Rev. DI. 2812. Ext. 1722. No. 7940.

LOST—Gold cross, engraved Evelyne. Vicinity of Fairlawn, se. Reward. NAt. 4881.

POCKETBOOK—Child's blue beaded, containing rosary. Reward. RAn. 5254.

Personals 3

DENTAL PLATES REPAIRED "while you wait." Mod. Dental Laboratory, Rm. 502, Westory Bldg., 14th & F sts. nw. NA. 0773.

FALSE TEETH REPAIRS while U wait. Emergency Laboratories, 605 14th st. nw., Room 601. ME. 1833.

HEMORRHOIDS (piles) eradicated by my own methods: results effective for a lifetime or money back. Write for booklet. No operation or surgery. DR. SOMMERWERCK, 1365 Columbia rd. AD. 0888.

PERSONAL, need cash? Borrow on your car! Get $25 to $500 quickly whether car is paid for or not. STATE FINANCE CO., 10th and H sts. nw. RE. 0246.

WOLF'S Bedbug Exterminator Special—Will rid your house of this pest at once. Unsurpassed method and reasonable price. We also sell Sure-Death Roach Powder; apartment size, 50 cents. Ideal Chemical Co., 456½ Indiana ave. nw. REpublic 0744.

ALTHA HALL.
Nursery Kindergarten. Lovely Colonial home. Supervised educational program. Hours 8-5. Luncheon at noon. 2013 N. Adams street, Arlington. Walnut 6438.

Motor Travel 10

DRIVING Little Rock, Dallas and El Paso, Friday, Aug. 19; take 2; share expenses. Mr. Gowdy. REp. 2971.

LADY and child wish ride to Tulsa, Okla. District 9265.

Help—Female 11

LADIES with church or club affiliation. A business of your own. No capital required; we finance. Apply 9-3 p. m., Rm. 210, 1427 Eye st. nw.

PRACTICAL nurse-companion, about 35 years age, for young lady convalescent; hours 8 a. m. to 8 p. m.; no cooking, no laundry, no medicants; salary $10 weekly and meals. Write Box 271, Washington Post.

STENOGRAPHERS, TYPISTS, bookkeepers needed daily. Current openings. Visit PERSONNEL SERVICE, 1311 G st. nw.

WAITRESSES wanted. Apply at once. 1736 G st. nw.

WE WILL employ several young ladies as buying agents in our personal contact department. Excellent percentage. Ladies' accessories. Apply 715 9th st. nw.

Help—Male 12

AUTO MECHANIC, experienced on Bear frame and alignment machine. None other need apply. Central Auto Works, 443 Eye st. nw.

BARBER—White, for Friday and Saturday; $10 guarantee and percentage. 2123 Pa. ave. nw.

BARBER wanted; sober. 1131 15th st. nw., Service Barber Shop.

BARBER—First class; steady. 2807 Wilson blvd., Arlington, Va.

BOYS to sell ice cream novelties on tricycles. Apply Smiles Ice Cream Co., 1325 Water st. sw.

BOYS, neat-appearing, 18 to 20 years, to sell ice cream on tricycles. Apply Jack and Jill Ice Cream Co., 1001 E st. nw.

BOYS—White, 18 to 21 years, to learn stationery business; chance for

Here Are Timely Used Car Bargains for Thrifty Used Car Buyers

Post Classified Ads—National 4200.

Apartments—Unfurn. 47

Continued From Preceding Page.

THE LINDBERGH
200 MASS. AVE. N.W.
1 room, kitchen and bath .....$39.00 up
2 rooms, kitchen and bath.....$50 up
Switchboard, Elevators, Showers.
Frigidaire on House Current.
Resident Manager.
H. G. SMITHY CO.
811 15th St. N.W. NA. 5903.

1705 PA. AVE. N.W.
Open for Inspection.
Downtown. Newly remodeled bldg., featuring 1 room and bath apartment with pastel painted walls. Venetian blinds; fully tiled baths with shower; hardwood floors; free electricity.
WAGGAMAN-BRAWNER
1700 Eye St. N.W. ME. 3860.

1474 COLUMBIA RD. N.W.
Corner 15th St.—"The Maycroft."
2 rooms, kitchen and bath. Electric refrigeration on house current. Elevator. Resident Manager. $55.00.
H. L. RUST COMPANY.
1001 15th St. N.W. NA. 8100.

1801 & 1811 WYOMING AVE. N.W.
3 and 4 rooms, kitchen and bath apts, 2 bedrooms, large rooms; closets, reception hall, some with porches. Convenient to schools, churches, busses and cars, playground across street. Refrigeration furnished. Rentals are from $50 to $60. See Resident Manager, Apt. 2, 1811 Wyo. ave. (COl. 0559), or CHARLES S. SHREVE, 1001 15th street (NAtional 2336).

211 Delaware Ave. S.W.
Near Capitol and House and Senate Office Buildings.
2 rooms, kitchen and bath; refrigeration on house current.....$50.00
Resident Manager.
H. L. RUST CO.
1001 15th St. N.W. NA. 8100.

1016 16TH ST. N.W.
Desirable Downtown Location.
Elevator. Resident Manager. Electric refrigeration, 3 rooms, kitchen and bath $65.00
4 rooms, kitchen and bath.....$115.00
H. L. RUST COMPANY.
1001 15th St. N.W. NAtional 8100.

3323 16th St. N.W.
A very desirable apartment of 2 rooms, kitchen, dining alcove and bath. Gas, electricity included in rent. $60.00.
H. L. RUST COMPANY.
1001 15th St. N.W. NA. 8100.

THE LELAND
2012 O Street N.W.
$32.50—Apt. 32—2 rooms, bath; electric refrigeration.
AMERICAN SECURITY & TRUST CO.
NAtional 4815.

1831 CALIFORNIA ST. N.W.
4 Rooms, Kit., Bath. G. E. Refrig., $50.

1832 BILTMORE ST. N.W.
3 Rooms, Kitchen and Bath. $60.

1712 16TH ST. N.W.
2 rooms, kitchen, reception hall and bath $60.00
3 rooms, kitchen, reception hall and bath $67.50
ELECTRIC REFRIGERATION.
RESIDENT MANAGER.

2138 California St. N.W.
One-half Block West of Conn. Ave.
1 room and bath $30.00
1 room, kitchen and bath $45.00
3 rooms, kitchen and bath $65.00
See Resident Manager.
H. L. RUST COMPANY.
1001 15th St. NA. 8100.

1758 QUE ST. N.W.
3 rooms, kitchen and bath. Murphy bed.
ELECTRIC REFRIGERATION.
$52.50.

SPACIOUS APARTMENT
ON ENTIRE FLOOR: 1363-1365 CONN. AVE. 4 LARGE ROOMS, KITCHEN, BATH AND HALL WITH EAST AND WEST EXPOSURES; CLOSETS IN EACH ROOM. EDWARD KOHNER, 802 WOODWARD BLDG. NA. 4493.

2401 Calvert St. N.W.
OPPOSITE SHOREHAM HOTEL.
3 rooms, kitchen and bath.....$90.00
Electric Refrigeration on House Current. Elevator, Switchboard. Resident Manager.
H. L. RUST CO.
1001 15th St. N.W. NA. 8100.

1832 BILTMORE ST. N.W.
2 rooms, kitchen and bath.....$47.50

1417 NEWTON ST. N.W.
Newton Hall—Elevator, refrigeration included; resident manager.
2 rooms, kitchen and bath $47.50
SHANNON & LUCHS CO.
1506 H St. N.W. National 2345.

1809 Belmont Rd.—$45 to $57.50
Apartments of 2 and 3 rooms, kitchen and bath. Unusually large rooms, electric refrigeration. Redecorated throughout. Beautiful floors.
National Mortgage & Inv. Corp.
NAt. 5833 1312 N. Y. Ave.

1466 COLUMBIA RD. N.W.
2 rooms, kitchen, bath.....$52.50
Electric refrigeration on house current.
Our car will call, without obligation, and show you this and other apartments.
GOSS REALTY CO.
1405 Eye St. N.W. NA. 1363.

NORTHEAST APTS.
1022 17TH ST. NE., Apt. 3—Two rooms, kitchen, bath, shower; dinette, screened porch; Arcola heat. Key, basement, 1010 17th st. ne. $38.
1602 ISHERWOOD ST. NE., Apt. 1—3 rooms, kitchen, bath, shower; refrigeration, gas heat. Key, basement, 1600 Isherwood st. ne. $38.
1231 PENN ST. NE., Apt. 3—3 rms., kit., bath, shower; screened porch, Arcola heat. Key, basement 1149 Owen pl. ne. $44.
1160 OWEN PL. NE.—3 rooms, kitchen, bath, shower, dinette, porch; air-conditioned; gas heat, individual locker space and laundry trays in basement. Ready for occupancy Sept. 1. $47.50.
GENERAL REALTIES, INC.
833 L ST. NE. AT. 5176.

1483 NEWTON ST. N.W.
3 rooms, kitchen and bath; front..$45.00
3 rooms, kitchen and bath; front..$52.50
1 room and bath; bachelor $23.50
GEORGE F. HANE, INC.
1422 F St. N.W. NAt. 3964.

3267 N St. N.W.
GEORGETOWN LOCATION.
Large apartments of 4 rooms, kitchen and bath $45.00
H. L. RUST CO.
1001 15th St. N.W. NA. 8100.

CLIFTON ★ Terrace ★
14th & Clifton Sts. N.W.
Cool, Comfortable, Convenient
1 room, kitchen and bath...$40.00
2 rooms, kitchen and bath...$50.00
3 & 4 rms., kitchen & bath, $65 up
24-Hour Elevator and Switchboard Service
Resident Manager
H. L. RUST CO.
1001 15th St. NA. 8100

$49.50
The Quincy Apartments
Large, Modern Fireproof Apartment Building
811 Quincy St. N.W.
Available Immediately
Lovely apartments, completely and artistically redecorated, consisting of 2 rooms, kitchen, dinette, foyer and bath with shower.
Convenient to graded, junior high and high schools, churches, all transportation and shopping centers. Rent includes gas, electricity and refrigeration.
See Resident Manager.

APPLE MARY AND DENNIE

By Martha Orr

Post Classified Ads—National 4200.

Apartments—Unfurn. 47

314 V ST. N.E.
2 rooms, kitchen and bath.....$37.50
3 rooms, kitchen, reception hall and bath $50.00
ELECTRIC REFRIGERATION.

1860 CALIFORNIA ST. N.W.
Convenient Downtown Location (NEAR JOHN QUINCY ADAMS)
ATTRACTIVE MODERN BUILDING.
3 rooms, kitchenette, dinette and bath, with shower.
2 rooms, kitchen, dining room, bath and screened porch.
Rents Very Reasonable.
Resident Manager, DE. 0518
MT. VERNON MORTGAGE CORP.
207 Machinist Bldg. NA. 5536.

2106 N ST. N.W.
Conveniently located downtown building: 3 rooms, kitchen and bath..$52.50
H. L. RUST COMPANY.
1001 15th St. N.W. NAtional 8100.

FOR REAL DOWNTOWN APARTMENT VALUES SEE J. A. McKEEVER CO., INC.
1625 K St. N.W. District 9706.

529 G ST. S.E.
2 rooms, kitchen and bath; electric refrigeration. $40.

1830 R ST. N.W.
2 rms., kitchen, bath with shower..$65.00
Modern bldg.; 24-hour elevator service; walking distance to all Govt. depts.
RES. MGR., NO. 0983.
3435 R ST. N.W.

2 rms., kitchen and bath.....$47.50
Modern 2-story apt. bldg., opposite Western High School on bus line.
RES. MGR., WEST 0475.

1208 EVARTS ST. N.E.
2 rooms, kitchen and bath.....$41.00
On bus line; convenient to schools.
RES. MGR., DUPONT 7320.

DUPLEX
2705 12TH ST. N.E.
3 rooms, kitchen and bath.....$42.50
RES. MGR., DUPONT 7320.

MT. VARNON MORTGAGE CORP.
307 Machinist Bldg. NA. 5536.

219 H ST. N.W.
1 room, kitchen and bath.....$27.50
Resident Manager.
H. L. RUST COMPANY.
1001 15th St. N.W. NA. 8100.

1832 BILTMORE ST. N.W.
4 rooms, kitchen and bath.....$65.00

CLIFTON TERRACE
14TH & CLIFTON STREETS N.W.
1 room, kitchen and bath.....$55.00
2 rooms, kitchen and bath.....$70.00
Completely furnished, except linen.
24-Hour Elevator and Switchboard Service.
H. L. RUST CO.
1001 15th St. N.W. NAt. 8100.

1419 R ST. N.W.
4 rooms, kitchen and bath.....$57.50
Tyler & Rutherford, Inc.
1512 L St. N.W. NA. 0475.

THE NEW AMSTERDAM
2701 14TH ST. N.W.
HAS AVAILABLE
Several choice vacancies in 1 room units. Ideally situated in the building; some with 2 exposures; consisting of large rooms, huge closets, tile bath and shower; all thoroughly renovated.
REASONABLE RENTALS.
The New Amsterdam is centrally located in Columbia Heights overlooking the city where it is always cool. It is a modern fireproof building offering to its tenants many advantages: Frigidaire on house current, 24-hour switchboard and elevator service; resident manager.
The Ideal Place to Live.
COLUMBIA 7400.

COLORED—Newly remodeled: 83 R st. nw.; cheery, 2 rms., kitchenette, bath; conv. stores, transp.; $40. DUpont 4867.

COLORED.
6th and Eye sts. se.—2 rooms, kitchen and bath, excellent condition. $32.50.
LEO M. BERNSTEIN & CO. ME. 5400.

COLORED.
1318 22D ST. N.W.
3 rooms, kitchen, bath $40.00
LEXINGTON.
1033 21ST ST. N.W.
3 rooms, kitchen, bath.....$45.00
OPEN FOR INSPECTION.

Business Places—Rent 52

1315 4TH ST NE.—Fireproof store and warehouse; 40x90; electric elevator. Henry Schaffert, 330 John Marshall Place.

3121 SOUTH ST. N.W., just off Wisc. ave.; 2d floor air conditioned. Phone MIKKELSON & SON CLeve. 1156.

Stores—Rent 53

STORE (13x50)—Use of large basement for storage; reas. 1243 20th st. nw.

Houses—Furnished 54

ARLINGTON, Va., 922 N. Danville st.—10 min. D. C. lease, nicely furn., 5 rms., bath; n-w. ht., refrig., full basement, attic, gar., shade, large grounds; adults; ref., $65. Apply Sun., or call AD. 10415.

2029 37TH ST. NW.—Six rooms, 1 or 2 months; open.

Houses—Unfurnished 56

Ch. Ch., D. C., 6000 32d St.—Very attrac. corner brick, 6 rms., tiled bath, large porch, 2-car gar., automatic heat, refrigeration. DIXIE Realty Co. NAt. 8400.

COLLEGE HGHTS., MD., 15 Pine St.—8-rm. English-type nearly new brick; 2 baths; oil heat; garage; conv. school and University of Md.; reas. GR. 1859.

ILLINOIS AVE. NW., 4000—Corner brick, 4 bedrooms, 2 baths, oil heat, $75. L. J. Mills, 430 5th st. nw. NA. 4561.

OPEN & LIGHTED, 3 to 9 p. m., by owner, 5308 28th st., Chevy Chase, D. C.; near Rock Creek Park and 1 blk. south Military rd.; 11 rms., 3 baths; brick; 2-car gar.; $100; also 6 rms., bath, brick, nearby; $80.

HIGHVIEW (corner 2d and You sts. ne.)—6 rooms, bath; oil heat; garage, NO. 0227.

PETWORTH—Modern 6-rm. brick; auto. heat, refrig., gar., insulated; $62.50. WASHINGTON REALTY CO., GE. 8300.

SILVER SPRING, MD., 2 Midhurst rd.—3 bedrooms, 2 baths, porch, garage; all brick and stone; very attractive location, with large lawn. SH. 3699.

11-ROOM suburban resid. D. C. city improvements; nice grounds, gar., oil heat; be seen to appreciate. Owner, GE. 1855.

$110. 409 Wilson lane, Bethesda—4 bedrooms, 2 baths, pantry, Electrolux oil burner, large porch and private garden, garage, convenient; inspect after 5 p. m. Call NA. 8662.

5103 CONNECTICUT AVENUE—9 rooms, 2 baths; oil heat; Frigidaire; $85.
A. J. CRUMBAUGH (Realtor), CL. 1-3-6-4.

622 7th St. N.E.—6 rooms, bath.
419 9th St. N.E.—6 rooms, bath.
626 F St. S.W.—8 rooms, 2 baths.
CONNER & RYON. REp. 3216.

NEAR CHEVY CHASE CIRCLE.
New detached center-hall Colonial; 3 bedrooms, 2 baths; finished and heated 3d floor; air conditioned. Phone MIKKELSON & SON CLeve. 1156.

CLEVELAND PARK, D. C.
3205 CLEVELAND AVE. N.W.
Large detached home, consisting of 9 rooms, 3 baths; garage; spacious grounds. Oil burner if desired.
FIDELITY MORTGAGE INVESTMENT CO.
1105 E St. N.W. NA. 2431.

917 VARNUM ST. N.E.
Semidetached; 6 rooms, bath, oil heat; electric refrigeration; garage.
MURRAY CO.
1406 G St. N.W. NA. 7772.

Post Classified Ads—National 4200.

Houses—Unfurnished 56

GEORGETOWN—$90.
Attractive 6 rooms and bath home. Gas heat.
J. LEO KOLB INC., 1237 Wisconsin ave nw.

4621 43d PLACE N.W.
TWO BLOCKS WEST WISCONSIN AVE., NEAR RIVER RD.
WALKING DISTANCE TO ALL SCHOOLS.
JANEY GRAMMAR SCHOOL.
ALICE DEAL JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL.
WOODROW WILSON HIGH SCHOOL.
ST. ANN'S PAROCHIAL SCHOOL.
Beautiful semidetached home on large lot, containing 6 rooms (3 bedrooms), tile bath with shower, toilet in basement, screened sleeping porch; brand-new condition throughout; newly equipped with Electrolux refrigerator, Magic Chef range, oil burner.
FOR LEASE ONLY AT $72.50.
Mt. Vernon Mortgage Corp.
2d floor Machinist Bldg. National 5536.
(9TH ST. and MT. VERNON PLACE N.W.)

1417 Whittier St. N.W.—$90.
JUST OFF 16TH ST. N.W.
4 bedrooms, 2 baths; also maid's room and bath; Built-in garage.
National Mortgage & Inv. Corp.
NA. 5833. 1312 N. Y. Ave.

CALL US FOR A LIST OF HOUSES and Apts., Furnished and Unfurnished.
MURRAY CO.
1406 G St. N.W. NA. 7772.

Suburban—Rent 58

ARLINGTON, VA., 225 North Piedmont st., at Buckingham—Nicely furn. 6-room house, bath; a. m. l.; $85. WA. 7520-W.

FURNISHED, 2 connecting 1st-floor rms., kitchen, semipriv. bath; scr. porch; gar.; shady lawn; close to bus, 10 min. to Govt. bldgs. 2009 N. Kenmore st., Cherrydale, Va. WA. 6780. $38.50.

TAKOMA PARK—5-room modern bungalow; well located; furnished, $70 or unfurnished, $50. SH. 3444 or SH. 2227-J.

TAKOMA PARK—Modern 6-room home; splendidly located; $55. SH. 3444 or SH. 2899.

Shore-Waterfront—Rent 61

COLONIAL BEACH, VA.—Furnished cottages for rent. DUpont 2170.

HERALD HARBOR—Furn. cottage; elec. range; nr. beach; avail. Aug. 21. Wa. 7635.

LONG BEACH, MD.—Nicely furn. 4-rm. cottage; fishing boat included; $15 weekly; $10 week-ends. CLev. 8394.

SHERWOOD FOREST—Furnished cottage 210; magnificent view over Severn; 8 rooms, 3 baths, large porches; open; by month Wisconsin 3222 or 3961.

Sale Business Property 64

REMINGTON, VA., Fauquier County, on Charlottesville highway—Brick building, 50x50; store, suitable for several business and two 5-room apts. (rented); electricity, water, bath, etc. Sacrifice to settle estate. CO. 4006-W.

Sale Investment Property 65

PUT THAT SPARE MONEY to earn 8% net or better and watch it and property grow. Big select, exclusive list D. C., Md., Va. N. E. RYON CO., 1216 N. Y. ave. 3418 14th. 2203 Wilson blvd.

Sale Houses 66

BARGAIN! Big 20x36 ft.; 7 rms.; near Grant Circle; 4 bedrms., 3 porches; 2-car garage. 4117 3rd st. nw. E. W. BAILEY. AD. 4786.

FOR SOUND ADVICE ON HOME VALUES CONSULT LOUIS P. SHOEMAKER.
1719 K ST. N.W. NATIONAL 1166.

2227 39TH PL. NW.—Furnished sample home; Gruver-bilt homes; 6 rms; recreation rm., auto heat; $7,850 to $7,950; easy terms. D. C. Gruver. NA. 1737

$5,250—BRICK BUNGALOW, all large rooms, screened porch; concrete street; garage; deep lot. Wis. 5598.

$5,850—BUNGALOW. Mount Rainier; 5 large rooms, porches, full basement; lot with beds of flowers. GR. 1444-J.

Serving Washington Over 50 Years.
WM. H. SAUNDERS CO., INC.
1519 K St. N.W. DI. 1015.

BEFORE YOU BUY CONSULT BOSS & PHELPS.
1417 K St. N.W. NA. 9300.

OLD GEORGETOWN.
Detached, corner brick; large living room, dining room, 1st floor den, 4 bedrooms, 2 baths, recreation room. Occupied less than one year. Phone owner, MIKKELSON & SON, CLeve. 1156.

$13,250.
CHEVY CHASE.
Detached English home; spacious center hall. Large living and dining rooms, screened porch, 3 bedrooms, 2 baths, large attic, 2-car garage. Just put in new-house condition. Beautiful grounds with shade trees. Terms. G. F. MIKKELSON & SON, CLeve. 1156.

BUNGALOW, $3,700.
Restricted white community; large lot; room for 1 more house. 1311 44th pl. se., Bradbury Heights, D. C. Mrs. Stelbins, AT. 7199.

ADELBERT W. LEE.
1343 H St. N.W. DIst. 4600.

$16,500—Handsome detached home near 14th and Colorado ave., containing 11 rooms and 4 baths and maid's room and bath. Well adapted for two families. District 6830.

Just Off E. Capitol St.
$4,850.
10 rooms and bath. Good condition. Garage. Now rented at $55 monthly. Can sell for $850 cash and $40 per month.
R. A. HUMPHRIES.
808 No. Capitol. Realtor. NA. 6732.

1808 IRVING ST. N.W.
OPEN 3-7—$7,950
Overlooking Rock Creek Park. Spacious English brick, terraced lawns; 7 rooms, 1½ baths, open fireplace; thoroughly reconditioned; only 7 years old. Can be bought on your terms.
LEO M. BERNSTEIN & CO., ME. 5400.

PETWORTH.
Between Illinois and New Hampshire avenues, near the Soldiers' Home Park. Substantial Dunigan-built brick home with 6 rooms and bath. New gas furnace, new Ruud instantaneous hot-water heater, electricity. This is an outstanding home value in a close-in neighborhood, served by several bus lines. $5,500.
L. T. GRAVATTE
729 15th St. Realtor. NA. 0753.

Do YOU Know?
That you can OWN a BRAND NEW thoroughly modern brick home in the DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA for payments of only $31.60 monthly? A complete 5-room house with full concrete basement, automatic oil air conditioning, hardwood floors throughout, furred walls, rock wool insulation, bronze screening and weatherstripping. Lot terraced and landscaped. Street car one block.
$490 Down—$31.60 Mo.
TOTAL $4,590 PRICE
Monthly payments include principal, interest, taxes, and insurance.
River Terrace
Drive to 15th and H St. N.E. and continue on Benning Road to property or take Kenilworth or District Line street cars direct to property.
Phone ATlantic 2800

Post Classified Ads—National 4200.

Sale Houses 66

A WELL-BUILT 6-room and bath home can be purchased on unusually easy terms in the beautiful, new, planned development of AVONDALE. The acceptance by the public of the first 27 homes has given us the confidence to build 11 more. Each home is different in style and floor plan and nothing but the best of materials and construction methods are used. Priced from $5,950 to $7,500. Come out today and choose your home. Close to schools and churches.
Drive out Michigan ave. ne. past Catholic University to Queens Chapel rd.
HARRY WARDMAN, INC.
1512 K St. N.W. DI. 3830.

MICHIGAN PARK
4509 13th st. ne.—New, detached, 7 rooms, 2 baths, recreation room, auto. gas heat, built-in garage, screened porch, furred walls, screens, weatherstripped.
MURRAY CO.
1406 G St. N.W. NA. 7772.

CHEVY CHASE, MD.
NEAR CHEVY CHASE CLUB
6306 FLORIDA ST.
Detached home on lot with over 10,000 square feet. Many large trees. Sunroom, dining room, living room, 15x26; breakfast room, kitchen, pantry; four bedrooms, two tiled baths, maid's room, lavatory; built-in garage; oil heat. COMPLETELY RENOVIZED. $12,750. OPEN. Full commission to brokers.
THE AMERICAN CO.
807 15th St. NA. 8032.

$7,950—COLONIAL BRICK
A beautiful, practically new home, in one of the best sections of MARIETTA PARK—First floor has large living and dining room, open fireplace and sun parlor. The kitchen is beautiful, with General Electric box and factory cabinets. There are 3 large rooms on the 2nd floor and luxurious bath. 2 porches, awnings; metal weather-stripped, insulated; oil heat, built-in garage; Venetian blinds; great loss to present owner. Call Mr. Jones, COl. 3079.
FRANK S. PHILLIPS, DI. 1411.

COLORED—Corner house, overlooking reservoir; 6 rooms, bath, h.-w. h., elec.; gar.; $7,950; terms arranged. DE. 1160.

COLORED, 550 Oklahoma ave. ne.—6 rooms, tile bath with shower; insulated walls; hardwood floors throughout; full cellar; concrete porch, etc. Specially priced at $5,950; terms. Open daily from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m. DEc. 1160.

Wanted—Houses 67

ANY UP TO $5,000. E. W. BAILEY. ADams 4766 or 1435 Meridian N.W.

CASH BUYERS for property under $7,000 in nearby Va. John N. Davis, 3704 17th st., North Arlington, Va.

Sale Lots 69

CHEVY CHASE—Best section: lot 50x200 ft., $1,850. Owner, CO. 7230, Apt. 412 south.

Suburban Lots 69A

LEE HEIGHTS, Va., Country Club area; lots from $750 up. WA. 9095.

Sale Suburban 70

AIR-CONDITIONED 4-bedroom brick home in Oakcrest, Arlington County, Va. Just completed and OPEN for inspection. Living room with wood-burning fireplace; sizable dining room, front porch, concrete terrace above built-in garage; an abundance of closets; basement lavatory; oil heat; Venetian blinds throughout; insulated; furred walls. "A whole lot of house for the money." See 3137 So. Glebe road today. J. LEE PRICE, owner. 2303 So. Arlington Ridge road. Phone IVY 1272.

ALEXANDRIA, VA.—A real opportunity for a large family to acquire a beautiful redecorated 4-bedroom home; 2 baths, sleeping porch, servants' quarters, oil heat; lot 100x115 ft.; unusual landscaping makes this home one of suburban Alexandria's most attractive spots. Owner sacrificing; $13,500. DICK BASSETT, WA. 8627.

ARLINGTON—$4,990; new asbestos shingle; 4 rooms, large attic, 2 bedrooms; shaded lot; 10% cash; low monthly payments. RALPH CRAIN, 4399 Lee Hwy. WA. 6959.

ESTATES, farms, country homes, convenient to Washington, at good investment prices. Shown by appointment. Phone 36, Buell Farm Agency, Herndon, Fairfax County, Va.

NR. BUCKINGHAM VILLAGE, Arlington, Va.—Large old home: 9 r. and b., 5 bedrooms, 3 porches, basement, oil ht.; about 1-3 a. For quick sale, $5,500; inviting terms. Mr. Parramore, WA. 7565 or 6536 after 6 p. m. N. E. RYON CO., 2203 Wilson blvd.

NEARBY VA.—Frame bungalow, 5 rooms and bath, hot-water heat; sewer, water and gas. Paved street; bus. Newly reconditioned throughout. Vacant. $4,000. Easy terms. J. A. BAKER, 1112 N. Irving st., Clarendon, Va. WA. 7280.

RESTRICTED wooded area; new brick home; 4 bedrooms, 2 baths. WA. 9095.

SEAT PLEASANT, MD., at Carmody Hill—Small cottage and lot, 80 ft. front and 100 ft. deep; large barn; 300 rose bushes; 1,800 hedges; water and electricity available; will sacrifice for $600 cash or $800 on terms. Call BErwyn 83.

SIX rooms, oil heat, fireplace; large lot; $300 cash or note; $45 a month includes everything. GR. 2931-J.

SPACIOUS 10-rm. brick home on 15 acres; 8 miles from Washington on over hard roads. On a shaded knoll at the end of a tree-flanked lane. Has 2 baths, oil heat, 3 fireplaces and garage. Comfortably arranged and beautifully decorated. Combines city convenience and country freedom. Price, $15,000; $3,000 cash, balance $100 per month. See MASON HIRST, Annandale, Va., at the end of Columbia pike. Phone ALexandria 869-J-1. Closed Sundays.

20 NEW HOUSES TO SELECT FROM.
Arlington, Va.; new 5 and 6 room brick, stone and frame construction; now open for inspection. Price range, $4,950-$8,950.
C. B. YEATMAN. WA. 7771.
2822 N. Wash. Blvd., Arlington, Va.

$100 CASH BUYS
stone front, brick bungalow, $45 per month. Also new apartment bungalows as low as $25 per month. FHA financing. They are selling fast.
PHILLIP H. CLARKE CO.
Edmonston Rd. at Springbrook Terrace.
GR. 3734.

NEARBY VIRGINIA
Dutch Colonial on a beautiful wide lot in deep woods with tiny stream; 1 block from bus and school. Priced at the astonishing low figure of $6,750, payable on very attractive terms to a couple who must keep the monthly payment below $50. Ready September 1st. See it now.
JAMES M. DOYLE
5015 N. Wash. Blvd. WA. 9091.

Sale—Farms, Land 73

A VALUABLE and well-improved farm of 322.61 acres in the Shenandoah Valley near Shenandoah, Va.; about 6 miles from the Shenandoah National Park. Write for interesting leaflet giving details. GEO. S. HARNSBERGER, Atty., Harrisonburg, Va.

83 ACRES facing 570 feet on navigable bay, 50 miles D. C.; 1-3 cleared farm land; $2,500; easy terms. NAt. 3753, or DUpont 4929.

$3,500. Six acres on Ellicott City pike; one 5 and one 3 room log cabin, well built; one with full basement. Electricity; all village; good garden land. Wonderful location for home and business.
R. D. LILLIE CO.
264 Carroll St., Takoma Park. GE. 3301.

$3,750—18-ACRE FARM, 13 miles from Washington over good roads; comfortable 4-room home with city electricity and Philgas range; garage, small barn and about 8 acres cleared land; 3 fine springs; situated so that a swimming pool is an easy possibility; $500 cash, balance $35 per month. See MASON HIRST, Annandale, Va., at the end of Columbia pike. Phone ALexandria 869-J-1. Closed Sundays.

Post Classified Ads—National 4200.

Sale—Farms, Land 73

150 ACRES, large house and barns, with fine crops, beautiful place, $7,500; 14 miles from D. C.; 4 from Waldorf, Md. Address P. O. Box 43, Riverdale, Md.

Southern Maryland, 24 miles out; 50 acres; ½ mile frontage on State road; old-established store with 7 rooms; gas station. Ideal for retired couple. Price including farm, store, all stock and going business, $4,000. Reasonable terms.
THE MARYLAND REALTY,
915 10th St. N.W. NA. 8065.

Sale—Shores, Waterfront 74

AUCTION—Saturday afternoon, 3:30—Beach lots, Arundel on the Bay at Annapolis, Md. Williams, Auctioneer, NAtional 2620

GLEN ISLE, on salt water, 19 miles D. C.; swimming, boating, crabbing; will build 3-rm. cottage; $399; lots 50x125, $100; terms. ZANTINGER CO., NA. 5371.

THREE-ROOM bungalow on salt water, 27 miles from Washington. Bus service. Bathing, boating, fishing. Club house, stores. Groceries and ice delivery. Free school bus. Price including 2 lots, $325. Easy terms. Box, 99 Washington Post.

LONG BEACH
Is attractive all year around.
On Cool Lake Jackson.
31 miles from D. C. is a real log cabin; 4 rooms, large open porch, running water, open fire, shady lot, boating, fishing, swimming. Must sell, sacrifice. Price and terms. Call REpublic 8729.

Real Estate Wanted 76

CASH for D. C. Property, quick action and settlement. E. A. Garvey, DI. 4508. Eve., Sun., GE. 6690. 1126 Vt. ave.

Business Opportunities 77

APT. HOUSE, 14th and Girard (6 units)—12 rooms, water in all apts. Income, $180; rent only $55; bargain, $900. R. M. De Shazo. 1123 14th St. NA. 5521.

BARBER SHOP—New, 3 chairs; good location; give-away price, easy terms. Apply 845 Upshur st. nw.

DELICATESSEN, corner; mixed location; doing $400 weekly. Living room. Good buy. Dist. Sales. 1427 Eye st. nw. NAt. 1002.

OLD ESTABLISHED restaurant and beer garden (for colored); sale for personal reason; price, $5,000. STerling 8440.

PARKING LOT—Splendid NW. location; 135-car capacity; monthly income $550; rent, $271 for 3 lots; restaurants supply free advertising. Price drastically cut, only $1,000 down. 1008 H st. nw. ME. 4813.

RESTAURANT—902 21st St. N.W. Just the place for 2 people. Nr. bus. places. Rent, $27.50; $550 cash. ME. 6429.

RESTAURANT and beer tavern, located in Arlington County on LEE HIGHWAY, five minutes drive from Washington. Only restaurant in the town. Living quarters in the rear. Building rents for $75.00 per month. A chance for someone to make a real living. Restaurant is now running and making more than the overhead—without a owner has other business. Will sell for $800 cash if taken at once. Phone WAlnut 7153 for information.

ROOMS AND APTS., 1 blk off Dupont Circle. 20 rms., 5½ baths. Rent $150. $2,200 Terms.
KEACH & McCOWN, 1730 H. REp. 2919.

SWEDISH DINING ROOM—Owner will sell her half interest for $2,500; terms. Monthly receipts, $1,750.
KEACH & McCOWN.
1730 H St. N.W. REp. 2919.

We have many good buys in restaurants, cafeterias, delicatessens and grocery stores. Be sure to see us before making your decision. We arrange terms and financing. J. B. Mallos & Co., 817 12th nw. NA. 1565.

Dogs, Cats, Pets 79

BOSTON TERRIERS—pure bred; 4 mo.; $20-$35. 511 Alabama ave se. LI. 6088.

BOSTON bull puppies, thorobred, 6 wks., male, $45; female, $35; well marked; strong. 118 N. Fairfax st., Alex., Va.

DALAKAY KENNELS,
BREEDERS OF ST. BERNARDS.
Boarding and bathing. Called for and delivered. Reasonable rates.
Ashton, Md. Phone Ashton 80.

ADLEA KENNELS
Breeder of Wire Fox Terriers
Complete grooming. All terriers $3. Hand-plucked, bathed, nails filed; called for and returned. Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Woolner, Washington Grove, Md.
PHONE GAITHERSBURG 77.

Horses—Livestock 81

TWO 5-gaited mares, perfectly gentle for woman or child; also 1 green hunter, 4 yrs. old. WI. 5010; eves., WI. 6457-J.

4 LARGE mares, 6 large work horses, 1 young mule. 110 M st. se. AT. 2731.

Sale Miscellaneous 83

DEALERS' ADS under this heading contain a firm name or a business address, or state the word "Dealer." Other ads are presumed to be from private individuals. Readers who find dealers masquerading in this column as private individuals are urged to report the matter to The Washington Post.

ANTIQUE furniture, china, glass, paintings, sterling and coin silver, jewelry. Numerous other items of high quality; low prices. Call us before purchasing elsewhere. Murray Galleries, 1724 20th st. nw. DUpont 1211.

BABY carriage, fibre; used only one year; perfect condition. POt. 4067-J.

BAR HARBOR chairs, hall rack, mirror. Apt. 211, 1701 16th st. nw.

ACCORDIONS—Before purchasing a piano accordion, it's to your advantage to see Droop's first. 1300 G st. nw.

ANTIQUE CHESTS, newly finished. Antiques repaired, refinished, restored. 5201 Wisconsin ave.

ANTIQUES—Carved mahogany sofa, brass carriage lamps. 3726 Harrison st. nw.

BAKERY EQUIPMENT—Oven, cases, mixing machine, for quick sale. Apply J. W. Weber, 404 H st. ne.

CHEST of drawers, $10; walnut desk, $10; gateleg table, $8; daybed, $10; single bed, complete, $15; vanity, $5; lovely rugs. Must sell by August 20. EM. 7509.

CHINESE rugs and hand-carved teakwood articles. Fort Belvoir, Extension 3101.

DINING room suite: 9 pc.; walnut. Good condition. EM. 1853.

FANS rented by month or season; also repaired, exchanged; 20-in. floor pedestal, $37.50; exhaust, $9.95. Carly, 1606 14th.

GAS RANGES, 3 or 4 burner, with ovens, $5 delivered. Peoples Salvage Co., 2122 14th st. nw. DU. 9759. J. Brenner & Son, 2525 M st. nw. WE. 0101.

INTERIOR GLOSS ENAMEL—Special $1.85 gallon; delivery service. Pyus Adams, Inc., 1119 9th st. nw. National 2402.

LIVING ROOM FURNITURE, rugs, desk, bookcase; very reasonable. EM. 6800 Ex. 503. No dealers.

PIANOS—Closing out all new floor sample baby grands at reductions; prices from $295 up; very easy terms. NAt. 4730. Kitts, 1330 G st.

PIANOS for rent; small uprights, $5 monthly; also spinets and grands; rental paid applies on price if you buy later. NAt. 3223. Arthur Jordan Piano Co., 13th and G sts.

PIANO—Steinway grand, fine tone; good condition; very reas. American Storage.

PIANOS—Used Chickering and Steinway, both in splendid condition, how for sale at reduced prices; very easy terms; new-piano guarantee. NAt. 4730. Kitt's, 1330 G st.

Post Classified Ads—National 4200.

Sale Miscellaneous 83

REFRIGERATOR bargains, all makes, fully guaranteed; terms. General Refrigeration Service, Inc., 2109 10th st. nw.

REFRIGERATOR, white enamel, 50-lb. capacity, $12.50; good cond. NO. 8956.

REFRIGERATORS—All standard makes, rebuilt; guar.; as low as $29.50. Electrical Refrigeration Service, 1318 14th st. nw.

SAFE, large, iron, 48x30x24 inches; good condition; no reasonable offer refused. D. Notes, 633 Indiana ave. Dist. 8112.

SEWING MACHINES—Singer console electrics. Singer treadles, $10, $12, $15. 925-927 F st. nw. REpublic 1900.

STEEL and wood filing cabinets from the U. S. Government; $5 up. H. BAUM & SON, 616 E st. nw.

TYPEWRITERS, Underwood, rebuilt, $17.50. All makes, rebuilt, repaired, sold and rented. UNITED, 813 14th nw. RE. 1177.

TYPEWRITERS - ADDING MACHINES — Sales, services. Est. 25 years. Rentals $3 month; 3 months for $7.50. American Type Co., 1431 East Capitol st. LI. 0082. OPEN EVENINGS.

USED CAMERAS, projectors, binoculars, microscopes, bought and sold. Capital Camera Exchange, 1003 Penna. ave. nw.

VACUUM CLEANERS, Hoover, $14.95; Electrolux, $17.95; Eureka, $9.95. Terms. Also new cleaners. Wink. CO. 2773.

LUMBER 5% OFF THIS PRICE FOR CASH.
2x4, 6, 10 and 12 .....$28.00
2x6, 8, 10, 12 and sheathing $30.00
No. 2 German siding and flooring $40.00
Hard wall plaster, per ton $14.00
White finish lime .....$18.

Are You Listening?

SAY, AL, YA KNOW THAT FOURTH HOLE AT WEE BURN TH' SHORT ONE?
I WONDER IF I'LL HAVE TO PUT ON TH' SOUP AN' FISH FOR THAT PARTY TO-NIGHT
THOUGHT
WELL, SIR, I MADE A TWO ON IT YESTERDAY! FIRST TIME IN MY LIFE
I'LL JUST ABOUT DIE IN A BOILED SHIRT ON A HOT NIGHT LIKE THIS THOUGHT
ON TH' FIFTH I WAS IN TH' ROUGH ON MY DRIVE - SLICED IT - BUT - I SUPPOSE THEY'LL EXPECT ME TO DANCE TOO. I'D RATHER BE SHOT THAN DANCE
THOUGHT
I USED A SEVEN AN' GOT OUT - WELL, SIR, I TOOK MY BRASSIE AN' LAID IT FOUR FEET FROM TH' PIN
MAYBE THERE'LL BE A BRIDGE GAME TO-NIGHT; THAT WOULD HELP
THOUGHT
I DROPPED IT FOR A FOUR - ON TH' SIXTH I GOT OVER TH' BROOK ON MY SECOND
MAYBE DOC AND BILL WILL BE THERE. IF THEY ARE WE'LL GET UP A GAME ALL RIGHT
THOUGHT
YA REMEMBER TH' SHORT SEVENTH DONTCHA?
WHO? NO, I DON'T THINK I EVER MET THE MAN

Bob Burns

Says—

Jobs are pretty scarce now and you have'ta stand such a rigid examination to get one that you can't help wondering sometimes how some of the men got in.

Maybe it's like the time my Uncle Potchy put an ad in the paper for a farm hand and picked one man out of three that applied for the job. I was anxious to see how he went about gettin' the one he wanted, so I says, "Potchy, how did you know which of those fellas to pick?" And Uncle Potchy says, "Well, Robin, I put 'em to a little test. I asked 'em how many legs a giraffe had. One said four, one said five and the other said nine. You know which one I'm gonna hire?" And I said, "The one that said 'four'" and Uncle Potchy said, "No—the one that said 'five'—he's my wife's cousin."

Copyright, 1938, Esquire Features, Inc.

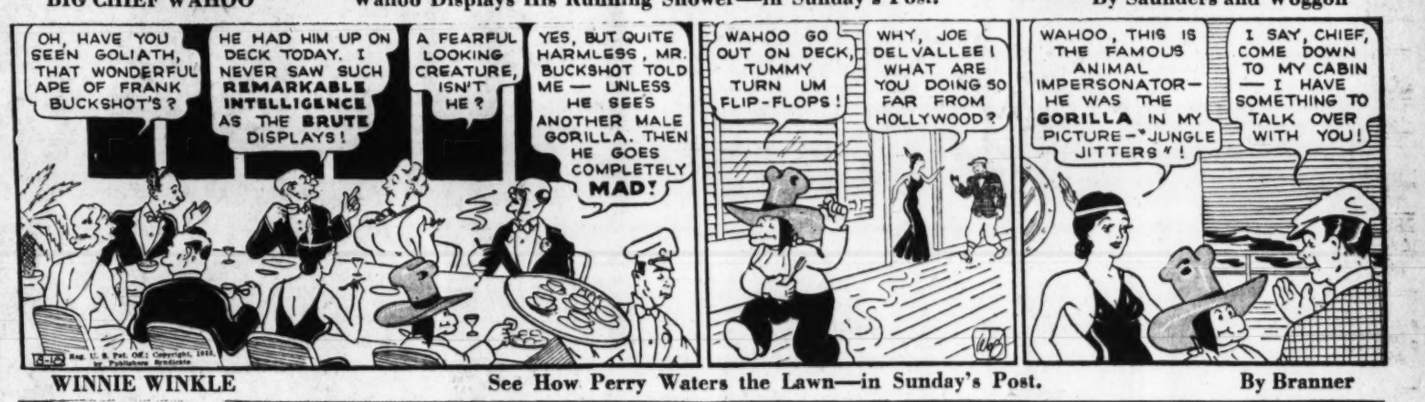
MR. AND MRS. See How Joe Tries to Get a Night Off—This Sunday.

GOSH, I'D LIKE TO LEAVE, BUT THERE'S HANK SQUAWKINS TWO TABLES FROM US —
WHAT'S HE GOT TO DO WITH US?
WELL, I DON'T WANT TO MEET HIM — HE'LL WANT ME TO STOP AND TALK — THE PEST!
THERE'S NO HURRY. WE CAN WAIT
GOSH, I'D LIKE TO LEAVE, BUT THERE'S JOE GREEN TWO TABLES FROM US —
WHAT'S HE GOT TO DO WITH US?
WELL, I DON'T WANT TO MEET HIM — HE'LL WANT ME TO STOP AND TALK — THE PEST!
THERE'S NO HURRY. WE CAN WAIT

TERRY AND THE PIRATES — Drusilla Crail Makes Her Next Move—in Sunday's Post. — By Milton Caniff

MASTER SEND COMPLIMENTS... WOULD BE HAPPY IF MISSY GO DLIVE WITH HE!
YIPS! IT'S WORKING! TELL YOUR MASTER I'D BE DELIGHTED!
8-18
SUCH A BEAUTIFUL DAY, MISS LEE! I THOUGHT A DRIVE ALONG THE HARBOR WOULD PLEASE YOU!
OF COURSE, MR. SMYTHE-HEATHERSTONE!
COME, COME, MISS LEE, YOU MUST CALL ME 'REGGIE'!
THANK YOU... REGGIE!

BIG CHIEF WAHOO — Wahoo Displays His Running Shower—in Sunday's Post. — By Saunders and Woggon



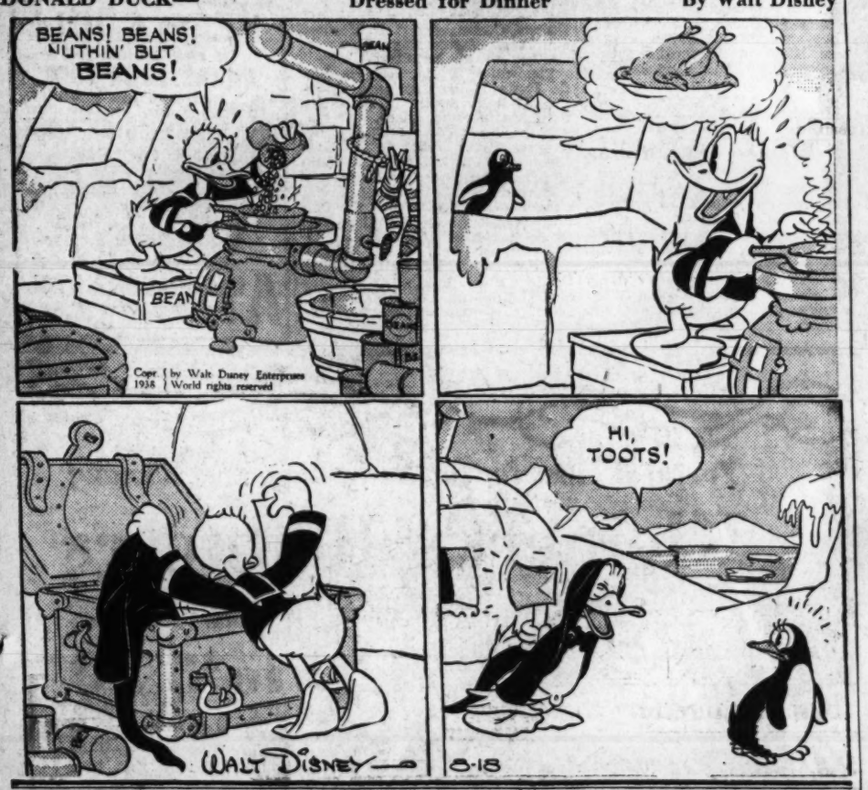
OH, HAVE YOU SEEN GOLIATH, THAT WONDERFUL APE OF FRANK BUCKSHOT'S?
HE HAD HIM UP ON DECK TODAY. I NEVER SAW SUCH REMARKABLE INTELLIGENCE AS THE BRUTE DISPLAYS!
A FEARFUL LOOKING CREATURE, ISN'T HE?
YES, BUT QUITE HARMLESS, MR. BUCKSHOT TOLD ME — UNLESS HE SEES ANOTHER MALE GORILLA. THEN HE GOES COMPLETELY MAD!
WAHOO GO OUT ON DECK, TUMMY TURN UM FLIP-FLOPS!
WHY, JOE DEL VALLEE! WHAT ARE YOU DOING SO FAR FROM HOLLYWOOD?
WAHOO, THIS IS THE FAMOUS ANIMAL IMPERSONATOR — HE WAS THE GORILLA IN MY PICTURE — "JUNGLE JITTERS"!
I SAY, CHIEF, COME DOWN TO MY CABIN — I HAVE SOMETHING TO TALK OVER WITH YOU!

WINNIE WINKLE — See How Perry Waters the Lawn—in Sunday's Post. — By Branner

WINNIE - SIT DOWN, DEAR - I HAVE SOMETHING TO - TO TELL YOU!
WHAT IS IT, WILL?
IT'S ABOUT MY PAY CHECK - I DON'T KNOW JUST HOW TO - TO BEGIN!
YOU MEAN - YOU LOST IT?!
YES - I - I LOST IT!!
OH, THAT'S - ALL RIGHT, DEAR - WE CAN MANAGE - SOME, HOW! BUT - HOW DID YOU LOSE IT?
- ON - THE - HORSES!

MICKEY FINN — See What Mickey Calls "Special Duty"—This Sunday. — By Lank Leonard

DONALD DUCK— Dressed for Dinner — By Walt Disney



DON WINSLOW OF THE NAVY — The One and Only — By Frank Martinek

LIPPO! CONFOUND YOU — GET ME OUT OF THESE SHABBY, HOT TOGS--
YES, MASTER
PULL, YOU IMP, PULL-- ARE YOU TRYING TO SUFFOCATE THE GHOUL?
FIRST THE DUSTER AND NOW ALI BEN RUNS AFOUL OF THE NAVAL INTELLIGENCE-- FOOLS! BLOCKHEADS! CAN'T I FIND ONE AGENT WITH BRAINS LIKE MYSELF?
IT'S PLENTY DARK, SKIPPER-- SAFE ENOUGH NOW FOR A CLOSE-UP OF THAT OLD MAUSOLEUM
OKAY, RED--- WE'LL GET THE REAL DOPE ON THAT HAG IN THE BLACK VEIL!

Listen to Don Winslow on the air today—WMAL—4:30 P. M.

DIXIE DUGAN — Dixie's Pa Misses the Hollywood Beauties—Sunday. — By J. P. McEvoy and H. I. Striebel

GEE, TOM—I THINK THAT INSPECTOR KINDA RUSHED THINGS—I'LL BET THERE'S A LOTTA PLACES HE COULD'VE TOOK US WHERE WE MIGHTA FOUND OUT SUMPIN'!
LET'S MOSEY AROUND BY OURSELVES! —HE'LL NEVER KNOW!!
WE DON'T LIKE STRANGERS COMIN' IN HERE ASKIN' QUESTIONS!
LET'S THROW 'EM OUT!
SOCK! WHAM OOOF! CRASH
THEY'RE WRECKIN' MY JOINT!
SEND THE WAGON!

JOE PALOOKA — See How Joe Starts His Vacation in Sunday's Post. — By Ham Fisher

AND I'M TERRIBLY AFRAID, TOO, DIXIE — IT'S BEEN BOTHERING ME A LOT, LATELY!!
DARLINGS — WHAT IS THE MATTER?
NEVER KEEP NUTHIN' FROM YER PARENTS!
NOW, WHAT IS THIS YOU'RE TERRIBLY AFRAID OF?
WE KIN HELP YOU.
WE'VE BEEN TERRIBLY AFRAID YOU'LL WANT TO BE GOING HOME SOON
AND - AND WE DON'T WANT TO GO — JUST YET!

NED BRANT—A Story of College Athletics — By Bob Zuppke, Famous Football Coach.

HEY, WOLF — WHERE YOU BOUND FOR?
TO BUY SOME CITY CLOTHES, BUD
HOLD IT A SECOND AND I'LL HELP YOU PICK THEM OUT
SURE - GLAD TO HAVE YOUR ADVICE
SAY, WHEN I GET THROUGH, HE'LL LOOK LIKE A BARBER POLE
LIKE THIS ONE, BUD?
TOO CONSERVATIVE, WOLF - LET'S SEE SOMETHING WITH A LITTLE PEP IN IT!

BENNY — Hold Everything, Benny — By J. Carver Pusey

C'MON GIVE US THE STORY, JOE.
LISSEN, FELLAS, I AINT GOT TIME. MISS BILLINGSLEY'LL GIVE IT TO YA.
I'LL GIVE YA A STORY BOYS.
HEY JOE!
TCH-TCH. I GOTTA GIT OUTA HERE.
DID THE SHEIK WANT TO MARRY YOU?
YOU CAN IMAGINE MY FEELING WHEN I SUDDENLY SAW JOE FROM MY WINDOW IN THE HAREM.
HOW ABOUT THE LOVE ANGLE? GIVE US THE STUFF ON THAT.

World Notice Affords Hull Cause for Hope

London, Paris Hail Speech Asking Efforts to Build for Peace.

World-wide attention accorded his demand that efforts to establish enduring peace replace dangerous, warlike policies gave Secretary Hull reason yesterday to hope that international justice may yet replace force in the settlement of conflicts.

Comment studied by the State Department revealed that Hull's warning that the world's governments cannot much longer escape choosing between peace and war, was received with totalitarian contempt and democratic enthusiasm. The Secretary, however, was gratified by the solemn attention evidenced equally by Tokyo's brand of "idealist" and fulsome applause in Paris and London.

French and British opinion, both private and official, hailed Hull's seven proposals for world amity as indicating a stronger tendency of American abandonment of isolation, which would mean coming mightily to rescue them from the menace of Nazi and Fascist ambition.

Hailed in Britain.

His pronouncement that "it will soon no longer be possible for some nations to choose and follow the way of force and for other nations at the same time to choose and follow the way of reason" meant to British commentators that America cannot hold herself aloof from "extending moral authority in a war of principles."

The London Telegraph suggested that the United States "seize one of the great opportunities of history" and plunge forthwith into the European situation, "without the preliminary reservation that her own co-operation must be without definite commitments." Unless this was done, the Telegraph feared, Hull's appeal was "in danger of remaining a pious aspiration."

"America's Warning to the Totalitarian States" was the headline most widely used in Paris newspapers. A foreign office spokesman declared "the speech shows that the leaders of America's foreign policy are alive to the dangers in Europe—we hope other nations will see the same lesson that we do." High officials chorused that "the sentiments Hull expresses are those of France."

Fascists Displeased.

Italians generally were unmoved, because the semiofficial news agency Stefani did not distribute the address to Italian newspapers. Fascist officials, however, evinced displeasure. They read into the speech an attack on the "have-not powers."

The Japanese foreign office spokesman dismissed Hull as an idealist "voicing idealistic diplomacy" and said his program for international order would receive no support from Tokyo. Most important, to the Japanese mind, was the indication that America could remain no longer aloof. Otherwise, "this was a repetition . . . which contains nothing not included in recent pronouncements."

A resentful totalitarian lecture came from Berlin, where the official organ of the foreign office, Duetsche Diplomatisch Politische Korrespondenz, rebuked Hull for "a narrow mental horizon."

"Moral Preacher."

"Hull is following the present line of American foreign policy which continues to move away from the much vaunted American non-intervention in the affairs of other states and particularly foreign continents," the article said.

"Its endeavors to act the role of moral preacher to the rest of the world are becoming more evident.

"It is impossible to overlook in Hull's speech a notable failure to understand the causes and developments of affairs outside the United States.

"To extol ideals of individual liberty as a panacea for all the ills of the world is evidence of a narrow mental horizon which is hardly calculated to attract other peoples.

"U. S. Refused Treaties."

"But one needs hardly remind Hull that it was his own country that was the first that refused to be bound to the so-called peace treaties, thereby, at least in the past, keeping aloof from their evil spirit."

In Rumania only the semidemocratic newspaper Timpual and the democratic Lumea Romanesca had editorials on Hull's speech.

Timpual said that Hull's "categorical words are more valuable to the world than all the fugitive assurances or political and military maneuvers of certain nations."

No Hungarian or Yugoslav newspapers commented.

Woodward Hudson Dies.

Concord, Mass., Aug. 17 (AP).—Woodward Hudson, 80, former president of the Boston & Maine Railroad, died at his home today following a long illness.

G. O. P. Candidate

Harris & Ewing.

JOHN D. SADLER, of Montgomery County, who has filed for the Republican nomination to the House of Delegates.

Funeral Rites Of Dunnington Set Tomorrow

Retired Land Office Aide and Survey Expert Served U. S. 50 Years.

Services for Abner Fay Dunnington, 73, of 1317 Rhode Island avenue northwest, retired Land Office official and survey expert, will be held at 11 a. m. tomorrow at Hines' funeral home, 2901 Fourteenth street northwest. Interment will follow at Rock Creek Cemetery.

Mr. Dunnington, who died Monday at Arkhaven, Md., was a native of Washington, and one of the first graduates from Central High School.

At 18, Mr. Dunnington first joined the Government service. He soon became a member of the Geological Survey, and served 50 years, to become assistant chief of the Survey Division, Land Office. He spent many years mapping out the Indian Reservation, including the famed Oklahoma Cherokee strip.

He leaves his wife, Mrs. Ellen N. Dunnington; two sons, Clyde C. and Frank; a daughter, Mrs. Walter Conway, and four sisters, Mrs. Ellen Nottingham, Mrs. Lillian Otterback, Mrs. Nelson Gapen and Miss Blanche Dunnington, all of Washington.

Mr. Dunnington was a member of Lebanon Lodge, No. 7; La Fayette Chapter, Orient Commandery and the Shrine.

Mrs. J. F. Du Hamel Is Dead in Hospital

Mrs. Lola Young Du Hamel, wife of James F. Du Hamel, patent attorney, died yesterday at Walter Reed Hospital. She was 65.

The daughter of the late Joseph Nicholas Young and Joanna Howie Young, Mrs. Du Hamel was born at Giesboro Manor, D. C., and had lived in Washington all her life.

Besides her husband, who is prominent in civic activities, Mrs. Du Hamel leaves a son, Lieut. Col. Notley Y. Du Hamel, U. S. A.; two daughters, Mrs. George J. Newgarden, jr., and Mrs. Albert H. Burton, both wives of Army officers; two sisters, Mrs. I. S. K. Reeves and Miss Sarah T. Young of Washington, and a brother, George W. Young, of Milwaukee, Wis.

Requiem mass will be sung at St. Matthew's Church tomorrow at 10 a. m. Burial will be in Mount Olivet Cemetery.

Mrs. Wallace, Wife of Trade Adviser, Dies

Music Expert Succumbs to Long Illness Here at Age of 47.

Mrs. Katharine Seelye Wallace, wife of Benjamin Bruce Wallace, adviser on international trade policies to the Tariff Commission, died yesterday at her home, 3112 South Dakota avenue northeast, after a long illness. She was 47.

Mrs. Wallace was born at Wooster, Ohio, where her father, Dr. James Seelye, was for 20 years professor of Greek at the College of Wooster.

She took her A. B. at Wooster and was graduated there in piano in 1910 and in the organ in 1913. For two years after finishing college she taught Latin in Wooster High School and the next three years was teacher of vocal music at Tsing Hua College, built with Boxer indemnity funds near Peiping, China.

Returning to the United States, Mrs. Wallace spent three years in the further study of music at the Institute of Musical Art, now Juillard Institute of Music, in New York City, and with private teachers, Winifred Christie and Clarence Dickinson. During this time she served also as organist and choir director in two churches near New York.

In 1919 she became instructor in the School of Music of the University of Illinois. She founded the Chorus Choir of the Congregational Church of Urbanna, Ill.

For five years, Mrs. Wallace was organist and choir director in historic Christ Church at Alexandria, Va., and at the same time trained the choir of the Baptist Church there. She appeared in Washington in piano recitals from time to time before several musical organizations and taught music appreciation at the Washington Y. W. C. A.

In 1929 she went with her husband, whom she married in 1922, to China, where he was financial adviser to the minister of finance and was stationed in Shanghai and Nanking. Living in China two and one-half years, she taught English in the Mary Farnum School for Girls and the Lowrie Institute for Boys.

So great was her interest in China that Mrs. Wallace asked before her death that friends who intended sending flowers contribute, instead, to the China civilian relief fund of the American Red Cross. Her family said last night they concurred in this wish.

Surviving are her husband, her mother, Mrs. William J. Seelye, and a brother, Laurens Seelye, president of St. Lawrence University at Canton, N. Y.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow at 5:30 p. m. at the home. Burial will be private.

Adolph Lewisohn, Philanthropist, Dies at Saranac

Saranac Lake, N. Y., Aug. 17 (AP).—Adolph Lewisohn, 89, wealthy New York investment broker and philanthropist, died today at his summer home on Upper Saranac Lake.

Lewisohn, a native of Germany, who came to this country 68 years ago, was president of the firm of Adolph Lewisohn & Sons, in New York City, and headed numerous mining concerns, including the Tennessee Corporation, the Central Development Co., Miami Copper Co. and the South American Gold & Platinum Co.

He made a number of large gifts to educational and charitable institutions. Among these was a gift of $300,000 to Columbia University and the Lewisohn Stadium of the College of the City of New York.

He was president of the Hebrew Guardian Society, chairman of the New York State prison survey committee and chairman of the Y. M. C. A. national thrift committee.

Rites Tomorrow For Shannahan, Railways' Chief

Funeral services for John N. Shannahan, once president of the Washington, Baltimore & Annapolis Electric Railroad Co., will be held tomorrow at Hamnton, Va.

Mr. Shannahan, who made his home in Indianapolis, died late Tuesday at Belgrade Lake, Maine. He was 66 years old.

Born in Troy, N. Y., Mr. Shannahan was educated at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute there. In addition to the position he held with the Washington, Baltimore & Annapolis road, Mr. Shannahan had once headed the Virginia Public Service Co. and the Omaha & Council Bluffs Street Railroad.

Since January, 1933, he had been president of the Midland United and Midland Utilities holding companies. He had also headed the Indiana Railroad and the Chicago, South Shore & South Bend Railroad. He was a former president of the American Transit Co. and former director of the United States Chamber of Commerce.

His wife, son and a daughter survive.

Joseph B. Sparks, U.S. Employe, Dies

Joseph B. Sparks, 66, United States Engraving and Printing Bureau employe, died yesterday at his home, 2505 Bunker Hill road northeast. He had been ill two months.

Mr. Sparks, who lived here 30 years, is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Donna May Mulquin, Mrs. Clara Belle Moore and Emma J. Sparks, all of Washington.

Services will be held Saturday at 11 a. m. in the S. H. Hines Co. funeral home, 2901 Fourteenth street northwest. Burial will follow in Cedar Hill Cemetery.

Funeral Mass Said For Father Walsh

Funeral mass for the Very Rev. Francis Augustine Walsh, O. S. B., regent of St. Anselm's Priory and profesor of philosophy at Catholic University, was said yesterday in National Shrine of Immaculate Conception. Father Walsh, 54, died last Friday.

In a eulogy, the Very Rev. Ignatius Smith, O. P., dean of the School of Philosophy, said Father Walsh in his administrative work was "eminently fair, deeply sympathetic within human limitations and courageous and kindly in direction."

As a professor, "he shone with singular effulgence for the wide range of his learning, the versatility, enthusiasm and simplicity of presentation and the progressive development of his scientific and philosophical knowledge," Father Smith declared.

E. M. Daniels Dies; Son of Late Senator

Edward Murrell Daniel, 55, lawyer, son of the late John W. Daniel, Senator from Virginia for 24 years, died Tuesday night of a heart ailment at Gallinger Hospital.

A native of Lynchburg, Va., Mr. Daniel leaves two daughters, Mrs. C. Carroll, of Mobile, Ala., and Miss Warwick Daniel, of 2034 Twentieth street northwest.

Edward Huse, Printing Chief, Is Dead at 72

Supervisor of Congressional Record Is Victim of Pneumonia.

Edward A. Huse, night production manager of the Government Printing Office and printing supervisor of the Congressional Record, died last night at Sibley Hospital of pneumonia. He was 72.

EDWARD HUSE, production manager.

Born in Newburyport, Mass., Mr. Huse entered printing office service at 24. He served as compositor, proofreader, referee and foreman, and 14 years ago was appointed night manager.

So highly was he commended by members and officers of the House and Senate for his efficient publication of the Congressional Record, that on his retirement age, December 22, 1930, President by executive order extended the retirement date for Mr. Huse. He still held the post at the time of his death.

A. E. Giegengack, public printer, declared yesterday that Mr. Huse had been "courteous, conscientious, possessed of a high sense of justice, a good stock of common sense and a pleasing personality, and his position would be hard to fill not only from the standpoint of his official duties, but also in the hearts of his fellow executives and employes of the night force."

Survivors are the wife, Jessie L. Huse; three sons, Kenneth and Donald, of Rochester, N. Y., and Emery, of Los Angeles, and five grandchildren.

The body will rest from 2 to 7 p. m. today at Hysong's funeral home, 1300 N street northwest. Services will be held tomorrow at 11 a. m. from the residence, 3305 Twenty-second street northeast. Burial will follow at Glenwood Cemetery.

Masonic Funeral Is Set Today for Sergeant Tracey

Masonic orders will join in final rites at 2 p. m. today for Master Sergt. Augustus Tracey, U. S. A., retired, in Arlington Cemetery, following services at the residence, 428 G street southwest. Sergt. Tracey died Monday at 75.

A native of Maryland, Sergt. Tracey enlisted in the Twentieth Infantry at 22, and later became assistant to Maj. Walter Reed during the latter's bacteriological experiment in Cuba. He retired in 1923.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Rebecca Tracey; two daughters, Mrs. William G. Newman and Mrs. Linwood E. Reed, and four grandchildren, Linwood E. Reed, jr., Tracey R. Reed, Aubrye J. Newman and Shirley M. Newman, all of Washington.

Sergt. Tracey was a member of John L. Latrobe Masonic Lodge, of Baltimore; Eureka Chapter of Masons here, the Grotto and the Junior Order of American Mechanics.

Bureau Predicts A 'Moderate' Lift In Buying Power

By the Associated Press.

The Bureau of Agricultural Economics forecast yesterday a "moderate improvement" in consumer buying power and an increased demand for farm products this fall and winter.

The bureau said a long decline in industrial activity had halted in June and an upturn had begun in July.

It noted increases in textile and steel mill activity, a rise in the stock market and additional evidence of deflation of merchandise inventories.

Police Clerk Fights With Arrested Man

Arrested on a charge of driving while drunk, Leland P. Hart, of 2214 North Albemarle street, Arlington, Va., was floored by Karl G. McCormick, station clerk at Seventh Precinct station last night when he allegedly let fly a barrage of fists while being searched. McCormick was struck in the throat and knocked down and both men were taken to Georgetown Hospital.

A charge of assault on an officer was added to that of drunken driving.

Police said they received a call to the north end of Chain Bridge, where a man was beating a woman. Arriving there the crew of the scout car found no fight but were given a license number by a bystander. They spotted the number a short time later on Wisconsin avenue northwest and took Hart into custody.

Speedy Driver Kills 3, Injures 4 in Carolina

Durham, N. C., Aug. 17 (AP).—Three persons were killed and four injured today when an automobile sped through a group of pedestrians on a road near here. Sheriff E. C. Belvin arrested Eugene M. Evans, city mail carrier, and said he would be charged with manslaughter, drunken driving, and hit and run driving.

Navy Rewards Warships for Engineering

White 'E' for Battle Fleet Is Given to the U. S. S. New Mexico.

By the Associated Press.

The Navy announced yesterday the white "E" for engineering efficiency among battleships of the battle force during the fiscal year 1938 had been awarded the U. S. S. New Mexico, of which Lieut. Comdr. H. D. Power, of Buford, Ga., is engineering officer.

A total of 34 naval vessels won places in the engineering competition in their respective groups.

Ships which stood first in their groups were permitted to display a white "E" on the smoke pipes to denote engineering efficiency. Ships standing second or third may wear a red "E."

The U. S. S. Mississippi, of which Lieut. Comdr. L. McKee, of Shelbyville, Ky., is engineering officer, won the red "E" among battleships.

The white "E" for cruisers, Scouting Force, went to the U. S. S. Tuscaloosa, Lieut. Comdr. R. E. Butterfield, Long Beach, Calif., engineering officer, and the red "E" to the Quincy, Commander C. D. Headlee, San Diego, engineering officer.

Other awards included:

The white "E" for cruisers, Battle Force, to the Cincinnati, Lieut. Comdr. R. S. Smith, jr., Roseville, Calif., engineering officer.

The white "E" in Group 1, destroyers, Battle Force, to the Goff, Lieut. (J. G.) G. H. Miller, Hammond, Ind., engineering officer.

The white "E" in Group 2, destroyers, Battle Force, to the Monongham, Lieut. H. F. Mulloy, Belmont, Mass., and Lieut. D. J. Wagner, Chicago, engineering officers; and red "Es" to the Hull, Lieut. T. O. Oberrender, jr., Dubois, Pa., engineering officer, and the Farragut, Lieut. C. Jackson, Winamac, Ind., engineering officer.

Labor Board Certifies A.F.L. Aluminum Union

By the United Press.

The National Labor Relations Board has certified the American Federation of Labor's Aluminum Workers union as exclusive bargaining agency for approximately 1,000 production and maintenance employees at the East St. Louis, Ill., plant of the Aluminum Ore Co.

NUT HARD COAL, $9.50
SPECIAL STOVE, $8.75; STOVE, $8.75; EGG, $9.50; PEA, $7.75
ANTHRACITE MINED IN VIRGINIA
We Deliver ¼ Ton and Up.
Delivered in BAGS to Your Bin
BLUE RIDGE COAL CO.
MEt. 3343 [Arkansas 1000

Established 1895
LOUIS ABRAHAMS LOANS ON JEWELRY
3300 R. I. Ave. N.E.
CASH FOR YOUR OLD GOLD
711 G St. N.W.

EDUCATIONAL Accountancy
Pace Courses: B. C. S. and M. C. S. Degrees. C. P. A. Preparation. Day and Evening Divisions; Coeducational
Send for 32nd Year Book.
BENJAMIN FRANKLIN UNIVERSITY
1100 16th Street, N. W. at L RE 2262

KEEP COOL!
in the Beautiful
AMBASSADOR POOL
ILLUMINATED—PURIFIED
Cleaner than drinking water
ADMISSION NOW
ONLY 25¢
Includes towel, soap and individual locker.
Open Daily 8:30 A.M. to 10:30 P.M.
AMBASSADOR HOTEL
Washington's Newest 500-Room Downtown Hotel . . . 14th at K

Youthful Lines for the New Silhouettes Demand
Kleinert's Reducers
Of Air-Cooled, Washable Sturdiflex
$1.25 to $3.50
You'll love the sleek fit of the new fall dresses—but it takes a streamlined figure to wear them at their best! Stepin and Talon closed reducers—lined with cotton fleece at all points of strain.
Air-Conditioned Main Floor—Toiletries Dept.—
Style D, $2
Style A, $2
Style B, $3
Style C, $1.25
Style A—Kleinert's Sturdiflex Talon-closed stepin $2
Style B—Kleinert's Sturdiflex Talon-closed all-in-one ..$3
Style C—Kleinert's Sturdiflex stepin, cotton fleece lined $1.25
Style D—Kleinert's Stardiflex stepin all-in-one $2

2 BOXES KOTEX
With Mailing Certificate Enclosed to Get
2 CANS QUEST
ALL FOR 95c
2 boxes of soft, absorbent Kotex—30 pads to the box. Mail the enclosed certificates, each of which entitles you to a can of Quest protective napkin deodorant.
Main Floor—Toiletries Dept.—The Hecht Co.
Four Floors Air-Conditioned
The Hecht Co.
F STREET AT SEVENTH
NAtional 5100

Colors to Match Your Kitchen . . .
Matching Waste Basket and Garbage Can Set
A handy, sanitary can set, consisting of an 8-quart step-on can and matching waste-basket. Attractively enameled in red, white, green or ivory.
Fifth Floor—The Hecht Co.
$1 Both for
MAIL ORDER COUPON
The Hecht Co., F Street at Seventh, Washington, D. C.
Gentlemen:
Please send me.....Step-On Can Sets at $1.00 each Set.
Name .....
Street .....City .....
( ) Cash ( ) C. O. D. ( )Charge
The Hecht Co.
F Street at Seventh NAtional 5100

All Your Gadgets At Your Fingertips In the...
ROUGH-GRAINED
Rambler
REG. U.S. PAT. OFF.
Handbag
Just about as amazing as Aladdin's lamp! Bags that look trim and neat—but they hold all of those little things you want to carry with you—and keep them in place, conveniently and compactly, too. Tailored with the fine care of much more expensive bags, fitted with zippers, pockets, coin purses, combs, mirrors—even some with leather linings!
3.00
Main Floor—Leather Goods
THE HECHT CO.
FOUR FLOORS AIR-CONDITIONED!

Scores Bull's-Eye With This 2-line Ad in The Post
EVARTS ST. NE., 26—Completely furn. 3-room apt., sink, frigidaire. Reas.
The first morning that Mrs. Gus Hoff advertised her vacant apartment in The Post, she rented it. Listing your apartment in The Post's apartment column places your apartment directly before people looking for apartments. Our Miss Joyce will help you find a tenant—call
NAtional 4200
The Result Number